The Northern Pacific Railroad.

A New York journal mentions with a kind of a shudder the fact that the failure of Jay Cooke in 1873 brought on the panic of that season, from which industries did not recover until 1879. Villard has gone under now quite as hopelessly as Cooke went in 1873. There are the same premonitions in industrial centers of excess of production which were visible then. But there are certain conditions that are not the same, with the difference in favor of the present period. In 1873 values were estimated on a greenback basis. As soon as the Government declared that greenbacks must be redeemed in coin, and fixed the date when redemption should commence, a reduction in values to the amount of the difference between gold and currency was inevitable. Enterprise languished on this account. From year to year property decreased in value in its relation to money. There is no such element of depression in the present industrial situation. There has been an excess of production in most branches of manufactures, but this was rather the result of the excessive energy which followed a long period of comparative repose than of ordinary ability to produce in excess of consumption. The brisk demand which sprang up the moment greenbacks touched par, so that no further depreciation in property was feared, caused employers to tempt laborers to unusual effort. There is another point of difference between the former collapse and the present. The Northern Pacific is now finished. It may not earn so much money as was expected, but it will build up a local traffic that will make the road reasonably profitable in the end. It is not probable that its through travel will amount to much for the present, for that travel will center in San Francisco, and come over the roads which have their termini in this city. The northern road will probably always remain a local road, but as such may be a good investment. The population tributary to it is now small, but will increase year by year. A portion of the country through which the road passes is rich in natural resources, though the climate is against it. People like to live where they can live comfortably, and the impression is getting about that there is more solid comfort to the square inch in California than in any other place in the world.—S. F. Call.

Where the Sun Jumps a Day.

Chatham Island, lying off the coast of New Zealand, in the South Pacific Ocean, is peculiarly situated, as it is one of the habited spots of the globe where the day of the week changes. It is just in the line of demarcation between dates. The high 12 on Sunday at noon ceases, and instantly Monday meridian begins. Sunday comes into a man's house on the east side and becomes Monday by the time it passes out the western door. A man sits down to his noonday dinner on Sunday, and it is Monday before he finishes it.

That Saturday is Sunday and Sunday is Monday, and Monday suddenly becomes transferred into Tuesday. It is a good place for people who have lost much time, for by taking an early start they can always get a day ahead on Chatham Island. It took philosophers and geographers a long time to settle the puzzle of where Sunday noon ceased and where Monday began, with a man traveling west fifteen degrees an hour, or with the sun. It is hoped that the next English Arctic expedition will settle the other mooted question: "Where will one stop who travels northwest continually?"

THE Duke of Wellington once met by accident an officer in a state of inebriety. "Look here, sir," said the Iron Duke, "what would you do if you met one of your men in the condition in which I find you?" The Colonel drew himself up, gave the military salute, and replied with great gravity, "I would not condescend to say a word to the brute." His wit saved his commission.

Aerial Navigatiou.

The scientific discoveries lately made concerning the possibility of the moon being the next great field for emigration suggest an examination of the possibil- of aerial locomotion.

Who has not felt a longing, on seeing the distant mountains, to use that universally present medium, the air, and transport himself from summit to summit, without having to wearily traverse the intervening and perhaps uninteresting ground? Next in order of importance to food in the supply of human wants is air. Most of us have plenty of it, such as it is. But we want the means to change it quickly. Sometimes, in hot summer drys, we want to cool our heated frames by the mountain and the sea, but cannot afford either the time or money. But if we could take our private machine on the roof and start it up a thousand feet or so in the air, our object would be realized in a few minutes. Strange as it may seem, it is yet a fact that now, at last, after more than a century of repeated experiments and failures, a Minnesota genius appears to have solved the problem. He is a machinist at Duluth, near which city an experiment was made recently. The power was attained by the use of slow burning explosives, which generated gas as needed to work an engine on a pressure of from 3,000 to 6,000 pounds per square inch. The machine, including all appurtenances, weighed 122 pounds, besides 20 pounds of explosives. At least one-quarter of this weight was considered unnecessary. A boy weighing 34 pounds got into it, and the machine, which was confined to a line, was permitted to rise to a height of about 140 feet, the pressure being about 3,500 pounds to the square inch. Of course many difficulties to the extension of this mode of locomotion have yet to be overcome, and some dangers may be expected to arise in connection with the explosive and high pressure necessary; but indications are that the first effective step has been taken fo utilize the air as a means of transportation, and a monopoly against which the waves of popular indignation have hitherto beaten in vain, may yet be crumbled into dust by the scientist and inventor.—Agent's Herald.

The Hot Water Remedy.

The London Lancet contains an exhaustive article on the "Therapeutical Drinking of Hot Water; its Origin and its Use." The article is written by Dr. Ephriam Cutter, an eminent physician of New York city, and contains some statements and suggestions which, to say the least, are certainly worthy of attention. Dr. Cutter says that the first use made of hot water as a medicine or "health regulator," was made by Dr. James H. Salisbury, of New York, who, by a series of experiments on men and various animals, demonstrated its efficacy. In his article Dr. Cutter gives directions for the proper use of the water. In the first place it must be hot, i. e., not less than 110 nor more than 150 degrees Fahrenheit. This excites proper action of the digestive organs. Cold water depresses and lukewarm water causes vomiting. For diarrhœa the hotter the water the better. For hemorrhages it should be at a blood heat. The quantity of hot water drank varies from one-half pint to a pint and one-half, according to the condition of the patient and the disease treated. The hot water should be taken one or two hours before each meal, and half an hour before retiring. This gives the water time to operate before the food enters the stomach or sleep comes. The water should be sipped slowly, and the swallowing of half a pint should take half an hour. It takes six months to wash out the liver and intestines thoroughly. If the hot water seems "flat," flavorings, such as lemon, sage or ginger, should be added. The effects of the drinking are noticed in the improved feelings of the patient. The perspiration is free. The digestion improves, thirst disappears and there is no longer a craving for liquor. Taken as a whole, from Dr. Cutter's estimate, the hot-water treatment is the most complete remedy yet discovered for all the evils flesh is heir to.

PROFESSOR LEWIS SWIFT, of the Rochester Observatory, contends that the comet now in sight and which had a single tail in 1812, now exhibits a double tail. He adds that it is undergoing changes as it approaches the sun. The same authority asserts that the red sunsets are due to extraneous matter which comes into our atmosphere and refracts the red rays of the sun. Prof. Swift is not prepared to say what that matter is, though he maintains that it is not a resultant of volcanoes or earthquakes. When astronomers disagree who shall decide?

IT is said to be the proper caper in London now to watch sunrises and sunsets. The gorgeous pyrotechnics to which Old Sol has lately treated us may have something to do with the new mania, and the furor may be of short duration, but all the same the reflection forces itself upon us that Dame Fashion does occasionally evolve something sensible. If for only once in a lifetime, it is good to watch a glorious sunrise or sunset for the sake of the higher thoughts such a scene is sure to inspire.

MR. R. W. JENKINS, of Ceylon, reports that in the mountain districts of that island the volcanic explosions of Krakatoa were distinctly heard, though 2,000 miles distant. The sounds resembled those of heavy cannon at a distance of a few miles, or dynamite rock-blasting a mile or so away. Prof. R. A. Proctor supposes that the sound-waves were conveyed through the earth's crust and not through the air.

Late News Items.

A company with $2,500,000 capital is preparing to drain 1,000,000 acres of land in Cameron, Calcasieu and Vermillion, in the southwest corner of Louisiana, and to make a Gulf front of 100 miles of agricultural lands between Lake Charles and Sabine Pass. Steam plows for the work have arrived from England, capable of plowing fifty acres a day.

The railroad bridge over the St. Lawrence from Morrisburg to Waddington is to be two and one-half miles long, and will cross the St. Lawrence Canal with a swinging bridge 338 feet long. The city of Ottawa agrees to pay $350,000 of the cost, if the Railroad Company will make a wagon road on the bridge.

A syndicate of stock men is engaged in fencing into ranges a tract of 6,000,000 acres, leased from the Cherokees for five years, at an annual rental of $100,000. It is believed that 1,000,000 head of cattle will be placed on the inclosed ground by April 1st.

A circular is posted in the coke region of Pennsylvania denouncing the introduction of Hungarian laborers, who, it is alleged, are crowding out other laborers, refuse to become citizens, and go back home as soon as they con save a little money.

The Government of Canada is making inquiry into the statement that two of its citizens who had deserted from the United States army, were seized upon Canadian soil and taken to a military station in Minnesota.

The Elmira Gazette of Otsego county, Michigan, appeared lately with black turned rules, but no reading matter on a couple of pages. Under the title is the brief but pathetic line, "Pied, by thunder!"

A couple in Springfield, Mass., made an economical bridal trip. They bade adieu to their friends on one side of the train and stepped off the other side and into Springfield hotel.

The South Carolina Legislature has made an appropriation of $10,000 for a display of the resources of the State at the coming World's Cotton Exposition at New Orleans.

While Senator Morrill is trying to have all our minor coinage made of nickel, the people of Mexico have risen in rebellion against coins of that metal.

An effort is to be made to induce the Connecticut Legislature to repeal the low compelling passenger trains to stop at drawbridges.

At Toronto, Canada, a store keeper has been fined $20 and costs for selling chances to guess at the number of beans in a bottle for prizes.

The oldest distributor of newspapers in Philadelphia has sold out the route which he held for forty-eight years.

The city of Savannah, Ga., is in financial difficulties, and to aid it the Mayor has relinquished $500 of his salary.

There is said to be almost a million dollars of unclaimed deposits in the Massachusetts savings banks.

A St. Paul physician was recently fined $20 for failing to report a case of diphtheria.

The prohibition movement in Little Rock, Arkansas, has collapsed.

St. Paul is to have a $1,000,000 hotel next Spring.

THE principal entertainment at a recent "garden party" at Santa Barbara was a "doughnut race," prizes being awarded to the four persons who first succeeded in eating the doughnuts as presented to them attached to a string suspended from a line and agitated by some friend tugging at the the end, all hands being carefully tied behind their backs. Nine ladies and gentlemen bobbed for the doughnuts, and the effect is said to have been "funny—very, very funny."

WORK ON MINING CLAIMS.

A contemporary adduces the following, which we reproduce believing it a correct and reliable interpretation of the mining law as affecting assessment work:

Work done outside the limit of a mining claim, with intent to hold it, must have direct relation to such claim and be in reasonable proximity to it. Roads, trails and other necessary work may be included in the estimate of the yearly expenditure.

Work done outside a claim for the purpose of prospecting or developing it, is as available for holding the claim as if done within the boundaries of the claim itself.

Where one person or company owns several contiguous claims capable of being worked together, one general system may be adopted to work such claims; and work done according to such system for the purpose of prospecting or working all such contiguous claims, although done on only one of such claims, or even outside of all of them, is available to hold all such contiguous claims intended to be worked or prospected by such general system.

THE beef tea tipple, now all the rage in the east, hss reached Omaha on its way West. An Omaha reporter received enlightenment from a seller of drinks to the following extent: "Since the early part of last Fall there has been a demand for beef tea at this bar. At first we laughed at the idea of going to the trouble of making it, but now we laugh because we do make it. We sell over 100 drinks per day, and as it is a 15-cent drink there is no reason why we should not smile. Who drinks it, do you say? Why, everybody; the man about town, who has been out with the boys, comes here in the morning and calls for beef tea; the business man comes in the afternoon and braces his system with beef tea; the temperance man who drops in with a bibulous friend, takes beef tea; and, in fact, is becoming a slave to the mixed bovine. The sick even are very sensibly forsaking the drug stores and coming here for beef tea, preferring it to the nauseating mixtures put up by the druggist and ordered by the family physician. Why, if the tea holds out, we will wreck every drug store in the city. The possibilities from this are many. Beef tea is at once a tonic and food. It does not corrode the stomach and fire the brain. It does not madden, and yet it exhilarates and strengthens. Hail to the drink of the future! Hail, beef tea!"

THE suggestion has been made that the proper way to settle the Mormon question would be to divide Utah Territory between Nevada, Colorado, Idaho and Arizona. It is possible that Congress will give this proposition consideration. Some such radical measuse will have to be adopted to get rid of of polygamy. The Mormon leaders will not relinquish it until compelled to do so by the enactment of laws more stringent than have yet been passed to meet the case.

MINERS' wages in Germany average from $12 to $15 a month; in Mexico from $18 to $20 per month, and in Colorado from $2 to $4 per pay—or from $60 to $120 per month. In Nevada and in Mono and Inyo counties, California miners' wages are $4 per day; in El Dorado and Placer, $2 to $2 50; in San Bernardiuo, $2 50 to $3, and in some of the Coast Range mines, $1 50 and board.

IT is proposed to divide this State into two Federal Court Districts. The proposition is good. Iowa, with only one-third the area of California, is thus divided and the necessity is not nearly as great as here. This accommodation will greatly lessen the demand for a new State to be manufactured out of South California and Arizona.

GEN. HANCOCK'S reception everywhere on the Pacific Coast has been warm and cordial, and nowhere has it partaken of a partisan character, but has been the free and generous homage of the people to a prominent man, soldier and official of the Republic.

THE year 1883 went out as it came in, with riot and disaster. The row in a Vienna church, ending in bloodshed and murder gave the year a gory close. Here's wishing 1884 better luck.

IT is reported that Blaine, Grant and Conkling have harmonized their differences for the coming Presidential struggle, and that Blaine will be the standard-bearer.

SUMNER'S POSTAL TELEGRAPH BILL.

Congressman Sumner will, at the earliest possible day, introduce a postal telegraph bill which provides for the construction of new lines into every town in the United States containing four hundred inhabitants or more, south of the northernmost boundary of Washington Territory. Separate provision is made for a line to Alaska. The rates proposed are ten cents for each ten words or less, exclusive of the address and signature, and five cents for each additional ten words or less. The telegraph system is to be put under the direction of an official to be created and designated as the Fourth Aasistant Postmaster General. The duties of the office shall be under the general supervision of the Postmaster General, it being required, however, that the chief of the telegraph bureau shall be a competent electrician. Funds for the construction of telegraph lines are to be obtained by the sale of United States bonds, bearing three per cent. interest, in amounts not exceeding $50 each, redeemable in twenty years from date of issue, and payable in thirty years. The cities at which the interest is made payable are New York, Chicago and San Francisco. Postmasters are authorized to act as agents for the sale of such bonds.

The eighth section of the bill provides that the Postmaster General shall cause to be issued postal telegraph cards of the denominations of ten and fifteen and twenty cents each, on one side of which word spaces shall be ruled for the writing of postal telegraph messages. These postal-telegraph cards may be deposited in any letter-box on a letter-carrier route, or in any letter-post box at a postoffice where there is a postal-telegraph connection, and if the number of words written does not exceed the number paid for by the purchaser of the card the Postmaster shall order them dispatched in the order in which they are received. This will enable persons desiring to pay telegraph rates to deposit messages with as little trouble as a postal card is now sent.

The ninth section places the money order system now in operation in the Postoffice Department at the service of the telegraph bureau. The Postmaster General is also authorized to contract with the owners of telegraph lines or telegraph cables which extend from the United States to foreign countries to forward messages to or from the United States. Such are the principal provisions of the bill, as summarized by the San Francisco Call. Other sections are devoted to details of construction, right of way, the right to cut timber necessary for stations and workshops, etc.

The paper above referred to concludes that Mr. Sumner's bill is distinctly in the interests of the people. It provides for a telegraph service on the same principle as that upon which the mail service is now being conducted. Rates are fixed to cover expenses as near as may be, and the Postmaster General may reduce rates when in his judgment the revenue warrants such a step. The issuing of bonds in denominations of not over $50 is an excellent provision. It will enable persons of small means to make safe investments and yet obtain some interest on their money. These bonds would at all times be worth their face and accrued interest in money. The word "gold" does not appear in the bill. Bonds and interest are payable in lawful money. There is no attempt to create a favored class of investors at the expense of any kind of money the United States declares to be lawful. The people have as good a right to a telegraph service at cost as they have to a mail service at corresponding rates. The telegraph is now doing a large portion of the business once done by mail, and is to all intents and purposes a part of a complete mail system. The bill does not propose to purchase existing lines of telegraph. The question as to the right of the Government to compete with private parties in this business is not of course discussed in a bill. The right to accommodate the public is assumed.

SEVERAL Courts in the Eastern States have admitted Chinamen to citizenship, and others have refused to do so on tenable grounds, which are adduced by Judge Truax, of the Supreme Court of New York. Joses Pasoz, a Chinaman with a Spanish name, made application before Judge Truax to be admitted to the rights of citizenship, which were denied him. Judge Truax held that the act of Congress of February, 1875, amending section 2169 of the revised statutes by inserting the words, "being free white persons," excludes the Mongolian race from the benefit of the act providing for citizenship in the United States. The act of May, 1882, also, Judge Truax declares, forbids any federal or State Court to admit a Chinaman to the rights of American citizenship. It is to be hoped that the Courts all over the United States will have their attention called to this decision.

ABSENT.

It is only justice to him and our patient readers to state the fact that the new INYO INDEPENDENT man has been absent during the entire week, which will readily account for the shortcomings of this issue. Mr. Glenn is at Hawthorne, rapidly arranging for his return to and permanent location in this place. According to the best judgment of the writer hereof, based upon his knowledge of the situation, he predicts that THE INDEPENDENT will soon become one of the leading local papers of the State, and as an exponent of the interests of Inyo it should receive the heartiest support of every man identified with the county.

Inyo.

Inyo is the third largest county in the State, but owing principally to its isolated situation, the development of its natural resources has been retarded somewhat until the last few years. However, a fresh impulse has been given by the Carson and Colorado Railroad which is now in progress of construction. It already extends to Keeler, and, probably, will be continued to Darwin, down the Darwin Wash, and Panamint Valley and ultimately into Death Valley. It is probable that the county will never figure conspicuously as an agricultural district, as it is visited by severe frosts, although it will undoubtedly be able to furnish sufficient products for home consumption. Within the last year, bee-keeping has attained considerable importance as a new industry. The interest which is destined to make Inyo county valuable is that of mining. Its mineral wealth is extensive in quantity and variety, comprising principally gold, silver, salt, borax and sulphur. The smelting of silver-lead ore has been the leading industry of the county; valuable discoveries have been made which betoken a new era of prosperity. By the introduction of improved machinery, mines which hitherto were considered worthless are destined to become profitable investments. On December 10th the Owens River Mining and Smelting Company started its furnaces under favorable conditions and two large mills are now in process of construction. The mines have not as yet been sunk to any considerable depth and the results of further activity are at present matters of speculation.—S. F. Examiner.

Far away Inyo—the most diversified county in California from a topographical standpoint—while it did not achieve extraordinary progress in 1883, yet more than held its own. There were several new and important discoveries in the Cerro Gordo mining district, which attracted no little attention at the time they were made, and prospected finely. The principal mines in the county, from which over $20,000,000 in bullion have been extracted, are yet worked successfully, and in 1883 several hundred miners found employment in them at good wages. In Owens Valley the wheat, barley, oat and corn crops were in excess of former years and brought remunerative prices. The assessed value of the taxed real estate has increased 10 per cent. and with improvements, is estimated at $350,000 Personal property has also augmented in value and will show fully $500,000 on the next assessment roll. With a favorable winter and spring a most prosperous future is anticipated.—S. F. Chronicle.

ONE of the grounds on which the Mormons claim immunity from interference with their affairs is that they simply live according to their religion, and that any action on the part of the United States Government to correct their abominable habits would be religious persecution. A sillier or falser reason than this could not be thought of. The Utah polygamists do not live according to their alleged revelation of a new religion, but in direct opposition to it. The Book of Mormon, which was the original scripture of this sect in this country, directly forbids polygamy. It is the book copyrighted by Joseph Smith, as the author and proprietor, on June 11, 1829, but set forth by him to his disciples as a revelation of divine writings. It was printed at Palmyra, N. Y., by E. B. Grandin, in 1830. The polygamists have bought up as many as possible of these original copies of Smith's Book of Mormon and destroyed them.

THERE has been remarkable activity at all the land offices on this coast in entering government lands since the publication of the report of the Secretary of the Interior, in which he presents good reasons for the material modification of the homestead law and the repeal of the pre-emption and other acts by which title to government land can be obtained. There is an evident disposition to take advantage of the present liberal laws while they remain in force.

AMONG the scientific results of his Greenland expedition, Baron Nordenskjold mentions the discovery that, contrary to the general belief, the west coast of Greenland is washed by cold water, while a greatly heated current coming from the south runs along the east coast at a short distance only from the shore. This current must exercise a great influence on the climate of the east coast, which may be more moist, but in the Baron's opinion not colder than of the west coast.

INFORMATION has been received at Paradise Valley that Henry Mandel, employed by the Flume Company, perished on the desert between the terminus of the Carson and Colorado Railroad and Calico mining district. He attempted to make the trip on foot, without a supply of water and without a knowledge of the country, and it is presumed lost his way, became overcome with the cold and laid down to die.—Reno Gazette, Dec. 20th.

ROLL OF HONOR.—Following is the December Roll of Honor for the Bishop Creek public school, Mrs. H. H. Welsh, Principal, Miss Carrie Stoutenborough, Assistant: Primary Department—Charles Parker, Effie Parker, Ida Plumley, Lois Plumley, May Matlack, Claude Inman, Leslie Horton, Irene Gill, Frankie Shaw, Fred. Bigham. Grammar Department; 85 per cent minimum: Class A—Nannie Sherwin, 92; Ben Yandell, 90; L. Eagley, 90; Jennie Yandell, 85. B Class; minimum, 80 per cent—Hattie Van Epps, 90; Louis Clark, 89; Nellie Ford, 86; Emma Yandell, 85; Hattie Bulpit, 84; Katie Matlack, 83; Sadie Simpson, 82; John Meroney, 82; Ed. Bigham, 81; Ida Hughes, 81; Margie Shaw, 81; Harry White, 81; Geo. Drake, 80; Clara Chamberlin, 80.

THE FIRST.—In contrast with the first day of January of last year, which was about as stormy and blusterous on the mountains as ever experienced in this country, this New Year Day was as pleasant as could be wished for. Then occurred a great deal of work in the way of relocating abandoned mines; this year comparatively few claims have changed claimants, possibly because there wasn't quite so much hardship to be endured to get them. About 100 location blanks have been furnished by this office, and we believe that most of those were used in Cerro Gordo, Swansea, and Chrysopolis districts.

NEW DISTRICT.—Claim holders in the section of country lying immediately north of Cottonwood Creek, in the Deep Spring region propose to hold a meeting next Saturday, January 12th, for the purpose of organizing it into a new mining district. The district lies all within Mono county, its southern boundary being along the above-named creek, and quite near or directly along the line between the two counties. There are a number of very promising ledges situated within a few miles of the creek, and now that a mill is soon to be operating there, it becomes all the more necessary to have the district organized as proposed.

PATENTS RECEIVED.—Homestead patents have been received at the U. S. Land Office at Bodie for the following named persons: Leonidas A. James and William G. McCrosky, of Inyo county, and Thomas H. Bennet, of Kern county. Patent has also been received for the entry of Thomas Henning upon the New Enterprise mine, Cerro Gordo. These patents will be issued upon the surrender of the duplicate Receiver's receipts, issued at date of entry.

GOOD.—While there was no particular observance of the first day of the New Year in town in the way of calls, etc., there were some few who flopped over the proverbial new leaf in the book of life and "swore off" without the provocation of a racking headache. They are of the kind liable to "stick" during 1884.

FOR COTTONWOOD.—On New Year's Day, Smith Bros.' teams passed through town, with 16,000 pounds of machinery designed for the Greenly mill, on Cottonwood Creek, Deep Spring District.

A "SPREAD."—Independence Band of Hope gave a treat to the children of the vicinity, at the Good Templars' Hall, on New Year's Day. It was largely attended, and enjoyed by all.

RETURNED.—Miss Herrmine Thomson, who has been spending the holidays here at home, went back to Darwin on Friday, to resume charge of the school there.

NEXT MEETING.—The Board of Supervisors do not meet again until the next regular session—February 4th proximo.

MASONIC.—On next Saturday evening occurs the stated meeting of Inyo Lodge, No. 221, F. & A. M.

NEW YEAR.—The young society people of Lone Pine appear to be entitled to the confectionery as regards the success of their New Year entertainment. The ball in the evening was a sort of a joint stock affair, second bonds preferable—insomuch as the members of Lone Pine Hose Co., No. 1, conducted the exercises until 12 o'clock, midnight, and then resigned themselves to the management of the ladies—Leap Year, you know. The advent of '84 was celebrated by dancing parties at this place, Big Pine and Bishop Creek also, to the perfect enjoyment of all participating.

A NEW INSTITUTION.—Our genial old friend, Tom Boland—Supervisor Boland—as will have been noted by the new advertisements of the past three weeks, has relocated himself upon his old stamping ground on the east side of the lake. Formerly Tom was wont to be called Mayor of Swansea, and after these many years it is only meet and proper that he should take the lead at the newly established town, and accommodate everybody and the public besides with almost everything in the line of general merchandise.

TAXES.—The Sheriff's office has received and turned over to the County Treasurer taxes to the amount of $23,081, which leaves only about $6,000 unpaid. The delinquent roll is being made out, five per cent. cost being added to each assessment unpaid. The delinquency is much less than last year at this time.

SCHOOLS.—The Independence and Camp Independence schools, Mr. E. Gibbs and County Superintendent Groves, teachers, respectively, will be resumed next Monday, after the holiday vacations.

IN DEMAND.—A sudden inquiry for dwelling houses in town seems to have sprung up within the past week. Several removals and changes are spoken of as about to transpire.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 5.....1884

A REMARKABLE feature of the two satellites of Mars, which were discovered about six years ago by Prof. Asaph Hall, is the proximity of the inner one to the planet, its distance from the center of the latter body being about 6,000 miles, and from the surface less than 4,000. "If," says Prof. Newcomb, "there are any astronomers on Mars with telescopes and eyes like ours, they can readily find out whether this satellite is inhabited, the distance being less than one-sixtieth that of the moon from us."

AT a recent session of the Recorder's Court, in Fort Worth, Texas, two men were fined $2 each for selling liquor on Sunday; three $5 each for drunkenness; two $5 each for assault and battery; two $5 each for disturbing the peace; three $5 each for cursing; one $5 for gambling, and one $30 for carrying a pistol. General Sheridan will evidently be called upon soon to revise his opinion of the State. After visiting it about a dozen years ago he is reported as saying that if he owned h—l and Texas, he would let out Texas and live in t'other place.

ALIAS SUMMONS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE COUNTY of Inyo, State of California. Thomas Bastian, Plaintiff, v. The Inyo Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, Defendant. Action brought in the Superior Court in the County of Inyo, State of California, and the Complaint filed in the office of the Clerk of said County.

The People of the State of California send greeting to the Inyo Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, Defendant. You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named Plaintiff in the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this Summons—if served within this County; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days.

The said action is brought to recover of you the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars, due for work and labor done and performed and services rendered by Plaintiff for Defendant in caring for, protecting and preserving the mines, mill and water of Defendant, situated in Panamint Mining District, County of Inyo, State of California, from the Fourth day of January, 1883, to the Fifteenth day of October, 1883; all of which said work and labor done and performed and services rendered at the special instance and request of Defendent; also, for interest on said sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars at the rate of seven per cent. per annum from the Fifteenth day of October, 1883, until paid, and for costs of suit, as appears by the complaint on file herein and to which reference is here made.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, the said Plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars, interest as aforesaid, and costs of suit.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, State of California, this Sixteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 1.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY met this Eleventh day of August, 1883, a full Board being present.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo do Ordain as follows:

The following Funds are hereby established:

(1) A Fund to be known as the COUNTY SALARY FUND, which shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the salaries of all officers of the County of Inyo. All moneys derived from licenses shall be paid into the Treasury, and shall be placed to the credit of the County Salary Fund. Should the amount received from such source be insufficient it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer to transfer to said Fund from the General Expense Fund of the County such sums as may be necessary to pay said salaries as they become due.

(2) A GENERAL EXPENSE FUND, from which shall be paid the fees and mileage of jurors and witnesses, the fees of County and Township officers, for all services which are a legal charge against the County, and all such other bills as may be allowed by the Board of Supervisors under authority of law.

(3) A HOSPITAL FUND, for the purpose of maintaining a County Hospital and caring for the indigent sick and otherwise dependent poor of the County.

(4) A GENERAL ROAD FUND, from which may be paid such amounts as may be found necessary for such general road purposes in which the inhabitants of all the Districts within the County are more or less interested, or to assist weak and impoverished Districts, to be applied as the Board may order or direct.

(5) A Fund to be known as the INTEREST AND BUILDING FUND, for the payment of the principal and interest of the Inyo County Bonds, as the same may become due.

(6) A SCHOOL FUND, for the maintenance of the public schools of Inyo County.

(7) A CONTINGENT FUND, to be used for paying any indebtedness, subject to the orders of the Board of Supervisors.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 2.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY met this Eleventh day of August, 1883, a full Board being present. E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo do Ordain as follows:

The regular meetings of the Board of Supervisors must be held at Independence on the First Mondays in February, May, August and November of each year, and must continue from time to time until the business before them is disposed of.

Such other meetings must be held to canvass election returns and other purposes as provided by law or ordered by the Board.

The Board shall also meet on the first Monday of July, as a Board of Equalization, and must continue in session from time to time until the business of equalization is disposed of, not later than the fourth Monday in July.

The Board shall meet on the first Monday of October of each year, for the purpose of levying State and County taxes, and fix the rate of county licenses.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 3.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Inyo, State of California, met at Independence on the First day of October, A. D. 1883. Present—E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding. A. Spencer and Thomas Boland, and adopted the following Ordinance:

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo, State of California, do ordain as follows:

That all persons doing business within the County of Inyo shall obtain licenses from the Tax Collector of said County, as follows.

SECTION 1. Auctioneers are divided into two classes, and must obtain licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales amount to Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and upwards constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Fifty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales are less than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 2. Persons engaged in banking, loaning money at interest, or in buying or selling notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of private persons; or in buying or selling State, County or City stocks, or other evidences of State, County or City indebtedness; or stocks, or notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of incorporated companies; or in buying or selling gold dust, gold or silver bullion, or gold or silver coin, are divided into two classes, and must pay licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those doing business in the aggregate to the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter or over constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those doing business in any amount less than Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 3. From each proprietor of a billiard table, not kept exclusively for family use, for each table Five Dollars per quarter; and for a bowling alley, Fifteen Dollars per quarter for each alley; but no license must be granted for a term less than three months.

SEC. 4. For each exhibition for pay, for a theatrical performance, a caravan or menagerie, or any collection of animals, circus, or other acrobatic performance, Seven Dollars; and for each show for pay of any figures, jugglers, necromancers, magicians; wire or rope dancing, and sleight of hand exhibitions, Five Dollars for each performance. The provisions of this section do not apply to exhibitions or entertainments given for the benefit of churches, schools, or other charitable entertainments, by any amateur dramatic association or literary society of the town or district in which such exhibition or entertainment is given.

SEC. 5. Each pawn broker must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 6. Each keeper of an intelligence office must pay a license of Ten Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 7. Every person who sells spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wine in less quantities than one quart, must obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and make the following payment—

FIRST CLASS.

Those making sales to the amount of One Thousand Dollars or more as a monthly average, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those making sales of less than One Thousand Dollars per month, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 8. Every person who, at a fixed place of business, sells any goods, wares or merchandise, wines or distilled liquors, drugs or medicines, jewelry or wares of precious metals, whether on commission or otherwise (except agricultural or vinicultural productions, or the productions of any stock, dairy or poultry farm of this State, when sold by the producer thereof, and except such as are sold by auctioneers at public sale under license), and all persons who keep horses or carriages for hire (except such as are used in the transportation of goods), must obtain from the Tax-Collector, and for each branch of said business, license, and pay quarterly therefor an amount of money to be determined by the class in which such person is placed by the Tax Collector; such business to be classified and regulated by the amount of the average monthly sales made, or hiring done, and at the rates following—

FIRST CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Nine Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, and less than Twenty-five Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Four 50-100 Dollars per quarter.

THIRD CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring of less than Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, constitute the third class, and must pay a license of Three Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 9. The sale of liquors and wines by persons licensed under the preceding section must not be in less quantity than one quart measure. No license must be required of physicians, surgeons, apothecaries or chemists, for any wines or spirituous liquors they may use in the preparation of medicine.

SEC. 10. Every traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who carries a pack and vends goods, wares or merchandise other than the manufactures or productions of this State, must pay for a license Five Dollars per month; and every such traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who uses a wagon, or one or more animals, for the purpose of vending such goods, wares or merchandise of any kind, must pay for a license Fifteen Dollars per month.

SEC. 11. Every person who keeps a stallion, jack or bull, and who permits the same to be used for the purpose of propagation for hire, must annually obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and pay therefor as follows—

First—Horses that are hired for the purpose of propagation, by the season, at One Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and require a license of Seventy-five Dollars.

Second—At Seventy-five Dollars, and less than One Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and require a license of Sixty Dollars.

Third—At Fifty Dollars, and less than Seventy-five Dollars, constitute the third class, and require a license of Forty Dollars.

Fourth—At Thirty Dollars and less than Fifty Dollars, constitute the fourth class, and require a license of Twenty-five Dollars.

Fifth—At Fifteen Dollars and less than Thirty Dollars, constitute the fifth class, and require a license of Fifteen Dollars.

Sixth—At less than Fifteen Dollars, constitute the sixth class, and must pay a license of Ten Dollars.

Seventh—For each jack, Ten Dollars.

Eighth—For each bull, Ten Dollars.

A license for propagation obtained from the Tax-Collector, under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall entitle the holder thereof to the right to go into any County of this State for the purpose of propagation without further license or expense.

This Ordinance shall take effect, and be in force on and after the SEVENTEENTH day of OCTOBER, A. D. 1883

And it is hereby ordered, that this Ordinance be published for one week in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a weekly newspaper, printed and published in the County of Inyo.

E. ROBINSON, Chairman.

NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT.

A Placer Mine, Being Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, T. 28 N., R. One (1) East, San Bernardino Meridian.

No. 242.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, BODIE, CALIFORNIA, December 1, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ARTHUR W. BOWMAN, whose postoffice address is San Francisco, California, and who resides at Piedmont, in Alameda County, State of California, has by Barney H. Coleman, his agent and attorney in fact, whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office an application for a Patent in favor of him, the said Arthur W. Bowman, for the "NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," the same being a placer mining claim bearing borax in the forms of borate of lime and borate of soda, and situate, lying and being in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, and more particularly described in the plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, in Township No. 28 North, Range No. 1 East, San Bernardino B. and M.; the exterior boundary lines of the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" or placer mining claim and premises hereby sought to be patented being officially described in said plat and field notes of survey as follows, viz.: [the magnetic variation being 15 deg. 31 min East.]

Commencing at a chalk stone monument four (4) feet long and (1) foot square marked "N C B D No. 1," for "North Coleman Borate Deposit No. 1," situated in the dry bed of Death Valley, and from which "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears north fifty-three (53) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, at the distance of thirty-six (36) chains and forty-seven hundredths (47-100) of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes east, and "Winters Peak bears south seventy-two (72) degrees thirty-seven (37) minutes east; and running thence from said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No 1," hereinbefore described:

First Course—North twenty (20) chains and eighteen hundredths (18 100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 2" on gravel slope; thence, Second Course—West twenty [20] chains and forty [40 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 3" in dry bed of lake; thence, Third Course—North ten [10] chains and eight hundredths [8 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 4," in gravel slope; thence, on Fourth Course—West twenty [20] chains and seventeen hundredth [17 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 5," on margin of dry lake; thence, Fifth Course—North twenty [20] chains and seventeen hundredths [17 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 6," on gravel slope; thence, Sixth Course—West twenty [20] chains and twenty eight hundredths [28 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 7," on margin of dry lake; thence, Seventh Course—North eight [8] chains and fifty-two hundredths [52 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 8;" thence, Eighth Course—West twenty [20] chains and twenty-nine hundredths [29 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 9;" thence, Ninth Course—South eighteen [18] chains and forty-seven hundredths [47 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 10," from which the section stake in the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections seven [7] and eighteen [18] of Township twenty-eight [28] North, Range one [1] East, bears south eighty-two [82] degrees west, distant twenty-one [21] chains and thirty-eight hundredths [38 100] of a chain, and said "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears south eighty [80] degrees twenty-six [26] minutes east; thence, Tenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 10" last above described; east ten [10] chains and seventeen hundredths [17 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 11;" thence, Eleventh Course—South twenty [20] chains and seven hundredths [7 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 12;" thence, Twelfth Course—East, eleven [11] chains and sixty-three [63-100] hundredths of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 13," from which the said stake marked "N C B D No 3" bears east at the distance of thirty-nine [39] chains and five hundredth [5 100] of a chain; thence, Thirteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 13" south twenty [20] chains and thirteen hundredths [13 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 14;" thence, Fourteenth Course—East nineteen [19] chains and seventy hundredths [70 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 15" from which the said stake marked "N C B D No. 1" bears east distant thirty-nine [39] chains and eighty-seven hundredths [87 100] of a chain; thence, Fifteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 15," south twenty [20] chains and eighteen hundredths [18 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 16;" thence, Sixteenth Course—Running east thirty-nine [39] chains and seventy seven hundredths [77 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 18," from which a stone monument at the northeast corner of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine" bears south twenty-six [26] degrees forty-five [45] minutes east, distant one hundred and thirteen [113] chains and eighty-three hundredths [83 100] of a chain; and thence, Seventeenth Course—North twenty [20] chains, running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 18" to said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1," the place of commencement; containing three hundred and thirty-eight [338] acres and thirty-eight hundredths [38 100] of an acre, more or less.

The said "Mineral Monument No. 33" hereinbefore referred to, consists of a durable sandstone four [4] feet long set two [2] feet deep in the ground and being six [6] inches square at the top, whereon is securely fastened a brass plate marked "N S E W; S B M M M No 33," the same being situated on a ridge near the center of the southwest slope of the central one of three prominent buttes near the northern end of, and at the northeast side, of Death Valley, distant about seven and three-fourths (7¾) miles from the entrance of "Furnace Wash" into Death Valley.

From said "Mineral Monument No 33" a stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1" of the "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" aforesaid, bears south fifty-three [53] degrees forty-five [45] minutes west at the distance of thirty-six [36] chains and forty-seven hundredths [47-100] of a chain; a stone monument marked "C D No. 18," of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," bears south eight [8] degrees forty [40] minutes east at the distance of one hundred and forty-four [144] chains and seventy-eight hundredths [78-100] of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north 3 deg. 35 min. east; "Winters Peak bears south 70 deg. east; summit of Butte bears south 65 deg 40 min. east, distant about 113 chains, the section stake on San Bernardino Meridian between Sections seven [7] and eighteen [18] of Township twenty-eight [28] North, Range one [1] East bears north eighty-three [83] degrees twelve [12] minutes west distant one hundred and thirty-two [132] chains and seventy six hundredths [76 100] of a chain, and "Mineral Monument No. 34" bears south 9 deg 24 min east distant 442 67-100 chains said claim or "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" herein applied for, consists of the locations called "No. 1 North Coleman Borate Deposit;" "No 2 North Coleman Borate Deposit," and "No. 3 North Coleman Borate Deposit," all duly recorded in "Liber A," at pages from 127 to 133 of the records of said Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, kept at the Mining Recorder's office in said District; the same being also recorded at pages 307, 308 and 309, of Book "D," "Records of Land, Water and Mining Claims," kept at the office of the County Recorder at Independence, Inyo County, California. Adjoining claims unknown if any exist; the nearest surveyed claim to this being the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," situate about one hundred and thirteen [113] chains and 86 100 of a chain in a southeasterly direction from the southeast corner of this the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine," or claim hereby sought to be patented.

All adverse claims must be filed in this office within sixty (60) days from the date of first newspaper publication of notice hereof, or they will be barred under the law.

Unexplored Thibet.

Thibet is one of the few regions left on the earth which still affords legitimate scope for romantic conjecture. All other lands of mystery have been explored. The Abyssinian campaign dissipated the last shreds of wonder about Prester John. Travelers have abolished the Mountains of the Moon; a Russian railway runs within sight of the Vulture's Nest, the Eyre of Assassins and the Old Man of the Mountains; commerce has familiarized us with the Land of the White Elephant and Golden Umbrellas; science has dispersed Atlanta, Utopia and the other "Erewhens" of past beliefs. No Raleigh nowadays would make sail for fabled cities of Mansa—no voyager set his helm for the Hesperides. The Ichthyophaga, Tartariuss and Malrotrans, with all the other strange races of whom Mandeville gossipped, are now sobered down into matter-of-fact tribes, and the whole world, under the ruthless scrutiny of scientific exploration, is fast becoming commonplace.

The Ink Plant.

There is in New Granada a plant, Coryaria Thymifolia, which might be dangerous to our ink manufacturers if it could be acclimatized to Europe. It is known under the name of the ink plant. Its juice, called chanci, can be used in writing without any previous preparation. The letters traced with it are of a reddish color at first, but turn a deep black in a few hours. The juice also spoils steel pens less than common ink. The qualities of the plant seem to have been discovered under the Spanish administration. Some writing intended for the mother country were wet through with sea water on the voyage, while the papers written with common ink were almost ineligible, those with the juice of that plant were quite unspoiled. Orders were given in consequence that this vegetable ink was to be used for all public documents.

REPRESENTATIVE BLAND has had an interview with Director Burchard, of the Mint, in regard to the number of trade dollars now in circulation. The latter expressed the opinion that between 5,000,000 and 6,000,000 were now out and in the hands of tradesmen generally, instead of in the possession of speculators. The remainder of the 35,000,000 originally coined, it is thought, have been exported or remelted. Bland says it is questionable whether the Government, having issued the trade dollar with the Government stamp upon it, could not be required to take it for Government dues at the nominal value of $1.

SAN FRANCISCO must be in a pretty prosperous condition, judging from the fact that within the past four years 2438 new buildings have been erected there at an aggregate cost of nearly $15,000,000. During the year 1883 there were 658 new buildings erected at a cost of about $4,200,000. The sand dunes between the cemeteries and the ocean level are being rapidly covered with dwellings, and in every direction the Queen City of the Pacific seems to be rapidly growing.

THE gravity of a court of justice is occasionally disturbed very seriously by the reply of some witness undergoing the torture of a rigid cross-examination. "Mr. White," said a Harrisburg lawyer to a witness in the box, "at the time these papers were executed you were speculating, were you not?" "Yes, sir." "You were in oil?" "I was." "And what are you in now?" "In bankruptcy," was the solemn reply.

THE Central Pacific Railroad Company has put in knee chairs on all the curves and braced all the bridges to stiffen up the track for the big engines. They now talk of putting in ties 8 by 10 and a foot longer than those now in use. The ties now in use are 6 by 8 inches, and 8 feet long. If the change is made between Rocklin and Truckee, nearly 20,000,000 feet of timber will be used.

Pious Reflections.

The year 1883 has passed away, so have most of the bright hopes of the shareholders in O. T. and N. P.

In a week or two the date will be forgotten; so will that Northwest watermelon which Mr. Vanderbilt was to slice up for the boys.

The year began with a few hard raps at wheat, and ended with more soft corn than the country knows what to do with.

A few men have made their fortunes and retired from the busy cares of life to cut off their coupons. A few others—a very few—have made money enough to pay their fare out to some country town where a velvet vest and Burnside whiskers make a stranger a nabob.

The Rev. James Keene, Prof. Russell Sage, Squar' Vanderbilt, Deacon Gould, Judge Villard, and several of the other boys have been spared in a more or less dilapidated condition; while others went down before the cyclone of death, and this will offset a late spring and a summer drought.

It has been a bad year for silver speculators, but what they have lost has undoubtedly gone to found orphan asylums and educate the idiots.

Those chaps who knew all about the oil market are now cutting cordwood in the country, but as we must have fuel, 'tis well.

Railroad dividends have been heard to hoot only at long intervals, and there's a good many boys in the woods yet looking after that bird.

Taken altogether, the year was six months too long for some, and not half long enough for others; and, all things considered, most everybody is ready to let go, swear off, and spit on his hands for a fresh hold.—Wall Street Daily News.

Two more monster locomotives, each weighing 90 tons, passed through Winnemucca en route west the other day. These monsters are never side-tracked, and the passenger train which arrived while one of them was at Winnemucca had to leave the track for it. That these 90-ton locomotives will be found profitable in the long run is doubtful. The Truckee Republican says that the 80-ton locomotives used in drawing freight trains between Sacramento and Truckee frequently get off the track owing to their tendency to climb the rail in going around sharp curves, and hardly a week passes without one of them leaving the track and proving a serious obstruction to the trains. These difficulties are to be obviated by the use of larger ties to make the roadbed more solid on the curves. The engineers who man these locomotives are said to be always a little nervous as to their performance.

IT was in the month of January, thirty-six years ago, that gold was discovered in California. We do not pay much attention to this anniversary now; events crowd upon each other so rapidly that this greatest event, occurring more than a third of a century ago, seems to the new generation which has made its appearance something far in the distance. At that time Fremont was at the height of his fame as the "Pathfinder." The great continental railroads have marked out better paths than the one which this pioneer discovered. The ox teams made their way wearily across the continent, consuming the greater part of a year. Now the traveler crosses the continent in a Pullman car, and expects to be royally entertained by the way.—Bodie Free Press.

AFTER all, it seems there is no such thing as water, and that the limpid and grateful fluid that leaps from the cliffs about us is oxydized hydrogenium—simply the rust of the metal of that name. This metal is said to be present in the sun and all the planets in enormous quantities, but the recent discovery that its contact with oxygen produces a nasty rust that we have always mistook for water is enough to make a man turn back his New Year leaf and take to hard drink. The old temperance song will now have to be changed to "nothing so good for the youthful blood as the oxyd of hydrogenium."—Homer Index.

THE following estimate has been furnished by a railway superintendent as the expense of fitting out an average train on a first-class railroad: For an express train—Locomotive, $12,000; dining-room car, $12,000; five first-class Pullmans, $18,000 each; total, $120,000. The ordinary express train represents about $85,000. Some Pullman cars cost $30,000 each. The average value of a freight train is still greater than that of a passenger train if the value of the rolling stock and property are included. Sometimes through freight trains aggregate in value from $250,000 to $300,000.

SOMEBODY asks the Cincinnati News-Journal "if an alien can become a citizen of the United States in any State or Territory in the United States before one year's residence in the country," and our Ohio contemporary says no. But as a matter of fact, in many new States all the practical advantages of citizenship are acquired by merely declaring an intention to become a citizen, and for some years in Georgia, for instance, this was all that was necessary for a person to do to obtain the right to vote even at Presidential elections.

A WRITER of mathematical bent finds from the census returns that there are about 17,000 dentists in the United States, who, he continues, pack into the teeth of the American people a ton of pure gold annually. Continuing his speculations, he predicts that in the twenty-first century all the gold in the country will be buried in the graveyards.

Salt as a Remedy for Dyspepsia.

The Shaker Manifesto has the following: "Half a teaspoonful of common salt dissolved in a little cold water and drank will instantly relieve heartburn or dyspepsia. If taken every morning before breakfast, increasing the quantity gradually from a tablespoonful to a glass of water, it will in a few days cure any case of ordinary dyspepsia, if, at the same time, attention is paid to the diet. There is no better diet than the above for constipation—no better gargle for sore throat. It is equal to chlorate of potash, and is entirely safe. It may be used as often as desired, and if a little is swallowed each time it will have a beneficial effect on the throat by cleansing it and allaying irritation. In doses of one to four teaspoonfuls in half a pint of tepid water, it acts promptly as an emetic; and in cases of poisoning is always at hand. It is an excellent remedy for the bites and stings of insects, and a valuable astringent for hemorrhages, particularly for bleeding after the extraction of a tooth. It has both cleansing and healing properties, and is, therefore, a most excellent application for superficial ulceration."

THE accounts we get from Mohave show that it is a rather hard place. It appears, on account of its lonely and isolated situation, to have become headquarters of a gang of thieves and scoundrels ready for anything, who depredate along the line of a railroad. Some of them are well dressed, personating gentlemen, while others represent honest miners and other grades of society. They devote themselves chiefly, in one way and another, to "going through" passengers, on the emigrant cars, but the gentlemen frequently travel first-class back and forth, on the road, looking for higher game. Their operations have proceeded to such an extent that the railroad company have been compelled to establish a force of detectives there with the view of breaking them up, and their vigilance is having a good effect, although the want of a branch jail, at that point, is a difficulty in the way of their reformatory efforts the Supervisors might do well to take into consideration.—Bakersfield Californian.

INYO INDEPENDENT.

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:
SATURDAY, JANUARY 12.....1884

IT is said that General Butler has expressed the hope that he may live long enough "to ride in a car made of iron and with a rounded top, in which will be an apparatus for electrical lighting. The car will float, and it will be so padded that in case of an accident no one can be hurt." The idea is perhaps not original with General Butler, for it is also asserted that had Colonel Thomas Scott survived it was his intention to have some such experimental car constructed and put on one of his railroads. An iron car, water tight, padded and lighted with electricity, ought certainly to be an improvement on the present style of carbuilding. In the event of a train being precipitated over an embankment, the padding would presumably prove a protection against maiming and the loss of life. If it fell into a considerable body of water there would be reasonable security against drowning, and in no instance would it be possible for the passengers to suffer death from cremation. There are others besides General Butler who will hope the day may come, and that before long, when his suggestion may be put to a practical test.

THE Senate turned out all the Democratic officers and put Republicans in their places, but the Democrats in the House turned out all the Republicans, so things are even all around. In both cases the sufferers complain, but simply as a matter of record. Each side justifies its act by saying that when it was in power and wanted to put in its friends the other fellows insisted that it was not in accordance with civil service reform to put good men out in order to put others in. Political virtue was outraged in the most shocking manner. And in both cases the present victors who assert their right to the spoils, say that when they protested against a change those at present complaining went calmly and deliberately on and did as they saw fit. Why either Democrats or Republicans should complain is not very clear to any one but those who have been put out. Those suffering patriots have been unfortunate, and that's all there is of it. As these changes take place invariably they cannot claim that they have been surprised in this instance.

ACCORDING to recent accounts work on the Panama Canal is being vigorously pushed. The steam dredgers, or excavators, do the work with surprising rapidity. At the monthly rate the excavations have thus far averaged the canal will be finished within three years, possibly sooner, and at a much less cost than was anticipated. All the discouraging reports circulated in regard to it are false, and believed to be inspired by transcontinental railroad influence. The completion of the canal will revolutionize the commercial relations of this coast with the rest of the world, and from that moment we may expect a new era of prosperity to commence.

IT has been figured up that with 80 per cent. of annual increase, a herd of 100 two-year-old heifers will amount in ten years to 895 cows, 274 yearling heifers, 358 heifer calves and 1,427 steers and male calves. In five years more the herd will amount to 2,989 cows (all over twelve years old being left out), 938 yearlings, 1,195 heifer calves and 5,326 males of all ages. Such an increase as this accounts for the enormous profits of cattle raising when sufficient feed is secured.

STATE AUDITOR DUNN declines to draw a warrant on the Interest and Sinking Fund to pay interest for six months, amounting to $52,500, on certain Central Pacific railroad bonds which the State agreed to do to aid the construction of the road when the corporation was poor and had to struggle hard to make both ends meet, they agreeing to perform certain remunerative acts in return. These, the Auditor says, they have failed in; and therefore the State is released from its obligations to pay interest.

OUR esteemed Esmeralda county contemporaries are requested by THE INDEPENDENT to send its new proprietor down here where he belongs—C. O. D. Rumor hath it that Mattingly, one of the Esmeralda County Commissioners has resigned, leaving Mr. McNett and Chairman Glenn to wrestle it out on many serious problems. Hence his delay, which we hope will be but a day or two longer.

KENTUCKY is now the coming State. She not only has the Speaker, but eight of her sons are members of the United States Senate. Ohio is still a good second, having been the birthplace of seven Senators.

IT is reported from Rome that another American Cardinal is to be created before the end of the year.

Manifest Injustice.

The injustice of the present legislation, or rather lack of legislation, in regard to mining titles, is well exemplified in a comparison with the same law affecting the agriculturist. A party desiring to secure a homestead title is allowed to perfect his claim by a residence of five years and the payment of fees not exceeding $25, and thus, by this expenditure of time and money—which is applied directly to the development of his own property—he becomes the owner of 160 acres of land wherever it may be selected on the public domain. These lands are exempt from tax or execution until the title is perfected. Thus, practically, after five years' development work and the payment of $25, the Government deeds to the party thus complying with its requriements 160 acres of domain. On the other hand, a miner who may locate a mining claim upon the barren side of a rocky mountain is compelled to expend $100 in labor each year to hold his claim, and in the end pay the sum of $5 per acre to the Government, which is, in many cases, more than productive agricultural land is worth, in addition to the fees, costs, expenses, surveys and red-tape necessary to secure a patent, which sometimes reach an equal amount. Thus, while the way is made plain and easy for the agriculturist to secure his claim, in which he is protected and defended, every step of the miner to secure a patent from the Government to his location of barren rock and mountain side is beset with difficulties, cost, trouble and opposition. The manifest injustice of this condition of affairs is so great and discouraging that an immediate reformation is demanded in this direction. In the two cases under consideration, the Government practically gives 160 acres of its valable land to one party who complies with certain inexpensive requirements, and of the other, after demanding outrageous taxes and costs, requires an amount of purchase money which is largely in excess of the actual value of productive land. To the agriculturist it donates 160 acres of land, and on the other hand, after the miner has by costly labor made his claim valuable, demands extortionate payments for the same. The injustice of this discrimination is so great that it only needs attention to secure the needed change and modification.—Chicago Mining Review.

A LOS ANGELES dispatch, dated January 9, says: Charles Whitehead, editor of the Evening Republican, lately established, was shot this morning by T. S Harris, a printer associate of Whitehead's. The ball took effect in the right side, between the hip and the lower ribs. It is impossible now to tell the result. The ball is inside, and fears are entertained that the wound will prove fatal. In the excitement, it is learned that Harris and Whitehead had disagreed, and as some of the property of Harris was being removed from the premises, Mrs. Harris appeared on the scene and claimed a dictionary as her property. Her claim was resisted, and in the controversy, Mrs. Harris was ejected from the premises. Harris soon after put in an appearance and shot Whitehead, as stated above. The shooter is now in jail.

Later dispatches state that Whitehead is improving. Harris is an old newspaper man, and is well known throughout this county. In 1874-5, he published the News, at Panamint. He went from the latter place to Bodie, where he founded the Standard, since consolidated with the Free Press. He has been engaged in various newspaper ventures since then, his latest being the Free Lance, in Los Angeles, which lived about three weeks.

THE Grand Jury of Monterey, in their report to the Superior Court of that county, made on the 20th of last month, recommend that the Board of Supervisors inquire into the conduct of the School Superintendent in neglecting to visit certain schools in the county, and deduct $10 from his salary for each school he has failed to visit. The Superintendent claims that the school year is not yet completed and that he cannot properly be accused of direliction of duty until he has had all the time allowed him by law to visit the schools he is alleged to have neglected. The office of School Superintendent is as useless as the fifth wheel would be to a coach, and the incumbents should be held to rigid accountability as to the few and trifling duties they have to perform.

THE Idaho Statesman of January 5 says: Cy. Mulkey, of this city, and Mr. Walker, of Wood River, are interested in an enterprise which promises rich results. They have discovered and prospected a large area of rich placer ground on the south side of Snake river, a short distance below the mouth of the Bruneau, and will construct a large canal, taking the water from the Bruneau, about three miles above the mouth of that stream, for the purpose of operating the mines and for irrigating a large tract of good farming land which the canal will cover. There will be extensive operations in the Snake river placers during the coming season, as they are attracting unusual attention.

THE Supreme Court has decided that a firm cannot obtain judgment until a full publication of their notice of partnership.

IT is noticed that four of the names on Mr. Carlisle's Foreign Committee are singularly appropriate: Wise, Lamb, Wait and Ketchum.

M. M. GLENN, formerly of the Esmeralda Herald, and a journalist of ripe experience and acknowledged ability, is now the editor and publisher of THE INYO INDEPENDENT, having taken charge of that institution last week. When it comes to running an interesting local journal and showing up to the very best advantage the resources of the section in which it is published, "Mac" Glenn has few equals and no superiors, and the people of Inyo county,—which is just now at that critical period in its history when it will leap to the front with a single bound or drag along for years—should strain a point in the way of patronage in order to stimulate their new publisher to his highest efforts. This is one form of advertising (advertising the whole country round about) that pays better than any other—and costs less.—Homer Index.

THE conference relative to the Mussel Slough land troubles was of a very satisfactory character, and it now seems quite certain that the difference between the settlers and the railroad company will soon be amicably adjusted. Our reporter was unable to procure positive information as to what was actually done at the conference—in fact the parties concerned seemed very anxious that their deliberations should be kept private.—Fresno Expositor.

THE INYO INDEPENDENT.—Mack M. Glenn has bought this newspaper, and as soon as he can shake the dust of Esmeralda county off his shoes, and get the shavings of the new Esmeralda county court-house out of his hair, Mack will proceed to make THE INDEPENDENT an excellent rural paper—just as Mack Glenn can do.—Bodie Miner.

SCHOOL MONEY.—County Superintendent Groves, on the 10th instant, made the following apportionment of the County School fund:

Bishop Creek	$386 46
Big Pine	193 23
Darwin	193 23
Independence	193 23
Irving	193 23
Lone Pine	386.46
Milton	193 22
Round Valley	193 23
Union	193.23
Total	$2125.52

MAIL AND EXPRESS ROBBERIES.—Last week the detectives succeeded in running down and fastening upon young Rising and Hawley, mail and express messengers upon the Carson and Colorado, a series of robberies of money from the mails and the express box. In all, about $700 has turned up missing, so far. It is stated that the fathers of the boys have made good the amounts, but that no arrests have been made as yet. Perhaps a United States Grand Jury may have to tackle the matter yet.

PROVE UP.—There now seems to be no valid reasons why the settlers around Camp Independence should not proceed at once to secure Government titles to their lands. The Camp has been abandoned for all military purposes, and the special reservations have reverted to the Interior Department. It is a good time for the old settlers to look after their rights before any new shenanigan game commences.

MODOCK.—Superintendent Fitzgerald reports the amount of ore, selected flue dust, and slag on hand as 307 tons. A force of ten men is at work, breaking from seven to nine carloads of high-grade ore daily. The furnaces will not be started until the weather opens. Mr. Fitzgerald intends to make the next the largest run since he took charge of the property.

THE MINNIETTA. — Mr. J. J. Gunn has relocated this property, which produced $321,000 in '77 and '78. It was the property of the Cerro Gordo Freighting Company; but nothing has been done on it since March 23d, 1882. Mr. Gunn has a force taking out ore from one of the mines, which ore he will have worked by Frank Fitzgerald.

PERSONAL.—Glad to notice for the last few days among us our old friend, W. P. George. We suppose he is directing his attention to a few antiquated law matters pending in our court, now in session....S. D. Woods, Esq., has returned from his holiday vacation at the Bay, and is now rushing about the county as usual.

BEVERIDGE. — The Keynot arastras have been yielding splendidly in gold from the ores of the various mines owned by the Mexicans, but it is among the impossibilities to get at the exact amount. Chas. McEvoy has gone over to get his mill ready for work as soon as sufficient ore has been got on the dump for a run.

ABOUT READY.—It is stated the new Maxim mill at Chrysopolis will be started up during the coming week. The machinery is of New York manufacture, and consists substantially of a cannon-ball quartz crusher. About 100 tons of high grade, free gold ore has been mined and hauled to the mill.

NEW TIME TABLE.—The new time schedule of the Carson & Colorado Railroad will be found corrected elsewhere this week. Although the changes made are not great, it were well for travellers to consult the table, and carry a copy of THE INDEPENDENT along for reference while traveling.

SICKNESS.—There is a great deal of serious sickness prevalent among the little children of Big Pine and Independence, from colds, sore throat and fevers. The death of the little daughtar of Mrs. and Mrs. Dennis Hessian was as sudden and as sorrowful as can be described.

A STORM WANTED.—The weather is altogether too distressingly pleasant to be healthy or to afford any promise to the farming interests. If the weather clerk will consult the old Sierras he will send them along a heavy coat of snow.

A CHANGE.—E. Chenot, of the well-known Camp Independence store, has purchased the old Inyo House property, and will shortly move his mercantile establishment to town.

CLOVER PATCH.—A new and extensive strike is reported in the Banner Mine, at Clover Patch. Messrs. Nixon & Co. are engaged in putting an additional battery of five stamps in the Wild Rose mill.

A STRIKE.—Morton & Stapp have struck a rich pay-streak in the Red Rock mine, Lookout District. Average of assays of streak was $207 in gold per ton; choice pieces, $4764.80 per ton in gold.

TO CORESPONDENTS.—Business orders and contributions for this office should be addressed to the paper as such, to insure prompt attention in the proprietor's absence.

TAXES.—The sum of $5,713 35 still remains unpaid and delinquent on the assessment roll. A large number of county licenses are also due and unpaid.

DIANA.—The Diana mill, at Benton, has been running for some time on rock from the old Neal mine, in Indian District, with favorable results.

WATER.—The project of supplying Independence with a system of water works is being revived and actively canvassed. Good thing.

NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT,

A Placer Mine, Being Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, T. 28 N., R. One (1) East, San Bernardino Meridian.

No. 242.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
BODIE, CALIFORNIA,
December 1, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ARTHUR W. BOWMAN, whose post office address is San Francisco, California, and who resides at Piedmont, in Alameda County, State of California, has by Barney H. Coleman, his agent and attorney in fact, whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office an application for a Patent in favor of him, the said Arthur W. Bowman, for the "NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," the same being a placer mining claim bearing borax in the forms of borate of lime and borate of soda, and situate, lying and being in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, and more particularly described in the plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, in Township No. 28 North, Range No. 1 East, San Bernardino B. and M.; the exterior boundary lines of the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" or placer mining claim and premises hereby sought to be patented being officially described in said plat and field notes of survey as follows, viz.: [the magnetic variation being 15 deg. 31 min. East.]

Commencing at a chalk stone monument four (4) feet long and (1) foot square marked "N C B D No 1," for "North Coleman Borate Deposit No. 1," situated in the dry bed of Death Valley, and from which "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears north fifty three (53) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, at the distance of thirty-six (36) chains and forty-seven hundredths (47-100) of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes east, and "Winters Peak bears south seventy-two (72) degrees thirty-seven (37) minutes east; and running thence from said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No 1," hereinbefore described:

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 1.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY met this Eleventh day of August, 1883, a full Board being present.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo do Ordain as follows:

The following Funds are hereby established:

(1) A Fund to be known as the COUNTY SALARY FUND, which shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the salaries of all officers of the County of Inyo. All moneys derived from licenses shall be paid into the Treasury, and shall be placed to the credit of the County Salary Fund. Should the amount received from such source be insufficient it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer to transfer to said Fund from the General Expense Fund of the County such sums as may be necessary to pay said salaries as they become due.

(2) A GENERAL EXPENSE FUND, from which shall be paid the fees and mileage of jurors and witnesses, the fees of County and Township officers, for all services which are a legal charge against the County, and all such other bills as may be allowed by the Board of Supervisors under authority of law.

(3) A HOSPITAL FUND, for the purpose of maintaining a County Hospital and caring for the indigent sick and otherwise dependent poor of the County.

(4) A GENERAL ROAD FUND, from which may be paid such amounts as may be found necessary for such general road purposes in which the inhabitants of all the Districts within the County are more or less interested, or to assist weak and impoverished Districts, to be applied as the Board may order or direct.

(5) A Fund to be known as the INTEREST AND BUILDING FUND, for the payment of the principal and interest of the Inyo County Bonds, as the same may become due.

(6) A SCHOOL FUND, for the maintenance of the public schools of Inyo County.

(7) A CONTINGENT FUND, to be used for paying any indebtedness, subject to the orders of the Board of Supervisors.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 3.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Inyo, State of California, met at Independence on the First day of October, A. D. 1883. Present—E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding. A. Spencer and Thomas Boland, and adopted the following Ordinance:

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo, State of California, do ordain as follows:

That all persons doing business within the County of Inyo shall obtain licenses from the Tax Collector of said County, as follows.

FIRST CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales amount to Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and upwards constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Fifty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales are less than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 2. Persons engaged in banking, loaning money at interest, or in buying or selling notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of private persons; or in buying or selling State, County or City stocks, or other evidences of State, County or City indebtedness; or stocks, or notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of incorporated companies; or in buying or selling gold dust, gold or silver bullion, or gold or silver coin, are divided into two classes, and must pay licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those doing business in the aggregate to the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter or over constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CSASS.

Those doing business in any amount less than Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 3. From each proprietor of a billiard table, not kept exclusively for family use, for each table Five Dollars per quarter; and for a bowling alley, Fifteen Dollars per quarter for each alley; but no license must be granted for a term less than three months.

SEC. 4. For each exhibition for pay, for a theatrical performance, a caravan or menagerie, or any collection of animals, circus, or other acrobatic performance, seven Dollars; and for each show for pay of any figures, jugglers, necromancers, magicians; wire or rope dancing, and sleight of hand exhibitions, Five Dollars for each performance. The provisions of this section do not apply to exhibitions or entertainments given for the benefit of churches, schools, or other charitable entertainments, by any amateur dramatic association or literary society of the town or district in which such exhibition or entertainment is given.

SEC. 5. Each pawn broker must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 6. Each keeper of an intelligence office must pay a license of Ten Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 7. Every person who sells spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wine in less quantities than one quart, must obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and make the following payment—

FIRST CLASS.

Those making sales to the amount of One Thousand Dollars or more as a monthly average, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those making sales of less than One Thousand Dollars per month, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 8. Every person who, at a fixed place of business, sells any goods, wares or merchandise, wines or distilled liquors, drugs or medicines, jewelry or wares of precious metals, whether on commission or otherwise (except agricultural or vinicultural productions, or the productions of any stock, dairy or poultry farm of this State, when sold by the producer thereof, and except such as are sold by auctioneers at public sale under license), and all persons who keep horses or carriages for hire (except such as are used in the transportation of goods), must obtain from the Tax-Collector, and for each branch of said business, license, and pay quarterly therefor an amount of money to be determined by the class in which such person is placed by the Tax Collector; such business to be classified and regulated by the amount of the average monthy sales made, or hiring done, and at the rates following—

FIRST CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Nine Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, and less than Twenty-five Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Four 50-100 Dollars per quarter.

THIRD CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring of less than Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, constitute the third class, and must pay a license of Three Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 9. The sale of liquors and wines by persons licensed under the preceding section must not be in less quantity than one quart measure. No license must be required of physicians, surgeons, apothecaries or chemists, for any wines or spiritaous liquors they may use in the preparation of medicine.

SEC. 10. Every traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who carries a pack and vends goods, wares or merchandise other than the manufactures or productions of this State, must pay for a license Five Dollars per month; and every such traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who uses a wagon, or one or more animals, for the purpose of vending such goods, wares or merchandise of any kind, must pay for a license Fifteen Dollars per month.

SEC. 11. Every person who keeps a stallion, jack or bull, and who permits the same to be used for the purpose of propagation for hire, must annually obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and pay therefor as follows—

First—Horses that are hired for the purpose of propagation, by the season, at One Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and require a license of Seventy-five Dollars.

Second—At Seventy-five Dollars, and less than One Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and require a license of Sixty Dollars.

Third—At Fifty Dollars, and less than Seventy-five Dollars, constitute the third class, and require a license of Forty Dollars.

Fourth—At Thirty Dollars and less than Fifty Dollars, constitute the fourth class, and require a license of Twenty-five Dollars.

Fifth—At Fifteen Dollars and less than Thirty Dollars, constitute the fifth class, and require a license of Fifteen Dollars.

Sixth—At less than Fifteen Dollars, constitute the sixth class, and must pay a license of Ten Dollars.

Seventh—For each jack, Ten Dollars.

Eighth—For each bull, Ten Dollars.

A license for propagation obtained from the Tax-Collector, under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall entitle the holder there f to the right to go into any County of this State for the purpose of propagation without further license or expense.

This Ordinance shall take effect, and be in force on and after the SEVENTEENTH day of OCTOBER, A. D. 1883

And it is hereby ordered, that this Ordinance be published for one week in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a weekly newspaper, printed and published in the County of Inyo.

Bowman, for the "NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" the same being a placer mining claim bearing borax in the forms of borate of lime and borate of soda, and situate, lying and being in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, and more particularly described in the plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, in Township No. 28 North, Range No. 1 East, San Bernardino B. and M.; the exterior boundary lines of the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" or placer mining claim and premises hereby sought to be patented being officially described in said plat and field notes of survey as follows, viz.: [the magnetic variation being 15 deg. 31 min East.]

Commencing at a chalk stone monument four (4) feet long and (1) foot square marked "N C B D No 1," for "North Coleman Borate Deposit No. 1," situated in the dry bed of Death Valley, and from which "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears north fifty-three (53) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, at the distance of thirty-six (36) chains and forty-seven hundredths (47-100) of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes east, and "Winters Peak bears south seventy-two (72) degrees thirty-seven (37) minutes east; and running thence from said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No 1," hereinbefore described:

First Course—North twenty (20) chains and eighteen hundredths (18 100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 2" on gravel slope; thence, Second Course—West twenty [20] chains and forty [40 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 3" in dry bed of lake; thence, Third Course—North ten [10] chains and eight hundredths [8 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 4," in gravel slope; thence, on Fourth Course—West twenty [20] chains and seventeen hundredth [17 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 5" on margin of dry lake; thence, Fifth Course—North twenty [20] chains and seventeen hundredths [17 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 6," on gravel slope; thence, Sixth Course—West twenty [20] chains and twenty eight hundredths [28 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 7," on margin of dry lake; thence, Seventh Course—North eight [8] chains and fifty-two hundredths [52 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 8;" thence, Eighth Course—West twenty [20] chains and twenty-nine hundredths [29 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 9," thence, Ninth Course—South eighteen [18] chains and forty-seven hundredths [47 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 10," from which the section stake in the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections seven [7] and eighteen [18] of Township twenty-eight [28] North, Range one [1] East, bears south eighty-two [82] degrees west, distant twenty-one [21] chains and thirty-eight hundredths [38 100] of a chain, and said "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears south eighty [80] degrees twenty-six [26] minutes east; thence, Tenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 10" last above described; east ten [10] chains and seventeen hundredths [17 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D N. 11;" thence, Eleventh Course—South twenty [20] chains and seven hundredths [7 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 12;" thence, Twelfth Course—East, eleven [11] chains and sixty-three [63-100] hundredths of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 13," from which the said stake marked "N C B D No 3" bears east at the distance of thirty-nine [39] chains and five hundredth [5-100] of a chain; thence, Thirteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 13" south twenty [20] chains and fourteen hundredths [15-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 14;" thence, Fourteenth Course—East nineteen [19] chains and seventy hundredths [70 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 15" from which the said stake marked "N C B D No. 1" bears east distant thirty-nine [39] chains and eighty-seven hundredths [87 100] of a chain; thence, Fifteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D N. 15," south twenty [20] chains and eighteen hundredths [18 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 16;" thence, Sixteenth Course—Running east thirty-nine [39] chains and seventy seven hundredths [77 100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 15," from which a stone monument at the northeast corner of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine" bears south twenty-six [26] degrees forty-five [45] minutes east, distant one hundred and thirteen [113] chains and eighty-three hundredths [83-100] of a chain; and thence, Seventeenth Course—North twenty [20] chains, running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 18" to said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No 1," the place of commencement; containing three hundred and thirty-eight [338] acres and thirty-eight hundredths [38-100] of an acre, more or less.

The said "Mineral Monument No. 33" hereinbefore referred to, consists of a durable sandstone four [4] feet long set two [2] feet deep in the ground and being six [6] inches square at the top, whereon is securely fastened a brass plate marked "N S E W; S B M M M No 33," the same being situated on a ridge near the center of the southwest slope of the central one of three prominent buttes near the northern end of, and at the northeast side, of Death Valley distant about seven and three-fourths (7¾) miles from the entrance of "Furnace Wash" into Death Valley.

From said "Mineral Monument No 33" a stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1" of the "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" aforesaid, bears south fifty-three [53] degrees forty five [45] minutes west at the distance of thirty-six [36] chains and forty-seven hundredths [47 100] of a chain; a stone monument marked "C D No. 18," of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," bears south eight [8] degrees forty [40] minutes east at the distance of one hundred and forty-four [144] chains and seventy-eight hundredths [78-100] of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north 3 deg. 35 min. east; "Winters Peak bears south 70 deg. east; summit of Butte bears south 65 deg. 20 min. east, distant about 113 chains; the section stake on San Bernardino Meridian between Sections seven [7] and eighteen [18] of Township twenty-eight [28] North, Range one [1] East bears north eighty-three [83] degrees twelve [12] minutes west distant one hundred and thirty-two [132] chains and seventy-six hundredths [76 100] of a chain, and "Mineral Monument No. 34" bears south 9 deg. 24 min east distant 442 67-100 chains. Said claim or "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" herein applied for, consists of the locations called "No. 1 North Coleman Borate Deposit;" "No. 2 North Coleman Borate Deposit," and "No. 3 North Coleman Borate Deposit," all duly recorded in "Liber A," at pages from 127 to 133 of the records of said Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, kept at the Mining Recorder's office in said District; the same being also recorded at pages 307, 308 and 309, of Book "D," "Records of Land, Water and Mining Claims," kept at the office of the County Recorder at Independence, Inyo County, California. Adjoining claims unknown if any exist; the nearest surveyed claim to this being the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," situate about one hundred and thirteen [113] chains and 86 100 of a chain in a southeasterly direction from the southeast corner of this the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine," or claim hereby sought to be patented.

All adverse claims must be filed in this office within sixty (60) days from the date of first newspaper publication of notice hereof, or they will be barred under the law.

WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE,

A Placer Claim, Being Survey No 2,153' Lot No. 37 and 38, in Townships Nos. 27 and 28 North, Range One (1) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, Bodie, California, December 10, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE "HENRY CLAY MINING COMPANY," a corporation of the State of California, having its principal office postoffice address and place of business in the City and County of San Francisco and State of California, has, by RUDOLPH NEUSCHWANDER, its duly authorized special agent and attorney in fact, who resides at Coleman, in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the county of Inyo and State of California, and whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office its application for a Patent from the United States to the said Company for its borax placer mining claim containing 1,152 52 100 acres, commonly known and called the "WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," situated in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, the same being now officially surveyed, platted and designated by the U. S. Surveyor General for California as Survey No. 2,153 Lot Nos. 37 and 38, situate partly in Township twenty-seven (27) North, Range One (1) East, and partly in Township twenty-eight (28) North, Range One (1) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, and more particularly bounded and described by the official plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as follows, viz:—the magnetic variation being 15 deg 31 min E st.

Commencing at a stake marked "C D No. 3," the same being the so theast corner of Location No. 2, situate five (5) chains east of the margin of dry bed of lake in Death Valley, from which said stake, MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34 bears south seventeen (17) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, distant thirty-two (32) chains and ninety one (91) links; A STONE MONUMENT at the north st corner of the DESERT BORATE DEPOSIT MINE bears south twenty five (25) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, distant twenty-two (22) chains and fifty five (55) links; WINTERS PEAK bears north seventy one (71) degrees east; and running thence from the said stake marked "C D No. 3"

First Course—North twenty (20) chains to a stake marked "C D No. 4," on left bank of Popcorn Canon; thence—

Second Course—South eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes, west twenty (20) chains and twelve (12) links to a stake marked "C D N 5," on the margin of dry bed of lake from which a stake marked "C D H," bears north eighty-nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes west distant twenty nine (29) chains and twenty four (24) links; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 5"

Third Course—North thirty (30) minutes west, twenty (20) chains and twenty-nine (29) links to a stake marked "C D No 6," in a small ravine running west; thence—

Fourth Course—West, ten (10) chains and sixteen (16) links to a stake marked "C D N. 7," on west slope of low hills; thence—

Fifth Course—North twenty (20) chains and twenty-five (25) links to a stake marked "C D No 8," situated on a low hill; thence—

Sixth Course—East ten (10) chains and thirteen (13) links to a stake marked "C D No 9," on the north slope of brown ridge. Continue east; at sixty (60) chains and thirty-two (32) links reach a stake marked "C D No. 77," situated on a mesa; thence—

Seventh Course—South thirty (30) minutes west, ten (10) chains and ninety-nine (99) links to a stake marked "C D No 78," on the right bank of a wash running west; thence—

Eighth Course—South eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes east along the right bank of wash, nine (9) chains and ninety five (95) links to a stake marked "C D No. 74," situated one (1) chain north of wash; thence—

Ninth Course—south ten (10) chains and four (4) links to a stake marked "C D No. 69," on gravel ridge slopewest, thence—

Tenth Course—East nine (9) chains and sixty-seven (67) links to a stake marked "C D No. 68," situate fifty (50) links north of a small alkali stream running west; thence—

Eleventh Course—North five (5) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east, nine (9) chains and ninety eight (98) links to a stake marked "C D No. 74½," in right bank of a wash; thence—

Twelfth Course—North eighty nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east twenty (20) chains and ninety-four (94) links to a stake marked "C D No. 75," on west slope of a red hill from which "MINERAL MONUMENT No 34" bears south thirty seven (37) degrees thirty (30) minutes west; "CHLORIDE PEAK" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes west, and "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-three (73) degrees thirty (30) minutes east; thence, running from said stake marked "C D N. 75,"

Thirteenth Course—North twenty-one (21) chains and nineteen (19) links to a stake marked "C D No. 76," on left bank of a wash running southwest from which MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34," bears south thirty-one (31) degrees ten (10) minutes west; "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-six (76) degrees east, and "WHITBUTTE" bears north eighty five (85) degrees west, distant about twenty (20) chains; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 76,"—

Fourteenth Course—West forty-one (41) chains and thirty seven (37) links to a stake marked "C D No. 76½," in a wash running northwest; thence—

Fifteenth Course—South two (2) chains to a stake marked "C D No. 76 A," on a ridge bearing northwest; from which said last mentioned stake marked "C D No. 76 A" Chloride Peak bears north two (2) degrees twenty (20) minutes west; "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-two (72) degrees east; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 76 A"—

Sixteenth Course—West fifty (50) chains and twenty-eight (28) links to a stake marked "C D 8½," on margin of dry bed of lake; thence—

Seventeenth Course—North eleven (11) chains and seventy two (72) links to a stake marked "C D A" [from which a stake marked "C D G" bears north eighty nine (89) degrees forty five (45) minutes west, distant sixty-seven (67) chains and eighty-four (84) links]. Continue north on said seventeenth course; at thirty-two (32) chains and twenty-eight (28) links from the said stake marked "C D No. 8½" reach stake marked "C D B;" continue north on said seventeenth course at fifty-two (52) chains and fifty-eight (58) links from the said stake marked "C D 8½;" reach a stake marked "C D No. 10" situated on a gravel slope at a point from which a mesquite bush six (6) inches diameter bears north seventy six (76) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant eighty-three (83) links, and a mesquite bush three (3) inches diameter bears north twenty-two (22) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant ninety six (96) links; thence—

Eighteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 10" west ten (10) chains and five (5) links to a stake marked "C D No. 11," whence a stake marked "C D E" bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west distant thirty-nine (39) chains and sixty five (65) links; thence—

Nineteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D N. 11," north [at forty (40) chains and thirty four (34) links reach a stake marked "C D N. 13"] eighty (80) chains and sixty-nine (69) links to a stake marked "C D No 15," whence "MINERAL MONUMENT NO 33" bears north eight (8) degrees fifty (50) minutes west, and "WINTERS PEAK" bears south eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty-two (32) minutes east; thence—

Twentieth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 15," west ten (10) chains and seven (7) links to a stake marked "C D No 16," on margin of dry lake, whence a stake marked "C D K" bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees forty five (45) minutes west, distant twenty-nine (29) chains and forty-seven (47) links; thence—

Twenty first Course—North sixty (60) chains and sixty five (65) links to a chalk stone monument one (1) foot square and four (4) feet long marked "C D N 18 N E" the same being the Northeast Corner of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," on margin of dry bed of lake, and from which said chalk stone monument the southeast corner of the "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" bears north twenty-six (26) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west distant one hundred and thirteen (113) chains and eighty-three (83) links; "Mineral Monument No 33" bears north eight (8) degrees forty (40) minutes west distant one hundred and forty-four (144) chains and seventy-three (73) links; "Winters Peak" bears north one (1) degree thirty (30) minutes east and "Telescope Peak" bears south twenty four (24) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west; thence—

Twenty-second Course—Running from said chalk stone monument marked "C D No. 18 N E," west ten (10) chains and ten (10) links to a stake marked "C D No. 19" in center of a flat marsh five (5) chains wide bearing north and south; thence—

Twenty-third Course—South ten (10) chains and twelve (12) links to a stake marked "C D No 20," situate in a marsh one (1) chain west of the east bank thereof; thence—

Twenty-fourth Course—West nine (9) chains and fifty-six (56) links to a stake marked "C D No. 21," in dry bed of lake; thence—

Twenty fifth Course—South forty (40) chains and forty-nine (49) links to a stake marked "C D No. 22," at southeast edge of marsh; thence—

Twenty-sixth Course—West nine (9) chains and eighty-seven (87) links to a stake marked "C D No. 22½" in dry bed of lake; thence—

Twenty-seventh Course—South, at ten (10) chains and ten (10) links reach a stake marked "C D K;" at thirty (30) chains and twenty three (23) links reach stake marked "C D No. 23," whence the Section corner on the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections thirty (30) and thirty-one (31) of Township twenty-eight (28) north of range one (1) east bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees eight (8) minutes west, distant one hundred and twenty-three (123) chains and ninety (90) links. Continuing south, at fifty (50) chains and forty (40) links reach a stake marked "C D C." Continuing south, at ninety (90) chains and seventy-four (74) links reach a stake marked "C D E," and still continuing south reach stake marked "C D No. 25," at the distance of one hundred (100) chains and seventy four (74) links south from said stake marked "C D No 22½;" thence—

Twenty-eighth Course—West, running from said stake marked "C D No 25," nine (9) chains and fifty-five (55) links to a stake marked "C D No. 26;" thence—

Twenty-ninth Course—South, at ten (10) chains and seven (7) links reach a stake marked "C D F," whence the Township stake on the San Bernardino Meridian between townships twenty-seven (27) and twenty eight (28) north bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees ten (10) minutes west, distant one hundred and fifteen (115) chains and fourteen (14) links; continuing south, reach a stake marked "C D No 26½," at the distance of twenty (20) chains and twenty-one (21) links south from said stake marked "C D No. 26;" thence—

Thirteth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 26½," west eight (8) chains and seventy five (75) links to a stake marked "C D No. 27;" thence—

Thirty-first Course—South, at ten (10) chains and nineteen (19) links reach a stake marked "C D G;" continuing south, reach stake marked "C D No 27½," at the distance of twenty (20) chains and twenty one (21) links south from said stake marked "C D No 27;" thence—

Thirty-second Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 27½" east, seventeen (17) chains and sixty-eight (68) links to a stake marked "C D No. 28;" thence—

Thirty-third Course—South, ten (10) chains and sixteen (16) links to a stake marked "C D No 29;" thence—

Thirty-fourth Course—East, ten (10) chains and one (1) link to a stake marked "C D No. 30;" thence—

Thirty-fifth Course—South, twenty (20) chains and seventeen (17) links to a stake marked "C D No 31;" thence—

Thirty-sixth Course—East, eleven (11) chains and six (6) links to a stake marked "C D No. 32;" thence—

Thirty-seventh Course—South, twenty (20)

Mining Not Stopped.

It must not be supposed because the debris case has been decided against the miners that mining is to cease in California by any means. It only means the hydraulic mines, and not all of them; for there are some in some parts of the State that can run a long time yet. The quartz mines, which employ all the miners, will continue to be worked, and indeed quartz mining will be more closely looked to and the industry widen, for many mining men will turn their attention to it who have been engaged in the hydraulic branch. Hydraulic mines employ comparatively few miners. As far as actual labor is concerned, one big quartz mine wants more miners than a dozen gravel mines.

The mining interests of the State have received a set back by the debris decision, and the bullion product of 1884 will be materially decreased. But more attention is being paid to quartz and drftt mining, and more yet will be from this on. It is to be hoped, therefore, that this, with the opening of new regions in the southern part of the State, will ultimately bring our bullion product up to its old standard. At all events, California will continue to be a leading mining State. Although this blow falls heavily on many persons it is better not to consider it as an insurmountable obstacle to progress. The subject need not be considered too hastily, for it is well to make the best of what is an unprecedented and most unfortunate occurrence. From the first it was seen to be a matter that the courts must settle, and now that the decision has come, while the decree must be complied with, wisdom indicates that the most must be made of such resources as remain within our reach. —S. F. Scientific Press.

A DETROIT photographer says: "There is this feature about photographing on linen: You can wash and boil the work and it won't come out. There is some special interest shown among society people just now on this subject, because of some napkins used at the banquet given to Henry Irving, the actor, before he left London. His photograph was on each one, and, of course, it was intended as a souvenir for the guest to take away with him. The silk or cambric is printed from the negative. There will be a rage for it if it once gets started, and people will have photographs printed on their curtains and tidies, and in handkerchief corners. The face of a beautiful young lady on the corner of a gentleman's handkerchief, would be much more attractive than a monogram or initial letter. It would be just the thing for hat linings and bands." The Detroit Free Press suggests that not the least of the advantages of such photographing would be that the wash would be promptly returned if the missing pieces were to haunt the wretched laundress with a vision of her customers.

AT San Diego, on Thanksgiving day, watermelons were still on the vines and for sale in the markets, and on Christmas could be seen at the fruit stands tomatoes, strawberries, potatoes, sweet potatoes, turnips, squashes, peaches, popcorn, apples, oranges, lemons, watermelons, Lima beans, green peas, and olives, all fresh from the gardens and orchards of the vicinity, and the vegetable wagons were carrying around beets, carrots, leeks, onions, celery, cabbages, cauliflower, radishes, lettuce, parsnips, salsify and other esculents. The tomato vines in many places look fresh and fruitful, and peas may be seen in bloom.

IN the Tabernacle at Salt Lake, Apostles Cannon and Woodruff both declared that Mormonism, in all its features and doctrines, would be continued, whatever Congress or the country might threaten, and that the progress of the church could only be stayed by killing all the saints.

To give your sheep all the salt they want will not cost you much, and will pay a large dividend on the investment.

COLDS.

The most prevalent of all ailments, affecting various parts of the body; "they have all seasons for their own," and are the beginning of more diseases than all other causes combined. It becomes, then, a matter of the first importance to know how to avoid colds, and how to get rid of them speedily when they attack us.

The most frequent cause of colds is wet feet, or feet that remain for a long time damp and chilled from wearing too thin stockings and shoes. It is probable that half of the diseases peculiar to women are induced in that way. It is not the wetting of the feet that gives cold, but the gradual evaporation of the moisture, which carries off the natural warmth of the body, thus causing the blood to be chilled. The effect of chill is to close the pores of the skin, so that the waste particles of matter cannot escape from the body in this direction, but are thrown back and thus poison the blood.

When it is not possible to take off the shoes and stockings, and dry and warm the feet promptly after getting them wet, it is better to let them remain wet until we can attend to them properly. To dry them in the sun or before a fire, without taking off shoes and substituting dry ones, is extremely hazardous. There is but little danger of taking cold after wetting the feet if we walk rapidly enough to keep up the natural temperature of the body, and keep on walking until we reach some place where we can take off shoes and stockings and thoroughly dry them or change them for dry ones. A cold is less likely to result from a thorough drenching of the whole body than from wetting the feet alone.

People seldom take cold when they are exposed to sudden lowering of the temperature of the air while they are out of doors; they may have their hands and feet frost-bitten, and become almost unconscious from freezing, and yet escape the dangers of an ordinary cold.

A cold in the head may frequently be cut short if treated at once, by snuffing up the nose the fumes of spirits of camphor, ammonia or bay rum. This remedy must be applied every few minutes to be effective. In the meantime the patien should remain in a warm room, and avoid draughts of air. If the cold is not cured in twenty-four hours, it will continue ten or twelve days in spite of treatment, or if neglected its effects may last a lifetime. Colds result in serious and fatal diseases only when neglected. We have so often given directions for treating neglected colds that it is hardly worth while to repeat them here. Remain in the house, and if necessary in bed, until the cold has disappeared, and then venture out cautiously at first, as the system is sensitive to fresh attacks for several days after recovery. — Hall's Journal of Health.

To Cheapen Mining Patents.

The White Pine Cone has taken up the discussion of this important subject. It is something we have tried to call the attention of our mining press to, for the past year. It is a question that should be thoroughly canvassed and discussed. The Cone takes issue with our statements about extortion and robbery. We admit the expressions are harsh and rather far-fetched. But it appeared to us to be necessary to call attention to the wrongs and burdens of the prospector and miner. The Cone conveys the impression that it is hardly possible to cheapen the cost of patents except as far as the $5 per acre goes. Now that $5 is what we find the least fault with. It is the red tape necessary before the privilege of paying the Government that $5 per acre can be had.

We will start out with the assumption that the law for surveying mining claims is unjust. It is just as much the duty of the general government to survey the mining sections of the country as the agricultural portions. If the mining sections were sectionized and subdivided, the cost of surveying mining claims would be materially lessened. For instance, A has a claim. It is somewhere in the northwest quarter of section 2, Tp. 12 S., R. 86 west, A wishes to patent. He will have it surveyed, connecting the corners of his claim so many feet, in whatever direction it may be, to such quarter or section corners as are most accessible. He then takes or sends his plat to the Land Office, the Register designating the claim as No. —, on northwest quarter of Section 2, Tp. 12 S., R. 86 west. The claim may cross into different townships, sections or quarter sections, which the plat will show, and all the Register will have to do is to number the applications and accord to them section or sections on which the discovery may be situated. The publication of intention to prove up and enter the claim can be made the same as is now required on agricultural land. After expiration of publication the owner of the claim takes his witnesses to the Land Office, makes proof of ownership, and the lawful improvements, pays for his claim and receives his patent the same as he would on an agricultural claim. By this plan all the unnecessary and cumbersome red-tape machinery of asking for order of survey, posting notices, of employing attorneys, and long, costly publications would be done away with. We would not have the present necessary $500 worth of improvements reduced, but would rather, if a change is be made, have it increased.

Here, Mr. Cone, is an imperfect plan to cheapen and improve the present cumbersome and costly mineral patent law. Others may suggest a better. No one can hardly suggest a worse law than the present, for almost any change that should be made would be for the better.—Scientific Press.

In General.

The Czar of Russia is sending a racing stud to England to enter in the public events.

Mexico has ceased coining nickel. Five hundred and sixty tons of the metal have been converted into 190,000,000 coins.

Great uneasiness prevails in Spain. The army is suspected of preparing for revolt and the funds are falling.

The cheap temperance eating houses are reported to have vastly improved the character of the restaurants at St. Paul, Minn.

They were about to bury a grandchild of General Turner, of Memphis, when some one insisted that it should be bathed and slapped on the back. It is now alive and doing well.

No work having been done within the prescribed time, the Mexican government has forfeited the concession made to General Grant for a submarine cable connecting the two Republics.

The exports of silver during the present year to Japan, China, India, the Straits, etc., have been as follows: From Southampton, $33,265,237; from Marseilles, $851,840; from San Francisco, $4,498,546. Total, $38,610,623, as against $43,266,000 in 1882.

The cold snap east has been the coldest known for years. Street car drivers had their hands and feet frozen in Indianapolis. Frozen ears and fingers were common. Mules were frozen to death in the cars in Missouri and Kansas and the fruit trees have been partly injured.

NEW YORK AND IVANPAH DISTRICTS. Last Wednesday Messrs. John McBride and Wm. P. McCullough returned from the New York district. Mr. McBride has been doing the assessment on his numerous claims in that district, and reports that his mines are looking well. He is confident that as soon as a mill is erected there and commences operations, a good camp will be established in that district. This camp is 30 miles from the railroad and about 20 miles from Providence. Mr. McCullough has been to Ivanpah, and found the camp's prospects improving. On his return he stopped at the New York district, and was much surpised at seeing such an immense quantity of ore at the dumps and uncovered in the mines. The ore is low grade, but there are such enormous quantities of it to be obtained that if a mill were in operation there now, it could be kept constantly busy on ore for an indefinite time, and make good profits. Here is a chance for some capifalist to invest some of his idle thousands to good advantage.—Calico Print.

AN English sportsman recommends cold drawn castor oil for water-proofing boots as unequalled by any other substance, basing this conclusion on experience and experiment during many years. Applied, before a moderate fire, when the leather is clean and dry, to upper and to edge and bottom of sole, and well rubbed in with the hand, it effectually closes every pore. He uses very liberally at first, and less so at subsequent times. It does not prevent polishing, if that is found desirable for the sake of appearance.

AT a quarter past six o'clock this morntng an alarm of fire was sounded. The cause proved to be the old McClinton hoisting works, which, of course were totally destroyed. As spontaneous combustion don't go, and as no man can be found in the camp who would be guilty of setting property on fire, we complacently ascribe the cause to visitation of Providence. However, the outrage was wanton vandalism, for the old works might have been of some use to somebody hereafter.—Bodie Miner, Jan. 14th.

SOME one who has tried it says it is a good plan to burn sulphur in cellars where milk is kept, especially if they are damp. The sulphurous acid evolved destroys the mildew, which, if not checked will injure the flavor of cream and butter. In many damp cellars the mildew wastes the cream so that the butter product is seriously decreased, besides the injury to quality.

IF you think the water you use regularly for drinking is impure, try the following test: Put one and a half pints of water into a clean glass bottle; add to it a teaspoonful of pure white sugar, cork it, and shake until the sugar is well dissolved and then set in a warm place for 48 hours. If it is unfit for drinking it will be turbid and milky at that time.

SOME of the conclusions of science would indeed be appalling but for their practical harmlessness. Thus geologists assert that if the continents and the bottom of the ocean were graded down to a uniform level the whole world would be covered with water a mile deep, so much greater is the depression of the ocean bed than the elevation of the existing land.

EXPERTS in chemistry have estimated that the cost of London's winter smoke and fog is $25,000,000 annually; that is to say, constituents of coal to this value escape unconsumed, and assist in forming the sooty vapor.

WORK on terminal facilities in Portland and Albina, and on the Oregon and California extension, still goes ahead, and no orders to stop are expected.

THE Queen contemplates shutting up Buckingham Palace still further. It is now used as an occasional town house by several of her children, and this she finds expensive.

A NEW USE FOR RAILROAD.

Senator Plumb has advanced the opinion that the only way to successfully maintain levees on the Mississippi river will be by constructing a railroad along the top of them. Such a railroad, he adds, would greatly increase the transportation facilities of the Mississippi valley. Senator Plumb is correct in thinking that the construction of a railroad would prove very effectual in keeping the levee in repair, but it would not prove a successful business venture, and would not add very greatly to the transportation facilities. The Mississippi river at its lower part is somewhat more crooked than the letter S, and the levees would have to follow the course of the river. A railroad on the banks would of necessity go a distance two or three times as great as if it ran in a straight line. Such a road, especially if it came into competition with a straight line road, would not be able to make a living as a carrier. If the Government will build a railroad along the levees and maintain it for the sole purpose of keeping the levees in repair, it will probably be a success, but not from a financial stand-point.

THE Trustees of the Lick estate are distributing $500,000 to beneficiaries under the will, but it is said they do not come forward with alacrity. One hundred and fifty thousand of this money goes into the hands of Trustees for the erection of free baths in San Francisco; but one of them is dead, and all the rest except one are absent. The one present does not feel disposed to undertake the responsibilities involved in the trust without the presence and assistance of his colleagues. Such baths as this sum would construct would be a splendid benefit to the city.

THE oranges of Southern California this season show a vast improvement over last year; they are larger in size and excellent in quality, and for that reason, we presume, are bringing highly remunerative prices. It is well to know that the orange grower can endow his posterity with annually increasing income, as it is a fact that orange trees improve by age. There are trees in Spain upwards of 300 years old that are improving every year.

MONO and Tehama Counties are about voting upon the proposition of issuing five per cent bonds for the purpose of raising money to redeem outstanding seven per cent warrants. The Act authorizing such plan is a good law, and ought to receive the careful consideration of our financiers on the Board of Supervisors. Taxes could be reduced by it, and no one but non-resident scrip holders would be losers.

A NEW YORK paper has been compiling a list of the big steals of 1883, and finds that they aggregate about $1,400,000. The thieves embraced are classed as bankers, cashiers, clerks, brokers, state treasurers, mercantile agents, revenue officials, lawyers and officers of charitable and trust associations.

SENATOR EDMUNDS has been a second time chosen President pro tempore of the Senate, and as such is first in the line of the Presidential succession. Should President Arthur die or become disabled previous to March 4, 1885, Senator Edmunds would become President.

BESIDES having merged itself into a first-class daily newspaper, the San Francisco Stock Report has become the keenest of the city papers. Its sarcasms bite deep, and its independence is admirable.

A SALOON-KEEPER in Yountville, Napa county has been tried and convicted, and fined $60 for selling liquor to a common drunkard.

OUR PROPOSED WORLD'S FAIR.

A great many Eastern journals have noticed the fact that California proposes to hold a World's Fair at San Francisco. Most of the number speak favorably of the enterprise. They have no fear about the money being raised to carry out the project, but think it possible that our great distance from the centers of population may interpose to prevent it being a success. They admit that even with this drawback if we can induce Australia, China, Japan and the islands of the Pacific to become exhibitors, the fair cannot be an entire failure. San Francisco is firm in the belief if the overland railroad companies will offer diminished passenger rates, that thousands of visitors can be drawn from points outside the State. The excursion parties to California, which are now numerous, from the East, would be greatly increased in number on such an occasion, so that not much fear is apprehended, if the exhibits are attractive, but the attendance at the fair from abroad will be all that could be desired.

NINETY MILLIONS IN 1883.

Mr. John J. Valentine, General Superintendent of Wells, Fargo & Co., has forwarded to us a copy of his annual statement of precious metals produced in the States and Territories west of the Missouri river (including British Columbia, and receipts by express from the west coast of Mexico) during 1883, which shows aggregate products as follows: Gold, $29,236,492; silver, $46,229,649; copper, $5,683,921; lead, $8,163,550. Total gross result, $90,313,612. California shows a decrease in gold of $1,629,028, and an increase of silver of $969,844. Nevada shows a falling off of $1,591,755. The Comstock shows an increase of $392,468, but there is a decrease in the product of Eureka district of $1,419,124. With the exception of Montana and Idaho, there is a decrease in the product of the other States and Territories.

BERMUDA grass is recommended for such soils as those of this valley. The grass is said to do well on strong alkali land, and cattle seem to like the feed. It needs moisture to start it, but once started it grows with but little moisture. It is planted in hills about two or three feet apart. It spreads very rapidly, and will run together in a short time. March is about the best time to set it out. It can be got at Sacramento by anyone who would like to try it.

A NOVEL exercise and one that is eminently practical, has been introduced into the Sacramento public schools. Every scholar is expected to come provided with a copy of a daily newspaper, and from the news items, telegraph and editorial comments, to be prepared to give the location and other data relative to the various locations mentioned.

SOME New York parties intend to build a ten-ton smelter at Luning, on the C. & C. R. R., with which to work copper ores. If the enterprise does not fall through, Luning will soon enjoy its long expected season of prosperity. The furnace has already been purchased and there is a strong probability that work will soon begin.

THE Suez Canal is a paying piece of property. During the first eleven months of 1883 it cleared $12,096,000 and stockholders expect to pocket a comfortable dividend of 18 per cent.

THE Philadelphia Times states that the past year has been the most disastrous ever known in the history of the insurance business, the losses exceeding $100,000,000.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT.

BISHOP CREEK DITCH COMPANY.
Location of Principal Place of Business, Bishop Creek, Inyo County, California.

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Board of Trustees, held on the Twelfth day of January, 1884, an assessment of Six Dollars per share on the Northern Division and Twelve Dollars per share on the Southern Division was levied upon the capital stock of the corporation, payable immediately, to the Secretary, at his office, at Bishop Creek.

Any stock upon which this assessment shall remain unpaid on the 19th day of February, 1884, will be delinquent, and advertised for sale at public auction, and unless payment is made before will be sold on the EIGHTH day of MARCH, 1884, to pay the delinquent assessment, together with costs of advertising and expenses of sale.

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19.....1884

A KILLING.—On Sunday last, at Benton, in Mono County, Ben Alverson shot and killed John M. Nicholson. From meagre reports received concerning the affair, it seems that since Nicholson sold his mining property at Clover Patch he became a partner with Alverson in the saloon business. Of late they have been quarreling and drinking heavily, though it is stated that Nicholson was sober when he was shot and that he was unarmed. Paul Bennett, Assistant District Attorney of Mono is at Benton, appearing for the prosecution. From what can be learned of the affair now the outlook is very bad for Alverson.

FISHY.—Charley Begole writes from Lone Pine thusly: "Major Barnes, of the Lone Pine Hotel, had a consignment of fresh fish from Sacramento. Among the lot was a number of catfish. All were packed in ice. Upon putting them in cold water, five showed signs of life, and in a few moments were swimming as vigorous as ever. Fred. Albers, of George's Creek, has secured the lot for his fish pond. It is a conundrum to solve—the distance, the circumstances, tenacity of life, etc."

PENSIONERS.—The Secretary of the Interior conveys us a list of Government pensioners in this county, in accordance with the plan adopted of giving publicity to the names and thereby detecting possible frauds. There are but two—Joab W. Sheck, Bishop Creek, "inj. l. leg," $8 00, Nov. 1875, and Theodore Thompson, Independence, "minor of"—$12 00, July, 1873. Somebody is requested to step to the front and identify Mr. Thompson.

MINING MEN.—On Tuesday morning last a special train passed down to the front, having on board Superintendents Yerington and Laws, of the road, W. E. Sharon, Gen. Charley Forman, Mr. Crater and other mining men from the Comstock regions. They took a look at Swansea and Cerro Gordo districts, and subsequently visited Darwin, the Frank Silva mine at Matarango Hill, the Modock and old Panamint.

PANAMINT.—Messrs. Stevens and Elliot, capitalists and mining men, from New York, have been down to Panamint taking a look at the Inyo Con. properties. For rich silver ores and lots of them, "old Panamint" is second to no mining district on the Pacific Coast to-day. It is stated that a new mill will be erected there at once, and with something like decent management there can be no possible doubt of its great success.

BULLION SHIPMENTS.—Supt. M. R. Williams, of the Argus Range M. & M. Co.'s mines and mill at Reilly, was in town to-day. He reports having got the mill in good working order, and that everything about the plant is in a most satisfactory condition. He has lately made three shipments of silver bullion—968 fine—aggregating $10,500. The property is becoming a steady and reliable producer of bullion.

DIPHTHERIA.—This dreadful scourge is reported to be raging at Big Pine. In response to dispatch received from there, Dr. Blair went up to-day to attend two of N. Peterson's children. The terrible report comes that Mr. and Mrs. Peterson have had five fatal cases in their family.

THE MONTEZUMA.—Supt. W. P. Miller, of the Montezuma mine and furnace, (The Owens River Mining and Smelting Co.) is now at Elna. Their own mine has on its dumps about 4,000 tons of ore, while shipments of all kinds of ore are being steadily received from all along the line of the road.

THE REED MINE.—It is stated that the owners of the Mineral Hill mines, situated at the head of Black Cañon, in the Inyos, are getting out ore to ship for reduction. This looks to an outsider like a most sensible operation, since the ore in sight is of more value than has ever been asked for the whole mine itself.

SALINE.—Negotiations are pending, which if carried out, will cause active work to be resumed on the Saline Valley mines, known as the Grant properties. The ores are of high grade, and will doubtless pay well for extracting and shipment, notwithstanding the distance faom reduction works.

WILD ROSE.—This old District is situated in the Telescope range, across Panamint Valley from Lookout. The Virgin mine, owned and being developed by Paul Pfefferle, is showing up splendidly in chloride ores assaying from 150 to 450 ounces per ton in silver.

AT SLATE RANGE.—Ed. Reilly, the New York and Arizona mine owner, has been taking a look at his Argus Range mines and mill. He let a contract to Reub. Spear for sinking a new shaft on the principal mine.

ACCIDENT.—We hear that J. H. Stoutenborough, the well known merchant of Bishop, received serious injuries the other day by the fall of his horse, while he was on a trip to the Polita mine.

REGISTER.—Dr. D. Walker, of Bodie, has been appointed Register of this Land District, succeeding E. R. Cleveland. He has filed his bonds and assumed official duties. The Bodie papers speak well of the new officer.

SODA SPRINGS.—Williams, Bisbee & Co. are arranging to start up the old copper smelter at Soda Springs, in Esmeralda county.

SWANSEA.—The new Swansea furnace is in full blast, the bullion output being all that could be desired.

PULVERIZER PULVERIZED.—The Maxim M. & M. Co.'s machinery was started up on the 15th instant, and run handsomely for about 24 hours, when a steel friction plate in their patent pulverizer left its seat, and, acting as a turning tool, it cut its way into the casting, loosening other plates, and in an incredibly short time, it made the machine a complete wreck. Whatever the merits of this pulverizer when properly constructed, this counts one more in favor of stamps. We understand that this company will immediately proceed to erect a stamp battery to take the place of the pulverizer. Their boiler, engine, rock-breaker, and steam-pump are first class.

THE SACRAMENTO.—Mr. S. G. Sneden and associates are actively opening out the Sacramento gold mine, with the most favorable results so far. While developments are going on the mill will remain idle. The Sacramento has many solid "divys" in sight.

AT COTTONWOOD.—Mr. Chalfant has gone over to Deep Springs District, where he has begun active work on the new Greenly mill at Cottonwood. The construction will require two or three months time.

NEXT WEEK.—M. M. Glenn writes from Hawthorne that he will be "on deck" here by the middle of next week, whereat his sick and weary substitute will rejoice.

DOINGS OF THE GRAND JURY.—The labors of the Grand Jury were closed yesterday. A great deal of work was done during its double session, there being an intermission for the holidays. A true bill was found against Jimmy Warner, alias "Fresh," and he was tried, convicted and sentenced. Two more true bills were found, one against a Chinaman in Hawthorne, who is accused of an attempt to bribe Constable Comstock. Another against John Tweedy, of Sweetwater, accusing him of stealing cattle on the ranges near his ranch in that part of the county. But the principal business of the body has been the investigation of the doings of the Board of County Commissioners, in the building of the new Court House. A larger portion of the time of the sittings was taken up in the hearing of testimony pertaining to this subject. All this was taken down in writing, and will form a part of the report of the Grand Jury. It resulted in the presentment of all three of the Commissioners to the Court, they being charged with malfeasance while in office. All of them have been summoned to appear, and the matter will be tried sometime next week.—Candelaria True Fissure, Jan. 12.

ANOTHER ironclad for the Chinese navy has been launched at Kiel. We need have no fear, on account of this increase in the Chinese navy; the American man-of-war Pinta is on her way to this coast, and it is confidently expected that she will arrive in safety if she encounters no rough weather. Her armament will soon leave, by sailing vessel, for San Francisco, as it was desired not to try the man-of-war too severely in her passage around the Horn. The Pinta, on her arrival, will of course require the usual $100,000 worth of repairs and will then proceed to Alaska, whither her guns will be sent by another steamer. It is hoped that by these precautions she will be able to reach her station in safety, and will be able to act as an effectual barrier against the increasing Chinese fleet, or any other.—S. F. Report.

THE approaches to the St. Gothard Tunnel are thought to be as wonderful as the great tunnel itself. To get up to the level of the tunnel the roadway track makes many spirals, winding, in some instances, three times around a single mountain, on three terraces, one above the other, through twisting tunnels. The curves are, however, so gradual as to be hardly noticeable unless one carries a compass. Then is seen the curious fact that the needle makes complete circuits, and is constantly shifting its position.

WE understand that Miller & Lux propose to experiment in cotton planting the coming season, and with that view have sent to New Orleans for a quantity of the Golden Prolific cotton seed. They will plant half a section this year, and if the venture is successful they will probably plant more next year. They have probably been induced to try the cotton crop from the reports, made by parties who have experimented in this valley in the past, that the crop pays here.—Kern County Gazette.

THE movement for holding a World's Fair on this coast, three years hence, is exciting interest and is fairly started. It will be held, of course, at San Francisco, which will be directly and indirectly benefitted from it very largely. All the towns and cities of the State will cheerfully and effectively co-operate, but the work must be mainly done and the expense chiefly incurred by the metropolis.

THE House Committee on Private Lands unanimously adopted a report in favor of a bill for the relief of Myra Clark Gaines. It provides for the issue of patents to Mrs. Gaines for 38,457 acres of land on account of grants made by Spain to John Lynd and Thomas Urquhart, from whom the claimant received title, provided that no mineral lands be in the grant.

SOMETHING is up in the borax market, it is hard to tell just what yet. Prices in Liverpool have dropped 20 per cent. New York is pretty firm, however. It looks as though there would be a struggle. Smith Brothers and W. T. Coleman, the largest manipulators on this coast, are out, and the chances are for war.—Bodie Free Press.

AN Industrial Mining Exposition is to be held in London some time this season. American exhibits, from every quarter, are particularly desired.

IT is understood that nothing will be done this session of Congress toward the admission of Dakota and Washington as States.

REPRESENTATIVE TOWNSEND'S resolution empowering the President to prohibit importations from France and Germany will be reported to the House by the Cdmmittee on Commerce.

SENATOR WILSON the other day introduced a bill to establish a Board of Interstate Commerce.

THE Senate will take a final vote on the Mexican Reciprocal Treaty shortly.

SENATOR SLATOR succeeds Farley on the Committee on Commerce.

THE abrogation of the Hawaiian treaty is considered certain.

WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE,

A Placer Claim, Being Survey No. 2,153, Lot No. 37 and 38, in Townships Nos. 27 and 28 North, Range One (1) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
Bodie, California,
December 10, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE "HENRY CLAY MINING COMPANY," a corporation of the State of California, having its principal office, postoffice address and place of business in the City and County of San Francisco and State of California, has, by RUDOLPH NEUSCHWANDER, its duly authorized special agent and attorney in fact, who resides at Coleman, in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the county of Inyo and State of California, and whose nearest post office address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office its application for a Patent from the United States to the said Company for its borax placer mining claim containing 1,152 52-100 acres, commonly known and called the "WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," situated in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, the same being now officially surveyed, platted and designated by the U. S. Surveyor General for California as Survey No. 2,153 Lot Nos. 37 and 38, situate partly in Township twenty-seven (27) North, Range One (1) East, and partly in Township twenty-eight (28) North, Range One (1) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, and more particularly bounded and described by the official plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as follows, viz:—the magnetic variation being 15 deg 31 min East.

Commencing at a stake marked "C D No. 3," the same being the southeast corner of Location No. 2, situated five (5) chains east of the margin of dry bed of lake in Death Valley, from which said stake, MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34 bears south seventeen (17) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, distant thirty-two (32) chains and ninety one (91) links: A STONE MONUMENT at the northeast corner of the DESERT BORATE DEPOSIT MINE bears south twenty-five (25) degress forty-five (45) minutes east, distant twenty-two (22) chains and fifty five (55) links; WINTERS PEAK bears north seventy-one (71) degrees east; and running thence from the said stake marked "C D No. 3"

First Course—North twenty (20) chains to a stake marked "C D No. 4," on left bank of Poporn Cañon; thence—

Second Course—South eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes, west twenty (20) chains and twelve (12) links to a stake marked "C D No. 5," on the margin of dry bed of lake from which a stake marked "C D H," bears north eighty-nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes west distant twenty nine (29) chains and twenty four (24) links; thence running from said stake marked "C D No. 5"

Third Course—North thirty (30) minutes west, twenty (20) chains and twenty-nine (29) links to a stake marked "C D No. 6," in a small ravine running west; thence—

Fourth Course—West, ten (10) chains and sixteen (16) links to a stake marked "C D N. 7," on west slope of low hills; thence—

Fifth Course—North twenty (20) chains and twenty-five (25) links to a stake marked "C D No. 8," situated on a low hill; thence—

Sixth Course—East ten (10) chains and thirteen (13) links to a stake marked "C D No. 9," on the north slope of brown ridge. Continue east; at sixty (60) chains and thirty-two (32) links reach a stake marked "C D No. 77," situated on a mesa; thence—

Seventh Course—South thirty (30) minutes west, ten (10) chains and ninety-nine (99) links to a stake marked "C D No. 78" on the right bank of a wash running west; thence—

Eighth Course—South eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes east along the right bank of wash, nine (9) chains and ninety five (95) links to a stake marked "C D No. 74," situated one (1) chain north of wash; thence—

ALIAS SUMMONS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE COUNTY of Inyo, State of California. Thomas Bastian, Plaintiff, v. The Inyo Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, Defendant. Action brought in the Superior Court in the County of Inyo, State of California, and the Complaint filed in the office of the Clerk of said County.

The People of the State of California send greeting to the Inyo Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, Defendant. You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named Plaintiff in the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this Summons—if served within this County; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days.

The said action is brought to recover of you the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars, due for work and labor done and performed and services rendered by Plaintiff for Defendant in caring for, protecting and preserving the mines, mill and water of Defendant, situated in Panamint Mining District, County of Inyo, State of California, from the Fourth day of January, 1883, to the Fifteenth day of October, 1883; all of which said work and labor done and performed and services rendered at the special instance and request of Defendent; also, for interest on said sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars at the rate of seven per cent. per annum from the Fifteenth day of October, 1883, until paid, and for costs of suit, as appears by the complaint on file herein and to which reference is here made.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, the said Plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars, interest as aforesaid, and costs of suit.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, State of California, this Sixteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 1.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY met this Eleventh day of August, 1883, a full Board being present.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo do Ordain as follows:

The following Funds are hereby established:

(1) A Fund to be known as the COUNTY SALARY FUND, which shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the salaries of all officers of the County of Inyo. All moneys derived from licenses shall be paid into the Treasury, and shall be placed to the credit of the County Salary Fund. Should the amount received from such source be insufficient it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer to transfer to said Fund from the General Expense Fund of the County such sums as may be necessary to pay said salaries as they become due.

(2) A GENERAL EXPENSE FUND, from which shall be paid the fees and mileage of jurors and witnesses, the fees of County and Township officers, for all services which are a legal charge against the County, and all such other bills as may be allowed by the Board of Supervisors under authority of law.

(3) A HOSPITAL FUND, for the purpose of maintaining a County Hospital and caring for the indigent sick and otherwise dependent poor of the County.

(4) A GENERAL ROAD FUND, from which may be paid such amounts as may be found necessary for such general road purposes in which the inhabitants of all the Districts within the County are more or less interested, or to assist weak and impoverished Districts, to be applied as the Board may order or direct.

(5) A Fund to be known as the INTEREST AND BUILDING FUND, for the payment of the principal and interest of the Inyo County Bonds, as the same may become due.

(6) A SCHOOL FUND, for the maintenance of the public schools of Inyo County.

(7) A CONTINGENT FUND, to be used for paying any indebtedness, subject to the orders of the Board of Supervisors.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 3.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Inyo, State of California, met at Independence on the First day of October, A. D. 1883. Present—E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding. A. Spencer and Thomas Boland, and adopted the following Ordinance:

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo, State of California, do ordain as follows:

That all persons doing business within the County of Inyo shall obtain licenses from the Tax Collector of said County, as follows.

SECTION 1. Auctioneers are divided into two classes, and must obtain licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales amount to Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and upwards constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Fifty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales are less than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 2. Persons engaged in banking, loaning money at interest, or in buying or selling notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of private persons; or in buying or selling State, County or City stocks, or other evidences of State, County or City indebtedness; or stocks, or notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of incorporated companies; or in buying or selling gold dust, gold or silver bullion, or gold or silver coin, are divided into two classes, and must pay licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those doing business in the aggregate to the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter or over constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CSASS.

Those doing business in any amount less than Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 3. From each proprietor of a billiard table, not kept exclusively for family use, for each table Five Dollars per quarter; and for a bowling alley, Fifteen Dollars per quarter for each alley; but no license must be granted for a term less than three months.

SEC. 4. For each exhibition for pay, for a theatrical performance, a caravan or menagerie, or any collection of animals, circus, or other acrobatic performance, seven Dollars; and for each show for pay of any figures, jugglers, necromancers, magicians; wire or rope dancing, and sleight of hand exhibitions, Five Dollars for each performance. The provisions of this section do not apply to exhibitions or entertainments given for the benefit of churches, schools, or other charitable entertainments, by any amateur dramatic association or literary society of the town or district in which such exhibition or entertainment is given.

SEC. 5. Each pawn broker must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 6. Each keeper of an intelligence office must pay a license of Ten Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 7. Every person who sells spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wine in less quantities than one quart, must obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and make the following payment—

FIRST CLASS.

Those making sales to the amount of One Thousand Dollars or more as a monthly average, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those making sales of less than One Thousand Dollars per month, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 8. Every person who, at a fixed place of business, sells any goods, wares or merchandise, wines or distilled liquors, drugs or medicines, jewelry or wares of precious metals, whether on commission or otherwise (except agricultural or vinicultural productions, or the productions of any stock, dairy or poultry farm of this State, when sold by the producer thereof, and except such as are sold by auctioneers at public sale under license), and all persons who keep horses or carriages for hire (except such as are used in the transportation of goods), must obtain from the Tax-Collector, and for each branch of said business, license, and pay quarterly therefor an amount of money to be determined by the class in which such person is placed by the Tax Collector; such business to be classified and regulated by the amount of the average monthy sales made, or hiring done, and at the rates following—

FIRST CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Nine Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars and less than Twenty-five Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class and must pay a license of Four 50-100 Dollars per quarter

THIRD CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring of less than Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, constitute the third class, and must pay a license of Three Dollars per quarter.

SEC 9. The sale of liquors and wines by persons licensed under the preceding section must not be in less quantity than one quart measure. No license must be required of physicians, surgeons, apothecaries or chemists, for any wines or spirituous liquors they may use in the preparation of medicine.

SEC. 10. Every traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who carries a pack and vends goods, wares or merchandise other than the manufactures or productions of this State, must pay for a license Five Dollars per month; and every such traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who uses a wagon, or one or more animals, for the purpose of vending such goods, wares or merchandise of any kind, must pay for a license Fifteen Dollars per month.

SEC. 11 Every person who keeps a stallion, jack or bull, and who permits the same to be used for the purpose of propagation for hire, must annually obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and pay therefor as follows—

First—Horses that are hired for the purpose of propagation, by the season, at One Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and require a license of Seventy-five Dollars.

Second—At Seventy-five Dollars, and less than One Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and require a license of Sixty Dollars.

Third—At Fifty Dollars, and less than Seventy-five Dollars, constitute the third class, and require a license of Forty Dollars.

Fourth—At Thirty Dollars and less than Fifty Dollars, constitute the fourth class, and require a license of Twenty-five Dollars.

Fifth—At Fifteen Dollars and less than Thirty Dollars, constitute the fifth class, and require a license of Fifteen Dollars.

Sixth—At less than Fifteen Dollars, constitute the sixth class, and must pay a license of Ten Dollars.

Seventh—For each jack, Ten Dollars.

Eighth—For each bull, Ten Dollars.

A license for propagation obtained from the Tax-Collector, under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall entitle the holder thereof to the right to go into any County of this State for the purpose of propagation without further license or expense.

This Ordinance shall take effect, and be in force on and after the SEVENTEENTH day of OCTOBER, A. D. 1883

And it is hereby ordered, that this Ordinance be published for one week in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a weekly newspaper, printed and published in the County of Inyo.

E. ROBINSON, Chairman.

The Donkey's Dream.

A donkey lay him down to sleep,
And has he slept an awed full deep,
He was observed (strange sight!) to weep,
And in anguished mood.

A gentle mule that lay near by
The donkey roused and with a sigh,
And kindly voice, inquired why
The tears he did exude.

The donkey, while he trembled o'er,
And drained cold sweat from every pore,
Made answer in a fearful roar;
"I dreamed I was a dude!"

Growth of Temperance.

The rapid growth of the cause of temperance in Washington is noted by a correspondent of the Springfield Republican, who alludes to the fact that "the three leading candidates for Speaker formerly used stimulants, sometimes to excess," and adds: "Two of them are now total abstainers, and have been for some years, while the third only uses wine in a moderate quantity at his dinner. I can count a dozen Senators who used to tipple who have not drank a drop in two years, and there is not a Senator with perhaps an exception or two, who is not prudent and most temperate in the use of liquor. Nearly all of them do not touch anything except a light wine at dinner. It is so in the House. It is so with most of the public men. There has grown up a sentiment that a man is a fool who uses liquor immoderately, and that he is better off without any of it. Three years ago I saw one of the most brilliant members of the Senate staggering drunk in front of Willard's Hotel. The other day I saw that he left his champagne untouched at a dinner. Said he: "I haven't touched alcohol in any form for three years. I woke up one morning realizing that pretty much all the temperance lecturers have said was true, and I simply said to myself that I had had enough. And I have. I have never seen the time, from that day to this, that I have not felt a repugnance for liquor." Garland, the learned lawyer from Arkansas, is a teetotaler. Said he: "I was passing by the cemetery near my home one day, and I saw the graves of a dozen brilliant men who began life with me, every one of them hastened to his end by whisky. I made up my mind that I had drunk my share, and stopped."

ANOTHER triumph of American engineering over natural difficulties is the cantilever bridge across the Niagara river. This is one of the most remarkable works of modern times, and has the longest double track span in the world—900 feet over the river—and was opened for travel early in December. The idea of spanning the deep gorge of the Niagara with a bridge built out with arms approaching each other from opposite shores was a bold one. But the work has been prosecuted without serious mishap or delay, and the first railroad bridge on this principle is now so nearly finished that it is pronounced a completely successful undertaking. The building of the bridge has been regarded with great interest by engineers and railway managers in various parts of the world. Every American will take an honest pride in this grand achievement of his countrymen.

THE Cape Cod Canal project seems at last to be in a fair way of being carried out. A company has been organized which evidently means business. By order of the selectmen of the town of Sandwich (through which the canal will pass), a meeting of citizens has already been held, to agree upon a price at which the land required will be sold. The improvement is one that is much needed.

IN commenting upon the boorishness of Lord Onslow during the recent trip on the Northern Pacific Railroad, London Truth says: "Americans are to blame for this sort of nonsense. They should have put his lordship out on the prairies, and left him to the solitary enjoyment of his dignity."

Human flesh is heir to 2,400 different diseases. The intelligent doctor is bound to hit some of them in examining a patient.

When to Take Medicine.

The chief causes of disease are errors in diet, errors in dress, intemperance, impure water, unwholesome food, defective teeth, and blood poisoning from inhalation of impure air and noxious gases. Disease induced by any one of these causes, almost invariably manifests itself by disorder in the functions of the liver; there the alarm is sounded first, and if not attended to promptly the trouble is liable to extend to other vital organs. Dyspepsia, constipation, chronic diarrhœa, disease of the kidneys, dropsy, rheumatism, catarrh, consumption and various forms of skin diseases often proceed directly from derangement of the liver. Attention to the liver forestalls other diseases. The remote cause of a majority of our ordinary ailments, is taking cold; the natural functions of the body are retarded, and waste material is retained in the system long enough to do mischief. The usual remedy is to take a cathartic or a laxative in order to remove it. But a more convenient and a more natural plan, in ordinary cases, is to cut off the food supply for twenty-four hours, and trust to nature to do the rest. Instead of food, a few teacupfuls of hot water drank during the day will hasten the desired result. Whenever the bowels become constipated there is an uncomfortable feeling in the system, often accompanied by restlessness and anxiety of mind. The above suggestions, if followed strictly, will bring relief more promptly than medicine and without its inconveniences.

THE PHENOMENA OF DEATH.—A Philadelphia physician has made a special study of the phenomena of death, both through his personal observations and those of others, and his conclusion is that dissolution is painless. "I mean," he explains, "that it approaches as unconsciously as sleep. The soul leaves the world as it enters it. Whatever be the cause of death, whether by lingering malady or sudden violence, dissolution comes either through syncope or asphyxia. In the latter case, when resulting from disease, the struggle is long protracted, and accompanied by all the visible marks of agony which the imagination associates with the closing scene of life. Death does not strike all the organs of the body at the same time, and the lungs are the last to give up the performance of their functions. As death approaches, the latter become more and more oppressed; hence the rattle. Nor is the contact sufficiently perfect to change the black venous into the red arterial blood. An unprepared fluid consequently issues from the lungs into the heart, and is thence transmitted to every other organ in the body. The brain receives it, and its energies appear to be lulled thereby into sleep—generally tranquil sleep—filled with dreams which impel the dying to murmur out the names of friends, and the occupations and recollections of life."

THE first line of telegraph was erected less than forty years ago, and at the present time there are more than 1,000,000 miles in operation. The United States comes first, with 250,000 miles, with the immediate probability of adding another 100,000 miles; Germany comes next with 150,000 miles, and the great Chinese Empire last, with 1,200 miles.

TAR may be readily removed from the hands by rubbing with the outside of fresh orange or lemon peel and wiping dry immediately. The volatile oils in the skins dissolve the tar so that it can be wiped off.

THAT LAND GRAB.

The House Committee on Public Lands has made short work of the Texas Pacific land grant. Mr. Huntington made a feeble effort to save it, and Mr. Roger A. Pryor was called in to make a sentimental speech, but the Committee seems to have been in no temper for trifling, for it agreed unanimously upon a report declaring the lands forfeited. The House will confirm the report by passing the bill, and and the Senate will hardly dare to hang the matter up. And this is the result of the Huntington letters. With his own little pen the railway chieftain wrote his own undoing. In the face of the revelations contained in that correspondence, and rather arrogantly re-affirmed by Mr. Huntington himself when the letters were made public, Congress was in no mood to parley with him or any of his lieutenants. It took the very first opportunity that offered to snub him violently. But by doing this Congress will work no injustice to Mr. Huntington or any of his associates. The latter never had any more right or title to the Texas & Pacific land grant than to any other of the grants not made to themselves. Congress made that grant with the express intention to aid a competing line to the Pacific coast. The monopoly of the one line then constructed had already become burdensome, and it was to check its aggressions that Congress saw fit to aid the new company. That the latter did not build the line was due to influences that Congress could not control. The other people—the Huntington party were strodg enough to butld it with their own resources, and did so, thus perpetuating their own monopoly and destroying the very object of the land grant made to the other company. Now to claim the grant because it was assigned to them by a company which had never earned it, was, to say the least a bold and daring act, and one whice they could only hope to succeed in by juggling in the departments, or by those other methods of persuasion so freely hinted at in some of the Colton letters.

The Southern Pacific Railway Company will not suffer by the forfeiture of the grant. It never was theirs—indeed, they knew that its very existence was intended as a menace to their aggressive policy. They choked the real grantees out of the field, and are now in possession, and to that extent they have triumphed over the objects of Congress when the grant was made. Let them be content with their victory, and let the unearned grant be restored to the people.

HOLLOWAY, the English patent medicine man, who recently died, once enclosed a check for a thousand pounds in a letter to Charles Dickens, which he placed at Dickens' disposal on condition that one line of complimentary reference to Holloway's cures should appear in the book which Dickens was then publishing in monthly numbers. The bearer waited for an answer. 'What did you do?" Dickens was asked. "Do!" he cried, "I put the check back into the letter and sent it down to the messenger, saying that was all the answer I had to send."

IN talking with several prominent business men from Candelaria it was ascertained that the boom is not expected to reach the town before Summer, but that, when it does come, Candelaria will be livelier than ever before. It is expected that the Northern Belle assessment will nearly all be paid, as the principal stockholders own about one-third of the Holmes stock, and will get their money back when the judgment is paid. Companies having money on hand intend to spend it in development work between now and July, and there is talk of a new leaching mill.—Hawthorne Bulletin.

DAN DEQUILLE, the veteran journalist who has been shoving the local pen-oil on the Virginia Enterprise for the past decade, gives expression to the following regarding newspaper work: "A man who edits a newspaper is much more a slave than a man in any other profession. The law is a jealous mistress, but much more so is journalism. A man who binds himself to a newspaper has a long existence of monotonous drudgery. A lawyer can have a vacation, an editor cannot—he is a galley slave chained to the oar. When the time comes he must write. The will must come to the rescue. No sooner does he get one paper out than all his powers are taxed to get out another, and he will fall by the roadside under this load unless he has an everlasting spring of enthusiasm in his breast."

ONE of the most important decisions of recent date has just been made by Judge Sawyer, of the United States Circuit Court in California, granting a perpetual injunction against hydraulic mining, thus striking a blow at one of the most important industries of the Pacific Coast. As, however, this decision and action so manifestly unjust will probably be appealed to a higher court, it is to be hoped that the right of the miners who have invested so many million dollars in development, and have made the Pacific slope what it is to-day, by their well-earned product, may receive the consideration which the vast importance of the subject demands. The battle is by no means ended.—Chicago Mining Review.

"IF a policeman comes heah foah me, my deah," said Cholly Pockah, "do not let him in. Tell him I am dead. Infoahm him dat I died of small pawks."

"Policeman, Cholly! Why should an official come after you?"

"Foah laroceny. I've just swindled that bar-keeper at the hotel out of fifteen cents."

"Oh, deah, why did you do such a naughty thing?"

"I've signed the pledge of temperance, and I walked right by the bah without taking a drink, and I know it will be regarded as laroceny foah me to thus go back on the bah."

MR. JUSTICE MAULE once addressed a phenomenon of innocence in the following words: "Prisoner at the bar, your counsel thinks you innocent. But a jury of your own countrymen, in the exercise of such common sense as they possess, which does not seem to be much, have found you guilty; and it remains that I should pass upon you the sentence of the law. That sentence is, that you be kept in imprisonment for one day, and as that day was yesterday, you may go about your business." The unfortunate rustic, rather scared, went about his business, but thought that law was an uncommonly puzzling thing.

THAT portion of the late ruling of the Postoffice Department which placed engravings, lithographs, Christmas and New Year's cards in the fourth class of mail matter, has been superseded by a later decision of the Postmaster General, add they may now be sent by mail in small or large quantities (not over four pounds) as third-class matter at the rate of one cent per two ounces; but labels, patterns, photographs, playing-cards, visiting cards, address tags, paper sacks and wrapping paper with advertisements thereon, bill heads, letter heads, envelopes, and other matter of the same general character, remain in the fourth class, and must be prepaid at one cent per ounce.

THE Directors of the Mexican Central Railway are preparing to drive their last spike with great pomp and ceremony. There will be a monster excursion, music and all manner of festivites. The bonds of the Mexican Central are only worth 70. Let them beware the fate of Villard.

NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT.

A Placer Mine, Being Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, T. 28 N., R. One (1) East, San Bernardino Meridian.

No. 242.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
BODIE, CALIFORNIA,
December 1, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ARTHUR W. BOWMAN, whose post office address is San Francisco, California, and who resides at Piedmont, in Alameda County, State of California, has by Barney H. Coleman, his agent and attorney in fact, whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office an application for a Patent in favor of him, the said Arthur W. Bowman, for the "NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" the same being a placer mining claim bearing borax in the forms of borate of lime and borate of soda, and situate, lying and being in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, and more particularly described in the plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, in Township No. 28 North, Range No. 1 East, San Bernardino B. and M.; the exterior boundary lines of the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" or placer mining claim and premises hereby sought to be patented being officially described in said plat and field notes of survey as follows, viz.: (the magnetic variation being 15 deg. 31 min East.)

Commencing at a chalk stone monument four (4) feet long and (1) foot square marked "N C B D No. 1," for "North Coleman Borate Deposit No. 1," situated in the dry bed of Death Valley, and from which "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears north fifty-three (53) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, at the distance of thirty-six (36) chains and forty seven hundredths (47.100) of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes east, and "Winters Peak" bears south seventy-two (72) degrees thirty-seven (37) minutes east; and running thence from said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1," hereinbefore described:

First Course—North twenty (20) chains and eighteen hundredths (18.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 2" on gravel slope; thence, Second Course—West twenty (20) chains and forty (40.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 3" in dry bed of lake; thence, Third Course—North ten (10) chains and eight hundredths (8.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 4," in gravel slope; thence on Fourth Course—West twenty (20) chains and seventeen hundredths (17.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 5," on margin of dry lake; thence, Fifth Course—North twenty (20) chains and seventeen hundredths (17.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 6," on gravel slope; thence, Sixth Course—West twenty (20) chains and twenty eight hundredths (28.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 7," on margin of dry lake; thence, Seventh Course—North eight (8) chains and fifty-two hundredths (52.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 8;" thence, Eighth Course—West twenty (20) chains and twenty-nine hundredths (29.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 9;" thence, Ninth Course—South eighteen (18) chains and forty-seven hundredths (47.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 10," from which the section stake in the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections seven (7) and eighteen (18) of Township twenty-eight (28) North, Range one (1) East, bears south eighty-two (82) degrees west distant twenty-one (21) chains and thirty-eight hundredths (38.100) of a chain, and said "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears south eighty (80) degrees twenty-six (26) minutes east; thence, Tenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 10" first above described; east ten (10) chains and seventeen hundredths (17.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 11;" thence, Eleventh Course—South twenty (20) chains and seven hundredths (7.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 12;" thence, Twelfth Course—East, eleven (11) chains and sixty-three (63.100) hundredths of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 13," from which the said stake marked "N C B D No. 3" bears east at the distance of thirty-nine (39) chains and five hundredths (5.100) of a chain; thence, Thirteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 13" south twenty (20) chains and fourteen hundredths (13.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 14;" thence, Fourteenth Course—East nineteen (19) chains and seventy hundredths (70.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 15," from which the said stake marked "N C B D No. 1" bears east distant thirty-nine (39) chains and eighty-seven hundredths (87.100) of a chain; thence, Fifteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 15" south twenty (20) chains and eighteen hundredths (18.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 16;" thence, Sixteenth Course—Running east thirty-nine (39) chains and seventy-seven hundredths (77.100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 18," from which a stone monument at the north east corner of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine" bears south twenty-six (26) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, distant one hundred and thirteen (113) chains and eighty-three hundredths (83.100) of a chain; and thence, Seventeenth Course—North twenty (20) chains, running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 18" to said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1," the place of commencement; containing three hundred and thirty-eight (338) acres and thirty-eight hundredths (38.100) of an acre, more or less.

The said "Mineral Monument No. 33" hereinbefore referred to, consists of a durable sandstone four (4) feet long set two (2) feet deep in the ground and being six (6) inches square at the top, whereon is securely fastened a brass plate marked "N S E W; S B M M M No. 33," the same being situated on a ridge near the center of the southwest slope of the central one of three prominent buttes near the northern end of, and at the northeast side, of Death Valley distant about seven and three-fourths (7¾) miles from the entrance of "Furnace Wash" into Death Valley.

From said "Mineral Monument No. 33" a stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1" of the "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" aforesaid, bears south fifty-three (53) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west at the distance of thirty-six (36) chains and forty-seven hundredths (47.100) of a chain; a stone monument marked "C D No. 18," of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," bears south eight (8) degrees forty (40) minutes east at the distance of one hundred and forty-four (144) chains and seventy-eight hundredths (78.100) of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north 3 deg. 35 min. east; "Winters Peak" bears south 70 deg. east; summit of Butte bears south 65 deg. 20 min. east, distant about 113 chains; the section stake on San Bernardino Meridian between sections seven (7) and eighteen (18) of Township twenty-eight (28) North, Range one (1) East, bears north eighty-three (83) degrees twelve (12) minutes west distant one hundred and thirty-two (132) chains and seventy-six hundredths (76.100) of a chain, and "Mineral Monument No. 34" bears south 9 deg. 24 min. east distant 442 67.100 chains. Said claim or "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" herein applied for, consists of the locations called "No. 1 North Coleman Borate Deposit," "No. 2 North Coleman Borate Deposit," and "No. 3 North Coleman Borate Deposit," all duly recorded in "Liber A," at pages from 127 to 133 of the records of said Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, kept at the Mining Recorder's office in said District; the same being also recorded at pages 207, 208 and 209 of Book "D," "Records of Land, Water and Mining Claims," kept at the office of the County Recorder at Independence, Inyo County, California. Adjoining claims unknown if any exist; the nearest surveyed claim to this being the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," situate about one hundred and thirteen (113) chains and 86.100 of a chain in a southeasterly direction from the southeast corner of this the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine," or claim hereby sought to be patented.

All adverse claims must be filed in this office within sixty (60) days from the date of first newspaper publication of notice hereof, or they will be barred under the law.

FATAL ACCIDENT. — John Viel, of Lone Pine, who has been afflicted for the past seven years with total blindness—caused by an explosion of giant powder in the Rex Montis mine—died from the effects of chloroform, on the morning of the 23d instant. Mrs. Viel, who had been suffering for several days with neuralgia, had procured a bottle of the drug to relieve her suffering, and at 11 oclock the preceding night had saturated a piece of paper and applied it to her head, which produced a profound slumber. While she was in this condition, who was laboring under insomnia, arose from the bed and groped his way to the pantry and obtained possession of the bottle (an ordinary Jamaica ginger one), and drank at least two-thirds of its contents. About 4 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Viel was aroused by his struggling, and from his vomiting detected the fumes of the chloroform. The fatal drug had already produced a deadly effect; Viel was unconscious and remained so until death ensued, which was at half-past 10 oclock A. M., on the 23d. He was buried with the beautiful and solemn Masonic rites, under the auspices of Inyo Lodge, No. 221, F. & A. M., of which he was a member. The unfortunate man was an old and well-known resident of this county.

MODOCK.—The strike made in the East Lookout mine two weeks ago is still improving. Stope No. 1 has 3½ feet of clean ore; No. 2, 2½ feet of rich ore; Nos. 3 and 4 have not varied for the last week and are turning out 4 tons daily. Ore product is from 9 to 12 carloads per day. On account of the importance of this ore body Supt. Fitzgerald says he will have to let contracts for additional coal, wood and iron. There will be at least a 30 days' run of ore on hand when the furnace resumes.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE.—There will be preaching here to-morrow, at 11 o'clock in the morning, and also in the evening, by Rev. W. Nims.

THE National Committee of the Prohibition Home Protection Party has issued a call for a National Convention of that party, to be held at Pittsburg on May 21st next, to nominate a President and Vice President. The object is to secure absolute prohibiton by the Government. The representation will be on the basis of one delegate for each 250 and fraction over 100 votes cast by the members of the party in the thirteen States where the party was represented at the last election, and the same proportionate representation in the States where the party is not formally organized. The women are included in the organization.

GEN. BUTLER never expects to live in Washington again, except perhaps in the White House, for he has offered to sell his granite mansion on Capitol Hill to the Government for Congressional committee rooms. Butler was the first retired statesmen to find himself with a splendid residence he did not need. Following him have come Attorney-General Williams, Boss Shepherd, Robeson, Windom, Blaine, and now Pendleton is added to the list. If Butler succeeds in selling his house, perhaps others may try their luck with Uncle Sam.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE COUNTY of Inyo, State of California. Thomas Beltran, Plaintiff, v. The Inyo Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, Defendant. Action brought in the Superior Court in the County of Inyo, State of California, and the Complaint filed in the office of the Clerk of said County.

The People of the State of California send greeting to the Inyo Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, Defendant. You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named Plaintiff in the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this Summons—if served within this County; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days.

The said action is brought to recover of you the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars, due for work and labor done and performed and services rendered by Plaintiff for Defendant in caring for, protecting and preserving the mines, mill and water of Defendant, situated in Cerro Gordo Mining District, County of Inyo, State of California, from the fourth day of January, 1883, to the Fifteenth day of October, 1883; all of which said work and labor done and performed and services rendered at the special instance and request of Defendent; also, for interest on said sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars at the rate of seven per cent. per annum from the Fifteenth day of October, 1883, until paid, and for costs of suit, as appears by the complaint on file herein and to which reference is here made.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, the said Plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars, interest as aforesaid, and costs of suit.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, State of California, this Sixteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 1.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY met this Eleventh day of August, 1883, a full Board being present.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo do Ordain as follows:

The following Funds are hereby established:

(1) A Fund to be known as the COUNTY SALARY FUND, which shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the salaries of all officers of the County of Inyo. All moneys derived from licenses shall be paid into the Treasury, and shall be placed to the credit of the County Salary Fund. Should the amount received from such source be insufficient it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer to transfer to said Fund from the General Expense Fund of the County such sums as may be necessary to pay said salaries as they become due.

(2) A GENERAL EXPENSE FUND, from which shall be paid the fees and mileage of jurors and witnesses, the fees of County and Township officers, for all services which are a legal charge against the County, and all such other bills as may be allowed by the Board of Supervisors under authority of law.

(3) A HOSPITAL FUND, for the purpose of maintaining a County Hospital and caring for the indigent sick and otherwise dependent poor of the County.

(4) A GENERAL ROAD FUND, from which may be paid such amounts as may be found necessary for such general road purposes in which the inhabitants of all the Districts within the County are more or less interested, or to assist weak and impoverished Districts, to be applied as the Board may order or direct.

(5) A Fund to be known as the INTEREST AND BUILDING FUND, for the payment of the principal and interest of the Inyo County Bonds, as the same may become due.

(6) A SCHOOL FUND, for the maintenance of the public schools of Inyo County.

(7) A CONTINGENT FUND, to be used for paying any indebtedness, subject to the orders of the Board of Supervisors.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 3.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Inyo, State of California, met at Independence on the First day of October, A. D. 1883. Present—E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding. A. Spencer and Thomas Boland, and adopted the following Ordinance:

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo, State of California, do ordain as follows:

That all persons doing business within the County of Inyo shall obtain licenses from the Tax Collector of said County, as follows.

SECTION 1. Auctioneers are divided into two classes, and must obtain licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales amount to Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and upwards constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Fifty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales are less than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 2. Persons engaged in banking, loaning money at interest, or in buying or selling notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of private persons; or in buying or selling State, County or City stocks, or other evidences of State, County or City indebtedness; or stocks, or notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of incorporated companies; or in buying or selling gold dust, gold or silver bullion, or gold or silver coin, are divided into two classes, and must pay licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those doing business in the aggregate to the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter or over constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CSASS.

Those doing business in any amount less than Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 3. From each proprietor of a billiard table, not kept exclusively for family use, for each table Five Dollars per quarter; and for a bowling alley, Fifteen Dollars per quarter for each alley; but no license must be granted for a term less than three months.

SEC. 4. For each exhibition for pay, for a theatrical performance, a caravan or menagerie, or any collection of animals, circus, or other acrobatic performance, Seven Dollars; and for each show for pay of any figures, jugglers, necromancers, magicians; wire or rope dancing, and sleight of hand exhibitions, Five Dollars for each performance. The provisions of this section do not apply to exhibitions or entertainments given for the benefit of churches, schools, or other charitable entertainments, by any amateur dramatic association or literary society of the town or district in which such exhibition or entertainment is given.

SEC. 5. Each pawn broker must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 6. Each keeper of an intelligence office must pay a license of Ten Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 7. Every person who sells spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wine in less quantities than one quart, must obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and make the following payment—

FIRST CLASS.

Those making sales to the amount of One Thousand Dollars or more as a monthly average, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those making sales of less than One Thousand Dollars per month, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 8. Every person who, at a fixed place of business, sells any goods, wares or merchandise, wines or distilled liquors, drugs or medicines, jewelry or wares of precious metals, whether on commission or otherwise (except agricultural or vinicultural productions, or the productions of any stock, dairy or poultry farm of this State, when sold by the producer thereof, and except such as are sold by auctioneers at public sale under license), and all persons who keep horses or carriages for hire (except such as are used in the transportation of goods), must obtain from the Tax-Collector, and for each branch of said business, license, and pay quarterly therefor an amount of money to be determined by the class in which such person is placed by the Tax Collector; such business to be classified and regulated by the amount of the average monthly sales made, or hiring done, and at the rates following—

FIRST CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Nine Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, and less than Twenty-five Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Four 50-100 Dollars per quarter.

THIRD CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring of less than Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, constitute the third class, and must pay a license of Three Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 9. The sale of liquors and wines by persons licensed under the preceding section must not be in less quantity than one quart measure. No license must be required of physicians, surgeons, apothecaries or chemists, for any wines or spirituous liquors they may use in the preparation of medicine.

SEC. 10. Every traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who carries a pack and vends goods, wares or merchandise other than the manufactures or productions of this State, must pay for a license Five Dollars per month; and every such traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who uses a wagon, or one or more animals, for the purpose of vending such goods, wares or merchandise of any kind, must pay for a license Fifteen Dollars per month.

SEC. 11. Every person who keeps a stallion, jack or bull, and who permits the same to be used for the purpose of propagation for hire, must annually obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and pay therefor as follows—

First—Horses that are hired for the purpose of propagation, by the season, at One Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and require a license of Seventy-five Dollars.

Second—At Seventy-five Dollars, and less than One Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and require a license of Sixty Dollars.

Third—At Fifty Dollars, and less than Seventy-five Dollars, constitute the third class, and require a license of Forty Dollars.

Fourth—At Thirty Dollars and less than Fifty Dollars, constitute the fourth class, and require a license of Twenty-five Dollars.

Fifth—At Fifteen Dollars and less than Thirty Dollars, constitute the fifth class, and require a license of Fifteen Dollars.

Sixth—At less than Fifteen Dollars, constitute the sixth class, and must pay a license of Ten Dollars.

Seventh—For each jack, Ten Dollars.

Eighth—For each bull, Ten Dollars.

A license for propagation obtained from the Tax-Collector, under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall entitle the holder thereof to the right to go into any County of this State for the purpose of propagation without further license or expense.

This Ordinance shall take effect, and be in force on and after the SEVENTEENTH day of OCTOBER, A. D. 1883.

And it is hereby ordered, that this Ordinance be published for one week in THE INYO INDEPENDENT a weekly newspaper, printed and published in the County of Inyo.

NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT.

A Placer Mine, Being Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, T. 28 N., R. One (1) East, San Bernardino Meridian.

No. 242.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, BODIE, CALIFORNIA, December 1, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ARTHUR W. BOWMAN, whose postoffice address is San Francisco, California, and who resides at Piedmont, in Alameda County, State of California, has by Barney H. Coleman, his agent and attorney in fact, whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office an application for a Patent in favor of him, the said Arthur W. Bowman, for the "NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," the same being a placer mining claim bearing borax in the forms of borate of lime and borate of soda, and situate, lying and being in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, and more particularly described in the plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, in Township No. 28 North, Range No. 1 East, San Bernardino B. and M.; the exterior boundary lines of the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" or placer mining claim and premises hereby sought to be patented being officially described in said plat and field notes of survey as follows, viz.: [the magnetic variation being 15 deg. 31 min. East.]

Commencing at a chalk stone monument four (4) feet long and (1) foot square marked "N C B D No. 1," for "North Coleman Borate Deposit No. 1" situated in the dry bed of Death Valley, and from which "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears north fifty-three (53) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, at the distance of thirty-six (36) chains and forty-seven hundredths (47-100) of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes east, and "Winters Peak" bears south seventy-two (72) degrees thirty-seven (37) minutes east; and running thence from said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1" here before described:

First Course—North twenty (20) chains and eighteen hundredths (18-100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 2" on gravel slope; thence, Second Course—West twenty [20] chains and forty [40-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 3" in dry bed of lake; thence, Third Course—North ten [10] chains and eight hundredths [8-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 4," in gravel slope; thence on Fourth Course—West twenty [20] chains and seventeen hundredths [17-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 5" on margin of dry lake; thence, Fifth Course—North twenty [20] chains and seventeen hundredths [17-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 6," in gravel slope; thence, Sixth Course—West twenty [20] chains and twenty-eight hundredths [28-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 7," on margin of dry lake; thence, Seventh Course—North eight [8] chains and fifty-two hundredths [52-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 8;" thence, Eighth Course—West twenty [20] chains and twenty-nine hundredths [29-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 9;" thence, Ninth Course—South eighteen [18] chains and forty-seven hundredths [47-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 10" from which the section stake in the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections seven [7] and eighteen [18] of Township twenty-eight [28] North, Range one [1] East, bears south eighty-two [82] degrees west, distant twenty-one [21] chains and thirty-eight hundredths [38-100] of a chain, and said "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears south eighty [80] degrees twenty-six [26] minutes east; thence, Tenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 10" first above described; east ten [10] chains and seventeen hundredths [17-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 11;" thence, Eleventh Course—South twenty [20] chains and seven hundredths [7-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 12;" thence, Twelfth Course—East, eleven [11] chains and sixty-three [63-100] hundredths of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 13," from which the said stake marked "N C B D No. 3" bears east at the distance of thirty-nine [39] chains and five hundredths [5-100] of a chain; thence, Thirteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 13" south twenty [20] chains and fourteen hundredths [13-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 14;" thence, Fourteenth Course—East ninety-nine [99] chains and seventy hundredths [70-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 15" from which the said stake marked "N C B D No. 1" bears east distant thirty-nine [39] chains and eighty-seven hundredths [87-100] of a chain; thence, Fifteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 15" south twenty [20] chains and eighteen hundredths [18-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 16;" thence, Sixteenth Course—Running east thirty-nine [39] chains and seventy-seven hundredths [77-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 18" from which a stone monument at the north-east corner of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine" bears south twenty-six [26] degrees forty-five [45] minutes east, distant one hundred and twelve [113] chains and eighty-three hundredths [83-100] of a chain; and thence, Seventeenth Course—North twenty [20] chains, running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 18" to said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1," the place of commencement, containing three hundred and thirty-eight [338] acres and thirty-eight hundredths [38-100] of an acre, more or less.

The said "Mineral Monument No. 33" hereinbefore referred to, consists of a durable sandstone four [4] feet long and two [2] feet deep in the ground and being six [6] inches square at the top, whereon is securely fastened a brass plate marked "N S E 1/4; S B M M M No. 33," the same being situated on a ridge near the center of the southwest slope of the central one of three prominent buttes near the northern end of, and at the northeast side of, Death Valley, distant about seven and three-fourths (7¾) miles from the entrance of "Furnace Wash" into Death Valley.

From said "Mineral Monument No. 33" a stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1" of the "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" aforesaid, bears south fifty-three [53] degrees forty-five [45] minutes west at the distance of thirty-six [36] chains and forty-seven hundredths [47-100] of a chain; a stone monument marked "C D No. 18," of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," bears south eight [8] degrees forty [40] minutes east at the distance of one hundred and forty-four [144] chains and seventy-eight hundredths [78-100] of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north 3 deg. 35 min. east; "Winters Peak" bears south 70 deg. east; summit of Butte bears south 65 deg. 20 min. east, distant about 113 chains; the section stake on San Bernardino Meridian between sections seven [7] and eighteen [18] of Township twenty-eight [28] North, Range one [1] East, bears north eighty-three [83] degrees two-two [12] minutes west, distant one hundred and thirty-two [132] chains and seventy-six hundredths [76-100] of a chain, and "Mineral Monument No. 34" bears south 9 deg. 24 min. east, distant 442 6-100 chains. The said claim or "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" herein applied for, consists of the locations called "No. 1 North Coleman Borate Deposit;" "No. 2 North Coleman Borate Deposit," and "No. 3 North Coleman Borate Deposit," all duly recorded in "Liber A," at pages from 127 to 133 of the records of said Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, kept at the Mining recorder's office in said district; the same being also recorded at pages 207, 208 and 209 of "Book D" "Records of Land, Water and Mining Claims" kept at the office of the County Recorder at Independence, Inyo County, California. Adjoining claims unknown if any exist; the nearest surveyed claim to this being the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," situate about one hundred and thirteen [113] chains and 86-100 of a chain in a southeasterly direction from the south-east corner of this the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine," or claim hereby sought to be patented.

All adverse claims must be filed in this office within sixty (60) days from the date of first newspaper publication of notice hereof, or they will be barred under the law.

New Railroad Extension.

Early this week a large number of horses, wagons, etc., the outfit of a large surveying party, arrived here from Oregon to lay the route of the Soledad extension across the valley, and we believe operations have been commenced, a camp being established somewhere in the vicinity of Laredo. Probably two months will elapse before the course of the road will be determined. As is usually the case half a dozen preliminary lines will be run first. It is supposed that the actual work of construction will commence about May 1st. At that time the California and Oregon branch of the Central Pacific, now building north from Redding, will be finished, when it is thought the entire force of men, teams, mechanics, etc., will be transported to Soledad and this place.—Kern Co. Californian.

THE postal notes are proving more popular than was at first promised. During the second week in December 20,000 were paid at the New York Post-office, and the number issued during the year will probably exceed the estimate by 1,000,000. Despite the growth of business, however, the decrease in money orders is only about twelve per cent., which shows that the notes are chiefly used for the small sums that were formerly sent in postage stamps. The fears of counterfeiting have not been justified, and only half a dozen cases of loss and re-issue have occurred during the first quarter. The objectionable color of the notes is soon to give way to a more satisfactory tint, and as the public becomes better accustomed to them they are likely to grow increasingly popular.

TWILIGHT phenomena of a similar character to the appearance lately so prevalent in this country were also observed in the Island of Mauritius. This is especially remarkable, as in that island, situated 20° above the equator, night as a rule, follows the day without any noticeable transition. On several evenings of October, however, there was a splendid glow in the west quite half an hour about half an hour after sunset, and when night had fairly set in this glow soon extended over the whole sky, being reflected on the clouds and covering the island with a purple tint. The sea is described as apparently on fire, the vessels and their masts looking black, and standing out in bold relief. The same phenomena was observed before sunrise.

GENERAL MILLER, in the early part of his Senatorial career, introduced a bill setting apart a large tract of the Sierras in Kern, Tulare and Fresno counties as a public park, with the view of preserving the great forests with which it is covered, and maintaining the rainfall and the flow of water in the streams that there take their rise, which are invaluable for fertilizing the valleys and rendering them habitable; "but," as the Fresno Expositor, of a late date, states, "people who were making money out of the destruction of our forests raised such a howl that the good bill was abandoned."

THE COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE, at Berkeley, have many valuable trees and plants for distribution, such as camphor trees, catalpas, Australian black wattle, pistachio nut, caper plant, pear shaped guava, bamboos, etc., acorns of the English oak, and various kinds of seeds. A package of any of these will be sent by express on remitting twenty-five cents, and five cents for each additional package ordered. This money is to pay the expense of packing, etc.

C. P. HUNTINGTON professes confidence that the Texas Pacific land grant will be obtained by the Southern Pacific. The one is the assignee of the other and the road was built within the specified time. If Congress declares the grant forfeited the matter will go into the Courts, and he says it will be a bad thing for the territories in which the grant lies, as the lands it covers will be tied up for twenty years.

THE OUTLOOK.

Although the statement of the output of the mines of this country, during the past year, may not meet the expectation of many who anticipated a large increase over the figures of last year, it is evident that with former prices the value of the output would have probably exceeded that of 1882, says the Chicago Mining Review. But one of the most important improvements of the past year does not enter into the tabulated statement of values. It is clearly evident to the most casual observer that in the direction of development and improvement no other year in the history of mining shows a more marked change or a better showing of substantial results achieved. The depression of stock interests and the almost entire suspension of investment in speculative securities has tended to turn the attention of miner and investor toward the development of mining properties, so that they might show by production their real value, hence in every mining territory, at the present time, there are more mines and claims in a condition to produce bullion than ever before in the history of mining operations. In many instances, also, better transportation and market facilities have been secured, and another year of work will show a marked change in the volume and value of the output from these different mines which as yet have made no showing. In addition to this large improvement in the direction of development, a number of new and important mining fields have been discovered and are opened to the prospector and miner, so that the field of future operations has been by no means narrowed, but is widely extending its boundary, which has yet reached no definite limit. Not only has the field of operation been extended, but the variety of valuable and useful metals has also been increased by the discovery and investigation of the past season.

There are at present time many indication of an improvement in public sentiment regarding mines and mining, and it is more than probable that considerable capital will seek careful investment in deserving and promising localities during the coming season. Much improvement has been made also in machinery and methods of treating ore, so that much of the cost and loss, those two destructive factors in mining operations, have been largely curtailed and limited in their influence and result. Taking all things into consideration, a review of the past year is most satisfactory and encouraging, and gives rich promise of the permanent advantage of the future to be realized.

THE Carson Appeal, speaking of the alleged mail robberies on the Carson and Colorado road, said to have been perpetrated by Rising and Hawley, says: "There seems to be no disposition on the part of the authorities to investigate the postal robberies on the C. & C. The result is that public opinion no longer fixes the blame on one and exonerates the other, but both are considered guilty. If no legal recognition is taken of the matter, people will begin to inquire if there are two kinds of law, one for the rich and another for the poor."

OUR Representatives in Congress from this State, in order to keep pace with those from other sections, are introducing all sorts of bills to take money out of the public treasury. Roseerans wants money for public buildings in San Francisco, Budd wants half a million or more to expend on the rivers, Henly wants some for his district, Tully wants to build a post office at Los Angeles, Glasscock wants to put out a little for a similar purpose in Oakland, money is wanted to build a post office at Sacramento, etc.; and so it goes continually.

THE rain-storm of the past few days has, fortunately, been general throughout the State. It came at a time when most needed, and has been sufficiently abundant to satisfy the miners and farmers; and lowering skies, with frequent—in fact, almost continuous—showers, indicate that the end is not yet. All the fears entertained of a drouth are now dispelled. Unless there is some unexpected intervention of bad luck, the chances for a fruitful harvest are as promising as could be desired.

SINCE Wheeler, the champion strangler, had his neck judicially twisted, the newspapers of the coast have been crying for the blood of seventeen other murderers who are now awaiting "kingdom come" in the jails of this State.

A WESTERN Republican favors the nomination of Gen. Sherman for President and Robert Lincoln for Vice-President, because "we must have a hurrah campaign."

A GENERAL STORM.—The late snow storm was a very different affair from the local squalls that strike here and there as the "clouds roll by." It extended as far east as Ogden, and probably swept across the whole continent. Up on the head-waters of the Humboldt they had a very heavy fall of snow, and no small depth in all the camps of Eastern Nevada, as far as heard from. It snowed quite heavily in the Bishop Creek country, at Candelaria and all along the line of the Carson and Colorado Railroad. At the Summit of the Sierras there fell about six and a half feet, and a depth of from two to four feet almost everywhere up in the mountains. At all points it will do good, and miners, lumbermen and ranchers alike rejoice.

So says the Virginia Enterprise. But it did not snow in this Valley, along the line of this road.

THE South Pacific Coast railroad is building a palatial depot at the end of their new wharf in Oakland. The improvements already made and those projected are of such extensive and costly character that the local press still hold to the belief that they are really intended for a trans-continental road.

THE new paper promised by J. T. Goodman, Arthur McEwen and Prof. Tom Flynn will appear in San Francisco about the first of February. The list of contributors includes Henry George, Minister Daggett, Judge C. C. Goodwin and other brilliant writers.

THE Senate Committee on Pensions has directed that a favorable report be made on the bill granting pensions to all survivors of the Mexican war, the wars with the Creeks and Seminoles, and the Black Hawk war.

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2.....1884

SUPERIOR COURT NOTES.—Harris & Rhine vs. Independence Tunnel and Mining Company et al.—Ordered transferred to Solano County for trial.

Robert Arnold vs. James Hines—Demurrer withdrawn and judgment ordered in favor of plaintiff for return of property without damages or costs.

L. Munzinges & Co. vs. C. L. Van Epps et al.—Demurrer of C. E. Van Epps and G. W. Burden submitted.

Christian H. Crohn vs. Rafael Diaz—Bill of Exceptions on motion for new trial settled.

The People vs. Seth Kelly—On preliminary examination, defendant was held in the sum of $500 bail to answer charge of assault with attempt to commit murder.

MINING MATTERS.—The parties who came from New York recently, Messrs. Elliot and Stevens, to examine and report on the Panamint properties, report favorably, and it is the intention to erect a new mill and begin operations at an early day, at this long suspended camp....It is reported from reliable parties that the Sterling or Silva mine, below Darwin, has been sold to parties who will at once begin the extraction and shipment of ore....Reports from Cerro Gordo are that the body of ore in the Ygnacio has been cut with most promising prospect of a continuance of high-grade ore....A recent strike in the Defiance mine at Darwin shows the old mine to be still "a live proposition." A large body of high-grade ore has been uncovered and if reports are not colored too highly, the Defiance will, at an early day come again to the front.

PERSONAL.—Judge Conklin is "scattered around" somewhere between San Francisco and Los Angeles....M. M. Glenn is at Hawthorn, but promises a return during the coming week ... John Blair, of the Bishop Creek Flouring Mills, is down on his first trip to the southern portion of the county.... He is chaperoned by Louis Munzinger, of the Bavaria Brewery....Surveyor Seely is in from the southern districts, and talks big about the general outlook thereabouts....J. W. Murphy having about recovered from his severe sickness, will leave again for the borate country next Monday.

DEATH.—By the Walker Lake Bulletin of last Wednesday, news reaches us of the death of W. F. Davis, or Will Davis, as he was more generally known. He was well known throughout this county; and was, for a time, one of the publishers of the Bishop Creek Times. While at Bishop Creek, he married Miss Kate Hughes. From Bishop Creek, he removed to Hawthorne, where he was residing at the time of his death. Lake View Lodge, No. 17, A. O. U. W., adopted resolutions of respect, and the business houses were closed on the day of his burial.

INSTALLATION.—The following elected and appointed officers of Inyo Lodge, No. 546, I. O. G. T. will be installed to-night: John W. P. Laird, W. C. T. Anna Malone, W. R. H. S.; Mrs. E. M. Johnson, W. R. H. S.; Mrs. E. P. Hardy, W. V. T.; Willie A. Chalfant, W. S.; Geo. H. Hardy, W. F. S.; Mrs. H. G. Kernodle, W. T.; Mrs. H. A. Stubblefield, W. M.; Thomas Parker, W. C.; H. A. Cook, W. I. G.; W. Thos. Treglown, W. O. G.

NOTARY.—Supervisor Tom Boland appeared in Independence last Thursday and filed his bonds in the sum of $10,000, to assure the good people of the State of California that he will, for some period of time, faithfully and truly act as Notary Public in the thriving town of Keeler. The emoluments of his new office will figure up about the same as those of his old position—Mayor of Swansea.

COMMON DRUNKS.—In Justice Parker's Court last week three noted characters of Independence were declared common drunkards, and under provisitions of the law all dealers in the ardent were notified not to furnish them with liquor hereafter, for love or money—or words to that effect. It is reported, however, that they continue drunk all the same.

ASSESSMENT.—The New Coso, as appears by the notice elsewhere, has levied an assessment of forty cents per share, delinquent February 28th. It is to be hoped that the present managers and owners of the property have vitality enough to pay up this assessment, pay off the indebtedness and start in on some sensible prospecting work. The late strike in the Defiance ought to "boom" that whole district.

NORTHERN BELLE MILL.—There are ten men at work on the lower Northern Belle mill, at Belleville, Esmeralda county, Nevada, putting it in the best possible condition for work. This means that at no distant day ore will be worked from some of the mines in Columbus Mining District.

DEEP SNOW ON THE C. & C.—The snow on the Carson and Colorado railroad was so deep between Basalt and Teel's stations during the late storm that the trainmen were compelled to use shovels before they could go ahead.

THE DEFIANCE—The air is rife with rumors of a great big strike of an 18-foot body of solid ore in the Defiance mine at Darwin. As usual, nothing very definite or particular can be obtained about the matter, but the main fact seems sustained.

EIGHT DOLLAR ASSESSMENT. — The Northern Belle Company has levied an assessment of $8 per share. Lucky stock-holders!

APPOINTED.—Norman E. Conklin, of this place, has been appointed to a Postal Clerkship on the Carson and Colorado Railroad.

Round Valley Notes.

MR. EDITOR.—At last the young people of Round Valley are awakening, as from a long slumber, and are determined to make up for time lost in sleep. Christmas was noted by the usual Christmas tree and fine supper, but the fantastic toe wagged not. New Year's was celebrated at the school-house by a New Year's basket dinner, which for variety, quantity and quality, we think we are safe in saying was second to none ever produced on Owens River. New Year's night about twenty young ladies and gents drove to T. E. Jones' large carp pond, and passed several hours pleasantly, the ice being fine. Some of the young ladies, by the way, are getting to be quite expert with the skates.

A week ago last Sunday quite a number of the youhg ladies met at the school house to see what could be done in way of a Leap Year Ball. Mrs. Wells, Miss Lottie Jones, and Miss Ettie Horton were chosen as a committee on arrangements. They extended a general invitation to young and old. The young ladies, some of them very modestly, and all very politely, asked the young gentlemen for their company for the occasion, which in all cases but one was granted—for who could refuse the little darlings so simple a thing? Ex-Supervisor Olds promised himself to one of our fairest young damsels, but at the eleventh hour he backed water, and we wouldn't be surprised to hear that Judge Lynch would pay this isolated section a visit ere many days. We think that the Ex-Supervisor certainly deserves severe punishment of some kind. However, she thought her cavalier might play her false, so attached to her bow another string. The young ladies requested their chosen ones to congregate at the residence of David Olds, and from there they would be responsible for their welfare. Two wagons were loaded, one driven by Miss Nettie P. Olds, (who, by the way, is a thorough horsewoman) and her "pard" holding the headlight, that she might the better see to hit all instead of half of the rocks that litter the road. And I tell you what; they made it count. I don't think she missed a single one, and I am safe in saying that she hit some of them as many as nine times. The way that air gal handled ribbons and slung silk was a caution to the old taboose-eaters, and without a doubt would have shamed the noted pioneer driver, Hank Monk, right deown off'n ther box. But she got 'um thar, all right side down, but terribly bunged up. Shortly after arriving at the school house the circus commenced. It was quadrilles and polkas and waltzes and reels from that time until the wee sma' hour of two, when, after having had a way-up time, they all adjourned.

THEY DID.

SWANSEA.—The furnace, under Mr. S. D. Woodhull's management, has been running splendidly right along. Work on the Hawley mines at Cerro Gordo, however, has been suspended for the present for some unexplained reason. About twenty miners have been discharged, leaving only two or three in charge.

DELINQUENT TAX LIST.—Owing to the large delinquent tax list, there is a paucity of reading matter in to-day's INDEPENDENT and the paper is a little late. The delinquent tax list gives volumes of information to taxpayers, therefore they will forgive us.

CITIZENIZED.—In the Superior Court to-day James Jenkins was made a citizen according to the naturalization laws of California.

FRED. DOUGLASS, the well known colored leader, aged 65, was married in Washington on the 24th inst., to Miss Helen M. Pitts, a white woman. Douglass has daughters as old as his present wife.

THE hydraulic miners on the upper Sacramento and its tributaries are abandoning their extensive works, for the present, having concluded to accept the situation.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 1.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY met this Eleventh day of August, 1883, a full Board being present.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo do Ordain as follows:

The following Funds are hereby established:

(1) A Fund to be known as the COUNTY SALARY FUND, which shall be used exclusively for the purpose of paying the salaries of all officers of the County of Inyo. All moneys derived from licenses shall be paid into the Treasury, and shall be placed to the credit of the County Salary Fund. Should the amount received from such source be insufficient it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer to transfer to said Fund from the General Expense Fund of the County such sums as may be necessary to pay said salaries as they become due.

(2) A GENERAL EXPENSE FUND, from which shall be paid the fees and mileage of jurors and witnesses, the fees of County and Township officers, for all services which are a legal charge against the County, and all such other bills as may be allowed by the Board of Supervisors under authority of law.

(3) A HOSPITAL FUND, for the purpose of maintaining a County Hospital and caring for the indigent sick and otherwise dependent poor of the County.

(4) A GENERAL ROAD FUND, from which may be paid such amounts as may be found necessary for such general road purposes in which the inhabitants of all the Districts within the County are more or less interested, or to assist weak and impoverished Districts, to be applied as the Board may order or direct.

(5) A Fund to be known as the INTEREST AND BUILDING FUND, for the payment of the principal and interest of the Inyo County Bonds, as the same may become due.

(6) A SCHOOL FUND, for the maintenance of the public schools of Inyo County.

(7) A CONTINGENT FUND, to be used for paying any indebtedness, subject to the orders of the Board of Supervisors.

E. ROBINSON,
Chairman.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 3.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Inyo, State of California, met at Independence on the First day of October, A. D. 1883. Present—E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding. A. Spencer and Thomas Boland, and adopted the following Ordinance:

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo, State of California, do ordain as follows:

That all persons doing business within the County of Inyo shall obtain licenses from the Tax Collector of said County, as follows.

SECTION 1. Auctioneers are divided into two classes, and must obtain licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales amount to Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars and upwards constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Fifty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those whose average monthly sales are less than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 2. Persons engaged in banking, loaning money at interest, or in buying or selling notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of private persons; or in buying or selling State, County or City stocks, or other evidences of State, County or City indebtedness; or stocks, or notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of incorporated companies; or in buying or selling gold dust, gold or silver bullion, or gold or silver coin, are divided into two classes, and must pay licenses as follows—

FIRST CLASS.

Those doing business in the aggregate to the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter or over constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those doing business in any amount less than Ten Thousand Dollars per quarter constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 3. From each proprietor of a billiard table, not kept exclusively for family use, for each table Five Dollars per quarter; and for a bowling alley, Fifteen Dollars per quarter for each alley; but no license must be granted for a term less than three months.

SEC. 4. For each exhibition for pay, for a theatrical performance, a caravan or menagerie, or any collection of animals, circus, or other acrobatic performance, Seven Dollars; and for each show for pay of any figures, jugglers, necromancers, magicians; wire or rope dancing, and sleight of hand exhibitions, Five Dollars for each performance. The provisions of this section do not apply to exhibitions or entertainments given for the benefit of churches, schools, or other charitable entertainments, by any amateur dramatic association or literary society of the town or district in which such exhibition or entertainment is given.

SEC. 5. Each pawn broker must pay a license of Twenty-five Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 6. Each keeper of an intelligence office must pay a license of Ten Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 7. Every person who sells spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wine in less quantities than one quart, must obtain a license therefor from the Tax-Collector, and make the following payment—

FIRST CLASS.

Those making sales to the amount of One Thousand Dollars or more as a monthly average, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Thirty Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those making sales of less than One Thousand Dollars per month, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Fifteen Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 8. Every person who, at a fixed place of business, sells any goods, wares or merchandise, wines or distilled liquors, drugs or medicines, jewelry or wares of precious metals, whether on commission or otherwise (except agricultural or vinicultural productions, or the productions of any stock, dairy or poultry farm of this State, when sold by the producer thereof, and except such as are sold by auctioneers at public sale under license) and all persons who keep horses or carriages for hire (except such as are used in the transportation of goods), must obtain from the Tax-Collector, and for each branch of said business, license, and pay quarterly therefor an amount of money to be determined by the class in which such person is placed by the Tax Collector; such business to be classified and regulated by the amount of the average monthly sales made, or hiring done, and at the rates following—

FIRST CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and must pay a license of Nine Dollars per quarter.

SECOND CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring to the amount of Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, and less than Twenty-five Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and must pay a license of Four 50-100 Dollars per quarter.

THIRD CLASS.

Those who are estimated to make average monthly sales or hiring of less than Twelve Hundred and Fifty Dollars, constitute the third class, and must pay a license of Three Dollars per quarter.

SEC. 9. The sale of liquors and wines by persons licensed under the preceding section must not be in less quantity than one quart measure. No license must be required of physicians, surgeons, apothecaries or chemists, for any wines or spirituous liquors they may use in the preparation of medicine.

SEC. 10. Every transient merchant, hawker or peddler, who carries a pack and vends goods, wares or merchandise other than the manufactures or productions of this State, must pay for a license five Dollars per month; and every such traveling merchant, hawker or peddler, who uses a wagon, or one or more animals, for the purpose of vending such goods, wares or merchandise of any kind, must pay for a license Fifteen Dollars per month.

SEC. 11. Every person who keeps a stallion, jack or bull, and who permits the same to be used for the purpose of propagation for hire, must annually obtain a license therefor from the Tax Collector, and pay therefor as follows—

First—Horses that are hired for the purpose of propagation, by the season, at One Hundred Dollars or more, constitute the first class, and require a license of Seventy-five Dollars.

Second—At Seventy-five Dollars, and less than One Hundred Dollars, constitute the second class, and require a license of Sixty Dollars.

Third—At Fifty Dollars, and less than Seventy-five Dollars, constitute the third class, and require a license of Forty Dollars.

Fourth—At Thirty Dollars and less than Fifty Dollars, constitute the fourth class, and require a license of Twenty-five Dollars.

Fifth—At Fifteen Dollars and less than Thirty Dollars, constitute the fifth class, and require a license of Fifteen Dollars.

Sixth—At less than Fifteen Dollars, constitute the sixth class, and must pay a license of Ten Dollars.

Seventh—For each jack, Ten Dollars.

Eighth—For each bull, Ten Dollars.

A license for propagation obtained from the Tax-Collector, under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall entitle the holder thereof to the right to go into any County of this State for the purpose of propagation without further license or expense.

This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force on and after the SEVENTEENTH day of OCTOBER, A. D. 1883.

And it is hereby ordered, that this Ordinance be published for one week in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a weekly newspaper, printed and published in the County of Inyo.

E. ROBINSON, Chairman.
Attest. JOHN CROUGH, Clerk.

Adopted this first day of October, A. D. 1883 by the following vote: Ayes—E. Robinson, A. Spencer and Thomas Boland. Noes—none.

LEGAL.

ALIAS SUMMONS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE COUNTY of Inyo, State of California. Thomas Rastello, Plaintiff, v. The Inyo Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, Defendant. Action brought in the Superior Court in the County of Inyo, State of California, and the Complaint filed in the office of the Clerk of said County.

The People of the State of California send greeting to the Inyo Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, Defendant. You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named Plaintiff in the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service), after the service on you of this Summons—if served within this County; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days.

The said action is brought to recover of you the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars, due for work and labor done and performed and services rendered by Plaintiff for Defendant in caring for, protecting and preserving the mines, mill and water of Defendant, situated in Panamint Mining District, County of Inyo, State of California, from the Fourth day of January 1883, to the Fifteenth day of October, 1883; all of which said work and labor done and performed and services rendered at the special instance and request of Defendant; also, for interest on said sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars at the rate of seven per cent. per annum from the Fifteenth day of October, 1883, until paid, and for costs of suit, as appears by the complaint on file herein and to which reference is here made.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, the said Plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of One Thousand Three Hundred Dollars, interest as aforesaid, and costs of suit.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, State of California, this Sixteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

[SEAL] JOHN CROUGH, Clerk.

THERE has recently been perfected, after some three years of patient study and investigation, an invention that bids fair to revolutionize the present method of telegraphic transmission of dispatches. It is called the Synchronous Multiplex System of Telegraphy, and the inventor is Mr. Patrick B. Delany, of New York. Briefly stated, the result of Mr. Delany's discovery is to enable numerous telegraphic dispatches to be simultaneously transmitted over one telegraph wire. Hitherto, the greatest number that could be so sent was limited to four, as in the well-known quadruplex system, but in the synchronous multiplex system the division of a single line has been carried as far as seventy-two, and the limit in this direction does not yet appear to have been reached. The value of the discovery will by no means be diminished when it is known that in the synchronism system, unlike the quadruplex system, these messages can be sent either all in the same direction, or any number in one direction, and the remainder in the opposite direction.

WE have Knights of Labor, Knights of Honor, and many other organizations for alleviating the condition of benighted humanity, but what the ladies would most appreciate would be an order of stay-at-home nights.

"UNCLE JACOB," said the boy waiting for his grist, "I could eat meal as fast as your durn old mill could grind it." "How long could you do it?" "Till I starved to death, b'gosh!"

THE city of Leadville has only one bank left, all the others having gone to smash. The last one to close up was the Merchants' & Mechanics'. The Carbondale Bank now stands alone with the ruins of its former flourishing companions lying around it.

AFTER Santa Claus had put an organ, a seal-skin sacque, a lap robe, a box of gloves and a Webster's unabridged dictionary in a Chicago girl's stocking, and saw that it wasn't more than half full, he was seen to climb out on the roof, sit down in the snow and weep bitterly.

THERE are about 5,000 ballet girls in London. American travelers always spend more time in London than anywhere else.

Mackay's Whisky.

Two distinguished citizens in Washington have received demijohns containing some priceless whisky, 59 years old, that were accompanied by the compliments of John W. Mackay. Somewhere abroad Mr. Mackay found a few gallons of this old nectar ripening in a celiar's seclusion and he brought it back with him to the United States last fall. President Arthur and Colonel Robert Ingersoll were the recipients of Mr. Mackay's little demijohns, and these two connoiseurs and the friends permitted to taste the golden fruit pronounce it the apotheosis and sublimation of rye. The six gallons that Mr. Mackay got hold of were divided into three portions, and these three men sip each drop grudgingly, knowing that no more of the costly stuff can be had, even by the bonanza king.

PACIFIC RAILROADS.

The telegraph brings the information that on last Monday a bill to prevent the sale of certain Pacific railroads before the United States bonds, with interest, shall have been fully paid, was introduced in the House by Mr. Anderson, of Kansas. It provides in case any Pacific railway fails to pay interest on its first-mortgage bonds, to which the bonds of the United States are second and unpaid, that the Attorney General shall immediately institute proper proceedings for the appointment of a Receiver, who shall continue to manage and operate the said road until all the principal and interest on the United States bonds has been fully paid. The Receiver shall pay out of the earnings and receipts the necessary expense of operating and maintaining the said road, the interest on the first-mortgage bonds, assure the per cent. of the whole amount of the United States bonds and subsequent liabilities and the dividends of the company. In proceeding he shall file reports of all the business and accounts of the road to the Secretary of the Interior, who shall transmit the same to Congress. If the earnings and receipts shall not be sufficient to pay the interest on the first-mortgage bonds, the Treasurer of the United States is authorized to pay the interest when due. In the event of such payment by the Treasurer, a Board composed of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of the Interior and the Attorney General, shall report to Congress such recommendations as to the continued operation or final disposition of the road as will in their opinion best secure the interests of the United States. In case the holders of the first-mortgage bonds shall begin proceedings to foreclose their mortgage, is made the duty of the Judge of the Court where such proceedings are instituted to notify the Attorney General, who shall immediately make application for the appointment of a Receiver, and the proceedings shall not be completed prior to final action on such application.

In San Francisco, last Wednesday, Judge Sabin, in the United States Circuit Court, stated regarding the rights of Chinese to land in this country, that the language of the possession of a Custom-house certificate before being permitted to land was not mandatory, was right. He further gave it as his opinion that the Chinese Government is dealing honestly with the United States in the matter of certificates, and saw no reason why a Consular certificate brought to this country by a Chinaman should be considered a fraud.

Henry George arrived in London, where he was greeted by fifteen hundred people, and upon alighting from the train was cheered. He made a speech on the land subject and on the people's rights generally. He said to his audience: "Power must always be with the masses. Do not ask for patronage or charity, but demand justice, your own rights and the rights of those below you. In this we shall conquer."

The Marquis of Queensbury has sent a pamphlet to the Lords and Commons advocating the reform of the marriage service to meet the views of Secularists. He proposes, in order to meet divorce cases, to leave out "whom God has joined together let no man put asunder," substituting therefor, "whom Government or nature may put asunder let no man attempt to keep together."

The London Mining World announces that during the year 1883 thirty-one new mining companies were organized in England to operate in North America, with an aggregate capital of £4,472,835. During the same year fifteen companies were organized for South America, with a capital of £4,245,007.

The editor of a newspaper at Posen, Prussia, has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment for publishing an address congratulating Cardinel Ledachowski on his birthday. If he had let the event pass unnoticed he would probably have been hung.

The Louisville Senatorial caucus met again on the night of February 5th. Carlisle was withdrawn, and Blackburn was nominated on the first ballot, the vote standing: Blackburn, 63; Williams, 57.

A dispatch dated Queenstown, February 31, says: The steamer Faraday, engaged in laying the Mackay cable, sailed again to-day, the chain entangled with her propellor being removed.

Mr. Cox, of New York, has introduced a bill in the House declaring Friday a legal holiday.

Lead is quoted at four cents per pound in New York.

The following from the Virginia Enterprise of Wednesday explains why we received no through mail in Inyo county on that day: "The snow storm of night before last so raged up in the Sierras as to seriously demoralize the trains of the Central Pacific yesterday morning. The east-bound passenger train from San Francisco was snowbound at Cisco, and did not arrive at Reno until nearly 30:30 o'clock in the afternoon. In regard to the storm, a dispatch from Truckee dated February 4th says: A severe snow storm set in over the Sierras last night, and continued the entire day. New snow is deposited to a depth of three feet. At Summit four feet is reported. A freight train is snowed in at Boca, and all the trains on the road are more or less delayed." Thursday the mail was received here at about 11 o'clock, being about four hours late. The C. & C. are having some trouble between Belleville and Benton with heavy snow drifts, and notwithstanding the fact that the engines are supplied with snow-plows, section and train men are compelled to use the shovel vigorously, now and then, between the above named stations.

The Homer Index says Yerington or some other enterprising railroad builder will be wanted in that section in the course of a couple of years to build a narrow gauge railroad from the rich mines of Jordan, Homer and Tioga districts over into the inexhaustible forests on the western slope.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen began at Syracuse, N. Y., February 5th. The reports show a membership of 18,298, and six new Lodges. Three hundred and two thousand dollars were collected, and $200,096 paid in death claims.

A New York dispatch says a motion was made on the 4th to discharge the bail of George W. Conklin, of Reno, Nevada, who. on the 10th of March last shot and killed Wilbur H. Haverstick, for seducing his sister, Mrs. Emma Uhler. The decision was reserved.

The Cœur d'Alene Miner is the name of a paper just started at Spokane Falls, Washington Territory. Those who desire to post themselves on the merits of that reported land of gold should send for a copy of the new paper.

The Queen's speech is decorous and colorless. The opening sentence—"I continue to hold friendly and harmonious relations with all foreign powers"—reads queer at this distance from the tight little island.

The Los Angeles Herald thinks tree planting has secured to that section of California immunity from dry seasons. The farmers of Inyo connty should make a note of this.

The House Committee on Elections voted in the contested election case of Garrison vs. Mayo, of Virginia, to give the seat to Mayo (Readjuster), on prima facia evidence.

Seventy marriageable young women of Holister, Cal., are said to be advertising for husbands. Go Holisterward, young men and old; go Holisterward.

One gatherer of statistics estimates the Wood River, Idaho, yield, at $5,000,000 for last year, and $12,000,000 for 1884.

Prince Victor Napoleon, who was designated by the Prince as his successor, intends making a tour of the United States this Summer.

A Washington dispatch says a favorable report will be made on the bill for a public building at Carson City, Nevada.

Last Monday's election went, as we predicted, says the Homer Index, nearly unanimously in favor of the issuance of bonds.

On the 5th of this month President Arthur nominated Orlando Evans for Postmaster of Reno, Nevada. Happy Orlando!

The Cœur De Alene Mines.

The following is taken from the "Query Column" of the San Francisco Call:

Please tell us (1) Where are the Cœur de Alene mines situated? (2) The nearest railroad station or supply town? (3) Best route? (4) Approximate cost of trip to the diggings? We want to go there and don't know how to start.

Eight of Us.

[(1) In the northwestern corner of Montana Territory, about 30 miles from the British boundary line. (2) Heron station, on the Northern Pacific road, is said to be the nearest railroad point. It is about forty miles from the mines. (3) You can go via Portland, or to Ogden, and take the Utah Northern to its junction with the Northern Pacific. (4) The railroad fare is about $100.]

The Mount Cory Mining Company's Reduction Works, near Hawthorne, Nevada, will commence operations next Monday.

S. J. Tilden is not a candidate for the Presidential nomination. That is what he says himself.

Deep Springs Mining District.

Big Pine, Inyo Co., Cal.
February 7th, 1884.

Editor Independent: — Frequently it is asked by non-residents and strangers of this county, "Where are Deep Spring District and Pine Mountain situated?" Now if they will take a flying trip with us, which will cost them no money and and not to exceed ten minutes of their time, we will take them through a part of the district, from which they can find the balance, if they so wish, at their leisure, and which is the largest in this county.

We leave Alvord station, on the C. & C. R. R. at 7 A. M. and travel Ashmore's toll road—which, by the way, is one of the finest mountain grades east of the Sierras, kept in the best of order, and extends through Deep Spring and Fish Lake valleys and all points north. Eight miles from the station we come to Mr. Ashmore's toll house, which is pleasantly situated in the canyon. He is an agreeable and accommodating gentleman to the traveling public; can always spare a little hay and grain to the tired and fagged-out teams that wish to camp for the night. Some four or five miles further on a gradual ascent, we are at the summit of the White mountains or Inyo range, on Cedar Flat, which is some three miles across by a road as smooth and good as though it was macadamized, making a 2:40 road. Cedar Flat is an immense, level country, where thousands of posts have been cut and taken into Owens River Valley, to mark out beautiful, happy homes for the good and whole-souled people; and thouaands more are waiting for the ax and new comers to mark out new homes on the river, where there is an abundance of good land, owned by Uncle Sam, and more to be had, with water to irrigate it.

We next pass down gradually through deep canyons, with magnificent bluffs reaching high on either hand, which it looks as though Mother Nature had divided, and taken a hand in laying out the pass and road, which is smooth and free from stones. A little further on, and we have a splendid view of a part of Deep Spring Valley, which forms a beautiful landscape. On, and we are at

ANTELOPE SPRINGS,

A very desirable spot for any kind of works to reduce ores, either furnace or mill; there being sufficient water for both. Here we join our "noble steeds" in a beverage that Nature has designed for all living things. Turning to the right, we have a fine view of the lake and the Deep Spring Ranch, aboutfour miles distant. Leading to it is a good road, fringed with sagebrush and bunchgrass; the latter affords the best of range for cattle in the winter months.

Here we are at the ranch, and we find a commodious dwelling house; a stable, larg corral, and all the appliances and utensils necessary for ranching purposes.

THE DEEP SPRINGS.

Here we will say the country and district derived its name from four mammoth springs, in which, up to the present date, no bottom has been found; in fact, they appear to be bottomless, for they have been sounded for several hundred feet, and no bottom found. Boiling up within fifty feet of each other, are sulphur, soda and iron springs, the waters of which are highly spoken of for their great medicinal quality, particularly in cases of rheumatism, asthma, etc. I have never seen any analysis of these waters, but would say that soda, iron and sulphur are the principal ingredients, Some are very cold; others are quite warm. They are delightful to bathe in, and not bad to drink.

Near by is a pond of carp so fat and lazy, it seems hard work for them to move. When one pokes them with a stick, they are like fat hogs; you can almost hear them grunt. Just below is the immense bed of pure white salt, covering several acres. It raises 4 to 6 inches, and hundreds of tons can be gathered annually. It is adapted for dairy and packing purposes. The water of

THE LAKE

Is also salt, and covers a large area of country, and reflects back the shadows of the surrounding mountains and other objects like a mirror. It swarms with ducks, geese and other water fowl in the Fall, Winter and Spring.

On the north, east and west, bordering on the lake is a large meadow country, where the owner of this valuable property, Mr. J. W. McMurry, can cut and put up 150 to 250 tons first quality hay every season. Being situated as it is, in the center of one of the richest and most valuable undeveloped mineral countries west of the Rocky mountains, and within 20 miles of the railroad, free, pure air, healthful climate and magnificent scenery, in less than years will become a great place of resort.

Once more on the good, hard and smooth road, making eight miles per hour, and less than ten to Gilberts' station. Here and there a bunch of fat, sleek cattle curl their tails and bound through the sage brush, making better time than jack-rabbits. On each side of the valley are lofty mountains, where the mines are located, and unsurpassed by any for the amount of work performed. Here we are at Gilbert's, at the mouth of Wyman Creek. Here man and beast can be accommodated with the best the country at present affords. There is nothing "small" about Gilbert. He does the best he can to accommodate travelers and particularly his friends.

As time flies, so must we, to make home to-night, and therefore have no time to speak either bad or good of

THE MINES,

Which are many and of various kinds. One thing we will speak of, and that is, the enterprise of Messrs. Greenly & Co., who are building a first-class five stamp quartz mill on Cottonwood Creek some five miles in a northerly direction from Gilbert's, which will revolutionize this part of the district. I am informed that it will be in full running order early in Spring, and mine owners are looking forward to its completion with bright hearts. Up the

WYMAN CREEK CANYON

We go, in a lively gait or we will be left. The road was once a good one, but the creek got the best of it, and sluiced out part of it, making it a matter of some difficulty to go up all the way on the creek; so we turn to the left just above the old mill site at the mouth of the creek. About one mile of good trail brings us around upon the old road, which is quite good for about five miles, or to the old mining camp of Pine Mountain. There is no time nor space to note the beautiful surrounding scenery—landscapes, lofty mountains, magnificent cliffs reaching high above the level of this beautiful canyon; the canyon is free from sagebrush and boulders but plenty of willows.

Here the scene changes. So does the formation, from cyanite and granite to limestone and slate. We go from the former onto the latter, and after traveling about two miles, come to a magnificent spring, the head of Wyman Creek. Just above are the relics of what was once a furnace, built with lime rock and slate, which melted down shortly after being fired up. Now it stands, a monument of bygone days. Some 200 or 300 tons of good smelting ore scattered around; a pile of charcoal, and a few old logs are all that are left to mark the spot where a very estimable gentleman spent some money and much time. Things were done in a very primitive way, both in the furnace and the mines as they show to-day. The mines are good, and will come to the front on their own merits. From the old furnace site to the line of the C. & C. railroad, via Black Canyon, is about sixteen miles. There is a good road for four or five miles, then a trail leads to the summit, where we find a level, though slightly rolling, descent to Reed's Flat, opposite the mine of the same name and which is a paying proposition. On we go, down a good trail to a spring also called Reed's, at the head of Black Canyon wagon road. Many teams are engaged in hauling wood to the railroad. Now we are at Warm Springs, eight or nine miles from Alvord station. Soon we pass over the distance, making the trip in 12 hours and 35 minutes.

The above is not designed to blow up the country, neither to cave it down. It will come to the front on its own merits, without puffing or blowing. The railroad, which is the best indication of the coming greatness of a regenerated county, which has been kept in the background for the want of facilities for travel and communication, has already opened one grand avenue to trade and commerce, and many more will be added in time. SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9..... ...1884

PERSONAL.—There have been quite a number of visitors at Inyo's county seat this week. Many came on business with the Board of Supervisors, while others were here to attend the funeral of the late James Shepherd. Among them we noticed Mr. and Mrs. George L. Drake, of Bishop Creek; T. F. A. Connelly, Taboose; J. R. Moffett and wife, Alabama; Mr. Springstead, Bishop Creek; Mike Lasky, Beveridge; John Fichman and Messrs. Myers, George's Creek; A. K. Briggs, Bishop Creek; W. L. Hunter, A. C. Harvey, C. D. Begole, G. H. Palmer, Mr. Strauss, Lone Pine; W. H. Walker, Olancha; S. S. Barrie, Chrysopolis. and many others whose names we did not learn....Mrs. Belle Harrell, of Bishop Creek, has gone to San Francisco....John M. Dormer, Secretary of State of Nevada, is enjoying the sea breeze at tide-water....H. M. Yerington was at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, last week, but has returned to Nevada ...M. M. Glenn has arrived at Independence, and will shortly call on the business men of the county, to ascertain who does and who don't want a live paper in Inyo....Frank Shaw was down from Bishop Creek Monday ....J. Johnson, formerly engineer at the Swansea furnace, came up from Lone Pine this morning....John Anton, of Lone Pine, was in town Thursday....Sam Thomas, of Black Rock saw mill, is registered at the Blaney House....Charley Levy, of Lone Pine, arrived at the Miners' Hotel with a 2:40 team this forenoon....Mrs. E. Olinghouse, who has been here the past few weeks visiting her brother, J. R. Eldred, will leave for her home at Wadsworth to-morrow, stopping over a few days at Bishop Creek to visit her sister Mrs. Wm. McDonald....Pap Walker, of Olancha, made this office a short but pleasant call to-day ..Miss Eva Shepherp and County Superintendent of Schools, Chas. H. Groves, were among the list of callers at THE INDEAENDENT office to-day.

MINING INTELLIGENCE.—The Argus Range Silver Mining Company, at Reilley, Sherman District, shipped to San Francisco, last Thursday, six bars of bullion, valued at $7,000....The third shipment within about six weeks, from the Brown Monster mine, Russ District, of eleven tons of ore, rich in silver and gold, will go forward to San Francisco to-day....The furnace at Swansea has just received a thorough overhauling, and will be put in motion again in a few days....A. W. Eibeshutz will soon put men to work on the Potosi Tunnel, Cerro Gordo District, to take out the rich ore struck there for shipment below....Men are at work in all the surrounding districts, and lively times are expected in Inyo county the coming Summer.

THE MAXIM M. & M. CO.—The Maxim Mill and Mining Company, whose cannon ball pulverizer was wrecked recently during the first twenty-four hours run, have decided to replace the broken parts with new, and give it another and thorough trial. The builder has, it is stated, secured the friction plates, this time obviating any danger of displacement, so that the ordinary wear of the machine is the only question to be decided. The balance of the plant is first class, the ore easily crushed, the management competent and careful, and the merits of this grinder, if it has any, will now soon be demonstrated. The new portions of this mill are already on the way here by express.

CANDELARIA KILLING.—At about 7 o'clock last Saturday night, in J. C. Driscoll's saloon, Candelaria, William (Dobe) Willoughby shot V. Elqueta, a Chilian, in the right groin, severing the femoral artery, Elqueta bleeding to death in a few minutes. The two men were playing faro, both claimed a two dollar bet that had just doubled itself. The men came together, when Willoughby drew his pistol and commenced beating Elqueta over the head. They scuffled into an adjoining card-room, where Willoughby fired the fatal shot. Dobe is now in jail at Hawthorne awaiting the action of the Grand Jury.

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE.—Yesterday several teams passed this office on their way to the business portion of the town. They were driven by the native red men, and by the side of each sun-browned tiller of the soil (for they were Piute ranchers from George's Creek) sat his dusky better half. After making necessary purchases, they strolled through the town, stopping now and then to exchange friendly greeting with acquaintances of the Lo family. We are informed there are a number of thrifty Piute farmers in this county.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.—Next Thursday will be St. Valentine's Day, and Cupid's darts will fly around promiscuously. It is customary on this day to fill the printer's box with comics, so that he may be able to use them to paste over cracks in the wall to keep the wind out. The lads and lassies of Independence will no doubt make a run on the postoffice next Thursday.

CORRESPONDENTS.—THE INDEPENDENT earnestly solicits letters from every mining district, town and neighborhood in Inyo county. Friends, stand in with us in making this paper sparkle with readable items and reliable mining information, and you will reap a rich reward.

OUR SICK.—We are pleased to state that all the little children who have been sick in our midst are getting better. Jerry Mairs has so far recovered as to be moving around the house.

SNAPPING COLD.—The last few nights and mornings have been snapping cold, ice forming thick enough to bear up under the pressure of our heavy weight citizens.

Death of James Shepherd.

James Shepherd died at the Shepherds' residence on Tuesday last, the immediate cause of his death being a stroke of paralysis, from which he soon passed away painlessly, quiet and unconscious to the last. The decaased was born in North Carolina, and came to this coast in an early day. With his brother John he came to this valley in 1863, and for more than twenty years has been closely identified with the history and progress of Inyo. He was a man greatly respected for many noble and generous qualities, and his death is a loss to the community. He was never married, but lived always with his brosher John Shepherd, in the bosom of whose family he was ever a suppori and comfort. Probably the largest funeral concourse ever gathered in this county followed his remains to the Camp Independence Cemetery, where they were consigned to the grave with full Masonic rites and ceremonies, by Inyo Lodge No. 221, of which he was an honored member.

Rufus Choate's biographer, as the highest tribute he could express in favor of the genius of his great chief, wrote on his tombstone: "Ruler of the Twelve." This was the expression of a world's respect for his pre-eminent and overmastering genius. If he had written this: "He wrought as well as he knew," he would have expressed a higher and nobler human sentiment. The magnitude of human endeavor is measured only by the spirit that gives it motion. The Caucasion or the Piute works as he knows best, or worst. He works as he knows best—works for God; measured by this standard, Uncle Jim (James Shepherd) wrought for God. Rude, uncouth and rugged, he was full of high and generous things. He was often a suggestion and a surprise to men of high and lofty intellectual experience. When he died he was a dead man. Buried under the shadow of a threatening storm, his grave was to those who saw above and beyond the day and the grave an inspiration and a suggestion to loftier and nobler things. Why "Uncle Jim?" No wife or child in all his sixty-four years caressed or claimed him. He was uncle by kinship to all the world; he was to the rude Indian and the cultivated white always "Uncle Jim." It was the kinship of his race; and for you who understand not this kinship of mankind, life has been in vain. He belonged to an order royal and ancient, whose mystic rites were read and expressed over his dead form; and yet by his grave stood those whose ties were founded on higher and nobler grounds. Tears were shed over his grave by eyes unused to weep, because a man was dead. To be a man is next to being a god. To have these few words expressed over any dead man from a live heart which feels it as truly as these words express the sentiments of the writer, is worth a century of living.

MEANS BUSINESS.—Hank Martin, the boss freight contractor of Nevada, was over the road between Hawley and Darwin last Saturday, for the purpose of estimating the lowest rate that ore and bullion could be hauled from the latter to the former place. This means that the ore is there and capital is going to step in, take it out and convert it into money either by working it there or shipping it into this country for reduction.

DARWIN.—Flattering reports are received here daily from this mining district, and if what is said is reliable (and we have no reason for doubt), in a short time the old camp will spring into new life and give its inhabitants a taste of the good old times of yore. The rich strike in the Defiance together with the pushing of work on other mines there, is attracting attention from all quarters.

ELNA FURNACE.—This furnace is again in full blast. They have on hand a lot of ore from the Farrington mine, Garfield District, Esmeralda county, besides a quantity from their own mine, which will keep the furnace running steadily for some time. The last clean up showed that the ore worked yielded $1,600 per ton! How is that for Inyo county?

NEW ADS.—The new advertisement of Messrs. J. S. Rothschild & Co. will appear in fine style next issue. It will tell about some new goods and reduced prices. With the consent of other advertisers we will remodel all the old ads in this paper (copy to be furnished by the advertiser) and make THE INDEPENDENT wear a bright and business-like look.

THE STORM.—The rain and snow storm that has been raging in this section of our State wound up it business last Thursday night, and the moon came out bright and clear. The snow-capped summit of the Sierras were distinctly outlined, and as seen from Independence, by the soft, mellow rays of the moon, presented a picture that was most beautiful to behold.

GOOD CROPS.—The immense amount of snow in the Sierras will insure an abundant water supply this season, and as a result goods crops are confidently expected; the farmer followeth his plow to the tune of "Hail, Columbia, Happy Land," and everything seems altogether lovely in Owens River Valley.

HAPPY BODIE.—The people of Bodie are supremely happy, and, like Swimley's boarders, content. Bodie stock has boomed and is still on the upward grade, closely followed by other mining properties in the district. The raise in the stock to $13.75 per share is said to be on the merit of the mine.

THE MAGNET MINE.—The Magnet mine, situated in the Telescope Range, south of Panamint, and owned by Spear & Thompson, is showing up finely. Considerable work has been done since November last, and the present prospect is that it will turn out to be a productive property.

CHLORIDERS.—The chloriders are all busily at work in Russ and Union Districts, and we are informed are taking out rich ore.

Transfers.

The following transfers have lately been placed upon record in the office of the County Recorder:

W. H. George to Edward Chenot, in consideration of the sum of $800 conveys to Edward Chenot lots 10 and 12, and S½ of lot 8 in Block 16 in the town of Independence.

Francisco Mendez to Alonzo Peralta, 375 feet in the Esperanza mine, Beveridge District; consideration $1.

John W. P. Laird to A. R. Conklin, a five-sixteenths interest (468¾) feet in the Lapwing mine, Beveridge District; consideration, $5.

Paul Pfefferle to M. E. Harman, one-half interest in lands with ore thereon, in Wild Rose District—mines known as the Virgin, Toledo, Sunset, one-fourth of Keeler and Silver Star mines; one-half interest in parcel of land containing 5 acres and water privileges known as the Virgin mine millsite: also one-half interest in 5 acres of land known as the Inyo silver mine millsite; consideration, $2,500.

John Mullane to John Hass—S½ of of NE¼, NW¼ of SE¼ Sec. 7, and SW¼ of NW¼ Sec. 8, T. 9 S., R. 54 E., 160 acres; to secure payment of a note for $400.

William Matthews to Sam'l T. White and Mary A White; satisfaction of mortgage from S. T. White and Mary A. White to W. Matthews.

S. T. White and Mary A. White to S. J. Newlan—The W½ of SW¼ Sec. 29, E½ of SE¼ Sec. 30, T. 6 S., R. 32 E., located in Pleasant Valley; to secure the payment of a note for $300.

C. D. Begole to Harris & Rhine—E½ of SW¼ and the W½ of SE¼ of Sec. 21, T. 15 S., R. 36 E., 160 acres; also, the strip of land formerly a part of the Dad Moore ranch situate near the town of Lone Pine, 5 acres; security for payment in the sum of $500.

In Memoriam.

"The Master is come, and calleth for thee!" This was the dread, but inevitable summons which came to JAMES SHEPHERD on the morning of the fifth instant, from the Supreme Grand Master of the Universe who presides over that Temple not made with hands eternal in the Heavens. Within twenty brief and fleeting moments after he was called he had passed through the portals and into that Celestial Lodge—to enter which he was worthy, well qualified and fully prepared.

JAMES SHEPHERD was a native of Illinois, aged sixty-four years and four days at the time of his death. Through all this long life naught but probity of intention and honesty of purpose had characterized his conduct, and of him it may be said as it was of the Roman emperor, whose exalted virtues have never been excelled, that no higher encomium could be bestowed than "That no man mourneth because he had lived." The world is brighter, and mankind is better, by such men as JAMES SHEPHERD having lived. His exemplary life, like a pebble dropped upon the sea's surface, will produce a ripple which shall grow and spread until it becomes a vast wave only to exhaust itself by the immensity of space—purifying and ennobling the characters and lives of those who are now, and those who may come after him. Faithful among the faithless, firm among the faltering, steadfast in his purpose, sublime in his integrity, grand, glorious, eternal in his unostentatious devotion to principle and the purposes of life, no grander inscription could be inscribed above his tomb than the simple but expressive words—"I STILL LIVE!" N. E. C

SCHOOL REPORT.—Following is the Roll of Honor for the Bishop Creek Public School, for the month of January: Primary Department, Miss C. V. Stoutenborough, teacher: Appleton Plumley, Claude Inman, Andrew Welch, George Clarke, John Garland, Ray Yaney, Frankie Shaw, Ritta Drake, Annie Van Fleet, Dolly Brown, Lois Plumley. Grammar Department, Mrs. H. Welch, Principal: "A" Class, minimum 85, maximum 100: Nannie Sherwin, 95; Ben Yandell, 95; Lowell Eugley, 93; Fred Bulpitt, 88; Jennie Yandell, 86; Hattie Bulpitt, 86. "B" class minimum 80: Ida Hughes, 86; Jacob Shober, 85; George Drake, 84; John Clark, 83; Ella Van Fleet, 81; Harry Shaw, 80.

THE BOARD.—The Board of Supervisors began a laborious session on Monday last, and will adjourn to-night. An intelligible report of their proceedings cannot be given this issue, but will appear in full on Saturday next. The Board adopted an ordinance relative to licenses, penalties for non-payment, etc., and one relative to the collection of road poll taxes. A special meeting is to be called for Monday, March 3d, when will be considered the matter of establishing a county farm, funding the county indebtedness, road matters and consideration and approval of the county map.

FISH PLANT.—Tom Boland, of Hawley, planted a lot of salt cod in Owens Lake last season. He says they are doing nicely. As this is the cod spawning season, he asks that they be not disturbed for the present. Next year he will start a fish cannery at Hawley.

SCHOOL CLOSED.—The Independence school closed a week ago yesterday, the cause being a scarcity of scholars, owning to the fact that scarlet fever, or scarletina, was reported among the children. Mr. Gibbs, the teacher, and his wife, left for Oakland last Tuesday.

LODGE MEETING.—Inyo Lodge No. 221 F. & A. M., will hold a stated meeting at their hall to-night.

....FOR THE....

WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE,

A Placer Claim, Being Survey No. 2,153' Lot No. 37 and 38, in Townships Nos. 27 and 28 North, Range One (1) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, Bodie, California, December 10, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE "HENRY CLAY MINING COMPANY," a corporation of the State of California, having its principal office postoffice address and place of business in the City and County of San Francisco and State of California, has, by RUDOLPH NEUSCHWANDER, its duly authorized special agent and attorney in fact, who resides at Coleman, in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the county of Inyo and State of California, and whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office its application for a Patent from the United States to the said Company for its borax placer mining claim containing 1,152 50 100 acres, commonly known as and called the "WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," situated in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, the same being now officially surveyed, platted and designated by the U. S. Surveyor General for California as Survey No. 2,153 Lot Nos. 37 and 38, situate partly in Township twenty-seven (27) North, Range One (1) East, and partly in Township twenty-eight (28) North, Range One (1) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, and more particularly bounded and described by the official plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as follows, viz:—the magnetic variation being 15 deg 31 min East.

Leap Year Lingo.

A puma in the Blue Mountain vicinity recently jumped forty feet. It is supposed that he saw a female puma approaching and recollected that it is leap year.

That was a bright girl who said to her bashful lover, "I propose, my dear, that you offer yourself to me, and don't be afraid that I will not accept you." He didn't wait for another hint.

A fellow who deliberately proposes matrimony to a young lady when he can't support himself is either a first-class fraud or a fool—unless he marries for money and becomes her "hired man."

An exchange wants to know "What should we do without our girls?" Well my dear friend, we shall put our foot down on the commandment about covetousness, and make a determined effort to get some other fellow's girl.

A young man who had been going with a Vermont girl for some time, and had made her several presents, asked her if she would accept a puppy. He was awful mad when she replied that her mother had told her, if he proposed to her to say no.

"Margery," said Ethelbert, as they sat on opposite ends of the Turkish divan, "why am I like the letter Q?" and a silence fell, broken only by the melodious cough of Margery's warranted New England throat.

"Because, dear,' added Ethelbert "I am useless without U."

"I thought," said Margery, "it was because Q never begins kissing."

They spell it "quiss" now.

J. W. BARNUM, the North Dakota bonanza farmer, lectured lately in the Academy of Music in Brooklyn, N. Y., about the trip taken by himself and wife to the Pacific, and exhibited curiosities from the Yellowstone National Park, Columbia river, Puget Sound and other points of interest. He spoke of the coal beds destroyed by fire in the Bad Lands, the burned-over portions having deep, yawning chasms, described by one writer as Satan's Dominions with the fires put out. Here are high towers, good representations of forts, turrets and pyramids, with brown, blue and other colored tops. From the Bad Lands to Yellowstone Park the country is full of interest. "But when you reach the Park, fifty-five miles wide by sixty-five miles long, greater in extent than Rhode Island and Delaware combined, with the mountains from 10,000 to 12,000 feet high, its canyons, hot springs and geysers surpassing any others on earth, no artist but God," said the speaker, "can paint it, and no pen describe it." The lecturer showed to the audience horseshoes, spoons and bottles, which, having been in the hot springs for days, were covered with silica deposits; and then gave a graphic description of the wonders of the park.

"I'M at your service, madam," said the polite burglar when caught with his arms full of silverware.

Canada's Walled City.

Lord Lorne told Joaquin Miller last summer that the walls of Quebec cost $100,000,000 since the Duke of Wellington had constructed them. Just think of it—$100,000,000! The price an empire might pay to endow charities, found universities, establish trade with remote conntries, relieve the distressed, help the afflicted, and lift up the people to a nobler appreciation of God's works around them. And what has Canada gained for this enormous outlay? Nothing. Her shores have not been invaded by a foreigner, and she has had no offensive wars to conduct in the interest of the people. The walls of Quebec did not crush the rebellion of '37, and to-morrow they would crumble to pieces if battered by a few Krupp guns. But what a huge sum of money! We boast to day of a surplus of a few millions, but here are $100,000,000 cast into comparatively useless stone and mortar, and the poor are kept poor, and taxes are imposed and hard times come, and we forget that they are all of our own making. We spend millions on a fancy, while the people struggle for a bare subsistence. We load ourselves with useless debts while the energy of the masses grovels away to keep the wolf from the door. Luckily, however, this is a thing of the past. Canada, at least, has no $100,000,000 to spend on grinning fortresses nowadays, and if we had it would be turned to some more useful purpose.

GERMAN TREATMENT OF DIPHTHERIA.—The new German remedy for diphtheria—turpentine—appears to find many advocates. Children take one teaspooonful morning and evening, adults a tablespoonful; in children, tepid milk is given after it, and it might also be mixed with the same. Half an hour after the administration of the drug, a bright redness begins to spread from the margin of the diphtheritic exudation, and this redness becomes generally diffused over and takes the place of the false membrane, and the disease is said to disappear within twenty-four hours without leaving the slightest trace. While this remarkable effect is said to be invariably met with when the remedy is made use of at the very commencement of the disease, those who recommend it so highly assert that it is also successful, only less rapidly, in cases that have progressed for several days.

FROM a report on American precious stones, by Mr. Geo. F. Kunz, it appears that some 88 different minerals occur in the United States which have been used as gems, and twelve of these are found only in the United States. Systematic mining for gems is carried on at only two places in this country, viz: at Paris, Maine, famed for its tourmalines, of which probably more than $50,000 worth have been obtained; and at Stony Point, N. C., which has thus far yielded $7,500 worth of tourmalene and hiddendite. In other cases where gems are found they are either met with accidentally, or occur in connection with other materials that are being mined, or in small veins which are only occasionally to be discovered.

BIG HORSE, a prominent Cheyenne chief, recently avowed himself civilized, and adopted the habits of life of civilized people. His next step was to commit suicide. He would have found it a more convenient style of life to remain a savage.

MANY English noblemen are buying up large tracts of land in the southwest for investment, expecting to be paid by their increase in value through developments of the country, in the future of which they seem to have an abiding interest.

"DEAR ME!" said a good old lady on Fifth Avenue the other evening, "how this craze for china is growing! Here's a New York club that pays $3,000 for a pitcher!"

IN his last sermon, Henry Ward Beecher says he will now become a "fisher of men." This is rough on mankind, but good news for the women and the fish.

THIS season there is a larger number of visitors to Florida than on any previous occasion. Nearly all are from the Northern States.

M. M. GLENN,
Publisher INYO INDEPENDENT.

ON the 8th instant President Arthur issued the following order, announcing the retirement of General Sherman:

General W. T. Sherman, General of the Army, having this day reached the aged of sixty-four years, is, in accordance with the law, placed on the retired list of the army without restriction of pay and allowance. The announcement of the severance from the command of the army of one who has been so many years its distinguished chief, can but awaken in the minds, not only of the army, but the people of the United States, mingled emotions of regret and gratitude at the withdrawal from active military service of an officer whose lofty sense of duty has been a model for all soldiers since he first entered the army in July, 1840, and the gratitude freshly awakened for services of incalculable value rendered by him in the war for the Union, which his great military genius and daring did so much to end. The President deems this a fitting occasion to give expression in this manner to the gratitude felt toward General Sherman by his fellow citizens, and to hope that Providence will grant him many years of health and happiness in relief from the active duties of his profession.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
President of the United States.

SALT LAKE advices of February 12th say that John Taylor, in the Tabernacle, said the Gentiles are getting up a furore now that the Presidential election is coming on, and the Mormon question is as good a party issue as any. They think to do many things, but will not do more than the Lord will let them. The Republicans will put in their platform "polygamy must go," but polygamy is a hard nut to crack. Neither Republicans nor Democrats are our friends. They think we are Democrats, and we are to a certain extent Republicans. They are going to make Mormonism a party issue and the Democrats, fearing to oppose the Republicans on that issue, and not liking to swallow the Mormons, will fall in with the Republicans, though the apple will stick in their throats, as it did in Adam's. What shall we do about it? Why, trust in God. I feel quite easy. We have work to perform, and, with the help of God, we will do it.

A WASHINGTON dispatch of the 12 says the Senate passed the bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay Mrs. Louisa Boddy, of Oregon, $5,400 in full settlement of her claim against the Government for depredations committed and property taken and destroyed by the Modoc Indians in November, 1872.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 4.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Inyo, State of California, met at Independence on the Ninth day of February, A D. 1884, pursuant to adjournment. Present—E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding A. Spencer and Thomas Boland, and adopted the following Ordinance:

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo, State of California, do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. The County Auditor of this county must prepare and have printed blank licenses of all classes mentioned in ordinance No. 3, adopted the First day of October, A. D. 1883, for terms of One, Three, Six and Twelve Months, and for such shorter terms as are therein authorized to be issued, with a blank receipt attached for the signature of the Tax Collector when sold.

SEC 2. The County Auditor must affix his official seal to, number and sign all licenses, and from time to time deliver them to the Tax Collector in such quantity as may be required, taking his receipt therefor, and charging him therewith, giving in the entry the numbers, class of, and amount thereof.

SEC. 3. The Auditor must keep in his office the stumps of all licenses by him delivered to the Tax Collector, and a Ledger in which he must keep the Tax Collector's account for all licenses delivered to him, sold or returned unsold by him. A correct statement of the Tax Collector's license account must be certified to the County Treasurer each month by the Auditor.

SEC. 4. A license must be procured immediately before the commencement of any business or occupation liable to a license tax under the provisions of said Ordinance No 3, adopted October 1st, A. D. 1883, from the Tax Collector of this county, which license authorizes the party obtaining the same, in his town, city or particular locality in this county, to transact the business described in such license. No license issued under this Ordinance authorizes any person to carry on any business within the limits of any incorporated city or town having power by its charter to impose or levy city or town license taxes, unless such person, in addition to the license provided by this Ordinance, also procures the license required by the Ordinances or Orders of such city or town.

SEC. 5. Against any person in this county, required to take out a license, who fails, neglects or refuses to take out such license, or who carries on or attempts to carry on business without such license, the Tax Collector may direct suit in the name of the People of the State of California, as plaintiff, to be brought for the recovery of the license tax; and in such case either Tax Collector or Attorney may make the necessary affidavit for attachment, and a writ of attachment may issue without any bonds being given on behalf of the plaintiff; and in case of a recovery by the plaintiff, fifteen dollars damages must be added to the judgment and costs to be collected from the defendant, and when collected, five dollars thereof must be paid to the Tax Collector, and ten dollars to the Attorney prosecuting the suit.

SEC. 6. The Tax Collector must make diligent inquiry as to all persons in this county liable to pay license taxes; and must require each person to state under oath or affirmation the probable amount of business which he or the association or corporation of which he is President, Secretary or managing agent, will do in the next succeeding month, or next succeeding three months, as license may be issued for; and thereupon such person, agent, President, Secretary or other officer, must procure a license from the Tax Collector for the term desired, and the class for which such party is liable to pay; and in all cases where an understimate has been made by the party applying, the party making such understimate, or the company or firm that he represented, is required to pay for a license for the next month or quarter, as the case may be, double the sum otherwise required.

SEC. 7. Upon the trial of any action authorized by this Ordinance, the defendant is deemed not to have procured the proper license, unless he presents it, or proves that he did procure it; and no man must pay all by him in a civil action of the proper license tax, together with the damages and costs.

SEC. 8. On the first Monday in each month, the Tax Collector must return to the Auditor all licenses unsold, and be credited therewith, and must, with the Auditor, appear at the Treasurer's office and pay into the county treasury for the use of the County Salary Fund all moneys collected for licenses sold during the preceding month, take the Treasurer's receipt therefor, and file duplicate thereof with the Auditor. The Auditor must credit the Tax Collector and charge the Treasurer therewith.

SEC. 9. For each license issued the Tax Collector must collect a fee of one dollar, which fee must be equally divided between the Auditor and Tax Collector.

This Ordinance shall take effect, and be in force on and after the TWENTY FIFTH day of FEBRUARY, A. D. 1884

And it is hereby ordered, that this Ordinance be published for one week in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a weekly newspaper, printed and published in the County of Inyo.

E. ROBINSON, Chairman.
Attest. JOHN CROUGH, Clerk.

Adopted this NINTH day of FEBRUARY, A. D. 1884, by the following vote: Ayes—E. Robinson, A. Spencer and Thomas Boland. Noes—none.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 6.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Inyo, State of California, met pursuant to adjournment, on the Ninth day of February, A. D. 1884, present E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding, A. Spencer and Thomas Boland, and adopted the Ordinance following namely:

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo do Ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Every male inhabitant of this county, over twenty-one and under sixty years of age, and liable to pay a State Poll Tax, must annually pay a Poll Tax of Two Dollars, to be known as the Hospital Poll Tax; provided: the same be paid between the FIRST MONDAY in MARCH and the FIRST MONDAY in JULY; but if not paid prior to the FIRST MONDAY in JULY, then it shall be Three Dollars.

SEC 2. Said Hospital Poll Tax shall be collected by the same persons, and in the same manner, as provided by law for the collection of State Poll Tax, and the same percentages shall be allowed for collection.

SEC. 3. The proceeds of the Hospital Poll Tax must be paid to the County Treasurer, for the exclusive use of the Hospital Fund of Inyo County.

This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force on and after the TWENTY FIFTH day of FEBRUARY, A D. 1884.

And it is hereby ordered that this Ordinance be published for one week in the INYO INDEPENDENT, a weekly newspaper, printed and published in Inyo County.

ORDINANCE OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF INYO COUNTY.

No. 5.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE County of Inyo, State of California, met pursuant to adjournment on the Ninth day of February, A D. 1884, present E. Robinson, Chairman, presiding; A. Spencer and Thomas Boland, and adopted the Ordinance following, namely:

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Inyo do Ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Each male person over 21 and under 55 years of age found in each Road District of the County of Inyo, between the First day of March, and the First day of December, 1884, and who has not paid the same in some other District, must pay to the Road Overseer of such District, or a Road Commissioner, when there is no Road Overseer, a road poll tax of Two Dollars; provided, that any such person may at his option, between the First day of March 1884, and the First day of July, 1884, work out his road poll tax so levied, by performing two days' labor on the roads of his District; such work to be done under the direction of the Road Overseer or Road Commissioner.

SEC. 2. The Road Overseer or Road Commissioner shall give each person performing such labor a certificate thereof. At the expiration of the time fixed by Section 1 of this Ordinance, within which any person may work out his road poll tax, said poll tax shall be due from every person liable as aforesaid, not holding a certificate that he has performed such labor, and shall be collected by the various Road Overseers, or Road Commissioner when there is no Road Overseer in their respective Districts, and in the same manner that State poll taxes are collected.

SEC. 3 For the purpose of collecting road poll taxes every Road Overseer, or in case there is no Road Overseer, the Road Commissioner, is hereby invested with the same powers and authority as the Collector of State poll taxes; and all the remedies given by law for the collection of State poll taxes shall apply to and be in force for the collection of road poll taxes.

This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force on and after the TWENTY-FIFTH day of FEBRUARY, A. D. 1884.

And it is hereby ordered that this Ordinance be published for one week in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a weekly newspaper printed and published in the County of Inyo.

BUSINESS AND RECREATION. — Hume Yerington, Geo. T. Mills, Paymaster on the C. & C., and James A. Kennedy, Manager in the C. & C. freight department at Carson, took a trip over the railroad as far as Hawley this week. Mr. Mills came along the line with the sack to pay off the employes of the road, which he did. Mr. Yerington and Mr. Kennedy were down, enjoying a respite from the cares of business. G. W. Jones, the gentlemanly agent at the Independence depot on the C. & C., and Mr. Kennedy paid our village a short visit Thursday, thence to Camp Independence and home. The three gentleman from Carson returned home yesterday, after a day's hunt at Elna.

THE EXPRESS ROBBERY.

The Discovery, Arrest and Conviction of the Perpetrators.—Quick Justice.

The robbery of Wells, Fargo & Co's. express box, which took place on the night of December 27th, 1883, culminated yesterday, Friday, February 15th, by the conviction of the persons who perpetrated the act. Through the shrewdness and the indefatigability of J. N. Thacker, who, like an unfailing Nemesis to evil doers, appeared upon the scene of action on Sunday last, accompanied by his able assistant, Mike Tovey, the result is solely attributable. As a result of his investigations, on Thursday Lou Schalten, the driver of the stage at the time of the robbery, Bud Harniss, a well-known citizen of the county, and Arlie Mairs, equally well known, the latter two passengers on the stage at the time, were arrested; the two former at Bishop Creek, by Sheriff Gregg, and the latter here, by Under-Sheriff Crough. Upon being confronted by the indisputable chain of circumstances surrounding them, they "fell down." On Friday at 2 o'clock P. M. they had their examination before the magistrate, and by 3:30 P. M. they had been held to answer before the Superior Court, the information had been filed, they had pleaded guilty, made their statement, and the time had been fixed for their sentence, at 2 o'clock P. M., February 18th. Quick justice for Inyo county! From the statement of all parties, Schalten, who was the trusted agent of the express and stage companies, conceived and executed the entire scheme, breaking the box, taking the contents, and disposing of both, and declares that he alone was responsible and the others were passengers. The connection of Mairs and Harniss with this transaction is the result of maudlin drunkenness, having no knowledge of the transaction except believing that Schalten was "joshing" until he had perpetrated the act, and then a desire, from a long friendship, to screen him from the culpability of his felonious act, and willful betrayal of his trust, prompted them to conceal their knowledge of the matter, and misrepresent the facts. No one believes that Mairs and Harniss, by any code of ethics, are guilty; yet the law by its inexorable demands, holds and renders them liable and responsible. We trust and believe that the determination of the Court in fixing the sentence of these two parties will be tempered with that mercy which renders Justice a divine attribute, and all will be satisfied. Too much credit cannot be given to Mr. Thacker and Mike Tovey for working up and ferreting out this matter.

The unfortunate affair has caused considerable excitement, as the young men have been long known here, and in fact brought up almost from childhood amongst us. On all sides are heard expressions of sympathy for the relatives of the men, and regret at the sad occurrence.

In Memoriam.

"The Lord hath given, and the Lord hath taken away."

One of the saddest events that has taken place in our community is that of the death of Mrs. J. Johnson. She leaves a family of six children—between the ages of six and sixteen years—to fight the battle of life, unshielded by a mother's loving care. Among her many relatives she leaves an uncle, Hon. Robert Ferrall, of San Francisco. All of her relations and many friends will mourn her loss as one who lived enraptured with the cares of her household. Seldom beheld in usual scenes of daily life, she passed her time at home, her world—the welfare of her children. Not for herself she lived, but for the husband and six motherless children who now grieve her death. To the fatherless, there is a Father in heaven; but to the motherless—ah, no one can fill her place, though we search among the angels. Surely she has gone to Him who said: "Come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest." One of the silent workers whose good influence is second only to her loss. Ah, surely in the heavens above, among the sweetest whispers that vibrate on the wings of love, there is no dearer, sweeter name spoken by the angels than this one word, "mother." A world of love encircles round that name, and how bitter is the heart-ache occasioned by her loss. A grief that knows no respite—dark, drear, continued—a scar upon the heart that survives the scenes of years, a recollection that clings unto our souls forever. Our only solace then that brings us peace is all embodied in an earnest hope that we shall meet beyond the grave, there to part no more.

Big Pine, February 14th, 1884.

FROM COTTONWOOD.—P. A. Chalfant arrived yesterday evening from Cottonwood creek, Deep Springs Mining District, where he has been engaged during the past four weeks in the preliminary work for the erection of the Greenly mill. This work has progressed quite satisfactorily, notwithstanding the extremely unfavorable weather of the past three weeks. A force of from six to nine men have been employed upon the water ditch, which is now about complete. The two intervening ranges of mountains to be crossed in coming from Cottonwood to the river are covered nearly two feet deep with snow just compact enough to make traveling for either man or beast laborious in the extreme. This fact may cause some delay in getting in needed supplies; therefore, in the completion of the mill, though Mr. Chalfant thinks it can be got in operation early in April if not sooner.

ALMOST A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Ed. Cochran, an old-time Round Valley blacksmith, narrowly escaped death while on his way here from Bishop Creek last Tuesday. His horse ran into a wire fence, throwing Ed across a barb, and cutting a severe gash in the left leg, nearly severing the femoral artery. He put up with Dick Eldred, who doctored him with the infallible H. H. H., and next day Edward went on his way rejoicing.

WAYSIDE NOTES.

An Independence Man in San Francisco; Who He Saw and What They Said.

EDITOR INYO INDEPENDENT:—While wandering through the streets of San Francisco lately I met some old Inyoites, and thinking it might interest your readers I drop you these few lines, to let you know who they are.

Need I say I met our ex-Treasurer, Harry Isaacs, smiling and happy as ever. Wm. Hamilton, happy because he did not get the last contract from Mohave to Independence, and crowing because his cattle, hogs, carp and saltmarsh at Tehachepi would make any man crow that owned it; saying nothing of an 8-foot vein carrying ore worth $200 per ton, just developed in one of his mines. And who is there who begrudges it to the whole-souled "Bill?" Not the writer, and I doubt if any one does who knows him. Next comes Jos. Harris, our old host of the Inyo Saloon, and his brother Jake, formerly at Camp Independence. Who is this? Why, Jim Perham; and further on we come across Geo. K. Phillips, looking as happy as a newly married man. He is followed by Col. A. G. Boley, who wants to know how everybody is doing, and especially the ex-editor of THE INYO. I met also old Hudgins, who still thinks Inyo is the coming country—and from the number of inquiries I have concerning the county I believe we are coming into prominence; Dr. S. G. George, who will shortly return to Inyo and start up some mining operation; and Sher. Stevens, who is book-keeper for a Sansome st eet firm. I have failed to mention the ladies, of which there are quite a number—not as a matter of disrespect but because I, being a married man, and at the same time a little bashful, dare not speak of them.

JUSTICE.

Charles Baker's Case.

The following letter, relative to the case of Chas. Baker, who some three years since was sentenced to ten years in the State Prison for robbing the stage bound south from Bishop Creek, is from Mr. Charles Aull, Turnkey of the San Quentin prison:

SAN QUENTIN,
Feb. 5th, 1884.

MRS. S. E. DRAKE, Bishop Creek:

My Dear Madam:—There is a man confined here by the name of Charles Baker, sent from Inyo county for stage robbery. Mr. J. B. Hume, chief officer of Wells, Fargo & Co., tells me that Baker is not guilty of the crime for which he was convicted. Mr. Hume visited the prison on Sunday last and requested me to write you in regard to the matter. * * * Baker says that you were a witness against him, and that now you are satisfied he is not guilty. If that is the case he ought not to be here. If yourself or any of Baker's friends will get up a petition in his behalf setting forth the new facts that have come to light since his conviction, and send them to me, I will have Mr. Hume go in person to the Governor; and there will be no difficulty in effecting his release. Or if you will write me the facts I will have them embodied in a petition and sent back to you for signatures. * * * If Baker is innocent it is a shame to keep him here longer. It is no interest to me whatever, but I will assist him for the sake of justice.

I would be please to hear from you in regard to the matter. With kind regards, I am very truly yours.

CHARLES AULL.

INTERESTING TO TAXPAYERS.—There will be found in to-day's paper a vast amount of matter that will be of interest to the taxpayers of this county. The proceedings of the Board of Supervisors is published elsewhere, also the statements of the Auditor and Treasurer on the financial condition of the county, besides Ordinances Nos. 4, 5 and 6 and notice of a special meeting.

INDICATIONS OF SPRING.—Though the weather has been quite cold for the past two weeks, and kept back vegetable life, yet in spite of old Jack Frost, grass is shooting out of the ground on the south hillsides, and willows along the creeks are turning green and will soon put on their regular spring costume.

ORE SHIPMENTS.—A. W. Eibeshutz shipped three cars of ore from the Brown Monster, last Thursday, consigned to Selby & Co., S. F.....Phil. Cartier shipped 10 tons from mines in Mazourka Canyon to Elna, Wednesday.

COMMISSION RECEIVED.—Norman E. Conklin, recently appointed to a Postal Clerkship on the Carson and Colorado railroad received his commission from the Department at Washington last Thursday, and will leave this morning to enter upon his duties.

HORSES GOING SOUTH.—Wm. Rowan and W. W. Yandell passed through Independence last Wednesday on their way to Los Angeles, Cal., with twenty head of fine horses. They are taking the animals to the "City of the Angels" for sale.

SACRAMENTO MINE.—A clean-up of ore crushed from this mine, situated about nine miles east of Bishop Creek, was made last Thursday, resulting in the neat find of sixty-four pounds of gold bullion; estimated value, between $5,000 and $6,000.

INDIANA MINE.—The new lesees of the Indiana mine, Swansea District, under Joseph Williams, as manager, are starting to take out ore from a very promising strata, the ore assaying on an average 400 ounces in silver and 28 per cent. in lead per ton.

THE DEFIANCE.—The latest reports received here from the Defiance mine, Darwin, are to the effect that the recent strike in that property is improving in size and richness as the work of developement progresses.

SWANSEA FURNACE.—The Swansea furnace, we are informed, closed down Thursday night. For what cause or for how long we are not informed.

PERSONAL.—Raphael Diaz, of Lone Pine, was a guest at the Blaney House Tuesday night....Dr. H. G. Kernodle has been quite sick with a cold this week....Dr. B. E. Stevenson has been kept busy with the sick during the past fortnight....Johnny Thacker, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s detective, accompanied by Mike Tovey, the reliable messenger, was in town last Sunday....M. G. Nixon, owner of the Wild Rose mine and mill, near Benton, passed through here the other day on his way to Lone Pine.... S. L. McNaughton, the pioneer stage man, came down from Benton Sunday....J. W. Murphy, who was here tending bar for J. D. Mairs while the latter was sick, has returned to Darwin... J. S. Gregory, traveling for the firm of Livingston & Co., whisky dealers, San Francisco, registered at the Miners' Home Wednesday....C. B. Rawson, formerly a resident of Tehama county, Cal., but of late years living near Los Angeles, and who has bought land at Taboose, came up from the Bay this week, and paid Independence a visit Wednesday....The good-natured T. F. A. Connelly was in from Taboose Wednesday....Charles McEvoy, owner of the Freeborn Cañon mill, Beveridge district, has been in Independence the past two weeks, and is suffering from a kidney complaint... S. D. Woods left by private conveyance for the northern end of the county Thursday....Mrs. Kate Davis, wife of the late W. F. Davis, of Hawthorne, Nev., came down to Bishop Creek last Saturday, to visit her mother, Mrs. J. B. Swearingen. ....Thos. J. Goodale, of Fish Springs, was in town on business during the first part of the week....John Thacker, Mike Tovey, George M. Gill, Sheriff Gregg, S. L. McNaughton, Bud Harniss and Lou Schalten came down from Bishop Creek yesterday morning. ...Matt. McDonald, late of the Wild Rose mine, left here yesterday morning for Darwin to take a position on the Defiance mine....Dr. B. E. Stevenson went to Hawley on business Thursday. ....Isaac Harris, of the firm of Harris & Rhine, paid Swansea a visit this week.

DISAPPOINTED.—The owners of the old Dynamite mine at Pine Mountain had got three months' supplies, mining utensils, etc., ready to start the night before the big snow, which slammed the door in their faces, as it were, and shut them out for a week or more. This old mine has been laying around loose for the past nine years. An old shaft 70 feet deep shows good ore, and the 30-foot level, running south shows a large body of galena ore, which samples at the Elna furnace 56 ounces silver and 60 per cent. lead. These old things will all be taken in; it's only a question of time.

BIG PINE NOTES.—Big Pine is all serene. The only amusement for the boys is around the stoves baking their shins, and exchanging—well, you know what, while the mercury is dancing around zero....A couple of the boys left a few days ago for Deep Springs. When last heard from they were at Cedar Flat, camped on the north side of a snowbank, beans straight, and snow four and a half feet deep.

BLACKBIRDS.—Every day this week we have noticed at least four-and-twenty blackbirds singing in a tree opposite the window of our worthy County Clerk, Johnny Crough. Whether this indicates that Johnny is a "bird" or no, we do not venture to positively assert; but that he is an affable gentleman, an efficient officer, and a very obliging man no one can deny.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.—Next Friday will be the 22d of February, and consequently the anniversary of Washington's birthday. No news has reached this office of any celebration of the coming anniversary day in this county. Hang your banners on the breeze, at least, neighbors.

COUNTY OFFICERS. — THE INDEPENDENT will pit the county officers of Inyo for gentlemanly bearing, capabilities and good-fellowship with any set of officials in the State of California. Each officer can always be found at his post of duty, always ready to transact the business of his office to the satisfaction of the people and with credit to himself.

NEW ADVERTISEMENT.—The new and particularly attractive advertisement of J. S. Rothschild & Co. will be found elsewhere. The firm offer special inducements to those who need anything in their line. Read the ad.

BALTIMORE OYSTERS. — H. Levy, mine host of the Miners' Home, treated a few friends to a nice dish of fresh Baltimore oysters last Wednesday evening. They were fine, and no mistake.

THE depth of snow on the level in the Sierra Nevada mountains is from eight to fourteen feet.

DIED

At Independence, Inyo Co., Cal., February 10, 1884, EDITH EIBESHUTZ, daughter of A. W. and Golda Eibeshutz, aged 2 years.

In the beauty of her young innocence cut off; a bright, winsome, happy child, dead! O, Life! O, Death! How vast are thy mysteries! Life to-day pressing the strong man to labor until the joints of his harness cut into the quivering flesh. Death to-morrow stilling the pulse of the guileless child. It is ever thus: "Men must work and women must weep." Little Edith will be and is missed each day by men of maturer years, to whom her love went out in a young, but strong way. She was wise beyond her years, and possessed of those sweet arts by which woman, young or old, ever holds man to noble things. Mother, hold thy heart in patience. At the open gates, thy child, though she beholds the King in his beauty, yearns and waits for thee.

At the County Hospital, Camp Independence, Inyo Co., Cal., WM. POLLOCK, a native of California, aged 27 years.

Application for Patent

....FOR THE....

WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE,

A Placer Claim, Being Survey No. 2,153' Lot No. 37 and 38, in Townships Nos. 27 and 28 North, Range One (1) East. San Bernardino Base and Meridian.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
Bodie, California,
December 10, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE "HENRY CLAY MINING COMPANY," a corporation of the State of California, having its principal office, postoffice address and place of business in the City and County of San Francisco and State of California, has, by RUDOLPH NEUSCHWANDER, its duly authorized special agent and attorney in fact, who resides at Coleman, in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the county of Inyo and State of California, and whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office its application for a Patent from the United States to the said Company for its borax placer mining claim containing 1,152 50/100 acres, commonly known as and called the "WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," situated in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, the same being now officially surveyed, platted and designated by the U. Commencing at a stake marked "C D No. 3," the same being the so-theast corner of Location No. 2, situate five (5) chains east of the margin of dry bed of lake in Death Valley, from which said stake, MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34 bears southseventeen (17) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, distant thirty-two (32) chains and ninety one (91) links; A STONE MONUMENT at the northeast corner of the DESERT BORATE DEPOSIT MINE bears south twenty five (25) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, distant twenty-two (22) chains and fifty five (55) links; WINTERS PEAK bears north seventy one (71) degrees east; and running thence from the said stake marked "C D No. 3"

First Course—North twenty (20) chains to a stake marked "C D No. 4," on left bank of Popcorn Cañon; thence —

Second Course—South eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes, west twenty (20) chains and twelve (12) links to a stake marked "C D No. 5," on the margin of dry bed of lake from which a stake marked "C D H," bears north eighty-nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes west distant twenty nine (29) chains and twenty four (24) links; thence running from said stake marked "C D No. 5"

Third Course—North thirty (30) minutes west, twenty (20) chains and twenty-nine (29) links to a stake marked "C D No. 6," in a small ravine running west; thence—

Fourth Course—West, ten (10) chains and sixteen (16) links to a stake marked "C D N. 7," on west slope of low hills; thence—

Fifth Cours —North twenty (20) chains and twenty-five (25) links to a stake marked "C D No 8," situated on a low hill; thence—

Sixth Course—East ten (10) chains and thirteen (13) links to a stake marked "C D No 9," in the north slope of brown ridge. Continue east; at sixty (60) chains and thirty-two (32) links reach a stake marked "C D No. 77," situated on a mesa; thence—

Seventh Course—South thirty (30) minutes west, ten (10) chains and ninety-nine (99) links to a stake marked "C D No 78," on the right bank of a wash running west; thence—

Eighth Course—south eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes east along the right bank of wash, nine (9) chains and ninety five (95) links to a stake marked "C D N. 74," situated one (1) chain north of wash; thence—

Ninth Course—south ten (10) chains and four (4) links to a stake marked "C D No. 69," on gravel ridge slope—at thence—

Tenth Course—East nine (9) chains and sixty-seven (67) links to a stake marked "C D No. 68," situate fifty (50) links north of a small alkali stream running west; thence—

Eleventh Course—North five (5) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east, nine (9) chains and ninety eight (98) links to a stake marked "C D No. 74½," in right bank of a wash; thence—

Twelfth Course—North eighty nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east twenty (20) chains and ninety-four (94) links to a stake marked "C D No. 75," on west slope of a red hill from which "MINERAL MONUMENT No 34" bears south thirty seven (37) degrees thirty (30) minutes west; "CHLORIDE PEAK" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes west, and "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-three (73) degrees thirty (30) minutes east; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 75."

Thirteenth Course—North twenty-one (21) chains and nineteen (19) links to a stake marked "C D No. 76," on left bank of a wash running southwest from which MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34" bears south thirty-one (31) degrees ten (10) minutes west; "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-six (76) degrees east, and "WHITE BUTTE" bears north eighty five (85) degrees west, distant about twenty (20) chains; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 76."—

Fourteenth Course—West forty-one (41) chains and thirty seven (37) links to a stake marked "C D No. 76½," in a wash running northwest; thence—

Fifteenth Course—South two (2) chains to a stake marked "C D No. 76 A," on a ridge bearing northwest; from which said last mentioned stake marked "C D No. 76 A" Chloride Peak bears north two (2) degrees twenty (20) minutes west; "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-two (72) degrees east; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 76 A"—

Sixteenth Course—West fifty (50) chains and twenty eight (28) links to a stake marked "C D 8½," on margin of dry bed of lake; thence—

Seventeenth Course—North eleven (11) chains and seventy two (72) links to a stake marked "C D A" [from which a stake marked "C D G" bears north eighty nine (89) degrees forty five (45) minutes west, distant sixty seven (67) chains and eighty-four (84) links]. Continue north on said seventeenth course; at thirty two (32) chains and twenty-eight (28) links from the said stake marked "C D No. 8½" reach stake marked "C D B," continue north on said seventeenth course at fifty-two (52) chains and fifty-eight (58) links from the said stake marked "C D 8½," reach a stake marked "C D No. 10" situated on a gravel slope at a point from which a mesquite bush six (6) inches diameter bears north seventy-six (76) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant eighty-three (83) links, and a mesquite bush three (3) inches diameter bears north twenty-two (22) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant ninety six (96) links; thence—

Eighteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 10," west ten (10) chains and five (5) links to a stake marked "C D No. 11," whence a stake marked "C D E" bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west distant thirty-nine (39) chains and sixty five (65) links; thence—

Nineteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 11," north forty (40) chains and thirty four (34) links reach a stake marked "C D No. 13" [eighty (80) chains and sixty-nine (69) links to a stake marked "C D No 15," whence "MINERAL MONUMENT NO 33" bears north eight (8) degrees fifty (50) minutes west, and "WINTERS PEAK" bears south eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty-two (32) minutes east; thence—

Twentieth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 15," west ten (10) chains and seven (7) links to a stake marked "C D No 16," on margin of dry lake, whence a stake marked "C D K" bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west, distant twenty-nine (29) chains and forty-seven (47) links; thence—

Twenty first Course—North sixty (60) chains and sixty five (65) links to a chalk stone monument one (1) foot square and four (4) feet long marked "C D No. 18 N E" the same being the Northeast Corner of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," on margin of dry bed of lake, and from which said chalk stone monument the southeast corner of the "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" bears north twenty-six (26) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west distant one hundred and thirteen (113) chains and eighty-three (83) links; "Mineral Monument No 33" bears north eight (8) degrees forty (40) minutes west distant one hundred and forty-four (144) chains and seventy-three (73) links; "Winters Peak" bears north one (1) degree thirty (30) minutes east and "Telescope Peak" bears south twenty four (24) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west; thence—

Twenty-second Course—Running from said chalk stone monument marked "C D No. 18 N E," west ten (10) chains and ten (10) links to a stake marked "C D No. 19" in center of a flat marsh five (5) chains wide bearing north and south; thence —

Twenty-third Course—South ten (10) chains and twelve (12) links to a stake marked "C D No 20," situate in a marsh one (1) chain west of the east bank thereof; thence—

Twenty-fourth Course—West nine (9) chains and fifty six (56) links to a stake marked "C D No 21," in dry bed of lake; thence—

Twenty-sixth Course—West nine (9) chains and eighty-seven (87) links to a stake marked "C D No. 22½" in dry bed of lake; thence—

Twenty seventh Course—south, at ten (10) chains and ten (10) links reach a stake marked "C D K," at thirty (30) chains and twenty three (23) links reach stake marked "C D No 23" whence the Section corner on the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections thirty (30) and thirty-one (31) of Township twenty-eight (28) north of range one (1) east bears south eighty nine (89) degrees eight (8) minutes west, distant one hundred and twenty-three (123) chains and ninety (90) links. Continuing south, at fifty (50) chains and forty (40) links reach a stake marked "C D C." Continuing south, at ninety (90) chains and seventy-four (74) links reach a stake marked "C D F," and still continuing south reach stake marked "C D No. 25," at the distance of one hundred (100) chains and seventy four (74) links south from said stake marked "C D No 22½," thence—

Twenty-eighth Course—West, running from said stake marked "C D No 25," nine (9) chains and fifty-five (55) links to a stake marked "C D No. 26;" thence—

Twenty ninth Course—South, at ten (10) chains and seven (7) links reach a stake marked "C D F," whence the Township stake on the San Bernardino Meridian between townships twenty-seven (27) and twenty eight (28) north bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees ten (10) minutes west, distant one hundred and fifteen (115) chains and fourteen (14) links; continuing south, reach a stake marked "C D No. 26½," at the distance of twenty (20) chains and twenty-one (21) links south from said stake marked "C D No. 26;" thence —

Thirtieth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 26½," west eight (8) chains and seventy five (75) links to a stake marked "C D No 27;" thence —

Thirty-first Course—South, at ten (10) chains and nineteen (19) links reach a stake marked "C D G;" continuing south, reach stake marked "C D No 27½," at the distance of twenty (20) chains and twenty one (21) links south from said stake marked "C D No. 27;" thence—

Thirty-second Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 27½" east seventeen (17) chains and sixty eight (68) links to a stake marked "C D No 28;" thence—

Thirty-third Course—South, ten (10) chains and sixteen (16) links to a stake marked "C D No 29;" thence—

Thirty-fourth Course—East, ten (10) chains and one (1) link to a stake marked "C D No. 30;" thence—

Thirty-fifth Course—South, twenty (20) chains and seventeen (17) links to a stake marked "C D No 31;" thence—

Thirty-sixth Course—East, eleven (11) chains and six (6) links to a stake marked "C D No. 32;" thence—

Thirty-seventh Course—South, twenty (20) chains and fourteen (14) links to a stake marked "C D H," whence the Section stake on the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections six (6) and seven (7) of Township twenty seven (27) north, range one (1) east bears west, distant one hundred and forty-four (144) chains and seventy-nine (79) links; continuing south, reach stake marked "C D J," distant forty (40) chains and thirty-five (35) links south from the said stake marked "C D No. 32," the said stake marked "C D J" being at the southwest corner of this the said "Winters Borate Deposit Mine" and running thence from said stake marked "C D J"

Thirty-eighth Course—North, eighty-nine (89) degrees thirty (30) minutes east, forty-nine (49) chains and twenty four (24) links to said stake marked "C D No 3," the place of beginning, containing eleven hundred and fifty-two (1152) acres and fifty hundredth (50/100) of an acre of land.

Said MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34, hereinbefore mentioned consists of a durable sand-stone four (4) feet long set two (2) feet in the ground and being six inches square at the top, whereon is securely fastened a brass plate marked "N S W S M M M No 34," situated on the backbone of a butte bearing northwest and southeast at a point distant a few chains in a southeast direction from the highest point of said butte, which has an altitude of about two hundred (200) feet and is situated at the east side of Death Valley, [illegible] of the dry bed of the lake.

From said "MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34," "Chloride Peak" bears (with magnetic variation at 15 degrees 31 minutes east) north one (1) degree fifteen (15) minutes west; Winters Peak bears north sixty-seven (67) degrees forty (40) minutes east; "Telescope Peak" bears south twenty-one (29) degrees forty (40) minutes west; the stake marked "C D No. 3," of the said "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," bears north seventeen (17) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west, distant twenty-two (32) chains and ninety-one (91) links; the north bank of "FURNACE WASH" at its entrance into the valley bears south thirty-one (31) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant one hundred and eighty two (182) chains and fifty (50) links, and "MINERAL MONUMENT No. 33" bears north nine (9) degrees twenty-four (24) minutes west distant four hundred and forty-two (442) chains and sixty-seven (67) links by travers calculation.

Said "WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" or SURVEY No 2153, LOT No 37 AND 38 hereby sought to be patented consists of those certain borax locations locally known and recorded as LOCATION NO TWO (2); LOCATION NO THREE (3); LOCATION NO FOUR (4); LOCATION NO FIVE (5); LOCATION NO SEVEN (7); LOCATION NO EIGHT (8); LOCATION NO. SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16.....1884

THE discovery of a white sparrow at Passingham has brought to notice the occurrence of white birds in other parts of Great Britain. Mr. Rowland Ward, a member of the London Zoological Society, mentions that a pair of pure white house-martens have been in his possession for a considerable time, and asserts that albino plumage is less rare among common birds than is generally supposed.

The Miseries of a Mean Man.

Sometimes I wonder what a mean man thinks when he goes to bed. When he turns out the light and lies down. When the darkness closes in about him and he is compelled to be honest with himself. And not a bright thought, not a generous impulse, not a manly act, not a word of blessing, not a grateful look, comes to bless him again. Not a penny dropped into the outstretched palm of poverty, nor the balm of a loving word dropped into an aching heart; no sunbeam of encouragement cast upon a struggling life; the strong right hand of fellowship reached out to help some fallen man to his feet—when none of these things come to him as the "God bless you" of the departed day, how he must hate himself! How he must try to roll away from himself and sleep on the other side of the bed, when the only victory he can think of is some mean victory in which he has wronged a neighbor! No wonder he always sneers when he tries to smile. How pure and fair and good all the rest of the world must look to him, and how cheerless and dusty and dreary must his own path appear! Why, even one lone, isolated act of meanness is enough to scatter cracker crumbs in the bed of the average ordinary man; and what must be the feelings of a man whose whole life is given up to mean acts! When there is so much suffering and heart-ache and misery in the world, anyhow, why should you add one pound of wickedness or sadness to the general burden? Don't be mean, my boy. Suffer injustice a thousand times rather than commit it once.—[Burdette.

TWENTY comets which have been studied with the spectroscope have appeared to be essentially alike in chemical composition, while each comet is contiually varying in temperature, density and the amount of vapor emitted by its nucleus. Huggins states that the substance of these bodies undoubtedly contains carbon, hydrogen and nitrogen, and probably oxygen. Meteorites are evidently of the same nature as comets, and, while consisting chiefly of iron and other solids, can often be made to give up several times their volume in gases. The idea that the light of comets and the phenomena of their tails are produced by electricity is thought to be gaining in favor among students of these subjects.

Black Bart, we are told, served gallantly in the 116th Illinois Regiment. That is quite likely. But, unfortunately, gallantry in war is no guarantee for respectability in peace, although a good many people seem to think it is.

A Remarkable Artesian Well.

Charles F. Gompertz, writing from Modesto, Cal., to the Mining and Scientific Press, says:

On the farm of Cutler Salmon, between Lathrop and Stockton, on the French Camp road, there is an artesian well that deserves a detailed description. It is in reality a double well; the outer casing, seven inches in diameter, is sunk to a depth of 844 feet; inside of this is another, three and three-fourths inches in diameter, sunk to a depth of 1,250 feet; the former throws a jet of water to the height of 16 feet, and the latter 22 feet 8 inches. The flow is 300 gallons per minute, or 432,000 gallons every 24 hours, and the temperature of the water is 80 degrees Fahrenheit. The water from the larger well is of excellent quality, and is used for domestic purposes, the owner claiming considerable medicinal virtues for it, especially in trouble with the kidneys and urinary organs, having himself been entirely cured of some very distressing symptoms by the use of this water. The water from the smaller boring is not so good, and is used only for irrigation. From these wells there is an extraordinary issue of gas, which the owner has utilized by an ingenious contrivance. He has placed a galvanized cylinder over the mouth of the well, which serves as a gasometer or tank, and catches part of the gas as it bubbles up through the water, which is in a constant state of effervescence till it has discharged the gas and run out of the reservoir into the ditch that is used for the purpose of conducting it over the land. Pipes are laid on from this gasometer to the house, about 100 feet distant, which is lighted and heated by the flame from this gas. In the kitchen an ordinary cooking stove has been converted into a gas stove by laying 2-inch pipe on the fire-basket, connected with an outside pipe just like the fire-back of a common stove, and all the cooking is done there with astonishing cleanliness. In the sitting-rooms, common sheet-iron stoves are converted into gas stoves in the same way, and besides the economy and cleanliness, the temperature of a room can be regulated by simply turning a stopcock. As this gas appears to be inexhaustible, no attempt was made to economise in its use for illuminating purposes; and when turned on in full, two burners thoroughly lighted every part of a room 17x13, so that one could read comfortably at the furthest corner. When less force was given the flame burned blue and lost some of its illuminating power; this defect, however, might be remedied by using a particular kind of burner, with finer perforations than the ones in use. The gasometer is only 3 feet in diameter and the reservoir 12, so that much of the gas escapes, and it is impossible, from the simple means used to collect it, to calculate how much gas rises with the water. At the margin of the reservoir, a lighted match held to the bubbles ignites the gas that escapes from them as they burst. This well has been in operation since it was finished in August, 1883, and there has never been any diminution in the supply of either gas or water. The cost of sinking this well, including the frame building over it, the gas pipes and fixtures, plumbing, etc., was entirely covered by the sum of $3,600.

Should time demonstrate that the supply of gas is permanent, it would be easy to run it into Stockton and light that city much cheaper than could be done by any other method, and at the same time be of immense value to its fortunate possessor.

BEFORE it gets too late do not fail to secure a supply of ice. No dairy is complete without it, and we doubt if a fine article of butter can be made without the use of ice at some point of its manufacture. If you have no ice house then haul the ice, stack it up, put straw on top of it and start at once to build your house around it. Otherwise fill an old out-house or a room in the stable with ice, and either leave space enough next the wall to fill 18 inches thick with sawdust or build a second wall on the outside and fill the space between with sawdust. This takes some some labor, but it is better than no ice.

Mining Nuggets.

The tin area of Virginia probably extends over about 11,000 acres, and the mispickel associated with it is very rich in silver and gold.

The yearly product of lime is estimated to be about 31,000,000 barrels of 200 pounds each. The total valuation of the product is some $21,700,000.

Great Britain, during 1881, produced 38,587 tons of lead, her home consumption amounting to 98,878 tons.

Sixty gold, silver and copper incorporated mining companies paid out $9,871,600 in dividends during the year 1883.

The supplies of platinum consumed in the United States are derived from the Ural mines, where it is found in placers.

The total bullion yield of British Columbia, consisting wholly of gold, amounts to abount $20,000,000, the product of 1883.

The first production of lead in the United States is accredited to the year 1825, when the production amounted to 1,500 tons.

The tin mines of Durango, Mexico, are now being worked extensively by the Durango Mining, Exploring and Smelting Company, of St. Louis, Mo.

It has been shown that hydrogen, sodium, magnesium, calcium, iron, aluminum, manganese, chromium, cobalt, nickel, zinc, copper, titanium and other elements are present in the sun's atmosphere.

Prof. Geo. B. Hanna, bullion assayer at the Charlotte mint, N. C., reports $114,649.95 as the amount of bullion assayed in that mint for 1883.

The discovery of valuable phosphates near Knoxville, N. C., attracts marked attention. The beds are of great size, and their exploration has now begun.

Out of 31,000,000 bushels of salt produced in the country, Michigan heads the list of salt-yielding States by a recorded output of 13,000,000 bushels in the census year 1880.

There are more than 270 salt manufacturing establishments in the United States, employing many millions of dollars as capital, and thousands of men, women and children.

Science appears to have fouud another use for lead. It is said to be the only feasible non-conductor of electricity that can be employed in putting telegraph wires under ground.

The manufacture of salt was commenced in Michigan in 1860, in which year 4,000 barrels were produced. It has rapidly increased until last year, when it reached 3,307,317 barrels.

The lead production of various sections of the country in 1882 was: Colorado, 58,642 tons; Utah, 30,000 tons; Nevada, 8,500 tons; Missouri, Kansas, Illinois and Wisconsin, 29,015 tons.

The Yoke We Suffer Under.

The farmer should cease sucking his thumbs. He should wipe his eyes and his chin. He is not a baby. He should go to some laundry and have his spinal column starched. He should brace up.

Oh, that the farmer were a kicker! That he would make Rome howl! That he would make those who oppress him get up and dust!

His oppressors are many and bold. They control the markets, the ways of traffic, the telegraph, the forum, and the government. Labor is their pay, laboring classes their victims. And farmers constitute more than half of the laboring masses.

Yet this is the fault of the farmers. They have the numbers, the wealth, the ability, the influence, the votes. They lack sand. If they had this, they would cast off the yoke we labor under.

We would not antagonize labor and capital. One cannot thrive without the other. We do not assail capitalists because they are capitalists. As such we respect them; but when they become extortiontsts we call on labor to act. Self-preservasion is the first law of nature.

When farmers suffer from foul weather, from flood, from storm, from drought, from destructive insects, in short, from unavoidable calamities, we sympathize with them for we are one of them. Their fortune is our fortune. But because they suffer under this yoke, do they merit sympathy?—[Farmer's Call.

THE LESSON OF THE HOUR.

The arrest and conviction within the last few days of three well known young men of the county for the perpetration of a stage robbery, may well call us to a pause, while we take the longitude and latitude of our moral condition. While nothing can excuse the crime, at least we must confess that there must be something radically defective in the condition of society that could lead to so deplorable an event. There must be somewhere a laxity of moral tension; an absence of strong, firm, unyielding public example and conduct. Not long since a young man of prominence in our community, when being remonstrated with and counseled by one who took a deep interest in his welfare, replied: "Oh, pshaw! what's the difference; this is only a sagebrush country." What did he mean? But this only: That there was here no code of public morals firm enough to compel from the young a respect for the common decencies of life. Young men, the sway of moral law is universal. It has no peculiar haunts or dwelling-place, but operates throughout a domain as vast as that where gravitation holds a universe in place. Violation of moral laws brings punishment as surely as violation of physical laws. A moral wound in the desert soils the character as surely as in the city. Character is greater than riches. Across the centuries has come that clear, deep, sweet declaration of Solomon: "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." Young man, hold to thy integrity even among the sagebrush, and if you work as you should there will come to you yet a wider field of endeavor. Hold thy face hard toward the truth, until the moral elements within you will at last, in obedience to the power of lofty motives, gravitate ever toward the truth. "Be wise to-day; 'tis folly to defer," remembering that you surely are drifting one way or the other. We do not, cannot remain still. We either climb nearer to lofty manhood or descend toward the level of the mere animal, day by day. Let the painful experience of the last week sink deep into your heart. Heed the admonition given from the throne of Justice: "Look not upon the wine when it is red; when it giveth its color in the cup; when it moveth itself aright, for at last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder." We are to-day in Inyo passing into new conditions, and he is wise who early recognizes that fact. Society will slowly but surely demand at least a decent observance of morality, and it will not quietly suffer contempt of its decrees.

SECRET OF ADVERTISING.

The great secret of advertising is repetition. An occasional advertisement is barely sufficient to keep the advertiser from falling into the great receptacle of utterly forgotten things. Constant, steady, habitual, persistent and ubiqnitous advertising, keeping a certain fact before the eye of the public, at all times and in all places, is one of the stepping stones to success in modern business—in fact is the stepping stone. Where there is so much vigorous opposition and sharp competition the purchasing public cannot possibly hear your invitation to come and buy unless you toot your advertising horn loudly and continuously. They cannot discover your whereabouts unless your advertising flag is always floating in the breeze. They cannot feel your attractive influence unless you make them feel it by spreading in all directions through the magic medium of the press. By continuous dropping in the same spot, a light drill will penetrate the hardest rock, while the scattering blows of the heaviest sledge will have scarcely any effect. The three p's of successful advertising are persistence, perspicuity and persuasion.

IT is feared that General Grant will never recover from his recent injuries. The only sleep he gets now is little catnaps in the day time. It is mostly pain that keeps him awake. His diet has become rigidly simple, and it is said that he has been seen in public for the last time.

THE Republican State Central Committee of Nevada will meet at Virginia City on Monday, March 3d.

THE Nevada and Oregon railroad is blockaded with snow, and the mail is carried from Reno to places northward by teams.

IN the seven years they have been producing, the Bodie mines have yielded $15,520,499.12, and have paid in dividends $5,814,000.

IT is reported that Sharon recently offered his reputed wife $500,000 to discontinue all litigation, but she declined, demanding $1,500,000. It appears the Senator is beginning to realize what a dirty mess he has got himself into.

A CHICAGO physician suggests that elopements of medical men with their young lady patients would be avoided by leaving the professional treatment of women to doctors of their own sex. A Brooklyn paper hits the nail on the head when in commenting on the proposed remedy it says such a course would diminish the number of female patients at least 50 per cent., and make the practice of medicine an unprofitable one.

IN a letter to the San Francisco Examiner, Dr. R. H. McDonald, leader of the Prohibition party in California, states the Prohibitionists propose to nominate a straight ticket next Fall, and further says it will be put in the field before either the Democrats or Republicans nominate. The Doctor says there will be a strict Sunday-law plank put in the platform of his party.

E. J. PARKINSON has resumed his editorial duties on the Carson Tribune.

NEVADA has been restored to its former position as a separate and distinct revenue district. This will please the sagebrushers.

INYO INDEPENDENT.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23.....1884

DELAYED MAILS.—Since last Saturday no mails have been received at this point, either from the north or south. The railroad trains have been stuck in the snow between the summit, on the White mountains, and Benton station. From four to six feet of snow is reported between the points mentioned. Every day since Sunday the train has been expected here, but disappointment only has followed. We learned last night that the mail would probably be in to-day. The road-bed between this point and Bishop Creek station was in a bad condition in many places, and a large force of men have been employed by the Company to put it in condition. Assistant Superintendent R. J. Laws has used every effort to push the trains through, but owing to the fact that only a small force of men could be got to work on the immense snow blockade above Benton station, slow progress was made. The stoppage of mail and express matter has caused almost everybody to be in a bad humor, and business men especially are much put out. The delay in receiving information from the outside world has been of greater duration than ever known here before. However, it is well known that the railroad company are doing everything in their power to get through, and are as much put out about the delay as anybody.

[Since the above was in type the mail due here last Friday, (the 15th), has been received.]

PERSONAL.—Under Sheriff Dan. Crough and Walter Ober paid Lone Pine a visit Thursday....Joseph Seeley, County Surveyor, was on our streets this week....Thomas Hill, of Fish Springs, one of the old pioneers of Inyo, paid the INDEPENDENT office a visit last Thursday....Thomas Goodale, of Fish Springs, called at this office yesterday for a pleasant chat....John B. Schober, who has been hauling wood and coal for the Swansea furnace for some time, passed through here yesterday on his way to Bishop Creek, his home....Supervisor E. Robinson has been on the sick list this week....Superintendent of Schools Chas. H. Groves was on our streets to-day.

THE 22D.—Yesterday was the anniversary of the birth of George Washington, the leader of the American Revolution and first President of the United States; born in Westmoreland county, Va., February 22d 1732, and who died at Mount Vernon, December 14th, 1799. Once upon a time the people of Inyo county celebrated this anniversary day with great pomp, but yesterday passed by almost unnoticed. This is due to the fact that money is scarce and hard to get. Just wait till our mines are developed, and the citizens of old Inyo will give the day a good send-off.

FURNISHING LIQUOR TO INDIANS.—Last Tuesday Under-Sheriff Dan Crough caught Henry Davis in the very act of furnishing a Piute squaw with liquor. In about thirty minutes our active Deputy had taken him before Justice Parker, where he plead guilty to the charge, and was fined $25 or twenty-five days in the county jail. Davis paid his fine the same day and was released, poorer in purse $25, but we trust, a wiser man.

STARS AND STRIPES.—The stars and stripes floated from the middle of Edwards street yesterday between the store of Harris & Rhine and J. C. Irwin's saloon and the Blaney House and J. S. Rothschild & Co.'s store. No county bunting being on hand, the old flag did not show its colors from the Court-house staff.

FROM CERRO GORDO.—Reports from Cerro Gordo just in, are that snow there in places is from 10 to 15 feet deep. Operations have been retarded on that account since the storm, but will be resumed at an early day, at least on the Ygnacio. The ore body in this mine is daily showing better and better.

NEW STORE.—E. Chenot, for the past eight or nine years in the mercantile business at Fort Independence, is fixing up the old Inyo House, nearly opposite the Court-house, and intends to move his stock of goods into that building as soon as it is ready.

GAME.—This has been the poorest game season known for years in this section of Inyo. Ducks and geese have made themselves particularly scarce, while rabbits and quail are not near as plentiful as in former years.

SNOW EVERYWHERE.—Reports reach us from all sections that mountain passes and roads that have been open for many winters past are blockaded with snow and will be impassable for some time to come.

GOOD WORK.—THE INDEPENDENT job office has just received a general overhauling and clean-up, has got some fine new rollers, and is prepared to do first class work on the shortest notice. Send in your orders.

L. WOOD.—Under our new advertisements of to-day will be found one from this enterprising merchant. He has a stock of fresh goods on hand, and will dispose of them to customers on reasonable terms.

TAME GEESE AND RABBITS.—A. Thibault received a couple of tame geese and a gander, and a pair of tame rabbits from San Francisco this morning. He is going to start a farm with them.

TOOLS AND SUPPLIES SHIPPED.—This week P. A. Chalfant shipped from this place to Cottonwood creek a lot of tools and supplies for the mill he is putting up at that place.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due to J. C. Harris for dispatches furnished this paper.

LATEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[OVER OUR LOCAL WIRES.]

The Snow-bound Trains—The Forces at Work—Probably No Mail Before To-Morrow—Celebration at Virginia City—Talk of a Local Telegraph Line to Lone Pine—Prisoners Detained at Bishop Creek.

Through the courtesy of the managers of our local telegraph line between this place and the railroad station, and the pains taken by Mr. Jones, operator at the station, we are enabled to give the following news to our readers as the very latest advices from the delayed trains, and other information:

FEBRUARY 22d, 2 P. M.

The C. & C. trains are making regular trips between the Mound House and Candelaria; but it is impossible to get a through train until the terrific snow blockade between Teel's Marsh and Benton station is removed. Assistant Superintendent R. J. Laws and J. W. Haynie, Road Master, have a force of forty men at work on the road between Candelarla and Independence station, and have brought into requisition six locomotives. Laws and Haynie are hard at work with the snow-shovelers, and doing all in their power to clear away the mass of snow and repair the track in places where the recent freshet has swept it away. There will probably be no mail received here until to-morrow.

FEBRUARY 22d, 6 P. M.

LATER.—The track from about half way up the summit on east side to some miles this side of Hamil was covered with snow all the way from two to nine feet in places. The force from the north has reached Queen, a station 10 miles north of Benton, and the force from this end has reached Benton. The track was damaged slightly by flood near Tibbetts', but that has all been repaired. We may have train to-night.

FEBRUARY 23d, 2 P. M.

THE VERY LATEST.—The very latest news over the wires brings the information that there will be a through train to-morrow morning. But whether it will bring all the back mails is not positively known, though it is thought it will.

Hume Yerington and George T. Mills are snow-bound at Elna, and though business beckons them Carsonward, the blockade keeps them back.

Virginia City is celebrating Washington's birthday in grand style.

The Lone Pine people feel the necessity of running a connecting telegraph line from that town to the railroad wire, and will in all probability soon take steps to accomplish their desire.

Gregg, Thacker and Tovey are detained with their prisoners at Bishop Creek, awaiting the removal of the snow blockade on the C. & C.

DESPERATE ATTEMPTS AT SUICIDE. Probably one of the most remarkable attempts at self destruction ever recorded transpired at Camp Independence last Thursday. As will appear from the recital of the details by the would-be suicide himself, his double failure to shuffle off this mortal coil show facts to be indeed stranger than fiction. Oscar Bacon, a well-known old-timer of Inyo, a miner, machinist and inventor, has for months past been in charge of the residence of V. G. Thompson, formerly the Captain quarters of the Post. As has been his wont in life for many years, Bacon has kept himself alone and secluded as possible. He is one never known to drink or use tobacco, but on the night referred to imaginary demons opened hostilities, and in defiance of such proceedings Oscar repaired to his room and after careful preparation administered himself a dose of strychnine, from a spoon improvised of paper. Presently he reached out of his bed for water, but upset it and had to arise to get another supply. Then, he says, his arms and legs commenced violent, spasmodic movements in all directions from his body. He was thrown to the floor, but managed to regain the bed. He denies having experienced pain in the stomach or bowels, strange to say; but perspiration poured out in streams. The agony subsided, leaving him without old chronic pains in the head and chest. The astounding result of this effort ought to have been satisfactory, but Oscar immediately organized another scheme. Going to the swing hanging from an iron cross-beam between the trees he took the rope—an apparantly strong one, three-fourths of an inch in diameter—and knotted it with a hangman's noose in the most scientific style of the art, grease and all. Then, adjusting the other end to the beam so as to give himself a drop of seven and one-half feet, he adjusted the noose about his neck, placing the knot under his left ear in the approved manner. Raising himself to the cross-head he yelled defiance to his imaginary persuers and let go. So did the rope, for it broke about six feet above the knot. The terrific jar took the kinks out of his limbs and bruised his neck, but it did not break it nor was he strangled. The next morning Oscar was attending to his household matters and related the circumstances as above. Just before these wild attempts at self-murder, Bacon deliberately burned and destroyed all of the fine models of the many machines and inventions which have absorbed his lonely hours for so many years.

FINE MEATS.—Thomas Webb, our butcher, keeps steaks on his blocks that make a man's mouth water to look at them. For this time of year we never saw finer meats anywhere.

FOR SAN QUENTIN.—Sheriff Gregg left last Wednesday for San Quentin, taking with him Harniss, Mairs and Schalten. Thacker and Tovey left the same day for Hawthorne.

BEAUTIFUL WEATHER.—The weather this week has been just lovely. The sun came up bright and warm after the storm, and it has continued pleasant ever since.

Schalten's Confession.

Last week THE INDEPENDENT published an account of the arrest and conviction of the three young men who robbed the Bishop Creek stage. Louis Schalten, whose confession follows, was given most of the blame, to which he took exceptions, and requested this paper to publish his account of the affair and let an impartial people judge for themselves who is the deepest in the unfortunate mire. Here is his statement:

BISHOP CREEK STATION.
February 14th, 1884.

I got up the night the stage was robbed about half past one; there was a light in Bud Harniss' saloon and I called or knocked at the door. One of them got up and let me in. We had a drink, and Bud Harniss says to me "Is there any money going out in the stage to-night?" I says: "You heard what Charles Levy said at the supper table to-night," and he says: "I don't remember." I said that he said that there would be about $900 to-night in the box and he wanted me to act as messenger. I says to Charles Levy: "How much is there in it?" He says $3. Bud Harniss says: "We can make more than that out of it;" he says: "Arlie, let's take it in." He (Arlie) says: "Dry up; you don't mean what you say." Bud says: "I am in for it;" he says: "Get up and put on your boots." Bud says to me: "Come on, Lew." I hesitated, and he says "What are you afraid of? They can't catch us. We three can swear to the same thing and all hell can't catch us." I says: "Boys, this is a scaly piece of business and we all know the consequence." We then got to the bar and had another drink, and Bud says: "Hurry up, as we have not much time to spare;" and he said: "Where can we get an ax?" I says: "If you fellows want to rob the stage you can get an ax at Dunn's wood pile or at George Gill's." "All right," says Bud; he then says: "You go and get the ax and Arlie and I will go to the barn and hitch up." I went and got an ax at George Gill's; put it in the wagon and went and helped them. I got out at the office and put the box in. Arlie says: "Let me drive." I let him drive, and on the road about 300 yards Bud says: "Lou, you break the box open, as you know how to get into it easier than I do." I got on the back seat and took the box in between the two seats and smashed her in, took out the waypocket and took out what money there was in it and put it in my pocket. When we came to the bridge they pulled up and I said: "All right, boys;" so I jumped out of the wagon and packed the box about 40 yards from the road, and came back and got in, and drove on to the depot. When we got there Mairs went on to Independence and Bud and I came back to Bishop. We went into the saloon and burned the way pocket and way bills and money sacks. Bud had the handling of the money; some time after he gave me $20 and then $80. That is all that I have received of it. The ax I took back to Geo. Gill's wood pile.

LOUIS SCHALTEN.

Sentence Pronounced.

On the 19th inst., Louis Schalten, T. C. Harniss and A. F. Mairs were sentenced by the Superior Court of Inyo county to imprisonment in the State's Prison for the term of two years and six months, upon the charge of grand larceny. Upon pronouncing sentence on the young men, His Honor, Judge Hannah, said:

"The Court, after hearing each of your statements, though somewhat conflicting, has come to the conclusion that you are equally guilty in the perpetration of the crime to which you have pleaded guilty, and that you shared in the division of your ill-gotten gain.

The Court has personal knowledge that heretofore each of you has borne in this community, a reputation unsullied by an act felonious in its character, previous to the transaction of which you now stand self-convicted. From your statements, the unfortunate condition in which you find yourselves placed is the result of frequenting saloons, and a too free indulgence in intoxicating liquors—a habit upon the part of young men, which is the bane of their life and of society at large. Its evil consequencs, if the habit be persisted in, are as sure to follow as night succeeds day. You freely and knowingly placed the poisoned chalice to your lips, and if its bitter dregs have produced its deadly effects, you have no one to charge its evil upon; though I trust it will be a warning to others and a lesson by which you will profit when you may be restored to liberty, and again occupy a position among men, as honest and good citizens. Should this be the effect, then you will not have suffered in vain. I trust and hope that only good results to each of you may follow from this bitter experience."

A CHANGE.—A change has been made in the length of the runs of the engines on the Carson & Colorado railroad. There will be two engines between Hawthorne and Mound House and two between there and Bishop Creek, the engineers and firemen taking their lay-off at Hawthorne both ways.

ATTENDED THE FUNERAL.—Judge Hannah, John Crough, Isaac Harris, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hardy, Dr. H. G. Kernodle and wife, Rev. Warren Nims, W. J. Lake and others whose names we did not learn, of this place, attended the funeral of Albert H. Johnson at Lone Pine yesterday.

TWO PAPERS IN ONE WEEK.—Subscribers of THE INDEPENDENT living at a distance will receive last week's and to-day's paper about the middle of next week. Last week's issue was put in the office here last Saturday but did not leave until this morning. To-day's issue will go in the mails to-morrow.

NO OUTSIDE NEWS.—Owing to all communication with the outside world being cut off, we have no news from surrounding mining camps, and consequently a slim paper this week.

Death of Albert H. Johnson.

Albert Hubbard Johnson, a native of Michigan, aged 42 years, died at Lone Pine, at 9 o'clock P. M., February 20th, 1884. He contracted a severe cold while at work in a mine at Alabama Hills, and did not drop his pick and shovel until the pneumonia had fastened its deadly hold on him, when he was taken to his home where loving hands administered to his wants until the Saviour beckoned him to that mansion above not made with hands. Deceased came to this coast in 1859, and became a resident of Inyo county nineteen years ago, making his home the greater portion of the time at Lone Pine, where he married Miss Cordelia M. Adams on February 1st, 1872, who has borne him five children, four of whom are left with his bereaved widow to mourn the loss of a kind father and careful protector. He also leaves a brother, C. W. Johnson, to mourn his departure. Albert H. Johnson on several occasions acted as guide for exploring parties through the high Sierras, and his name will be yet mentioned in connection with historic events, the accuracy of which is not yet settled. He has furnished many valuable historical facts, and always took a lively interest in discussions involving the events with which he was connected. He was a kind hearted, whole souled man, beloved by all who knew him, and he will be sadly missed from our midst. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to his bereaved widow and children in thier deep sorrow. May they find comfort and consolation in Him who reigns over heaven and earth and taketh under His protecting wing the widow and orphan.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, a large number of citizens being present from Independence.

TOOK A REST.—Omie Mairs, who carries the mail between this place and the railroad station, took a rest this week, awaiting the arrival of the delayed trains.

NEW COURT COMMISSIONER.—Judge Hannah to-day appointed James E. Parker Court Commissioner for this county, vice, N. E. Conklin, resigned.

CONGRESSMAN MACKEY, of South Carolina, who died recently, was chiefly distinguished by the fact that he married a colored woman.

WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE,

A Placer Claim, Being Survey No. 2,153' Lot No. 37 and 38, in Townships Nos. 27 and 28 North, Range One (1) East. San Bernardino Base and Meridian.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
Bodie, California.
December 10, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE "HENRY CLAY MINING COMPANY," a corporation of the State of California, having its principal office postoffice address and place of business in the City and County of San Francisco and State of California, has, by RUDOLPH NEUSCHWANDER, its duly authorized special agent and attorney in fact, who resides at Coleman, in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the county of Inyo and State of California, and whose nearest post office address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office its application for a Patent from the United States to the said Company for its borax placer mining claim containing 1,152 50 100 acres, commonly known as and called the "WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," situated in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, the same being now officially surveyed, platted and designated by the U. S. Surveyor General for California as Survey No. 2,153 Lot Nos. 37 and 38, situate partly in Township twenty-seven (27) North, Range One (1) East, and partly in Township twenty-eight (28) North, Range One (1) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, and more particularly bounded and described by the official plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as follows, viz:—the magnetic variation being 15 deg 31 min East.

Commencing at a stake marked "C D No. 3," the same being the southeast corner of Location No 2, situated five (5) chains east of the margin of dry bed of lake in Death Valley, from which said stake, MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34 bears south seventeen (17) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, distant thirty-two (32) chains and ninety one (91) links: A STONE MONUMENT at the northeast corner of the DESERT BORATE DEPOSIT MINE bears south twenty five (25) degress forty-five (45) minutes east, distant twenty-two (22) chains and fifty five (55) links; WINTERS PEAK bears north seventy one (71) degrees east; and running thence from the said stake marked "C D No. 3"

First Course—North twenty (20) chains to a stake marked "C D No. 4," on left bank of Popcorn Cañon; thence—

Second Course—South eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes, west twenty (20) chains and twelve (12) links to a stake marked "C D No 5," on the margin of dry bed of lake from which a stake marked "C D H," bears north eighty-nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes west distant twenty nine (29) chains and twenty four (24) links; thence running from said stake marked "C D No. 5"

Third Course—North thirty (30) minutes west, twenty (20) chains and twenty-nine (29) links to a stake marked "C D No 6," in a small ravine running west; thence—

Fourth Course—West, ten (10) chains and sixteen (16) links to a stake marked "C D No. 7," on west slope of low hills; thence—

Fifth Course—North twenty (20) chains and twenty five (25) links to a stake marked "C D No 8," situated on a low hill; thence—

Sixth Course—East ten (10) chains and thirteen (13) links to a stake marked "C D No 9," on the north slope of brown ridge. Continue east; at sixty (60) chains and thirty-two (32) links reach a stake marked "C D No. 77," situated on a mesa; thence—

Seventh Course—South thirty (30) minutes west, ten (10) chains and ninety-nine (99) links to a stake marked "C D No 78" on the right bank of a wash running west; thence—

Eighth Course—South eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes east along the right bank of wash, nine (9) chains and ninety five (95) links to a stake marked "C D No. 74," situated one (1) chain north of wash; thence—

Ninth Course—south ten (10) chains and four (4) links to a stake marked "C D No. 69," on gravel ridge sloping west, thence—

Tenth Course—East nine (9) chains and sixty-seven (67) links to a stake marked "C D No 68," situate fifty (50) links north of a small alkali stream running west; thence—

Eleventh Course—North five (5) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east, nine (9) chains and ninety eight (98) links to a stake marked "C D No. 74½," in right bank of a wash; thence—

Twelfth Course—North eighty nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east twenty (20) chains and ninety-four (94) links to a stake marked "C D No. 75," on west slope of a red hill from which "MINERAL MONUMENT No 34" bears south thirty-seven (37) degrees thirty (30) minutes west; "CHLORIDE PEAK" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes west, and "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-three (73) degrees thirty (30) minutes east; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No 75."

Thirteenth Course—North twenty-one (21) chains and nineteen (19) links to a stake marked "C D No. 76," on left bank of a wash running southwest from which MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34," bears south thirty-one (31) degrees ten (10) minutes west; "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-six (76) degrees east, and "WHITE BUTTE" bears north eighty five (85) degrees west, distant about twenty (20) chains; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 76."—

"Good Night."

How tenderly and sweetly falls the gentle "Good night" into loving hearts, as members of a family separate and retire for the night. What myriads of hasty words and thoughtless acts engendered in the hurry and business of the day, are forever blotted out by its benign influence. Small token, indeed; but it is the little courtesies that make up the sum of a happy home. It is only the little courtesies that so beautifully round off the square corners in the homes of the laboring men and women. The simple "I thank you" for a favor received, will fill with happiness the heart of the giver. True wealth is not counted by dollars and cents, but by the gratitude and affection of the heart. If the home be happy, it is of heaven the most earthly symbol. If the home be happy, whether the owner possesses a patch of ground of one or a thousand acres, he is indeed wealthy beyond mathematical calculation. Then how much more confidingly do its members repose their weary bodies in the care of Divine goodness, soothing their overtaxed minds to the living realties of a beautiful dreamland; awakening refreshed and invigorated for the coming day's labor by their having bid their loved ones an affectionate "Good night." And if, during this, we have faithfully attended to all these little soul deeds, if we have guarded faithfully all "God's hearts," placed in our keeping, at the close of its brief, but eventful day, how much easier to bid all our dearly beloved ones a final "Good night."

THE House Committee on Public Lands has adopted the principle that Congress has the right to declare any railroad grant forfeited where the road was not completed within the time required by law. The committee reports for forfeiture the Oregon Central grant, 2,000,000 acres. The principle adopted by the committee affects the question of forfeiture on 15,000,000 acres of the Northern Pacific grant, to which several members are disposed to apply the principle regardless of extenuating circumstances. The Oregon branch, 250 miles, only is affected.

ANDREW JACKSON, a Seneca Indian, who could write a little, and only a little, borrowed $3.50 from John Halftown and gave him his note for the money with interest. It ran like this: "Me, Andrew Jackson, day after to-morrow six months will pay to John Halftown, maybe three or four days, $3 or $4 dollars, no fetch paper no get money."—[Venango Spectator.

DANDRUFF is a disease of the scalp and a very common affection. The causes are numerous. It may arise from want of cleanliness, infrequent brushing with a soft brush or too much brushing with a hard one, poor health, a dry scalp, wearing a close, unventilated hat, the use of a fine-tooth comb—an instrument which ought to be banished from the toilet. Avoid these causes and keep the head clean, and the disease will generally disappear.

Insanity in America.

Dr. Foster Pratt, of Michigan, recently published statistics in proof of his assertion that insanity and idiocy are increasing, in America, to an alarming extent. He attributes the increase to two causes; first, the shipment of the insane and idiotic paupers to this country from Europe, and the intense life of native born Americans. There are 82,162 insane whites in the United States. Of all the people of this country, the negro is the most free from insanity. Only one negro out of 1,096 is insane, while one white in 608 native-born, and one in 250 foreign-born are so afflicted. Dr. Pratt recommends more care in preventing the immigration of persons of unsound mind, and less work and worry by Americans.

The remark is frequently made that Americans rush through with everything the have to do, be it business or pleasure; all is done with an intensity and earnestness unknown in Europe. We are continually cautioned by our English cousins to be more sedate, to "take things easy." While this is good advice, it is not probable that it will be followed to any great extent in this country. The cause of the restlessness and energy of Americans lies deeper than the desire for wealth or the love of pleasure. It exists in the climate of the western world. We draw it in from the atmosphere with every inspiration of the lungs, and from the sunshine, which nowhere else strikes with more intensity. Let an American go to the fog-enveloped island of Old England, and in time he becomes phlegmatic and does not need the advice, "Keep cool."

The American Indian is an illustration of the effect of climate in this country. Physically, he is long, lean, lank and bony; mentally, he is anxious, alert, restless and keen. The descendants of the Pilgrims are becoming like him mentally and physically, with the differences, of course, which inhere from their European ancestry. Advice on this point is therefore pretty much thrown away. With all the forces of nature drawing us onward, it is not probable that we shall pause long enough to listen to advice which does not fit our case.

AT a recent temperance meeting a thrifty old lady observed that she knew something of the evils of rum. "I have buried three husbands and all were hard drinkers. But I am glad to say," she continued, "that I didn't fight with them. As soon as I found they would drink I got them to insure their lives heavily and let them go ahead. Ah, me! each one of them died from the effects of liquor; but, thanks to a kind providence, each death netted me a clear $10,000."

A MEMBER of the Legislature, in discussing the question of trial by jury, became excited and exclaimed: "With trial by jury I have lived, and, by the blessing of God, with trial by jury I will die!" The roar of laughter which followed called the honorable gentleman's attention to the point he had made.

A LAWYER, attempting to say a word for his client after the jury had found him guilty, the Judge sternly stopped him and said: "Your client, sir, is both a knave and a fool." "And he's been tried by a court and a jury of his peers," added the lawyer.

THE Boise (Idaho) Democrat says a man named Peterson, who was in the mountains getting out timber, roasted and ate a lot of wild parsnips, and in an hour afterwards died in great agony.

A SCIENTIFIC Convention is to be held in Philadelphia next year, made up of American scientists, and a local committee has been organized to extend a generous welcome to the visitors.

A CONTEMPORARY talks of "fighting polygamy with words." But it is unnecessary to say that words can have no deterrent effect upon any man who has a half dozen wives in his family.

Land Culture in Ireland.

Irish land shows a continuous tendency to go out of cultivation the area under all crops being last year 15,151,230 acres as against 15,212,390 in 1882, and 15,304,235 the year before. The decline extends alike to corn, green crops, flax and rotation grasses; and even potatoes occupy 30,000 acres less than in 1882. The decrease in the area under wheat is enormous, amounting to no less than 58,000 acres or nearly 38 per cent. The growth in permanent pasture does not, as in England, keep pace with the abandonment of tillage. On the contrary, the cultivated area in the whole of Ireland shows a diminution in the year of more than 60,000 acres. There is some increase in the number of cattle, and a slight increase in sheep and lambs, but the number of both the latter is about 28 per cent. less than two years ago. In pigs there has been a decrease for the year of over 100,000.

SECRETARY CHANDLER, in answer to the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco, asking an increase of the naval force, says: The Navy Department is in favor not only of building the engines, but of providing side-turrets and armaments for all four of the monitors, (the Monadnock, Puritan, Amphatrite and Terror), and making them formidable and effective armored vessels. If preference and priority of completion should be given to any one, it should be extended to the Monadnock, on account of its importance to the Pacific coast.

THE land act passed by the British Columbian Legislature gives pre-emptors the right to take up land west of the Cascades to the extent of 160 acres, and east of the Cascades 320 acres, at $1 per acre. Speculators are limited to 640 acres, at $2.50. Bunch grass or grazing lands $1 per acre, coal lands $2.50, with a royalty of five cents per ton upon coal lands acquired subsequent to the passage of the bill.

PERHAPS the most forlorn and uninviting village in Nevada to-day is Grantsville, in Nye county. The mines for which the town was built are all idle, and many of them abandoned. The few people who remain exist by the hardest work, and, Micawber like, are waiting and hoping that something will turn up. There are few sights more deplorable than the wreck of a once flourishing mining camp. —[Reno Journal.

ON pay-day at Butte, Montana, some $300,000 was paid out by the mining companies. The Anaconda alone paid $120,000, and the Lexington, Colorado, Alice and Montana all put out big sums. Any camp where half this sum is paid for mining expenses ought to be very prosperous.

THE printer again: "It was simply an informal affair," wrote a critic of a little strawberry party at a neighbor's house. "It was simply an infernal affair," read the compositor, and that critic of strawberries and fashions will never get any more invitations from that quarter.

IT is stated that if the South Yuba Ditch Company had been a defendant in the late debris suit and had been stopped from selling water, some 200 quartz mill stamps would have been "hung up."

TO COUNTY ASSESSORS.

The State Board of Equalization has issued a letter of instructions to County Assessors. The letter appears designed for the purpose of informing and impressing them that they fully understand the matter of assessing property, and that the lapses of duty they may be guilty of will at once be apparent to them. It is their firm purpose, they state, that the assessment of property below its full cash value must cease. They show that in case of under-valuation it becomes their duty to raise the entire assessment of a county and in this way great injustice to individuals may be done, but the blame will rest with the local Assessor, or Assessors who have failed to do their whole duty. In regard to raising the value of mortgages that must result by this process, they call attention to the fact that the Supreme Court has decided that a mortgage is not money, but merely property; that it has a commercial value in some cases probably beyond its true value, and that the Court on one occasion had refused a writ restraining them from placing a percentage on the value of mortgages.

THE first two numbers of the San Franciscan, the long-looked for weekly paper, published by Joseph T. Goodman, Arthur McEwen and Thomas E. Flynn, have been received at this office. In make-up it resembles the Argonaut, and is a model of typographical neatness. The three gentlemen above named are among the brightest writers on the Coast; besides, articles appear in the new paper from the pens of such men as Mark Twain, Daggett, Goodwin, Fitch, Davis and others well known to the reading public of California and Nevada. The San Franciscan, like THE INYO INDEPENDENT, is thoroughly independent, and claims the privilege of upholding the right and condemning the wrong in all things and at all times. If it lives—and we truly wish it success—the new paper will make itself felt in matters of importance both political and social. Here's our ☞.

WITH the increase of population the price of meat grows higher. It now averages about three times as high in this State as it did ten years ago. Many extensive cattle ranges have been divided into small farms. This has been effected to the greatest extent, in Los Angeles county. Formerly it was one of the largest cattle growing portions of the State, and now it derives its supplies of meat mainly from abroad. But while animal food grows dearer, other varieties of food are becoming cheaper, and it is doubtful if so large a proportion of meat as now generally goes into the consumption of a family is justified by health considerations.

ON the 26th ult. Attorney-General Marshall effected arrangements with the Central Pacific Railroad Company which settles the controversy about that corporation's taxes. The terms of the settlement involve the payment by the company of $800,000. But upon the application of Governor Stoneman, Superior Judge Maguire granted an injunction restraining Attorney-General Marshall from compromising the railroad suits.

SENATOR HAWLEY, Chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee hopes to make the labors of that organization as effective as possible. He thinks tnat the tariff debate in Congress will produce much of the campaign literature of the year.

S. S. Cox has been made Chairman of the Democratic National Committee in place of Rosecrans, resigned. The latter gentleman was considered too conscientious for the position during the Presidential campaign.

G. M. ROBINSON, champion heavyweight of the Olympic Club of San Francisbo, is to try John L. Sullivan a four-round bout, Marquis of Queensberry rules. The match is to take place on the 6th inst.

WHEN the California and Oregon railway is completed, Southern Oregon will send a great deal of beef to the San Francisco market.

PERSISTENCE.

The periodical returns of excitement in regard to some unknown mining territory, and the rush of eager miners to possess the land somewhere beyond their present outlook and possession, says the Chicago Mining Review, shows one of those strong features so characteristic of miners and prospectors who are inclined to be dissatisfied with the present, however favorable in itself, and eager for some unknown and untried locality, from which nothing but indefiniteness has been ascertained. One great reason of the slow development of many parts of the mining territory, and rapid rise and fall of mining camps, even where properties make the most satisfactory showing, and evidence is plenty that further development would result in satisfactory, profitable returns, is the fact that those most interested are not content with well enough. Ore that runs thirty, forty, or fifty dollars per ton, sinks into insignificance before the dazzling reports of some far-off locality which promises much better results. To this one evil much of the unsteadiness and disappointment of the mining industry is attributable. There has been, in too many instances, a lack of careful planning before operations were commenced and of a persistent and determined prosecution after the best localities have been chosen for operation. There are scattered over the mining country today thousand of deserted claims, which only require steady work to return a profitable income to those who may give time and labor to their development. Hundreds of mining camps standing alone in their desolation, possess more mineral wealth, and more of the elements of permanent success, than scores of others to which miners are rushing with their well known fervor of excitement and impetuosity. This has been proven true in many instances, where deserted claims have been relocated, and abandoned camps have been again established and rebuilt upon solid foundations of real merit and reliable mineral resources. This condition has wrought not only injustice, but injury, to the best interests of this great industry, as the fact has been too often proven to the disappointment and sorrow of those who have made investments, and it has come to be recognized as a fact by those who have purchased stock in mining companies, that the most valuable mine, the best vein, and the richest mineral, is no guarantee of wealth, or value, or security, for the confidence and capital invested. It is well known that at the present time many operations are inaugurated under circumstances that are far frm favorable, and that until a change in the cost of treatment and other advantages are opened, that no great profit need be expected. Yet all of these things, the surroundings of the present and the probability of the future, must be taken into consideration when investment of labor and capital are determined upon. Then, persistence and development, with the sole object of production in view, will produce results vastly different, and the character of the great industry be vindicated; its most marvelous possibilities will be placed in a light that will attract the attention of capital and labor to their development, and the recognition of their influence and importance.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Marcus D. Boruck, Secretary of the World's Fair Association of San Francisco, is working with his accustomed energy in the cause in which he finds himself enlisted. He has sent out no less than 35,750 circulars, innumerable letters and papers, not only in the United States but abroad. Acting under the orders of the Executive Committee, he has addressed a communication to the Governors of the States and Territories respectively, requesting the appointment of a Commissioner for each one of the political divisions they rule over to represent the same, and with whom correspondence may be had in reference to all matters relating to the proposed fair. Many of the Governors have replied, promising to bring the matter to the attention of the Legislatures of their respective States and ask appropriations in furtherance of the great object. A great number of petitions are being sent to all parts of the Pacific slope, for signatures, asking Congress to "appropriate for the purpose of a World's Fair in San Francisco in 1887 the sum of $2,000,000, to be distributed under the authority of the of the Governor of the State and an Executive Committee, now already constituted, under that authority and with such other considerations as Congress may deem necessary in the premises."

BONANZA MACKAY has guaranteed Patti $65,000 for a season in Frisco, and Mr. Mapleson accepted the proposition for her.

GEN. BUTLER is looming up strongly as an independent candidate for the Presidency.

THE OLD, OLD STORY—THE NEW.

In answer to a letter of inquiry, we have just received the following, which fully explains itself:

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
Bodie, Cal., Feb. 16th, 1884.

M. M. GLENN, ESQ., Independence, Cal.: Dear Sir: I am in receipt of yours of 12th instant, inquiring about the Fort Indepenkence reservation.

The lands embraced therein are in precisely the same condition that they have been for years, and have not been thrown open to settlement. I have not the means of knowing what future action will be taken in the matter, and have no idea what will be done. They undoubtedly ought to be thrown open.

The lands claimed by Vagt and Walters are not within the limits of the reservation, although they are within the mile limit. The Register and myself thought these parties ought to be permitted to get their cases before the Department in some shape, after so many years of settlement, and concluded to take their proofs and let the Commissioner of the General Land Office act upon them. We would not care, however, to accept the responsibility of taking new filings without the authority of the Commissioner.

Very truly yours,
H. Z. OSBORNE,
Receiver.

Congress, however, has taken the matter in hand and something is likely to happen. On the 19th ult. a bill reported from the Committee on Military Affairs to provide for the disposition of abandoned and useless military reservations, provides that the land included within any reservation which has or may become useless for military purposes, shall be placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for appraisal and public sale, and also that such lands shall not be subject to location by warrants of any description and shall not be subject to homestead, preemption or timber culture laws. In a report accompanying the bill, the Committee submits a table showing the number and area of the military reservations, which show there are 179 such reservations, which aggregate 2,920,580 acres.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL GRESHAM has removed H. J. McKusick, Superintendent of the Eighth Division of the Railway Mail Service at San Francisco, upon charges which have been pending before him for several weeks. Mr. Gresham has appointed James L. Wilder, now Assistant Superintendent of the Chicago Division, to McKusick's place, and the latter has been notified to place his office in charge of his chief clerk until Wilder's arrival. The latter will proceed at once to San Francisco. Wilder is one of the oldest employés in the postal service, and, Department officials say, is one of the most competent. Postmaster-General Gresham was asked for some explanation of McKusick's removal. He seemed disinclined to say anything, but finally remarked: "Of course Mr. McKusick was removed for cause; if there had been no cause he would not have been relieved. I hardly know what to say about the charges against him, and perhaps it would be better to say nothing. There is a railroad, I believe, running from Sacramento to the State line, called the California and Oregon Railroad. It was in connection with weighing mails on this road that McKusick was removed." This was all that Mr. Gresham would say.

WILLIAM GOVERNEUR MORRIS, Collector of Customs at Sitka, died at that place on the 31st of January. He was a descendant of the first Secretary of United States Treasury. During the civil war he was well known in Tulare county and the southern part of the State.

CHARLES S. MITCHELL, champion pugilist of England, arrived in New York from Liverpool on the 25th ult. He will shortly again challenge Sullivan, whom he is ready to confront at any time. He was met by a number of friends.

REPLIES to a circular sent to leading Republicans of Maine show that Blaine is the favorite for President and Robert T. Lincoln for Vice President.

Stumbling Horses.

An agricultural and stock exchange gives the following as a sure method of curing horses from stumbling: A well versed veterinarian states that there are two causes that would tend to produce this faulty action; one a general weakness in the muscular system, such as would be noticed in a tired horse; the other a weakness in the exterior muscles of the leg, brought about by carrying too much weight on the toe. To effect a cure, he adds, lighten the weight of each front shoe about four ounces; have the toe of the shoe made of steel instead of iron, it will wear longer; have it rounded off about the same as it would be when one-third worn out, in order to prevent tripping; allow one week's rest; have the legs showered for a few minutes at a time with cold water through a hose, in order to create a spray; then rub dry, briskly, from the chest down to the foot. Give walking exercise daily during this week for about an hour twice a day. When you commence driving again omit the slow jog, either walk or send him along at a sharp trot for a mile or two, then walk away, but do not speed for at least several weeks. By this means the habit of stumbling from either of the above causes will be pretty well overcome.

Some Good Rules to Observe.

Never ridicule sacred things or what others may esteem as such, however absurd they may appear to you.

Never show levity when people are engaged in worship.

Never resent a supposed injury till you know the views and motives of the author of it, and on no occasion relate it.

Always take the part of an absent person who is censured in company, so far as truth and propriety will allow.

Never to think worse of another on account of his differing from you in political or religious subjects.

Not to dispute with a man who is more than seventy years of age, nor with a woman, nor with any sort of an enthusiast.

Not to effect to be witty, or to jest so as to hurt the feelings of another.

To say as little as possible of yourself and those who are near you.

To aim at cheerfulness without levity.

Never to court the favor of the rich by flattering their vanities or their riches.

To speak with calmness and deliberation on all occasions, epecially of circumstances which tend to irritate.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR THE County of Inyo, State of California.

In the matter of Elisha Mallory, an insolvent debtor.

Elisha Mallory having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, by which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Elisha Mallory is hereby declared to be insolvent.

The Sheriff of the County of Inyo is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said Elisha Mallory, debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to him, or to any person, firm or corporation or association for his use. The said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property, until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Hon. John A. Hannah, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, in open Court, at the Court room of said Court, in the town of Independence, in the County of Inyo, on the SEVENTH day of APRIL, 1883, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered that the order be published in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the town of Independence, County of Inyo, as often as the said paper is published before the said day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered that in the meantime all proceedings against the said insolvent be stayed.

Dated February 28, 1884

BAL MASQUE--A RARE TREAT.—Bobby McGinley—the only Bobby McGinley on the Coast—will be in Independence in a short time and give a grand bal masque. He will bring with him an elegant assortment of costumes, and furnish our dance-loving people some excellent music. There will be lots of fun, and all who wish to enjoy a rare treat should not fail to be there. Daniel Crough, Dr. J. D. Blair, J. C. Irwin and J. R. Eldred will act as Floor Committee, and the dance will be given in the Court House. All persons will be required to show their faces to the Committee, so as to prevent the admittance of all disreputable persons. Notice will be given in next week's paper of when Mr. McGinley will be here.

THE GAME LAW.—From and after to-day, and until October 1st, it will be unlawful to kill quail, partridge or grouse; the last Legislature, with the amount of intelligence it possessed, saw fit to remove the restraint upon duck-shooting, so there is now nothing to prevent pot-hunters from killing all the half-fledged mallards to be found. The law makes it a misdemeanor to catch catfish except with hook and line; and to leave camp fires burning. Trout can be caught after the 1st of April and until November 1st.

BOARD OF EDUCATION. — The next meeting of the Board of Education will be held on the third Wednesday of this month—the 19th inst. The question of adopting new textbooks will be considered; and those wishing certificates and diplomas must apply at this meeting, as no examination is held at the succeeding meeting, in June. The members of the Board are: P. A. Chalfant, President; Chas. H. Groves, Secretary; Daniel Crough, J. H. Shannon and J. J. Gunn.

ON A SHORT VISIT.—Norman E. Conklin, who recently took a postal clerkship on the C. & C. between the Mound House and Bishop Creek station, came up to Independence to see his folks and friends yesterday morning and went back to his post of duty by return stage. Normie will make a first-class clerk, as he is full of business, and a very steady young gentleman.

BROWN MONSTER. — Work on this mine has been closed down for the present, we understand. What object the owner of this property has for so doing, is beyond our ken, and is certainly a surprise to all who know of the merits of the mine, paying ore in large quantities having been extracted all Winter, and there being plenty more in sight.

DARWIN.—Renewed energies are being put forth in this old camp, and men are preparing for work on many of the old mines. A large amount of freight has gone in there the past week. Everybody feels good, and it will be no very great surprise to see a large force of men at work in that vicinity this summer, lively times and plenty of money.

BANCROFT'S HISTORY OF THE PACIFIC STATES.—George H. Morrison, soliciting agent and collector of material for this work was in Independence yesterday. When completed there will be thirty-nine volumes, eleven already having been issued, making it one of the largest, and no doubt the most valuable history ever published.

FAREWELL PARTY.—The friends of Fields, late agent at the Lone Pine station, gave that young gentleman a farewell party at Lone Pine Thursday evening, on his departure for Benton. Geo. M. Stewart and G. H. Morrison attended the dance and say it was a very pleasant party.

ARGUS RANGE.—M. R. Williams, Superintendent of the Argus Range Mining Company, has returned from San Francisco. Work will be pushed on the Company's mines. Some changes are being made in the mill, and it will soon be ready to start up.

NEARLY CURED.—Phil. Pierman, who came here about a week ago with an aggravated throat complaint and was just able to swallow has improved so rapidly under the care of Dr. B. E. Stevenson as to enjoy a beefsteak with almost anyone.

CATTLE SHIPMENT. — John Broder shipped another car-load of fine beef cattle to Belleville Monday last.

SPECIAL MEETING.—A special meeting of the Board of Supervisors will be held next Monday.

PERSONAL.—C. B. Rawson and T. F. A. Connelly were down from Taboose Monday....O. B. Bacon, of Camp Independence, has been stopping at the Blaney House this week....My. Harmon, merchant and mining speculator, came up from Darwin last Thursday. ....D. B. Curtis, of Butte station, was registered at the Miners' Home Thursday....Mrs. A. McKellip, of Chrysopolis, was visiting friends here Wednesday....Mr. Beasley, one of the solid farmers of Big Pine vicinage, visited Inyo's capital Thursday....J. P. Taylor, who runs the stage between Keeler and Darwin, was shaking hands with old-time friends on our streets this week....Sheriff Gregg returned from below Thursday morning. He looks as fresh as can be....Mrs. A. H. Johnson and Mr. Largay, of Lone Pine, were in town Wednesday....J. R. Eldred and S. D. Woods paid Bishop Creek a visit this week on business, both returning here Thursday....Last week Jack Horton, of Bishop Creek, and his famous horse, were on the beautiful roads that lead in and out of our town ... G. W. Jones, railroad agent at Independence station, was in town on business a few moments last Tuesday.... Miss F. C. Northrup, teacher of the George's Creek school, spent Sunday with friends in Independence....Miss Mina Tibbetts, of Tibbett's station, visited among her friends here this week... Misses Maggie Dalton and Maggie Schalten came down from Big Pine last week for an extended visit with friends here....Isaac Harris, of the firm of Harris & Rhine, and County Surveyor Jo Seeley have been down in the Panamint region this week on business. Mr. Harris returned yesterday.

ARM BROKEN.—While coming down Mazourka canyon with a six-horse team load of wood last Wednesday forenoon, David Stubblefield had the misfortune to break his arm. Coming to a steep down grade he cut a large tree to hitch behind the wagon as a drag, unhooked the leaders and was pulling the tree in place, having hold of the near horse's bridle, when the animal made a plunge, throwing Mr. Stubblefield on his right arm and breaking it between the elbow and shoulder—the very same place it was broken several months ago by a bullet from the pistol of Aaron Hood, better known as "Hickie." The leaders ran down the grade about four miles and were caught by F. Lawrence, who thinking something was wrong started up the grade. He met Mr. Stubblefield coming down on foot holding his broken arm in his left hand. Thus the sufferer came into town, a distance of about twelve miles. Dr. Kernoodle set the broken member, and informs us that his patient is resting as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

A CHANGE.—Agent G. W. Jones takes charge of the Lone Pine Station on the C. & C. railroad to-day, in addition to his Independence agency. He will go to the former station every morning and return to Independence on the 9 o'clock train. That Mr. Jones will do the work in a manner satisfactory to the business men of Lone Pine, even if he is limited to an hour and a half each day, we do not doubt, as he is an active and competent agent.

"CHANGE YOUR WHISKY."—A few nights since the operator at this end of the telegraph wires, noticing a large ball of fire up the railroad track, caused by flames burning the dry tules, hailed the operator at the other end of the wire, and asked: "What headlight is that up the track?" "Better change your whisky," came the reply. Joe tried hard to keep the joke to himself and enjoy it all alone; but such things will leak out.

DIVINE SERVICE. — Rev. Mr. Nims gave his hearers a good sermon last Sunday, but we are sorry to say his listeners were few. The people of Independence have the opportunity of enjoying a good christian talk from Rev. Mr. Nims but once a month, and we should think they would be so anxious to go that there would hardly be standing room in the church.

GRASS SUPPLY.—Although the supply of grass on the outside ranges is yet limited and affords very little nutriment, the prospect of an abundant supply of good feed, for the coming season, was never better, and stockmen are now only puzzled over the question of how to avail themselves to the best advantage of the promised super-abundance.

SENTENCED TO ONE YEAR. — T. S. Harris, formerly publisher of the Coso News, (Darwin), Panamint News, Bodie Standard, and recently running a paper called the Free Lance, at Los Angeles, was a few days since sentenced to one year in San Quentin for shooting Charles Whitehead, the editor of the Los Angeles Republican.

WORLD'S FAIR.—Those in this section of California who would like to see a World's Fair in San Francisco in 1887, should step up to the Post-office and sign a petition they will find there asking Congress to make an appropriation for that purpose. Every man in the State should sign.

FOR MOHAVE.—John Shepherd is to leave George's Creek to-day for Mohave, where he expects to meet his sister, brother and brother-in-law, who come from Los Angeles, and bring them up to his home on a visit.

SALE OF CATTLE.—E. Robinson has sold all of his cattle, reserving only his milk cows, to C. B. Rawson, of Taboose. We understand he got $25 per head for them.

POSTPONED.—The sale day of the delinquent stock of the Bishop Creek Ditch Company stock has been postponed until April 12th.

PLOWING AND SOWING.—The farmers of Owens River Valley are busy putting in their crops, where the land is moist enough to work.

BADLY NEEDED.—A petition, signed by the business men and others of this community, asking the Postmaster General to detail a postal clerk, whose route shall be from Bishop Creek to Keeler on the Carson and Colorado Railroad, has been forwarded to Washington. To avoid annoying delays and insure a prompt delivery of mail matter and do justice to the business men and citizens living along the line of the road between the points above named, a postal clerk is badly needed, and it is earnestly hoped that the Postmaster General will give subject his earliest possible attention and supply the want.

IMPORTANT MINING SALE.—Frank Silva has sold to the Southern Development Company of Nevada 1500 feet in the Sterling mine, the Vasco mine, Sterling Springs and Harbin Springs, in New Coso Mining District, consideration $10,000. James Oliver has just completed the survey. The Southern Development Company has plenty of capital at its back, and the people generally are glad to see it become interested in Inyo county mining properties. It will stimulate prospecting and induce capital to invest in our mines.

ARRESTED.—Julian Aguilar was arrested in Lone Pine yesterday by Sheriff Gregg, for appropriating bullion alleged to be the property of E. Cohn and J. E. Strauss. A search-warrant was issued for the bullion, and a warrant of arrest for Aguilar. He was arrested, as stated, and lodged in the county bastile this morning.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The case of The People vs. Seth Kelly, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder, will come up for trial before his Honor Judge Hannah at 10 o'clock on Monday. John W. P. Laird for the prosecution, and S. D. Woods for the defense.

ANOTHER MINE SOLD.—We are informed by parties just down from Bishop Creek that J. B. Swearengen sold to Eastern parties during last week the mine formerly known as the Golden Wedge, in Piute District, for the sum of $8,000.

REDUCTION OF TELEGRAPH RATES.—A reduction of from 40 to 50 per cent takes place to-day on Western Union rates. To San Francisco the rate for ten words is reduced from $1 to 60 cents. The maximum rate for ten words is $1, whether it be to Texas or Nova Scotia.

LIVELY DRUMMER.—George M. Stewart, the lively drummer, traveling for the firm of Hall, Luhrs & Co., grocers, Sacramento, was canvassing our town yesterday.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.—John C. Irwin, County Assessor, will be out visiting the tax-payers on business next Monday. Look out for him.

IN TOWN.—M. A. Wheeler, Superintendent of the Swansea furnace, arrived in town this morning.

A LONDON dispatdh, dated February 26th, says: Foote, the editor of the Free Thinker, has completed his year's imprisonment for blasphemy. Bradlaugh, with 2,000 sympathizers, met him at the gates of the prison.

The Java Volcanic Eruption.

Captain W. J. Watson, of the ship Charles Ball, gives some interesting details concerning the recent volcanic outburst in Java. While sailing through the Straits of Sunda on the evening of the 22d of August, the sky suddenly assumed a milky-white appearance, changing to a strong white or silvery glare. The phenomenon, with slight variations, was repeated on the 24th, 25th and 26th. The ship had sailed past Java Head and Pirate Island, and was nearing Krakatoa Island, which was then an active volcano, but afterwards sunk beneath the sea. On the afternoon of the 26th those on board noticed some agitation about the Point of Krakatoa, which increased until a terrible roaring noise, as of a mighty fire, seemed to emanate from the island, while an occasional explosion sounded like the discharge of heavy artillery, growing more furious and alarming each moment. A dense darkness spread over the sky, and a hail of pumice stone began to fall on the ship, many of the pieces being of considerable size, and quite warm. During the night there were chains of fire constantly ascending and descending from the Java coast. The sky one moment would be intense blackness, the next a blaze of fire. From midnight until 4 o'clock in the morning of the 27th the wind was strong but hot, choking and sulphurous. At 11:30 o'clock that day commenced a downpouring of mud and sand, and at noon the darkness was such that the crew were compelled to grope their way about the decks, while the roarings of the volcano were fearful. At 2 o'clock the fall of mud ceased, and some of the spars and upper yards became visible, and gradually the ship sailed away from the eruption. —[S. F. Call.

EX-GOVERNOR WOODS, of Oregon, well known throughout this State as a Republican campaign speaker, recently distinguished himself greatly in a murder trial in San Francisco—in defense of a man who killed the paramour of his wife. The "Chronicle," in its report of the trial, says: "At the close of ex-Governor Woods' there was great excitement in the court-room and it was with difficulty that quietness could be restored. The case was then given to the jury, and in a short while they returned a verdict of not guilty." Governor Woods is unquestionably the most brilliant orator now living in the Pacific States; indeed, according to the views of the Boston "Journal," has not a superior in the whole Union.

A SOUTH CAROLINA paper proposes that pistols shall be taxed. Such a law would be a vast benefit in this State of California if anywhere. They are now taxed under the firearm classification; but a special and heavy tax should be imposed upon them, and made collectable by summary process as soon as assessed. Besides the revenue it would afford, it would materially decrease the criminal business of the courts which taxpayers find so burdensome.

Tamping Explosives.

Efforts are constantly being made to effect a saving in the quantity of explosives used in mining operations through systematic application of the charges. The example is cited of a contractor who in strong rock had reduced his charges of dynamite and got good effect by tamping the holes with clay. It is customary to use little or no tamping with strong explosives; the time saved thereby is regarded as compensating the cost of the greater quantity required. Tamping with clay pellets, prepared by boys beforehand, occupies but little time, and the more complete combustion of the explosive and the reduced quantity employed, lead to a diminished vitiation of the air, so that the men may return to their work immediately after the blast. In another instance of driving a heading in stone, a saving of about fifty per cent of the cost of explosives has been effected by using dynamite in the strong holes and black powder in the rest; the proportion in this case is, on an average, one hole charged with dynamite to three holes charged with black powder. —[Mining and Scientific Press.

Foreclosed.

A New Yorker, who was in Wheeling when the freshet reached its highest notch, saw a foundry being gradually surrounded by water, and much valuable stuff swept away without any one putting forth a hand to prevent. His anxiety finally compelled him to remark to a citizen:

"I think that building could be saved."

"Well, mebbe."

"Won't any effort be made in that direction?"

"Mebbe there will."

The man's nonchalance nettled the visitor, and he blurted out:

"It's a shame to see such apathy prevail!"

"Stranger," calmly replied the other, "I don't know exactly what you mean by apathy, but if it relates to the three different mortgages on that foundry held by Boston folks, you kin bet on a foreclosure in less'n an hour."

In about forty minutes the building went sailing down. —[Wall Street News.

Roscoe Don't Want It.

A book canvasser out working very hard taking orders for the sale of Blaine's new book in New York, entered the office of Roscoe Conkling.

"I have a very interesting book here," said the agent. "I would like to have you give me a subscription. It is the record of twenty years in Congress during the period, sir, when you were such a prominent actor."

"May I inquire," said Conkling, "the name of the author of this interesting work?"

"The Hon. James G. Blaine of Maine," said the book agent, with a flourish.

"I do not want the book," said Conkling, grimly, turning away.

"But," said the agent, "your portrait is in it."

"Its presence in that book is wholly unauthorized," said Conkling. "Good day, sir."

General News; Wise and Otherwise.

The New York Commercial Traveler's Association numbers 3,191 members.

A petroleum well lately sunk in the Baku district of Russia promises to surpass the most famous "gushers" of this country. It is said to be yielding from 7,000 to 8,000 barrels a day.

John Lewis, of Sabin, Minn., tied a calf to a post which supported a granary, under which he was at work. The calf pulled the post out and the granary fell on Lewis, killing him.

As W. C. Morrow, of Cleveland, Ohio, was smoking a cigar he lifted his eight-year-old daughter upon his lap. In the act the lighted cigar was accidentally thrust into one of her eyes, destroying the sight.

There is an institution at North Andover Center, Mass., known as the Ladies' Book Club, which has flourished for forty years. No males are admitted to membership, and there is a fine of $1 for lending a book to parties outside.

A New York policeman who was pronounced in perfect health by three police surgeons, became permanently unfit for duty, after two weeks' service, from a complication of diseases. He thus becomes a pensioner for life. The surgeons will be tried for neglect of duty.

On one of the Brooklyn street-car lines the conductors are carrying watches set into the fare-recording apparatus swung from their necks. The watches are for the accommodation of the passengers, who may thus read the time of day as the conductor passes through the car.

THE President has received a touching letter from Lizzie Nutt, of Uniontown, Pa., asking for the appointment of Postmistress of that town. The letter is written with the most delicate taste, and describes her situation with modesty and delicacy, and the terrible trouble which her family has recently passed through, and which left them fatherless and impoverished. There are five little children depending on her brother and herself. She makes no further allusion to the recent tragedies, but asks, if the President finds that she is qualified to perform the duties of the office, that he will give her the appointment. The President is kindly disposed toward the girl, and will probably make the appointment.

A DISPATCH from Walla Walla, W. T., says: The excitement about the Cœur d'Alene mines is abating. The most atrocious falsehoods are being disseminated about their richness, when, in fact, old miners believe that not $5,000 has been taken out since the camp was struck. What little has been seen is of a scaly nature, which occurs in spots. The creek is very flat and deep. No work has been done except on a high rim outside the main channel, in which bedrock has not been seen yet. The claims are 201 acres each.

A YOUNG lawyer, while making his maiden speech, in defending a negro boy for some petty crime, in the midst of an impassioned appeal to the jury, exclaimed: "Ah, gentlemen of the jury, you see before you this poor trembling boy—without father, without mother, without friends, without counsel—" At this point the orator was interrupted by a general titter around the Bar, and to add to his confusion, the Judge who was sitting on the Bench added: "Proceed, Brother ——, the Court is with you."

WHAT to him was love or hope? What to him was joy or care? He stepped on a plug of mottled soap the girl had left on the topmost stair. His feet flew out like wild, fierce wings, and he struck each stair like the sound of a drum, and the girl below with the scrubbing things laughed like a fiend to see him come.

THE scheme for connecting San Francisco and Oakland by tunnel is reported to be taking definite shape. Spring Valley and other capital is said to be interested in the project, the former for the special purpose of having a conduit for water-pipes.

THE Democratic National Convention will meet in Chicago on the 8th of July next.

Wanted to Be Counted In.

"Oh! I think it must be so nice to be connected with a newspaper," said Miss McFlynn to young Quill-driver, as they sat together one evening.

"Yes, it is so-so," he replied; "but why do you think it is?"

"Why, it has so many advantages. I should think you would glory in the freedom, the power, the liberty, and all the privileges of the press."

"Certainly, I do. It's a pity, with all your enthusiasm on the subject, that you are not a journalist."

"I think so, too; but you know it is so hard for a woman to get recognition. I should be delighted to feel that the press embraced me."

"Oh! you would, would you? Great Scott! Wait till I turn down the gas."

A WOMAN living near Glendive was the owner of a pet dog, which was playing, when it gave a yelp of almost mortal terror, as a large eagle, with wings larger than a blacksmith's apron, swooped down and picked up the little cur in his muscular talons. With the true Western woman, brought up amid all the dangers of a rough border life, and with no tight-fitting skirt to prevent the free movement of her limbs, to think is to act. On the instant, this noble representative of a noble sex flew into the kitchen, where her husband kept his shot-gun, with which, in the early days when bloodthirsty Indians were rampant on the plains, she had often gone out and shot foolhens. She bounced out of the front door, gun in hand. In an instant she directed her eagle eye into the air, where, soaring about ten feet distant, she discerned the emblem of our national liberties grasped convulsively but firmly in its claws. For a moment she ran her trained eye along the barrel of the gun in the direction of the bird, closed her liquid orbs with a shudder, and banged away. When she opened them the eagle was prospecting interstellar space and the dog lay scattered around in fragments all over the yard. She wept bitter tears, and as she picked up the pieces and told her youngest boy to grease the sausage machine, she swore, in broken Missouri, and with many a sob, everlasting war on the shotgun policy.

A PITTSBURG clergyman wept during the delivery of his sermon on Martin Luther. Inasmuch as Luther has been dead 400 years, that weep seems rather far-fetched.

THE difference between long and short yarn is very well illustrated by the difference in one's feelings in holding a skein for one's grandmother or one's sweetheart.

INYO INDEPENDENT.

SATURDAY, MARCH 8.....1884

THE Bodie and Benton Railway and Commercial Company, a corporation, has sued Harvey Boone and James Wright to recover $3,000 for breach of warranty of title to 718¼ cords of nut pine cord wood. This wood was situated on Rough creek, ten miles from Bodie, and was purchased by plaintiff from the defendante for $1,256,94; but the complaint alleges that the wood did not belong to defendants, having been cut on government land in violation of law; and that United States officers seized the wood, and plaintiff was compelled to surrender and lose it.

THE Pioneer Publishing Company will shortly issue from Eagle City the Cœur d'Alene Pioneer, a newspaper to represent the district now creating such a furor throughout the mining world. Henry Bernard, formerly of the Alta California, in San Francisco, will be the editor of the new journal. The material is already on the ground, and in all probability the first issue will appear before the close of this month.

SHOULD an emergency arise, the United States could raise a huge army. Besides the Government's regular army of 25,000, there is now in the United States an aggregate organized military force of 88,000, including officers and men, and a reserve force of unorganized militia--men liable to military duty if necessary—of 6,419,912. If our nation's naval strength and seacoast defenses were equal to its military resources we could defy the world.

THE stage from Sonora was stopped twice by highwaymen on the 26th ult., but the passengers were not molested. The robbers tried to break open the iron treasure box, but could not do so. These attempts at robbery occurred near Copperopolis, and very close to the point where Black Bart made his last attempt. Calaveras county seems to be flush with stage robbers.

McDowell, the convicted murderer of Maggie O'Brien, and who recently broke jail at San Bernardino, has been captured. On being taken he attempted to swallow a dose of arsenic and morphine, but was prevented. He will be executed on the day set.

IT is Spring. A resurrection of nature's latent forces is taking place. Like the world around you, renew your complexion, invigorate your powers, stimulate the county and yourself and subscribe for THE INYO INDEPENDENT.

A PARTY of over 500 immigrants arrived at the town of Cheney, W. T., Saturday. They will settle principally in Eastern Oregon and Washington Territory.

THE American Consul at Dundee has asked the Captains of whaling vessels to keep a lookout for Lieutenant Greely in Baffin's Bay, in view of the possibility that he has drifted from Smith's Sound on an ice-floe.

THE flags of the Navy Department and Navy Yard, at Washington, were placed at half mast on Tuesday, in respect to the memory of Minister Hunt, whose funeral took place at St. Petersburg.

George Pen. Johnson died at his residence in San Francisco on the 4th. He was a recognized leader in the Democratic party, and editor of the Examiner.

REPORTS from Aurora say that the Silver Lining mine is turning out much better than expected by the contractors who are at work on the property.

DURING the past month Bodie Consolidated has shipped about $103,000. During the whole of last year the entire shipments aggregated $246,000.

The slogging match between Sullivan and Robinson in San Francisco on the 6th was witnessed by 15,000 people. Sullivan won by a foul.

N. H. A. MASON has 140 fine steers at Winnemucca for shipment to San Francisco. These steers are valued by cattle men at $75 a head.

IN Pahranagat Valley, in the southern port of Nevada, there has been but little snow this Winter but the rainfall has been very great.

THE Cœur d'Alene mines are pronounced, by a returned British Columbia miner, a gigantic fraud.

THE Senate has passed the bill providing for the construction of a public building in Carson, at a cost not to exceed $100,000 for site and building.

THE Republican State Convention will be held in Oakland, on the 30th of April.

OVER 20 breaks and washouts are reported on the Southern Pacific.

THE snow is twelve feet deep at Lake Tahoe.

PRESIDENTIAL MATTERS.

Murat Halstead, the celebrated Ohio editor, has been in Washington for a wsek; but unlike nearly every other stranger, Halstead frankly admits that he is there to help make the next President. Halstead has called on all the Presidential candidates, and says that although Logan and Arthur are good men, neither has much show of a nomination. Halstead says that he had a long, friendly interview with Blaine, who told him he was not a candidate for President. He did not think there was any prospect of his nomination and he was not giving a moment's thought or attention to the subject. Mr. Blaine said he was engaged in literary labors that were more fascinating to him than politics had ever been, and that he had put everything else out of his mind. "I feel justified in believing," observed Halstead, "that Mr. Blaine would rather be Secretary of State than President and that he aspires to that office under the next administration." The gossip of politicians, however, demonstrates that no matter what Blaine says he will surely be placed in the race. THE INDEPENDENT is of the opinion that Blaine will not only be placed in the race but that he will win it.

DR. R, H. McDONALD, in a circular address to the "Friends of Prohibition and Temperance," among other things, says: "There is a lingering hope in the minds of Republicans and Democrats that we are not in earnest, that we can be won over by promises and that we do not love our principles sufficiently to vote for men who will not be elected.

We must convince the public mind that prohibition is a living issue never to die until the State and Federal Constitutions contain amendments prohibiting the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages." And, finally, "that prohibition has come to stay, and that if we remain true to ourselves the ultimate success of our cause is as certain as Judgment Day." The doctor and his party mean business this time without doubt—a fact that old "regulars" will have to keep broadly in view in making up their next tickets, or a whole lot of them will surely get badly left.

AT El Paso, Mexican dollars are worth 85 cents in American coin. At Paso del Norte, just across the river, American dollars are worth 85 cents in Mexican coin. One morning a car-driver started from the American side with a Mexican dollar. On his arrival at the Mexican town he took a drink of chain lightning, which was fifteen cents, and received an American dollar as change for his Mexican. On his return to the American side he took a drink of equally bad liquor, and received a Mexican dollar for his American, and so repeated the drinks at intervals during the day, and at night he closed up business with the same capital as in the morning.

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:
SATURDAY, MARCH 8 1884

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—The special meeting of the Board of Supervisors, which began its laborious trouble on Monday last, resulted in considerable "considering," but no very important action. A full Board was present, and it was right on the consider, but the matter of the county map, the funding proposition, etc., went over until the next regular meeting in May. Advertisements, as appear elsewhere, were ordered published, soliciting proposals for the care of indigent sick and boarding of county prisoners. On petition, J. B Swearingen was appointed Justice of the Peace for the First Township. R. W. Ford, J. B. Chamberlain and County Surveyor Seeley were appointed Viewers to lay out a new road at Bishop Creek. Whereupon, the members having drawn their warrants on the salary fund, the Board religiously adjourned.

THE KELLY TRIAL.—The case of Seth Kelly, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, the assault being committed on Jas. H. Richardson, came before Judge Hannah, of the Superior Court, for trial last Monday, at 10 A. M. By noon, a jury was obtained, as follows: Timothy Richards, J. V. Skinner, John Lubken, F. Burkhardt, Chas. Johnson, J. E. Straus, W. W. Inman, Henry Giles, Thos. S. Hamilton, A. Stecker, John Fiehman, Henry Fehrman. The case went to the jury at 4:26 P. M., on Tuesday, and about 8:30 the same evening they brought in a verdict—guilty of an assault with intent to commit great bodily injury, on the person of J. H. Richardson. Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock was the time set for sentence, and at that hour, Judge Hannah sentenced the prisoner to two years' imprisonment in the State Prison at San Quentin.

GRAND CARNIVAL BAL MASQUE.—In another column will be found the dates given by Bobby McGinley for holding his grand carnival bal masques at Benton, Bishop Creek, Independence, and Lone Pine. Mr. McGinley gave one of his parties in Hawthorne last Thursday evening, which was largely attended, and a most enjoyable time had. People came from far and near, and all pronounced it the grandest affair of the season. The costumes furnished are the most elegant ever seen in this section of the country, and the music and calling cannot be excelled. Lovers of fun and good music should be here on Thursday, the 20th, from all parts of the county.

ATTACHMENT RELEASED.—The attachment on the Argus Range Silver Mining Company for a small, and it is said illegal claim, has been released. It is understood that the mill will start up again in a few days on very rich ore, of which there is now 300 tons on the dump and plenty more in sight. The prospects of this company are among the brightest in the county. Edward Reilly and Dr. A. H. Whittell, two of the principal owners, are now with us. They propose to put the affairs of the company in good shape and on a satisfactory financial basis.

MINING NEWS.—We have been considerably disappointed this week in not receiving mining information from surrounding camps. It is the desire of this paper to give all the mining news possible, especially of this county, and to that end we invite correspondence from every district, and hope that all interested in the future welfare of Inyo county will devote a few moments each week hereafter in informing THE INDEPENDENT of what transpires in their respective mining disltricts.

THE C. & C. R. R.—The train from Hawthorne arrived about half an hour late yesterday owing to the bad state of the track between Benton and Bishop Creek stations. In one place the melting snow had caused a stream of water to follow and entirely cover up the track for a distance of fully one hundred feet. But the good management of the engineer, conductor and others in charge of the train brought it through all right, and only half an hour behind the regular time.

MURDERED.—Advices from Lordsburg, New Mexico, dated March 1st, say that Fred. Anderson, formerly a butcher of Bodie, was murdered and robbed of a span of horses and wagon in the San Simeon Valley, about twenty miles south of Lordsburg, on the 28th ult. When found the coyotes had partially devoured the body. No clue to the murderers.

WATER-PIPE.—During the first part of the present week, Messrs. Harris & Rhine sent a force of men out to Emigrant Springs to take up the water-pipe laid a few years ago, by Peter Taylor, for the Emigrant Mining Company. Smith Bros.' teams started on Sunday for the same place. The pipe referred to is about nine miles in length.

SOCIETY MEETINGS.—The stated meeting of Inyo Lodge No. 221 F. & A. M. takes place at their hall to-night. Inyo Lodge No. 301, I. O. O. F. hold their meeting every Thursday evening, and Inyo Lodge No. 546, I. O. G. T. convenes every Saturday evening.

SHORT PAPER.—Owing to the absence of the boss most of the past week and the lack of local correspondence we are a trifle short of interesting reading matter.

SOLE TRADER.—Sophronia Ann Smith gives notice in to-day's paper that she has made application to become a sole trader.

NEW COSO DELINQUENT.—The delinquent sale of the New Coso Mining Company will be found in another column.

THE WEATHER.—The weather is still threatening, and has every appearance that the storm is not yet ended.

Sparks From the Wires.

Owing to the innocence of our telegraphic correspondent as to news matters, together with the fact that he is unusually full of business this week, our supply of telegrams is very abbreviated this issue:

H. M. Yerington and wife and Gov. Jewett Adams and wife passed down the C. & R. R. on Thursday, the gentlemen for the purpose of taking a look at their recent purchase, the Frank Silva mine; the ladies for the purpose of viewing Inyo's beautiful scenery.

E. B. Green, ex-agent at the Bishop Creek station, and Mr. Frank Donahue, late clerk at the Mound House, made a farewell visit to the lower end of the road this week, before departing for the other side of the mountains.

Mr. Edward Reilly, chief owner of the Argus Range M. & M. Co.'s property, passed down the railroad this morning.

PERSONAL.—Among those attending the Kelly trial, we observed: Chas. Mates, G. H Palmer, A. C. Harvey, Thos. S. Hamilton, John Dodge, J. E. Straus, L. Lasky, J. Lubken, F. Burckhardt, Chas. Johnson, J. V. Skinner, W. W. Inman, of Lone Pine; J. H. Stoutenborough, Sr., J. H. Richardson, Wm. J. Phillipay, C. E. Van Ens, Paul Myrtelgreen, A. J. Murphy, Geo. L. Drake, C. L. Van Epps, J. B. Swearengen, A. Spencer, John Clarke, Fred. Mangel, of Bishop Creek; J. A. Lank, John Fiehman, J. Myers, Fred. Albers, of George's Creek; Julius Roeper, Henry Giles, Thos. Boland, and many others....Mrs. McAfee, of Bishop, is here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Eldred....Wm. McDonald, of Big Pine, was in town Sunday....V. G. Thompson arrived from Mohave last Monday.....G. W. Baker, U. S. Deputy Surveyor is now engaged in Death Valley....Dr. L. Colleau, of Lone Pine, was in town this week, on business... M. Cohn, of Lone Pine, has been on our streets this week. He was here as principal witness in the case of The People vs. Aguilar....Supervisor E. Robinson went to Lone Pine this morning....Normie Conklin paid Independence a visit yesterday morning.

ATTRACTING ATTENTION.—In our short visit to Hawthorne and way points this week we heard much talk of the mines of this county, especially at Darwin, and met many old Inyoites who were firm in the belief that this was the coming country. From all quarters comes the information that Inyo is attracting more attention than any other county in California just now.

CRIMINAL BUSINESS.—District Attorney John W. P. Laird has had his hands full of criminal business the past few weeks, and yet there is more to come. He makes short and sure work, and is a terror to evil doers. His Honor, Judge Hannah, metes out justice without fear or favor, and is fast ridding the county of characters not congenial to Inyo's clime.

POLITICS.—Steps are being taken to get the Republican County Central Committee together, primarily to provide for the selection of three Delegates to the State Convention, and, secondarily, to get guns, munitions and things ready for the momentous conflict set for November next—anyway, we suppose something of that sort is to be done.

FOR SAN QUENTIN.—Under Sheriff Daniel Crough left for San Quentin this morning, having Seth Kelly in charge, who goes there to begin a two year's residence, pursuant to Judge Hannah's advice. Mrs. Crough accompanied her husband, going for a visit to her folks at Sonora, Tuolumne county.

JUSTICE'S COURT.—In Justice Parker's Court this morning, Julian Aguilar was held to answer before the Superior Court, with bonds fixed at $2,000. As stated last week, he is accused of appropriating to his own use a lot of bullion alleged to be the property of M. Cohn and J. E. Straus.

'TIS WELL.—Judge Hannah has now the deepest well in town. Alex. Clark, Supervising Architect thereon, informs us that it is now 56 feet in depth; and undoubtedly has a permanent supply of water.

A HUMBUG.—E. R. Cleveland, formerly editor of the Bodie Free Press, says that Cœur d'Alene is a humbug, and that there is no gold in that country.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR THE County of Inyo, State of California.

In the matter of Elisha Mallory, an insolvent debtor.

Elisha Mallory having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, by which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Elisha Mallory is hereby declared to be insolvent.

The Sheriff of the County of Inyo is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said Elisha Mallory, debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to him, or to any person, firm or corporation or association for his use. The said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property, until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Hon. John A. Hannah, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, in open Court, at the Court room of said Court, in the town of Independence, in the County of Inyo, on the SEVENTH day of APRIL, 1884, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered that the order be published in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the town of Independence, County of Inyo, as often as the said paper is published before the said day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered that in the meantime all proceedings against the said insolvent be stayed.

NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT.

A Placer Mine, Being Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, T. 28 N., R. One (1) East, San Bernardino Meridian.

No. 242.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE,
Bodie, CALIFORNIA,
December 1, 1883.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ARTHUR W. BOWMAN, whose postoffice address is San Francisco, California, and who resides at Piedmont, in Alameda County, State of California, has by Barney H. Coleman, his agent and attorney in fact, whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office an application for a Patent in favor of him, the said Arthur W. Bowman, for the "NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," the same being a placer mining claim bearing borax in the forms of borate of lime and borate of soda, and situate, lying and being in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California, and more particularly described in the plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as Survey No. 2,152, Lot No. 37, in Township No. 28 North, Range No. 1 East, San Bernardino B. and M.; the exterior boundary lines of the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" or placer mining claim and premises hereby sought to be patented being officially described in said plat and field notes of survey as follows, viz.: [the magnetic variation being 15 deg. 31 min. East.]

Commencing at a chalk stone monument four (4) feet long and (1) foot square marked "N C B D No. 1," for "North Coleman Borate Deposit No. 1," situated in the dry bed of Death Valley, and from which "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears north fifty-three (53) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, at the distance of thirty-six (36) chains and forty-seven hundredths (47-100) of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes east, and "Winters Peak bears south seventy-two (72) degrees thirty-seven (37) minutes east; and running thence from said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No 1," hereinbefore described:

First Course—North twenty (20) chains and eighteen hundredths (18-100) of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 2" on gravel slope; thence, Second Course—West twenty [20] chains and forty [40-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 3" in dry bed of lake; thence, Third Course—North ten [10] chains and eight hundredths [8-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 4," in gravel slope; thence, on Fourth Course—West twenty [20] chains and seventeen hundredth [17-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 5," on margin of dry lake; thence, Fifth Course—North twenty [20] chains and seventeen hundredths [17-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 6," on gravel slope; thence, Sixth Course—West twenty [20] chains and twenty eight hundredths [28-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No 7," on margin of dry lake; thence, Seventh Course—North eight [8] chains and fifty-two hundredths [52-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 8;" thence, Eighth Course—West twenty [20] chains and twenty-nine hundredths [29-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 9;" thence, Ninth Course—South eighteen [18] chains and forty-seven hundredths [47-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 10," from which the section stake in the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections seven [7] and eighteen [18] of Township twenty-eight [28] North, Range one [1] East, bears south eighty-two [82] degrees west, distant twenty-one [21] chains and thirty-eight hundredths [38-100] of a chain, and said "Mineral Monument No. 33" bears south eighty [80] degrees twenty-six [26] minutes east; thence, Tenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 10" last above described; east ten [10] chains and seventeen hundredths [17-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 11;" thence, Eleventh Course—South twenty [20] chains and seven hundredths [7-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 12;" thence, Twelfth Course—East, eleven [11] chains and sixty-three [63-100] hundredths of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 13," from which the said stake marked "N C B D No 3" bears east at the distance of thirty-nine [39] chains and five hundredth [5-100] of a chain; thence, Thirteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 13," south twenty [20] chains and thirteen hundredths [13-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 14;" thence, Fourteenth Course—East nineteen [19] chains and seventy hundredths [70-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 15," from which the said stake marked "N C B D No. 1" bears east distant thirty-nine [39] chains and eighty-seven hundredths [87-100] of a chain; thence, Fifteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 15," south twenty [20] chains and eighteen hundredths [18-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 16;" thence, Sixteenth Course—Running east thirty-nine [39] chains and seventy-seven hundredths [77-100] of a chain to a stake marked "N C B D No. 18," from which a stone monument at the northeast corner of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine" bears south twenty-six [26] degrees forty-five [45] minutes east, distant one hundred and thirteen [113] chains and eighty-three hundredths [83-100] of a chain; and thence, Seventeenth Course—North twenty [20] chains, running from said stake marked "N C B D No. 18" to said chalk stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1," the place of commencement: containing three hundred and thirty-eight [338] acres and thirty-eight hundredths [38-100] of an acre, more or less.

The said "Mineral Monument No. 33" hereinbefore referred to, consists of a durable sandstone four [4] feet long set two [2] feet deep in the ground and being six [6] inches square at the top, whereon is securely fastened a brass plate marked "N S E W; S B M M M No 33," the same being situated on a ridge near the center of the southwest slope of the central one of three prominent buttes near the northern end of, and at the northeast side, of Death Valley, distant about seven and three-fourths (7¾) miles from the entrance of "Furnace Wash" into Death Valley.

From said "Mineral Monument No 33" a stone monument marked "N C B D No. 1" of the "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" aforesaid, bears south fifty-three [53] degrees forty five [45] minutes west at the distance of thirty-six [36] chains and forty-seven hundredths [47-100] of a chain; a stone monument marked "C D No. 18," of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," bears south eight [8] degrees forty [40] minutes east at the distance of one hundred and forty-four [144] chains and seventy-eight hundredths [78-100] of a chain; "Chloride Peak" bears north 3 deg. 35 min. east; "Winters Peak bears south 75 deg. east; summit of Butte bears south 65 deg 20 min. east, distant about 113 chains; the section stake on San Bernardino Meridian between Sections seven [7] and eighteen [18] of Township twenty-eight [28] North, Range one [1] East bears north eighty-three [83] degrees twelve [12] minutes west distant one hundred and thirty-two [132] chains and seventy six hundredths [76-100] of a chain, and "Mineral Monument No. 34" bears south 9 deg 24 min east distant 442 67-100 chains Said claim or "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" herein applied for, consists of the locations called "No. 1 North Coleman Borate Deposit;" "No. 2 North Coleman Borate Deposit," and "No. 3 North Coleman Borate Deposit," all duly recorded in "Liber A," at pages from 127 to 133 of the records of said Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, kept at the Mining Recorder's office in said District; the same being also recorded at pages 307, 308 and 309, of Book "D," "Records of Land, Water and Mining Claims," kept at the office of the County Recorder at Independence, Inyo County, California. Adjoining claims unknown if any exist; the nearest surveyed claim to this being the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," situate about one hundred and thirteen [113] chains and 86-100 of a chain in a southeasterly direction from the southeast corner of this the said "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine," or claim hereby sought to be patented.

All adverse claims must be filed in this office within sixty (60) days from the date of first newspaper publication of notice hereof, or they will be barred under the law.

THE EXTRA SESSION.

It Will Meet at Twelve O'clock, March 24th

That our readers may know just what Governor Stoneman deems an "extraordinary occasion," we to-day print the proclamation in its entirety:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

To the Senate and Assembly of the State of California: For four years the chief railroad companies of the State have refused to obey the laws imposing taxes upon their property.

Legal actions instituted against them to enforce collection, after having been under various pretexts delayed, have lately been terminated by proceedings through which it was practically established that, whilst nothing was legally collectable from the corporations, yet the State was willing to accept whatever they in their discretion saw fit to accord. The humiliating attitude in which the State of California is thus placed must fill the heart of every public-spirited citizen with regret and mortification; whilst the disturbance of our whole financial system caused by the repeated and persistent delinquency of these companies no wise man should willingly permit to continue. More stringent and effective measures for the collection of revenues from railroads are imperatively demanded.

The present condition of affairs also demands a change with reference to the regulation of the business of transportation companies.

The system of electing Railroad Commissioners from districts has not given satisfaction. A widespread discontent exists, engendered by the delay in adjusting a tariff of fares and freights. If the results so long hoped for from a Railroad Commission are ever to be attained it must be through a revision of the Constitution and laws upon this subject.

Now, therefore, an extraordinary occasion having arisen, I, George Stoneman, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution of the State, do hereby convene the Legislature to meet and assemble at the State Capitol on the 24th day of March, A. D. 1884, at 12 o'clock M. of that day, and do hereby specify the following subjects upon which it is assembled to legislate:

First—To prove and submit to the people of the State of California an amendment to Section 4 and to Section 10 of Article 13 of the Constitution of the State.

Second—To propose and submit to the people of the State of California an amendment to Section 22 of Article 12 of the Constitution of the State.

Third—To propose and submit to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State by which the Railroad Commission, as now existing, shall be abolished, and in lieu thereof a Railroad Commission to be composed of three Commissioners, shall be created, said Commissioners to be appointed in such manner as may be provided by law, from the time of the adoption of said amendment until the next general election; and then to be elected at said election from the State at large; and to prescribe the term of office, duties, authority and power of said Commission.

Fourth—To enact all laws necessary for the assessment to and collection from all railroad corporations or companies doing business in this State of income taxes.

Fifth—To amend or repeal any or all existing laws relating to revenue, and to enact new laws relating to the same.

Sixth—To propose and submit to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, to the end that all property belonging to railroad corporations may and shall be assessed by the State Board of Equalization in the same manner as property belonging to individuals is now assessed by local Assessors; and that mortgages and deeds of trust, contracts or other obligations by which a debt is secured covering the property of railroad corporations shall, for the purpose of assessment and taxation, be deemed and treated as an interest in the property affected thereby.

Seventh—To enact laws providing that the property of railroad corporations or companies may and shall be sold for the payment of delinquent taxes in the same manner as the property of private persons is sold under the same circumstances.

Eighth—To enact laws providing that no writ for the prevention of the collection of any revenue or to hinder or delay the collection of the same, or to prevent or interfere with the sale of property for delinquent taxes, shall in any wise issue, either injunction, prohibition or any other writ or process whatever; but that in all cases in which, for any reason, any person shall claim that any tax paid by him was illegally or wrongfully levied of collected, he may recover the same by action.

Ninth—To enact laws providing that whatsoever property is sold for delinquent taxes, a receiver may, upon application of the purchaser, whether said purchaser be a private person or the State, be appointed by any competent Court to take charge of the same from the day of the execution of the certificate of sale.

Tenth—To enact laws declaring that the people of the State of California have not authorized and do ratify any compromise nor any judgment heretofore rendered by consent in action and proceeding for the collection of revenue in which a less amount is or has been received or recovered than the sum due by law or claimed in the complaint in the action for which said judgment was rendered for the tax, interest and penalty, and providing means for setting aside said compromise and judgments; and to enact laws more clearly defining the powers and duties of the Attorney-General, District Attorneys, and Boards of Supervisors, with reference to the collection of delinquent taxes.

Eleventh—To propose and submit to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution fixing a maximum rate of charges for transportation of passengers and freight on all railroad lines in the State, and for that purpose to classify railroad lines according to length, gauge or income.

Twelfth—To enact laws for the prevention of and punishment for, discrimination, and for the reform of abuses in railroad transportation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of State to be affixed, at office in the city of Sacramento, this 5th day of March, A. D. 1884.

[SEAL] GEORGE STONEMAN, Governor.

Attest: THOS. L. THOMPSON, Secretary of State.

THE Shasta Courier says that on the coldest day of the month the Rev. W. H. Howard baptized eight residents of Big Valley, Modoc county, the pastor, however, showing some judgment in the business. He loaded the band into a big wagon, took them to the outlet of one of the hot springs and gave them a warm water bath.

The Sugar Interests of Cuba.

The sugar interests of Cuba, according to the report of the United States Consul at Matanzas, are in a melancholy condition. The stock has been steadily decreasing since 1873, when it was 770,000 tons, and it is estimated that the production for the past year will show a falling off of thirty per cent., or 402,000 less than in 1873. The consul says that the island is capable of producing millions of tons, and being within less than 100 miles of the United States it could, under proper management and judicious internal policy, give to that country double the amount which it at present consumes, whereas it now offers to commerce only about one-third of its possible production. He ascribes the falling off to bad financial and agricultural management. Estates capable of producing sugar worth from $150,000 to $375,000 a year are in a most deplorable condition. The greatest burden upon the island is the terrible taxation inflicted upon it by the mother country. The decline of the sugar production in Cuba has interest for Mexico, since, as it is due to local causes and not to any lack of market for sugar, the consumption of which throughout the world is rapidly increasing, the fact ought to encourage the production in this country, where the conditions, with the introduction of railway facilities for the transportation of the crops, are steadily improving. The production of Mexico at present does not meet the domestic demand, which is largely increasing, Mexicans being uncommonly fond of sweets. Therefore, when we are prepared to export sugar there ought to be found good markets. The opportunities for the cultivation of sugar in this country offer fields for profitable investment.—The Mexican Financier.

HE was smoking a fine full-flavored Havana, when he met his friend. "Have a cigar?" he inquired politely. "Thanks," said the other gratefully, taking and lighting the proffered weed. After a few experimental puffs, however, the friend removed the cigar from his lips, and looking at it doubtfully, said, with a very evident abatement of gratitude in his tone: "What did you pay for these cigars?" "Two for a quarter," replied the original proprietor of both weeds, taking his own cigar out of his mouth and looking at it with considerable satisfaction, "this cost me 20 cents and that 5."

A NEW YORK dispatch reports that there are now 5,000 Chinamen in that State, where in 1880 there were less than a thousand by actual count. Though we should not be altogether sorry to see the Chinese accumulating at the great center of public opinion of the country, it is safe to set this statement down as being just about as authentic as most information received from New York on the Chinese question.

WHEN Bismarck, or rather the Reichstag acting under his direction, excluded the American hog, the newspaper press of the United States was unanimous in denouncing the "outrage;" but now that Bismarck has snubbed the American Congress, about half the papers express indifference to the insult. This shows the relative esteem in which Congress and the pig are held by some thoughtful patriots.

THAT old Greek philosopher, who held that the earth is a gigantic animal, could find some support for his theory, if he were alive to-day, in the Colusa county well, which is characterized by a strong indraught of air during one-half of the 24 hours, and by an equally strong expiration during the other half. At last accounts this eccentaic hole in the ground still kept up its puffig and snorting.

IN discussing the late matrimonial alliance between the museum skeleton and the crazy Philadelphia girl, an up-town lady was asked: "How would you like the idea of having a skeleton in the house as a husband?" "I would rather be in fashion," was the reply, "and, instead of marrying one, have the conventional article in the closet."

A NUMBER of very sad cases of insanity have lately appeared in the army. Liquor is not what it used to be, and there is little to choose from at a frontier post.

Parental Love.

No love is so true and tender as the love our parents give us, and for none are we so ungrateful. We take it as a matter of course—as something we deserve. Especially may our mothers toil and deny themselves, think all night and labor all day, without receiving any thanks whatever. From the day when she walks all night with us while we cry, to the day when she helps to make our wedding dress and gives us those cherished pearls which she wore in her girlhood, we do not half recognize her love for us. Never until we are parents ourselves do we quite comprehend. Yet, is there anything like it? The lover may desert us for some brighter beauty; the husband grow indifferent when we have been his a little while; the friend be only a Summer friend, and fly when riches vanish, or when we are too sad to amuse; but our parents love us best in our sorrow, and hold us dearer for any change or disfigurement. There isn't much of a heaven here on earth, but what there is of it is chiefly given in a parent's love.

What People Like to Read.

The lovers like to read the poetry.

The widows like to read the death notices.

Everybody likes to read the advertisements.

The old maids like to read the marriage notices.

The young ladies (bless 'em) like to read the stories.

The men like to read the news and editorial comments.

The exchanges like to re—to steal the paragraphs.

The married ladies like to read the Boys and Girls' department to their children.

THE depth of sleep has been the novel subject of investigation by two German physicians, working upon the principle that the depth of sleep is proportional to the sound required to awaken. Ingenious experiments showed that with a perfectly healthy man slumbering during the first hour is very light; after an hour and a quarter the depth of sleep increases rapidly, and reaches its maximum at one and three-quarters hours. The slumber then lightens gradually, but reaction with deeper sleep occurs after five and a half hours' repose, after which gradual awakening succeeds. Imperfect health or unusual exertion produce marked irregularities.

IN Napa the grape crop varies from five to fifteen tons to the acre. Eight tons of grapes to the acre excite no more attention there than thirty bushels of wheat do in some parts of this State. The ruling price of grapes last year was about $31 per ton. Therefore, a vineyard of twenty acres in a good year will yield 160 tons of fruit, that will bring, at $31 per ton, just $4,960.

IN Stockton, recently, Mrs. Spiro Williams gave her three weeks' old child an unusually large dose of soothing syrup, and a few hours later became alarmed at the deep sleep of the child. She called Dr. Long, who anministered the antidote for laudanum, but at last accounts the child was still in the stupor induced by the medicine. Mothers cannot be too careful in giving medicine to children.

RED BLUFF is to be congratulated upon the vigorous dose of law it is administering to the wretches who made a business of abducting young girls for immoral purposes. Four or five of these scoundrels have been convicted and sent to the State Prison. If there are any more of the gang, let them be included in the rodeo.

ON the 26th instant there will be a partial eclipse of the sun, only visible in the most northern latitudes. The sun will be partially obscured in Sweden and Norway, and in part of Russia and Spitzbergen. THE PRESIDENTIAL OUTLOOK.

aine Looming and Booming, Ditto Samuel J.

The Philadelphia Press, March 10, ublishes the following significant dis- atch from its managing editor in ashington: "The three most promi- ent objects on the Presidential horizon e Blaine and Arthur on one side and muel J. Tilden on the other. Blaine d Tilden are coming and Arthur ing. Of this fact there is no question mong observant politicians. The only uestion is whether the situation will changed as time passes. The swell the Blaine boom is the most patent ct of all. For a month not a day has assed without adding volume to the anifestations of his popularity, and ot his popularity alone, but the deter- ination of the Republican masses to at him in the White House. The arious part of it is that the Blaine anagers of 1876 and 1880 are doing othing to help this particular move- ent along. On the contrary, they are oing all they can to hold it in. Their lan was to start the ball a month or so ter, that it might not have so far to fil before convention day.

As the Blaine column advances Ar- ur's gives away. The President be- an months ago to lay the wires for a nomination. The first steps were ken in the South, where they were ost likely to escape attention, and here the issue of civil service reform s never been presented either by pre- pt or practice. When the last batch Southern nominations was sent to e Senate, Arthur's star had attained greatest altitude. From that day it as been going down.

To sum up the situation on the Re- blican side as it is to-day, Blaine is ll in the lead, with Edmunds and gan contesting the second place, and hur a bad fourth."

Senator Gorman, Chairman of the mocratic Congressional Committee, 's if things keep on as they are now ng, nothing can prevent the nomi- tion of Tilden, though there is not same certainty as to who shall have second place on the ticket. It ems, however, to be pretty well un- rstood that, if nominated, Tilden will ecline the honor with many thanks nd a very large check to help pay the expenses of the campaign.

THE Colossus of Rhodes must take a back seat. Bartholdi's statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World" is a revelation. New York is to be envied. And in some smaller degree we may be envied. We have just been presented with a superb picture, 26x36, by the Travelers' Ins. Co., of Hartford, Conn., iving a capital representation of the majestic image.

What Capt. Keeler Has To Say.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. March 10th, 1884.

EDITOR INYO INDEPENDENT—Dear Sir: I am credibly informed that some feeling exists among my worthy constituents regarding the salaries of county officers as fixed at the last session of the Legislature in the County Government bill as it passed and became a law; and I shall feel much gratified if this communication can have a place in our valued county paper, as it really seems that an explanation should be made, that not only my part in the matter may be fairly and squarely understood as a representative, but that the people may not be over-exercised and alarmed as to the hardship imposed upon the county by the law and the unavoidable continuance of the same. In the first place, when the bill came before the House on its second reading, it is a matter of record that your Member opposed the county being compelled to have five Supervisors. He did not then and does not now consider that the uniformity required by the Constitution compels the necessity of five Supervisors. He took the position that it simply implied or required the same line of offices and not the same number of officers and officials to perform the duties of the said offices; and if an opportunity presents itself, (which of course cannot be dreamed of), he will carry his point; but as it turned out at this time he was outvoted. Still, he is proud to say, by but a very small majority. And it should be borne in mind that one man cannot make a law for Inyo or any other county, and, consequently in such a bill every county will have to suffer something for the good of the whole. There were other features in the bill which your Member opposed, and they are the very ones that are considered incompatible with our interests and condition. And it can be seen by the record that his positions were supported by a strong vote; however, they did not carry.

There really seemed a determination to pass a County Government Bill, "hit or miss," so far as its practicability and ben fits were concerned.

Again let us examine into the accountability of your Representative in the very important matter of salaries or pay of county officers. In the first place on this salient point allow him to say that when he found the bill would be likely to appear on the file he wrote to several prominent citizens, one of them a member of the present Board of Supervisors, and begged for a little practical wisdom to assist his humble judgment, and he can assure the honest voters and taxpayers as a whole, that not one would take the responsibility to shed the light of his wisdom on our uncertain pathway. And in view of the approaching railroad and assured prosperity, consulting your Hon. Senator, some of the salaries were possibly equal to that prosperity, which we sincerely regret has not yet rushed in upon us. But he would state that what is most complained of was an error in the printing after the second reading of the bill, and he put in a solemn protest against its going to its third reading and final passage unless the error could be corrected, and insisted upon it, and his position was sustained by influential members on both sides of the House. This protest is a matter of record, and was only withdrawn upon the suggestion of the Speaker that the matter could be set right in the Senate. And immediataly upon its passage in the House your Representative marked the changes to be made (which would even now give satisfaction to the majority, to say the least), and took the bill and laid the matter before your Hon. Senator, and he assured him it should have his attention, but when the bill was read on its second reading he was on very important public duty elsewhere, and so the correction and amendments were not made, and the bill passed the Senate as it left the House. So far as our requirements were concerned, and upon this statement of facts, it can hardly be believed that either your honored Senator or your humble Representative were derelict in duty, and beyond a serious doubt the majority of reflecting men will not coincide with any sentiment or action adverse to that, with these conditions and facts before them.

Again, it should afford relief from any apprehension of bankruptcy, to consider the fact that this whole matter of salaries can be raised in the next regular session of the Legislature, and all officers in the Fall election can be nominated and voted for with that consideration in view, then your Member, whoever he may be, will be thoroughly posted on the most economical requirements of the county.

When it was announced that an extra session would be called, your Representative immediately addressed a letter to His Excellency, the Governor, asking that the County Government Act might be made one of the subjects to be considered, urging, as a reason, that the Legislators who passed the act having observed its adaptability to their respective counties, could amend and adjust the same more satisfactory and with much less expense to the State than any new Legislature; but it was not considered wise to engross the attention of this session with anything foreign to the imperative cause which enforced the calling of the same, and the various petitions to the contrary were doubtless wisely rejected.

And unless the Courts fully decide against the constitutionality of the act, there appears to me to be no form of petition or legitimate action of whatever nature, that can help the matter until the next regular session of the Legislature.

And feeling conscious of having discharged my duty faithfully as a Legislator to the counties I represented, and to the State I love, to the best of my ability, and being quite covetous and sensitive of the regard and favorable opinion of my fellow citizens, and believing yourself and them, Mr. Editor, as one in the cause of justice,

I am most respectfully,
Your ob't servant,
J. M. KEELER.

RAILROAD connection between the City of Mexico and El Paso is now complete. El Paso is substantially connected with every large town in the United States. The Southern Pacific connects it with the towns and cities in California and Arizona, and a network of railroads connects the Texas city with the cities and towns of the West, South and East. The Mexican Central has been in progress, as the Union and Central Pacific were built, from each end. It was being built north from Mexico and south from El Paso until the construction parties met. It is an American enterprise, assisted by the Mexican Government to the extent of $12,000 a mile.

ACCORDING to the first annual report from the Nevada Insane Asylum, it is a saving of about $20,000 per annum for the State to care for its own insane patients, instead of sending them to private asylums in California, as was done for about twenty years. To keep the patients in California cost annually $60,000.

IOWA will soon have the strongest iron-bound and copper-bottomed prohibition law ever enacted in this country. Iowa is a staunch Republican State and the struggle between whisky and water there will be watched with a keen interest by politicians and philosophers.

WHAT the Soudan is worth may be gathered from some published statistics, according to which there are 15,000 Christians and Egyptians in the province; 1,000 commercial houses owned by Europeans and 3,000 by Egyptians, and the import and export trade is valued at £13,000,000 annually.

THE Republican State Central Committee of Nevada has called two Conventions, one to be held in Virginia City on April 30th, to choose delegates to the National Convention, and the other to be held in Carson City, on September 4th, to nominate Electors and State officers.

THE Republican State Convention to choose delegates to the National Republican Convention will be held at Oakland, April 30th. Mono county is entitled to six delegates, while Inyo is allowed only three according to the last apportionment.

THE Grass Valley Union says that "hydraulic mining is entirely suspended at Dutch Flat and business is very dull in consequence. At Gold Run the same stagnation exists, because the music of the monitors has ceased."

THE crops in Los Angeles are looking better than was ever before known, and the general prospects were never brighter.

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:

SATURDAY, MARCH 15.....1884

HE TURNED BACK.—Two responsible residents of Independence paid Bishop Creek a visit this week, and there met Kit Johnson, (everybody knows Kit, and his reputation for truth was never questioned), and who gave them an account of his attempt to reach the Cœur d'Alene mines, and why he had to turn back. "Well, gentlemen," said Kit, "you see I look a little used up; both my ears are frozen, my legs clean up to my armpits are mere icicles, and my eyesight nearly gone. I think I started a little too early for the mines, don't you?" "Was there much snow on the route?" inquired one of his hearers. "Much snow!" exclaimed Kit; "Well, I don't know what you call much snow, but in going from Ukiah to the next station north, only 10 miles, it snowed so hard that the driver had all he wanted to do to keep the reins from pulling him off the seat, there was so much snow on them. When we got into the station the snow, by actual measurement, was 10 feet deep on the top of the stage, and all the horses were sway-backed. It took two men with hoes half an hour to dig two Chinamen out who were riding, and a fresh span of horses to pull the driver off the seat. I tell you, I lit off that stage mighty lively, and broke into the house for something warm, and in the morning turned back for Bishop Creek." "But how did you get off the stage so lively?" asked a bystander. "I--why--you see, I was so excited like that I was in a big sweat and the snow melted as fast as it struck me. You can all strike out for Cœur d'Alene, but no more of it in mine. It makes the cold chills run up my back to think of that day's ride. Gentlemen, do you ever indulge?"

GOOD FOR SIX HOURS.—As previously noted, the Maxim Mill Company placed in their mill one of Morey's improved pulverizers which went to wreck within twenty-four hours. The steel friction plates became detached, and this was supposed to be the immediate cause of the failure. They have since procured from New York a new disc and put in new wearing parts all properly secured. The machine was started up with great care, the quartz run in at low feed and after a run of six hours was taken apart. It was found that the speed and centrifugal pressure of the balls on the concave was sufficient to take off a film of iron at each revolution and that the loss of iron to the wearing parts by attrition had been about sixty pounds, or at the rate of forty pounds of iron to each ton of quartz crushed. The Superintendent says that the mill grinds the quartz beautifully when coming from the rock-breaker half-inch size and can be made to do so at a probable cost of $20 per ton.

CARSON MINE.—This mine, situated about a quarter of a mile from the old Chrysopolis mill, we understand gives promise of developing into a fine property. The owners, Messrs. Conklin, Lasky, Anton and Bolinger, already have a shaft down 60 feet on the ledge. At the bottom of the shaft the ledge is five feet wide and the ore is high grade. Work will soon be started on a tunnel to tap the ledge beneath the shaft, and then they intend to up-raise on the ledge and make a connection with the shaft. It is estimated the length of the tunnel will be 200 feet. When completed the ore car can be loaded at the face of the tunnel, run into the mill and dumped into the hoppers without the least trouble, and thus save the expense of handling.

THE STORM.—The late storm has interfered with the mining interests of many districts in this county very materially. At Cerro Gordo the storm was so severe that work on the mines had to be suspended. The blacksmith shop at the Ygnacio mine was blown down and much damage done to other property. The snow on the summit prevents ingress or egress to Deep Springs, Cottonwood Creek, Beveridge and other districts, thereby stopping a great many mines from working, as no supplies can be got to the mines.

ACTIVE OPERATIONS.—John S. Gorman left here Thursday for Darwin to meet Hon. P. Reddy, owner of the Defiance mine, and look at the recent rich strike made. We have it on what we consider good authority that active operations will be the result of their investigation, and if such be the fact we look for large bullion shipments to follow.

SCHOOL CLOSED.—The Lone Pine school, Mr. and Mrs. Clark teachers, closed for the term yesterday with appropriate exercises. Superintendent of Schools Charles H. Groves was present. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will shortly leave for Hawthorne, Nevada, to take charge of the public school at that place.

A PRACTICAL MILL MAN WANTED.—There is an opening in this section for a good practical mill man. Should this notice meet the eye of such a person he may learn something that will be of interest to him by corresponding with the proprietor of this paper.

THE MAXIM COMPANY'S MINE.—This company's mine is now turning out ore equal to the average of the best mines in the State. The Superintendent leaves this week to procure a stamp battery, everything else being in place.

FAVORABLE RETURNS.—Returns have been received from the February shipment of ore from the Brown Monster mine. They are very satisfactory, in fact better than any previous shipment.

NOTICE.—The official letter to Mr. V. G. Thompson, given elsewhere under the head of "Post Buildings, etc.," may interest a few persons.

THE NEW STORE.—Edward Chenot's store building will be ready to receive its stock of goods next Monday.

PERSONALS.—District Attorney J. W. P. Laird was called to Bishop Creek Monday to attend the preliminary examination of W. H. Wheaton....Isaac Harris was at Swansea, Monday, and no train running that particular day, he footed it from that place to the Brown Monster mill, coming from the latter place home on horseback....S. S. Barrie, Superintendent of the Maxim M. and M. Co., was in town Tuesday and Wednesday....Wm. Hedge, also from the Maxim mill, came in town Wednesday....County Supt. Groves, who has been visiting the various schools, returned Wednesday....T. F. A. Connelly was in town Wednesday....Mr. McDonough, of Beveridge, spent several days in town, going back on Tuesday.....John Shepherd returned from Mohave last Friday, bringing with him his sister and brother-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Miles Jordan....Miss H. L. Thomson, late teacher of the Darwin school, returned to this place Wednesday....Mike Lasky and John Anton, from Lone Pine, were in town Thursday....Hon. P. Reddy passed down the railroad Thursday to visit his mine at Darwin. He expects to be there three or four days....Mrs. S. E. McAfee, mother of Mrs. J. R. Eldred, left here yesterday to visit relatives at Big Pine, thence to her home in Fish Lake Valley, Esmeralda county....Under Sheriff Dan. Crough arrived from his California trip yesterday. He says railroad traveling isn't very pleasant just now, when a fellow don't know what moment he is going to be struck by a snow or land slide.

THE FIRST GUN.—A call for a meeting of the Inyo County Republican Central Committee will be found under the head of "New Advertisements" in another column. The meeting is to be held at Independence, on Saturday, March 29th, for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the Republican State and Congressional Convention, to be held at Oakland, April 30th, to elect delegates to attend the National Convention at Chicago, June 30th, and also to nominate a candidate for Congress for the Sixth Congressional District, fill vacancies in the Committee and attend to any other matters that may come before the Committee. The coming campaign will be an important one, and therefore preparations should be made at once and in earnest. Let every member respond in person to the call, if possible, and if not, then send your proxy to some member of the committee who is sure to be there. The following gentlemen comprise the committee: V. G. Thompson, Chairman; S. D. Thurston, Secretary. Executive Committee: J. H. Stoutenborough, G. H. Gregory, V. G. Thompson and S. D. Thurston. Members: G. H. Gregory, Ed. E. Steers, W. H. Walker, V. G. Thompson, S. D. Thurston, P. A. Chalfant, John Kispert, Thos. Boland, Geo. M. Gill, J. H. Stoutenborough, Thos. E. Jones.

BEVERIDGE DISTRICT.—John Anton and M. C. Lasky, just in from Beveridge, give us the following information from that rich mining district: There are about forty men at work taking out ore in different parts of the district, and the late run of the Lasky mill shows that they are making good wages. The mill crushes lots of fifteen tons or over at $10 per ton, anything less at $12. This shuts out the arastras from working custom ores. McEvoy's mill is closed down for the present. The prospectors and mine owners are happy and content, for they can go to work on their claims any time and take out a grub stake, and in some instances make quite a pile of money in a short time. The snow on the summit is about four feet deep, making it difficult to get in or out just now.

ROLL OF HONOR.—Following is the Roll of Honor for the Bishop Creek public school, for the month of February: Primary Department, Miss C. V. Stoutenborough, teacher: Geo. Clarke, Arthur Bittick, Ira Brown, Leslie Horton, Ray Yaney, Annie Van Fleet, Frankie Shaw, Ida Plumley, Frankie Shannon, Ritta Drake. Grammar Department, Mrs. H. H. Welsh, Principal; maximum, 100, minimum, 80—"B" class: Annette Ford 89; Louisa Clarke 89; John Clarke 87; Ella Van Fleet 86; Ida Hughes 85; May White 85; Jacob Shober 84; Harry Shaw 84. "A" class, minimum 85: Ben. Yandell 94; Nannie Sherwin 94; Lowell Eugley 92; Agnes Ford 89; Hattie Bulpitt 86; Fred. Bulpitt 85.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—The following gentlemen compose the Inyo Democratic County Central Committee: J. W. P. Laird, Chairman; Jas. E. Parker, Secretary. Members: C. H. Parsons, J. L. Bourland, Peter Laird, D. B. Curtis, John Crough, J. W. P. Laird, Jas. E Parker, J. C. Irwin, John Shepherd, W. L. Hunter, Frank Fitzgerald, J. S. Broder, J. H. Holt. The committee will no doubt be at labor laying plans for earnest action in the coming election.

THE GRAND CARNIVAL.—Last Thursday night Bobby McGinley delighted the citizens of Benton, and on Monday, the 17th, will be at Bishop Creek. The grand carnival bal masque at Independence will take place on Thursday, the 20th, and at Lone Pine, Monday, the 24th. All the papers in the State of Nevada speak very highly of the masquerades given by Mr. McGinley, and say that his music is the finest in the land. There should be a good turn-out.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.—The regular meeting of the Board of Education of Inyo county will be held at the Court-house in this place on Tuesday, the 18th. All members of the Board are requested to be present. Applicants for teachers' certificates will notify the Secretary of the Board at once, and send a fee of $1 along with the application. Examination of applicants will begin at 9 o'clock, A. M., Wednesday, the 19th.

VERY SICK.—Wat. Bowman, an old resident of this county, is very sick at Bishop Creek. Dr. B. E. Stevenson was called there last Monday to consult with Dr. Middleton in regard to the sufferer's condition.

SCHOOL CLOSED.—The six months' term of the Darwin school, taught by Miss H. L. Thomson, terminated last Friday, the 7th inst. A programme of literary exercises, vocal and instrumental music, etc., was given. County Superintendent Groves made a neat and appropriate speech. Following is the report of the school, also the Roll of Honor: Whole number days attendance 908; of absence, 2; of tardiness, 29; number enrolled, 9; average number belonging, 7.6; percentage of attendance, .99. Roll of Honor: Theresa Morrissey, 98; May Wilson, 98; Annie Bastian, 97; James Conners, 97; John Conners, 89; William Bastian, 87; Charlie Fitzgerald, 87; George Morrissey, 85.—A letter received here says, in speaking of the school: "Teacher and pupils deserve all praise." The popularity of Miss Thomson as a teacher reflects great credit upon both herself and our home schools, of which she is a graduate.

BEVERIDGE.—Following is a statement of the last run of the Lasky mill, in Beveridge district, which lasted 22 days:

M. C. LASKY, Supt.

A NECESSITY.—A few weeks since a petition was forwarded to the Postmaster-General asking for a postal clerk between Bishop Creek and Keeler, and it is to be hoped that officer will use due diligence in detailing a clerk, as it is a public necessity. A resident of Independence yesterday received a letter of importance from Lone Pine, 14 miles distant, which was seven days on the road, the delay causing considerable annoyance and inconvenience.

MAIL CONTRACTS.—Postmaster-General Gresham invites bids for carrying mails for the year beginning July 1st, as follows: Big Pine to Alvord station, Bishop Creek to Bishop station, Cerro Gordo to Keeler. No notice is given as yet to those wishing to bid for the Independence and Lone Pine routes.

ALLEY-WAY OPENED.—About seven or eight years ago J. L. Wood, now dead, fenced in the alley running in front of his place and planted fruit trees and shrubbery. At the request of citizens, Uncle Abe Parker has opened the alley, and will take up and replant the trees and shrubbery elsewhere.

BOUND OVER.—W. H. Wheaton, who was arrested for killing cattle belonging to Frank Shaw, and selling the beef, was examined before a Justice of the Peace at Bishop Creek this week, and held to answer before the Superior Court, in $500 bond. This bond he furnished.

ANOTHER BREWING.—Joseph Hernbach, proprietor of the Pioneer Brewery, has just made another brewing of fine beer.

MAILS.—The first of the week we were two days without any mail. But they come and go regularly now.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—Next Monday will be the 17th of March, and consequently, St. Patrick's Day.

SALE.—Sheriff Gregg went to Lone Pine yesterday, on business connected with his office.

STRANGERS.—There have been quite a number of strangers in town this week.

A PRIZE.—See advertisement of True & Co., Augusta, Maine, elsewhere.

PATTI and Gerster, with the rest of the Mapleson Opera Troupe, arrived in San Francisco last Monday. In the evening Patti was serenaded at the Palace Hotel by a deputation from the Italian colony, headed by Wetterman's band.

Fourth Course—West, ten (10) chains and sixteen (16) links to a stake marked "C D No. 7," on west slope of low hills; thence—

Fifth Course—North twenty (20) chains and twenty-five (25) links to a stake marked "C D No 8," situated on a low hill; thence—

Sixth Course—East ten (10) chains and thirteen (13) links to a stake marked "C D No 9," on the north slope of brown ridge. Continue east; at sixty (60) chains and thirty-two (32) links reach a stake marked "C D No. 77," situated on a mesa; thence—

Seventh Course—South thirty (30) minutes west, ten (10) chains and ninety-nine (99) links to a stake marked "C D No 78" on the right bank of a wash running west; thence—

Eighth Course—South eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty (30) minutes east along the right bank of wash, nine (9) chains and ninety five (95) links to a stake marked "C D No. 74," situated one (1) chain north of wash; thence—

Ninth Course—south ten (10) chains and four (4) links to a stake marked "C D No. 69," on gravel ridge sloping west, thence—

Tenth Course—East nine (9) chains and sixty-seven (67) links to a stake marked "C D No 68," situate fifty (50) links north of a small alkali stream running west; thence—

Eleventh Course—North five (5) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east, nine (9) chains and ninety eight (98) links to a stake marked "C D No. 74½," in right bank of a wash; thence—

Twelfth Course—North eighty nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east twenty (20) chains and ninety-four (94) links to a stake marked "C D No. 75," on west slope of a red hill from which "MINERAL MONUMENT No 34" bears south thirty-seven (37) degrees thirty (30) minutes west; "CHLORIDE PEAK" bears north five (5) degrees thirty (30) minutes west, and "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-three (73) degrees thirty (30) minutes east; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No 75."

Thirteenth Course—North twenty-one (21) chains and nineteen (19) links to a stake marked "C D No. 76," on left bank of a wash running southwest from which MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34," bears south thirty-one (31) degrees ten (10) minutes west; "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-six (76) degrees east, and "WHITE BUTTE" bears north eighty five (85) degrees west, distant about twenty (20) chains; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 76."—

Fourteenth Course—West forty-one (41) chains and thirty seven (37) links to a stake marke "C D No. 76½," in a wash running northwest; thence—

Fifteenth Course—South two (2) chains to a stake marked "C D No. 76 A," on a ridge bearing northwest; from which said last mentioned stake marked "C D No. 76 A" Chloride Peak bears north two (2) degrees twenty (20) minutes west; "WINTERS PEAK" bears north seventy-two (72) degrees east; thence, running from said stake marked "C D No. 76 A"—

Sixteenth Course—West fifty (50) chains and twenty-eight (28) links to a stake marked "C D 8½," on margin of dry bed of lake; thence—

Seventeenth Course—North eleven (11) chains and seventy-two (72) links to a stake marked "C D A" [from which a stake marked "C D G" bears north eighty nine (89) degrees forty five (45) minutes west, distant sixty-seven (67) chains and eighty-four (84) links]. Continue north on said seventeenth course; at thirty two (32) chains and twenty-eight (28) links from the said stake marked "C D No. 8½" reach stake marked "C D B;" continue north on said seventeenth course at fifty-two (52) chains and fifty-eight (58) links from the said stake marked "C D 8½;" reach a stake marked "C D No. 10" situated on a gravel slope at a point from which a mesquite bush six (6) inches diameter bears north seventy-six (76) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant eighty-three (83) links, and a mesquite bush three (3) inches diameter bears north twenty two (22) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant ninety six (96) links; thence—

Eighteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 10," west ten (10) chains and five (5) links to a stake marked "C D No. 11," whence a stake marked "C D E" bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west distant thirty-nine (39) chains and sixty five (65) links; thence—

Nineteenth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 11," north [at forty (40) chains and thirty four (34) links reach a stake marked "C D No. 13"] eighty (80) chains and sixty-nine (69) links to a stake marked "C D No 15," whence "MINERAL MONUMENT NO 33" bears north eight (8) degrees fifty (50) minutes west, and "WINTERS PEAK" bears south eighty-eight (88) degrees thirty-two (32) minutes east; thence—

Twentieth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 15," west ten (10) chains and seven (7) links to a stake marked "C D No 16," on margin of dry lake, whence a stake marked "C D K" bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west, distant twenty-nine (29) chains and forty-seven (47) links; thence—

Twenty-first Course—North sixty (60) chains and sixty-five (65) links to a chalk stone monument one (1) foot square and four (4) feet long marked "C D No. 18 N E," the same being the Northeast Corner of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," on margin of dry bed of lake, and from which said chalk stone monument the southeast corner of the "North Coleman Borate Deposit Mine" bears north twenty-six (26) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west distant one hundred and thirteen (113) chains and eighty-three (83) links; "Mineral Monument No 33" bears north eight (8) degrees forty (40) minutes west distant one hundred and forty-four (144) chains and seventy-three (73) links; "Winters Peak" bears north one (1) degree thirty (30) minutes east and "Telescope Peak" bears south twenty four (24) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west; thence—

Twenty-second Course—Running from said chalk stone monument marked "C D No. 18 N E," west ten (10) chains and five (5) links to a stake marked "C D No. 19" in center of a flat marsh five (5) chains wide bearing north and south; thence—

Twenty-third Course—South ten (10) chains and twelve (12) links to a stake marked "C D No 20," situate in a marsh one (1) chain west of the east bank thereof; thence—

Twenty-fourth Course—West nine (9) chains and fifty-six (56) links to a stake marked "C D No. 21," in dry bed of lake; thence—

Twenty fifth Course—South forty (40) chains and forty-nine (49) links to a stake marked "C D No. 22," at southeast edge of marsh; thence—

Twenty-sixth Course—West nine (9) chains and eighty-seven (87) links to a stake marked "C D No. 22½" in dry bed of lake; thence—

Twenty seventh Course—South, at ten (10) chains and ten (10) links reach a stake marked "C D K;" at thirty (30) chains and twenty three (23) links reach stake marked "C D No 23" whence the Section corner on the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections thirty (30), and thirty-one (31) of Township twenty-eight (28) north of range one (1) east bears south eighty nine (89) degrees eight (8) minutes west, distant one hundred and twenty-three (123) chains and ninety (90) links. Continuing south, at fifty (50) chains and forty (40) links reach a stake marked "C D C." Continuing south, at ninety (90) chains and seventy-four (74) links reach a stake marked "C D F," and still continuing south reach stake marked "C D No. 25," at the distance of one hundred (100) chains and seventy four (74) links south from said stake marked "C D No 22½;" thence—

Twenty-eighth Course—West, running from said stake marked "C D No 25," nine (9) chains and fifty-five (55) links to a stake marked "C D No. 26;" thence—

Twenty ninth Course—South, at ten (10) chains and seven (7) links reach a stake marked "C D F," whence the Township stake on the San Bernardino Meridian between townships twenty-seven (27) and twenty eight (28) north bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees ten (10) minutes west, distant one hundred and fifteen (115) chains and fourteen (14) links; continuing south, reach a stake marked "C D No 26½;" at the distance of twenty (20) chains and twenty-one (21) links south from said stake marked "C D No 26;" thence—

Thirteth Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 26½," west eight (8) chains and seventy five (75) links to a stake marked "C D No. 27;" thence—

Thirty-first Course—South, at ten (10) chains and nineteen (19) links reach a stake marked "C D G;" continuing south, reach stake marked "C D No 27½," at the distance of twenty (20) chains and twenty one (21) links south from said stake marked "C D No 27;" thence—

Thirty-second Course—Running from said stake marked "C D No. 27½" east seventeen (17) chains and sixty eight (68) links to a stake marked "C D No 28;" thence—

Thirty-third Course—South, ten (10) chains and sixteen (16) links to a stake marked "C D No 29;" thence—

Thirty-fourth Course—East, ten (10) chains and one (1) link to a stake marked "C D No. 30;" thence—

Thirty-fifth Course—South, twenty (20) chains and seventeen (17) links to a stake marked "C D No 31;" thence—

Thirty-sixth Course—East, eleven (11) chains and six (6) links to a stake marked "C D No. 32;" thence—

Thirty-seventh Course—South, twenty (20) chains and fourteen (14) links to a stake marked "C D H," whence the section stake on the San Bernardino Meridian between Sections six (6) and seven (7) of Township twenty seven (27) north, range one (1) east bears west, distant one hundred and forty-four (144) chains and seventy-nine (79) links; continuing south, reach stake marked "C D J," distant forty (40) chains and thirty-five (35) links south from the said stake marked "C D No. 32," the said stake marked "C D J" being at the southwest corner of this said "Winters Borate Deposit Mine" and running thence from said stake marked "C D J"

Thirty-eighth Course—North, eighty-nine (89) degrees thirty (30) minutes east, forty nine (49) chains and twenty four (24) links to said stake marked "C D No 3," the place of beginning, containing eleven hundred and fifty-two (1152) acres and fifty hundredth (50-100) of an acre of land.

Said MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34, hereinbefore mentioned consists of a durable sand-stone four (4) feet long set two (2) feet in the ground and being six inches square at the top, whereon is securely fastened a brass plate marked "N S E W S B M M M No 34," situated on the backbone of a butte bearing northwest and southeast at a point distant a few chains in a southeast direction from the highest point of said butte, which has an altitude of about two hundred (200) feet and is situated at the east side of Death Valley on the margin of the dry bed of the lake.

From said "MINERAL MONUMENT No 34," "Chloride Peak" bears (with magnetic variation at 15 degrees 31 minutes east) north one (1) degree fifteen (15) minutes west; "Winters Peak bears north sixty-seven (67) degrees forty (40) minutes east; "Telescope Peak" bears south twenty nine (29) degrees forty (40) minutes west, the stake marked "C D No. 3" of the said "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," bears north seventeen (17) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west, distant thirty-two (32) chains and ninety-one (91) links; the north bank of "FURNACE WASH" at its entrance into the valley bears south thirty-one (31) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant nine hundred and eighty two (182) chains and fifty (50) links, and "MINERAL MONUMENT No. 33" bears north nine (9) degrees twenty-four (24) minutes west distant four hundred and forty-two (442) chains and sixty-seven (67) links by traverse calculation.

Said "WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" or SURVEY No 2153, LOT No 37 AND 38 hereby sought to be patented, consists of those certain borax locations locally known and recorded as LOCATION No TWO (2); LOCATION No THREE (3); LOCATION No FOUR (4); LOCATION No FIVE (5); LOCATION No SEVEN (7); LOCATION No EIGHT (8); LOCATION No NINE (9); LOCATION No TEN (10); and LOCATION No ELEVEN (11) all of which are duly recorded in "Liber A" at pages 55 56, 57, 58, 59, 60 61 67 68, 69, 70 71, 72 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 124 125 and 126 of the records of said Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District kept at the office of the Mining Recorder in said District; record thereof being also made, in part, in "Book C" of Land, Water and Mining Claims at Pages 397, 398, 399, 403, 404 405 and 406 and of said Location No five (5) in "Book D" of Land, Water and Mining Claims at Page 232 —kept at the office of the County Recorder at Independence, Inyo county, California

Adjoining claims unknown, if any exist. The nearest officially surveyed claims to this being the "DESERT BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," the northeast corner whereof is situated at a point bearing south twenty-five (25) degrees forty-five (45) minutes east, distant twenty-two (22) chains and fifty five (55) links from the said stake marked "C D No. 3," at the place of commencement of the foregoing survey and description of this claim, and the southeast corner of the "NORTH COLEMAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" being situated north twenty six (26) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west at the distance

The Number Seven.

On the 7th day of the 7th month a holy observance was ordained to the children of Israel, who feasted 7 days and remained 7 days in tents—the 7th year was directed to be a Sabbath of rest for all things; and at the end of 7 times 7 years commenced the grand jubilee; every 7th year the land lay fallow; every 7th year there was a grand release from all debts, and bondsmen were set free. From this might have originated the custom of binding young men to seven years' apprenticeship, and of punishing incorrigible offenders by transportation for seven, twice seven or three times seven years. Anciently a child was not named before seven days, not being accounted to fully have life before that periodical day. The teeth spring out on the seventh month, and are shed in the seventh year when infancy is changed into childhood. At thrice seven years the faculties are developed, manhood commences, and a man becomes legally competent to perform civil acts—at four times seven he is in full possession of his strength—at five times seven he is fit for business of the world—at six times seven he becomes grave and wise, or never—at seven times seven he is in apogee and from that time decay—at eight times seven he is in his first climateric or year of danger, and at ten times seven, or three score years and ten, has by the royal prophet been pronounced the natural period of human life.

And we would add, the most constant weather cycle is that of 7, or some multiple of this mythical number.

Mortality Referable To Alcohol.

At the end of a long and carefully prepared report recently drawn up by a committee of the Harveian Society, it is concluded that there is, upon the whole, reason to think that the mortality among any considerable group of intemperate persons will differ from that generally prevailing among adults in the following important particulars, viz.: a fourfold increase in the deaths from diseases of the liver and chylopoetic viscera; a twofold increase in the disease of the kidneys; a decrease of half as much again in those from heart disease; a marked increase in those from pneumonia and pleurisy; a considerable increase and an earlier occurrence of those from disease of the central nervous system; a marked decrease in those from bronchitis, asthma, emphysema, and congestion of the lungs; a decrease nearly as great in those from phthisis, and a later occurrence, or at least termination of the disease; a very large decrease in those from old age, with an increase in those referred to atrophy, debility, etc., and the addition of a considerable group referred in general terms to alcoholism or chronic alcoholism, or resulting from accidents.

"De nigger dat tries to ack like a white man is ter be pitied," says Uncle Mose; "but de white man dat tries ter ack like a nigger ain't desarving ob sympathy."

Of Various Shades.

If I were a Lumti-tum-lum-titum too,
In the land of the olive and fig,
I'd sit all the day on the trolle-lol-loo,
And play on the thingee-me-jig.
And if in the Rumte-dum battle I fall,
A what's-its-name's all that I crave—
But bury me deep in the what-you-may-call,
And plant thing-um-bobs over my grave.

You've no idea what a horror it gives a man to steal up behind a girl who is scribbling, look over her shoulder, and find that she's idly writing your name with a "Mrs." prefixed.

"Freddie, did you go to school to-day?" "Yes'm." "Did you learn anything new?" "Yes'm." "What was it, my boy?" "I got on to a sure way of gettin' out for an hour by snuffin' red ink up my nose."

A Western paper says "silk kerchiefs knotted around the neck will be much worn this season." The West is getting very nice about such matters. Not long since a rope was thought to be quite good enough.

We wouldn't have believed it had we not seen it in a reputable print; but they do say that the women of Corea adorn their heads with false hair! But, then, what better could you expect of benighted pagans?

A dude, leading a dog by a string, lounged up to the ticket office window of a railway station last week, and inquired: "Must I—aw, take a ticket for a puppy?" He was naturally both surprised and annoyed when the ticket-seller answered, "No, you can travel as an ordinary passenger."

In a primary school, not very long ago, the teacher undertook to convey to her pupils an idea of the hyphen. She wrote on the blackboard, "Bird's-nest," and pointing to the hyphen, asked the school: "What is that for?" After a short pause, a young son of the Emerald Isle piped out: "Plaze, ma'am, for the bird to roosht on." [Copyrighted, 1849.]

A Minneapolis boy was sent by his teacher, a woman, to the Superintendent to be whipped. The lad suspected the contents of the note, and hired a boy he met on the street to deliver it, giving him ten cents. The Superintendent didn't discover till after the castigation was over that the boy he had flogged had not seen the inside of a school for a month.

A little three-year-old who was allowed to choose the prettiest kitten for his pet playmate, before the other nurslings were drowned, being taken to his mother's sick room to see two tiny new twin babies, looked reflectively from one to the other for a minute or two, and then, poking his chubby finger into the cheek of the plumpest baby, said decidedly: "Save this one."

Bathing is conservative of health but all persons do not find it so. A cold plunge bath is by no means a panacea for all human ills, as some seem to think. An occasional wash from head to foot in winter, and bathing frequently in summer, may be considered among the valuable agencies for promoting health. But delicate persons are sometimes injured instead of being benefited by cold bathing. For most persons a wet sponge passed rapidly over the surface and followed soon by friction with a rough towel is bath enough for health purposes. When a cold bath is not followed by a good surface glow, it is doing more harm than good.

What Ruined Him.

One remarked that he had been ruined in Wall street, another was busted in oil, a third was cleaned out on wheat, and so it went around to the old man, who slowly observed:

"Gentlemen, the Quarter-Master General of the Army in 1863 busted me."

"How?" asked half a dozen voices.

"Well, I wanted to introduce cheese as a ration, and I brought such influences to bear that the Quarter-Master finally agreed to make a contract with me. I went to buying cheese, of course, and I didn't stop until I had invested every dollar I could raise, and bought to the limit of my credit. It was all nice, new cheese."

"Well?"

"Well, he wouldn't take a pound of it."

"Why?"

"Because he wanted old cheese, you see; he wanted something which could be driven right along with the army, and thus save the cost of its transportation!"—[Wall Street News.

Which reminds us of the story told of a noted Englishman, who was once sent by his wife to a dealer's for some "ripe Stilton cheese." The article was produced, and the dealer inquired: "Shall I send it home for you, sir?" "N-n-no," said the wit, who occasionally stuttered; "g-give me a c-cord and I'll l-l-le-lead it h-home."

Hair is generally thought to be an indication of strength. Coarse animals have coarse hair, fine ones fine. The hog, dog and ox have coarse hair, while the fox, beaver otter have fine. Dark haired races are physically the strongest, fair haired the most intellectually endowed. Black hair indicates strength and a predominance of the bilious temperament, as in the Spaniard, Malay, Mexican, Indian and Negro. Red hair is an indication of order, passion, intensity of feeling and purity of character, and goes with the sanguine temperament, as in the Scotch, Irish, Swedes and Danes. Auburn hair is connected with the lymphatic temperament, and denotes delicacy and refinement of taste, and, where the mind is cultivated, fine moral and intellectual powers. It is seen in Germans, Danes and Anglo-Saxons.

Electricity, although but recently abapted to mechanical purposes, already gives indications of its universal application by the variety of uses to which it may be applied. Already in mining operations it is being utilized, and furnishes light, a means of blasting, and in the telephone, a satisfactory method of communication between different part of extensive underground operations. These, doubtless, are but the beginning of its usefulness and service in this direction, and we shall watch with interest the proofs of its increasing value.

THOSE who have made a point of condemning everything connected with mining operations have doubtless done so without considering the fact that the growth and prosperity of any country depends upon its resources, which form a basis of its productive life. Any nation that has within itself no material and substantial resource upon which to support an increasing population, and furnish a supply to others who may enter the market as purchasers, possesses none of the elements of success and cannot expect to secure a prominent place in the history of progressive peoples. One of the strongest indications of the future importance and prominence of this great country, lies in the vastness and variety of its mineral resources. Agriculture, for instance has been from its very nature one of the leading and most prominent, as it is one to which the people most readily turn, and is, in fact, one most necessary to the existence of a people in the beginning; hence, it is usually the first upon the list to developed and improved and often for this reason it is given a prominent and popular record and judgment which it cannot justly claim when measured by its real worth in dollars and cents. Next to follow usually are the various branches of manufactures, and this leads in some lines to the development of the mineral resources. An inquiry into their existence and variety in this country shows a grander promise of the future than may have yet been able to concieve, and it may be justly and truly said that very few of our people have a remote idea of our mineral resources, or of their importance and influence upon the future development and power of the nation.

AT San Francisco last Sunday, some maliciously inclined person sought to disturb the Sabbath quiet and endanger the lives of the passers-by by placing a number of cartridges on the car track on California Street, between Montgomery and Sansome. The explosion of cartridges, when the wheels of a car passed over them, produced great excitement in the neighborhood and caused a number of policemen to wildly rush around in the expectation of finding that some horrible murder had been committed.

IN MEMORIAM.

HALL OF INYO LODGE, No. 301, I. O. O., March 20th, 1884.

To the Noble Grand, Officers and Brothers of Inyo Lodge No. 301, Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

The undersigned, a committee to whom was delegated the painful duty of drafting resolutions expressive of the deep sorrow of the Brethren at the sudden and melancholy taking off of our Brother John Crough, who departed this life on the morning of the 17th inst., beg leave to report as follows:

That though the inscrutable ways of Providence, whose designs are beyond the human ken, and whose depths the wisdom of man cannot comprehend or fathom, it has seen meet and proper unto "Him who doeth all things well," to remove from our midst Brother John Crough, in the hey-day of his manhood—strong, manly and courageous as it was—and at the time of his usefulness as a public officer, whose duties had been discharged with scrupulous fidelity, thus depriving the people of a true and competent servant and his family of a loving and affectionate husband and a fond, indulgent and doting parent, and our Lodge of an honored, zealous and efficient Brother; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble and contrite spirit "before the rod that chasteneth" in thus depriving us of one of our number, and could the prayers of all have been heard, they would have been an earnest appeal to our "Father if it be possible, to let this cup pass from us," yet with that becoming reverence due from us to the "Great Giver of every good and perfect gift," we would acknowledge, not "My will but Thine, O Lord, be done."

Resolved, That we extend to the widow of our deceased Brother and to the little ones who have thus so suddenly been orphaned, our condolence in their great affliction, and may the watchful care of Him who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless ever attend them through their future life, conducting their footsteps into those paths which lead to usefulness and honor.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the proceedings of the Lodge, and a copy furnished to the family of our deceased Brother.

A. R. CONKLIN,
J. R. ELDRED,
J. E. SHEPHERD,
Committee.

IN MEMORIAM.

HALL OF INYO LODGE, 221, F. & A. M., INDEPENDENBE, CAL., March 8, 1884.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren—

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Architect and Ruler of the Universe, whose will we all must obey, to call our beloved Brother, JAMES SHEPHERD, from his labors on earth to that Celestial Lodge on High, therefore,

Resolved That this Lodge deeply mourns the loss of our deceased Brother, and shall ever revere and cherish his memory as being a just, noble and upright man and Mason, whose life has been devoted to the welfare of others more than to himself; one who has been faithful to every relation in life; one whose deep love for kindred and friends knew no bounds, and is worthy of all imitation, and such as a Mason ought to be: and in his death they, as well as this Lodge, have suffered an irreparable loss.

Resolved, That we extend to his relatives, and especially to his brother, John Shepherd, a member of this Lodge, our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in this, his hour of deep and severe affliction—knowing full well the great void left in his heart that no earthly solace but time can heal.

Resolved, in token of respect to our deceased Brother, that this Lodge be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and furnished the local paper for publication, and that a copy of the same be forwarded to the relatives of the deceased.

A. N. BELL,
WM. WALKER,
S. G. GREGG,
Committee.

Additional.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Supreme Grand Master to remove from our midst our beloved Bro., JAMES SHEPHERD, although we bow in humble submission to His will, we feel that one of the main pillars of our order has fallen.

Resolved, That Bro. Shepherd has, by his enthusiastic devotion to Masonry, his blameless character, principles, truth, love and veneration he has passed away, we trust to a seat above the starry-decked heavens, where all true Masons hope at last to arrive—

To meet with our Master
In that temple above
With its members all happy
And our Master all love;
Where, if chosen as Wardens,
Or stand on the ground floor,
We are content with our lot,
Like the workmen of yore.

WM. WALKER.

IN MEMORIAM.

To the Master, Wardens and Brethren of Inyo Lodge, No. 221, F. & A. M.:

Your Committee to whom was referred the matter of drafting appropriate resolutions concerning our late Brother John Viel, beg leave to submit he following:

WHEREAS: It has seemed good to the Ruler of the Universe to remove from among us our respected and beloved brother John Viel, therefore, in view of the loss we have sustained and the still heavier loss occasioned to his respected relatives; be it

Resolved, That the members of this Lodge hereby desire to express their sense of bereavment and grief at the loss of one of its earliest and most faithful members and to record the manly qualifications and virtues of the deceased.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the relatives and near friends of our late beloved brother, and that we respectfully commend them for consolation to that Divine Power which though sometimes inscrutable in its dispensations, yet "doeth all things well," feeling sure that to them as to us there is comfort in the knowledge that the deceased was honorable and manly in all respects;

Resolved, That in token of our sorrow at the death of our brother this Lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days.

JOHN W. P. LAIRD,
A. C. HARVEY,
W. H. WALKER,
Committee.

IT is proposed to build, in Dakota, a monument in memory of the Homestead law and its author. The shaft is to be 160 feet tall (a foot for each acre in a homestead entry), divided into five parts above the pedestal (one division for each year during which the settler must reside on his land in order to perfect his title), and erected on a pedestal forty feet square, representing the four legal subdivisions of a homestead. A figure of Columbia delivering the patent to the settler will surmount the shaft. Statues of public men who were especially instrumental in securing the enactment of the law are to be grouped about the base. The association having the matter in charge asks Congress to grant a township of the public domain in aid of the fund.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

WEDNESDAY, March 19th.

Whereas, an extraordinary occasion has arisen for the meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Inyo County, on account of the death of John Crough, County Clerk of said county, and thereby the office of County Clerk of said county has become vacant, and thereupon the said Board of Supervisors were convened in special session for the purpose of filling said vacancy by appointment, and all of the members of said Board having been notified of said meeting, to be held on this nineteenth day of March, 1884;

Now, on this nineteenth day of March, 1884, said Board of Supervisors assembled, and there present E. Robinson, Chairman, and Thomas Boland. A. Spencer being absent on account of sickness, and having so notified the Board. There being a vacancy in the office of the Clerk of said Board and no Clerk was present, and the following proceedings were had:

The petition of thirty or more resident tax-payers of the County of Inyo was presented and received, praying for the appointment of Thomas Crough as County Clerk to fill the vacancy of said office for the unexpired term caused by the death of John Crough. Also, the petition of thirty or more resident tax-payers of the County of Inyo praying for the appointment of Theodore T. Cook as County Clerk to fill said vacancy. Whereupon the petition praying for the appointment of Theodore T. Cook to said office was withdrawn, and no other petitions being presented, the said Thomas Crough was appointed by the said Board as County Clerk of said county to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term thereof, by the following vote: Ayes—E. Robinson and Thomas Boland. Noes—none.

Whereupon the Board adjourned.

E. ROHINSON, Chairman.

PERSONAL.—James Richardson came down from Bishop Creek Thursday and has taken charge of John C. Irwin's saloon, while the latter gentleman left on an assessing tour yesterday....H. H. Welsh, Deputy Assessor, was with us the first of the week, but is now on his way to Death Valley and intermediate points, to ascertain the value of property in that section of the county....Crit. Hampton, teacher of the school at Big Pine, has been in town most of the week exchanging greetings with old friends....James H. Shannon, teacher of the school at West Bishop Creek, is at work on the Board of Education....J. J. Gunn, of Darwin, is here attending closely to his duty as a member of the Board of Education.... Chas. H. Groves, P. A. Chalfant and Daniel Crough, have been hard at work the entire week examining applicants for teachers certificates....Thomas Webb left on the stage this morning to catch the north bound train. His destination is Mohave, and his object matrimony, we are informed. Be that as it may, THE INDEPENDENT wishes him a pleasant and successful journey ... E. Robinson and Thomas Borland were the only members of the Board of Supervisors present at the special meeting last Wednesday, A. Spencer being too feeble to attend....T. T. Cook, of Bishop Creek, was before the Board of Supervisors with a petition asking his appointment to the position of County Clerk, but withdrew in favor of Thomas Crough....S. D. Woods is on a tour up the country....Frank Fitzgerald and son came in from Lookout this morning. The boy is ailing, and well be treated by Dr. Stevenson....Normie Conklin was in town this morning. He is getting fleshy....Joseph Hall and wife, of Big Pine, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eldred this week....Miss Mina Tibbets is at the Blaney House. Miss H. L. Thomson is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chalfant....Miss E. L. Shepherd is staying with Mrs. J. C. Irwin....Miss Anna Malone is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Blair....Miss Alice Howell, of Bishop Creek, is stopping at the Blaney House....Charles McEvoy, who has been laid up at the Miners' Home for several weeks with liver and kidney troubles, is almost entirely recovered....John Clark, of Bishop Creek, was in town this week. Pap Walker was on our streets this week.

POSTPONED. — Bobby McGinley has postponed his grand carnival bal masque here until Friday, March 28th. His elegant assortment of costumes will be at the Blaney House two days in advance to rent at very low figures. His posters are out to give us a "rare treat in vocal and musical absurdities." You should attend. His dates are as follows: Lone Pine, to-night, March 22d; Bishop Creek, April 2d, and Benton April 3d. Theso dates are for his show.

SCHOOL.—We understand there is a project on foot to open a private school here. The matter is being canvassed, and it is thought that a sufficient number of scholars canbe secured to pay the salary of a good teacher. On account of funds, public school will not open for two or three months.

IMPROVEMENTS.—A. N. Bell, proprietor of the Oak Creek Flouring Mill, will make some improvements in his mill this Summer by putting in some new and improved machinery. He intends to have the mill in fine order to grind this year's crop.

MOVED.—Edward Chenot has finally got his stock of general merchandise moved into the old Inyo House building and is prepared to deal out goods in quantities to suit purchasers.

WATER PIPE.—The first load of pipe for the Independence Water Works has arrived and the balance will soon follow. The work of digging the ditch will soon begin.

ANOTHER INYO TRAGEDY.

The County Clerk Launches Himself Into Eternity

Since that sad 10th day of February, 1879, when Sheriff Passmore was murdered at Lone Pine, or the memorable 3d of July, 1879, when Sheriff Moore was so causelessly killed, no more cruel shock has been received by the people of Inyo than that of last Monday morning, March 17th. County Clerk John Crough ended his own life, while sitting alone at his table in the Clerk's office. The weapon used was a short, small six-shooter—the same one from which Richardson received a shot at the hands of Kelly. It was at the close of Kelly's trial that the pistol was left in the Clerk's office by a deputy, the extracted cartridges lying near in a pigeon hole of the desk. One emptied cartridge was found in the pistol; the others had been left as they were before.

The remainder of the facts connected with the terrible event may perhaps be best told by quoting in full the testimony taken and the

CORONER'S PROCEEDINGS.

MARCH 17, 1884.

County of Inyo. }

At an inquisition held at Independence, Inyo County, California, on the above named day, upon the body of John Crough, the following named jurors were summoned by G. W. Brady, County Coroner: F. Lawrence, W. F. Matlack, Jos. Fernbach, A. Stecker, L. Wood and H. P. Cartier, all of whom appeared.

T. F. A. Connelly, sworn—About 7 o'clock this morning I was standing in the door of the livery stable opposite here, when Mr. Stubblefield came by and asked me to come in and see what was the matter with Johnny Crough; that Crough's little girl had told him that her father was lying on the floor helpless. I ran into the Court House here (this, the Clerk's office). I found the deceased lying on his back, with blood running from his mouth and nostrils. He was apparantly dead, or dead so far as we could see. Mr. Stubblefield came in with me. I saw a pistol lying between his legs.

D. Stubblefield, sworn—Stated that having heard the testimony of the preceding witness, his statement would be substantially the same to all intent and purposes.

B. E. Stevenson, M. D., sworn—I have made a partial examination af the body of John Crough. There are no external marks of violence. I found what appeared to be a gun-shot wound entering the back part of the hard palate, ranging upward and backward, and slightly to the right, and severing in its course the left internal carotid artery, resulting in hemorrhage sufficient to cause death. The bullet lodged in the posterior portion of the brain, where it now lies.

Arthur Tanner, sworn—At half past 4 o'clock this morning I called Johnny Crough for the purpose of perfecting some abstracts in the Clerk's office. At 5 o'clock he came around. After working a while he said, "Tanner, you go and get your breakfbst and I'll get mine; but before we go we'll take a drink to celebrate St. Patrick." We were chaffing about it being the seventeenth day of March, the green ribbon, etc., but he did not seem in any way out of his mind. Yesterday he attended as advisor of referees and principals in a matter involving partnership accounts, and seemed then to be perfectly in his own mind. Upon my return from breakfast I found him dead.

The pistol and cartridges were introduced in evidence, whereupon the jury rendered the following

VERDICT.

We, the undersigned, the jurors summoned to appear before G. W. Brady, Coroner of Inyo County, California, at Independence, in said county, to inquire into the cause of the death of John Crough, found lying dead or dying in the office of the County Clerk of the County of Inyo, in the Court House, having been duly sworn according to law, and having made such inquisition, and hearing the testimony adduced, upon our oaths each and all do say that we find the deceased was named John Crough; was a native of Massachusetts, aged 35 years, 10 months and 22 days.

That he came to his death from a gun-shot wound inflicted by his own hand, with suicidal intent.

All of which we duly certify by this inquisition, in writing, by us signed this seventeenth day of March, A. D. 1884.]Sig.] H. P. Cartier, F. Lawrence, Joseph Fernbach, L. Wood, A. Stecker, Wm. F. Matlack.

G. W. BRADY,
Coroner.

"JOHNNY" CROUGH

As he was wont to be called by a multitude of warm friends throughout all Inyo, came to this coast with his parents in 1856, and until 1867 lived with them in Tuolumne County, where they still reside. The deceased then came to this county, and engaged at various times up to 1877 in farming, stockraising and mining. In '77 he was chosen County Clerk, and was re-elected for the next term to succeed himself. In 1871, at Bishop Creek, he married Miss Julia A. Hollenbeck, the fruit of which happy union being six children, five of whom, with their widowed mother, are left to mourn loss irreparable. Two brothers remain here, the well-known teacher, Dan'l Crough—the present Under Sheriff—and Thomas Crough, who has been wisely appointed Clerk.

John Crough—a man beloved by a host of friends, and greatly missed by all who knew him. A friend alike to the individual and to a people. One who in all his uprightness and faithfulness of duty can ill be spared. But all that can be said in words will make no brighter those many, many deeds of kindness which are engraved upon the hearts of all, and these shall stand as evidences of his manhood. We bid a sad farewell to thee, but not unto thy memory.

PROHIBITION.—Elsewhere will be found a call, signed by prominent citizens, for a meeting for the purpose of organizing a prohibition club here. All are invited to attend; and it is to be hoped that there will be a good turnout.

THE OLD MODOCK.

Some Facts and News Items from Lookout.

Through his usual courtesy, THE INDEPENDENT gleans the following interesting items from Supt. Frank Fitzgerald, of the Modock Company mines at Lookout: "I am working three men in No. 2 stope of the East Lookout; the yield amounts to two tons per day, of 97-ounce ore. With a force of nine men the Black Warrior is producing four and a half tons daily, and has two and one-half feet of clean ore in sight. Two men are at work on the Antelope, opening up ledge for stoping. One team is engaged hauling iron ore, and on the 20th three teams will commence on coal and wood. On the 2d of April the furnace will be started up for a run of at least forty days."

OTHER ITEMS.

In a private letter to Assessor Irwin, under date of the 4th instant, Mr. Fitzgerald says, amongst other facts and gossip: "The storm is over. The damage to toll road—11 men 4 days, $175. On the trail, 1 man 5 days, making a total cost, loss or damage of $200. Per contra, we have now a full, strong 1 inch of water (instead of ⅛th of an inch as formerly) coming down from Toll Road Springs, amply sufficient for two furnaces, and this much than "stands off" the loss on road and trail. No need of Snow's Cañon water now. We can't get to the coal for a week yet. Iron is now being hauled from below Slate Range. The mines are now producing the usual amount of fine ore."

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.—This body, all the members present, has been in session since Tuesday last. The business of examining applicants for Teachers certificates began on Wednesday morning, and, with evening sessions, has continued uninterruptedly to the present writing, and will pe concluded this evening. Following are the names of tne applicants: Miss Alice Powell, 2d grade; Misses H. L. Thomson, E. L Shepherd and Anna Malone, 1st grade, and Willie A. Chalfant for graduating diploma. The second grade studies were concluded on Friday evening, the applicant being successful. Further details will be given next isrue.

LIFE DIPLOMA.—An INDEPENDENT reporter was lately shown the life diploma lately granted to Mr. J. H. Shannon, of Bishop Creek. It bears the date of February 9th, 1884, and is signed by George Stoneman, Governor, Wm. T. Welcker, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Chas. H. Allen, Superintendent of the State Normal School. Mr. Shannon has been teaching on this coast for more than twenty-two years, and in this county for several years.

A CALL.—The ladies of this place are not always forgetful of the INDEPENDENT corps; Mrs. Chalfant accompanied by the Misses Cook ahd Dalton were among our welcome visitors yesterday.

FOR DARWIN.—J. S. Gorman leaves for Darwin Monday to take charge of the Darwin mine.

His Experience.

"Give me two pounds of beefsteak," said an excited man, rushing into a corner market, "and a quart of solid meat oysters too. It won't do for me to go home without 'em twice."

"What's the matter?" inquired the butcher, dumping a quarter of beef on the block.

"I've had something done to me the most impudent way. I got into a street car that was full, but a couple of good-looking young ladies hunched themselves apart, and I squeezed myself in between 'em, putting my pail of oysters between my feet, and my beefsteak across my knees. You see, I'm a sociable man, and I got into conversation with the bright girl on my left."

"And while I was talking to her, a big fat poodle in the woman's arms at my right was chewing up my beefsteak and got away with nearly the best part of two pounds of sirloin."

"'That's a pretty how-d ye-do,' I says to the dog's lady, and she says 'What, sir?'

"I says, 'Your sneaking pup has eaten up my meat.'"

"And what do you think she said? 'Oh mercy! Oh gracious! It will make poor Oscar sick!'"

"Do you suppose I was angry? Well, perhaps I was, but I politely said, 'I hope it will, madam.'"

"Everybody in the car laughed, and the beautiful young lady on my left said it was a shame that folks who own poodles should lug them around in their arms.

"'Now I have a poodle,' she said, and then she blushed, 'but I don't take him in my lap; he chews my necktie.'"

"'What do you do with him?' I inquired; 'leave him at home, I suppose?'"

Then the girl turned redder than ever, and said no, she kept him down between her feet."

"I looked down for my oysters, and would you believe it, that pup had got the cover off my pail and was swallowidg those bivalves as if he was afraid I should want some of 'em. And he was swelled up like a toy balloon.'"

"'Oh, my poor Freddie,' said the girl, 'what shall I do for him? His health always was delicate, and his digestion impaired. Oh, what'll ma say?'"

"And everybody in the car just laughed like a pack of lunatics. The first stop the car made I got out, and I shall walk home rather than put myself in the society of barbariars who carry pups around in public."

It is proposed to tunnel the Sierra on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, from Truckee to Blue Canyon, and thus do away with the snowsheds, many of which are getting old and rotten and break down easily under a heavy weight of snow.

More than 400,000 persons, according to the "Railway World," are employed on the railroads in this country, and five times that number depend upon the roads for support.

Beautiful Homes.

Beautiful homes have a great influence on our lives, and no truer words have ever been written than these by an old writer: "The hope of America is the homes of America." But how much depends on our young people contributing toward the beautifying of the home. Do not leave it entirely to father and mother, but gather ideas and suggestions from the homes of your friends, and from your own ingenious brains and fresh young hearts, that will bloom into forms of beauty around you. And while you decorate your walls with autumn leaves and waving ferns, do not forget to wreath your own faces in smiles, and bring to the home fireside a happy, unselfish heart and contented spirit.

The story is told of a man of great wealth, the owner of many houses, that he was continually moving from one to another; and when questioned why, replied: "To find content!" But he was like the wife of the Frenchman, of whom the poor husband said, "My wife is always content where she is not."

Contentment cannot be found by searching. It dwells in a meek and quiet spirit, and in a heart determined to make the best of what God has given. Therefore, girls, make your homes beauiful with the sunshine of a happy presence, the touch of a loving hand, the music of a sympathetic voice and the echo of an unselfish footfall.

Scissorinctums.

"Do you preach without notes?" casually asked a new minister from the East of an old preacher in an Arkansaw conference. "Preach without notes!" echoed the brother; "I should say I did. Why, my dear brother, in the Lord's name, I've scarcely seen a greenback in six months!" The subject was dropped.

A wise and good man will turn examples of all sorts to his own advantage. The good he will make his pattern and strive to equal or excel them. The bad he will by all means avoid.

"I'm all wool and a yard wide!" shouted a cowboy, as he gave his sombrero an extra side hitch and looked around for a foe. "That may be," replied an undaunted female, "but you won't wash."

An Irishman, having purchased a shawl for his wife, found that it made too large a bundle for one of his pockets; he therefore requested the clerk to wrap it up in two pieces of paper so that he might put it into both pockets.

The papers announce that a Chicago hotel waiter was "accidentally shot in the pantry." Why will the papers insist on using these medical terms. We don't know just how much to sympathize with the poor fellow. It is to be hoped that the pantry is not a vital spot.

First old maid: "I see the rage for the antique is dying out." Second old maid: "Yes; mean, isn't it?" "Awfully." "I did so hope it would continue five or six months longer. You know 1884 is leap year."

In a restaurant: One of the regular customers offers the cook a large hair ring as a New Year's gift. "A ring made of your hair?" asked the astounded cook. "No, Josephine, they are yours; I have picked them out of the soups that you have served us during the past year."

A current writer affirms that women always jump at conclusions. He is right. We have seen 'em jump as if they had been shot at the conclusion of a sermon or lecture. You see, their thoughts had been wandering, and they didn't know exactly where they were.

"How poorly you look, Octave! They are right in saying that the young men of to-day are feeble. Look at me. I am thirty or forty years older than you and I am as solid as an oak. I shall live one hundred years." "Oh, uncle, how can you speak so to your heir? You find only disagreeable things to say to me!"

One night a woman was trying hard to get her drunken husband home, and as she pulled him along the street her words and actions were so tender that a bystander said: "Well, all drunkards' wives haven't your disposition." "Sh-h! don't say anything," she replied, in a whisper; "I've got to call him pet names to get him home; but wait till he drops in the front passage—be there then!"

A GOOD MOVE.

The cigar makers of San Francisco have locked out their Chinese employes, about 3,000 in number, and have determined not only as a matter of private advantage but public policy, to employ only white labor hereafter. For the present cigar makers will be brought from New York, but as this source of supply is regarded as uncertain, they have subscribed a large sum of money and established a technical school where boys and girls, all who apply for admittance, up to a sufficient number, will be taught the art of cigar making and whatever relates to the business. At the meeting which determined on the establishment of this school, the condition of the rising generation, the boys and girls of San Francisco, was referred to in appropriate and feeling terms. The Chinese have crowded them out of the trades and all the avenues of employment. They say "the parents of white children in our midst have refrained from placing those children in such establishments as apprentices. We can but appreciate their natural parental solicitude for the manners and morals of their children, and their repugnance to placing them in positions of familiarity with the heathenish habits, the vices and degrading practices of the masses of the Asiatics who come among us. Thus, while our white youths, for prudential reasons, have been kept aloof from the trades and pursuits to which they are well adapted, because no other opportunities of employment have presented themselves they have been permitted to grow up in idleness; have largely recruited our hoodlum classes, and are unfortunately and almost blamelessly now filling our jails, industrial schools and prisons." What they are doing in the way of making room for white labor and fitting boys and girls to earn their living honestly, they will urge upon other employers of labor, and it is to be hoped that they have inaugurated a movement that will gradually increase in scope and strength until the youth of the State are absorbed in useful employments and thoroughly imbued with the idea that work of any kind is honorable.

NATURALLY, the first and most important thing for the extra session to do was to provide that the dear people put up for expenses. The bill appropriates for the per diem and mileage of Assemblymen $21,000; for pay of officers and clerks of Assembly $3,500; for contingent expenses of the Assembly $6,000: for the per diem and mileage of the Lieutenant-Governor and Senators $10,000; for pay of officers and clerks of Senate $2,200.

THE Fresno Expositor says: One of the most beautiful things that we have seen lately is a double-flowering peach tree, now in blossom on the premises of W. H. McKenzie, in the northern part of town. It is a perfect flame of crimson blossoms. The flowers are as double as a rose, and are as large over as a half-dollar.

ALEX. G. MCKENZIE, Superintendent of the Mount Cory mine, died at Coryville, Esmeralda county, Nevada, on Monday, March 24th, of acute inflammation of the brain and spinal cord. Mr. McKenzie was an old-time mining man of the Comstock, and highly esteemed by all knew him.

THE California and Nevada Railroad is laid as far as Dwight Bay, Berkeley. Last week a cargo of rails was unloaded at the West Berkeley wharf, and have been distributed along the route as far as San Pablo, ready to be fixed in place as soon as the ties are laid.

A GOOD authority on sheep says that one sheep to every five acres of land can be kept on grain or dairy farms, in addition to the full complement of other stock, and will bring in a profit of $5 per head annually, which would otherwise be lost.

A. A. SARGENT was, on the 26th, nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate as Minister to Russia, vice Wm. H. Hunt, deceased. This is, though the pay and rank of the two positions is the same, a virtual rebuke to Sargent's Berlin policy.

THE President has sent to Congress a message recommending appropriations for the constuction of naval vessels.

THE Inyo Democratic County Central Committee have not yet decided when they will hold their meeting.

ABOUT 20,000 people have been made destitute in the Lower Mississippi valley by the flood.

ON the 25th, at Springfield, Illinois, an attempt was made to assassinate Governor Hamilton.

THE entire Pacific coast delegation in the House is opposed to Morrison's Tariff bill.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST.

The Republicans of this Congressional District are in a minority of between four and five hundred, according to the last apportionment and the last vote. The newly arrived population, or that element which will register and become voters at the next election, it is safe to assert is very largely Republican in political sentiment. With a full vote in a Presidential contest, the Republican party can safely count upon at least two thousand majority in this Congressional District. To bring out this full vote it will be absolutely necessary that a candidate shall be nominated who is well known in Inyo, Mono, Alpine, Fresno and Kern counties as in Los Angeles, San Bernardino and San Diego. A Congressman cannot be elected by one particular section, but one may be nominated who is identified with the mountain as well as the valley regions. San Benito, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara and Ventura will cast a large and important part of the vote which will elect a Congressman from this district. It would be unwise, therefore, to raise the question of locality of residence or interest of any candidate at this time. The Republican believes that a citizen of Los Angeles should be selected, as this city and San Pedro are more vitally interested in national legislation than any other cities in this district.

The place of holding the District Convention is of minor importance as compared to the importance of selecting a strong candidate. We want the strongest as well as the best candidate nominated. The names of Messrs. Conkling, Cheney and Boyce, of this county, are being canvrssed as available. The first named is a long resident of the mountain counties of this district and who has recently purchased a home in Los Angeles. The second is a hard working, faithful, honest, enthusiastic Republican, beloved and respected by all who know him. The third is a gentleman comparatively little known, a "new-comer," who resides in Vernon, near this city. He is eloquent, vigorous, an enthusiastic Republican, and financially able to make a vigorous campaign in a district which includes an area of more than one-third of the State of California. These are the three names which Los Angeles Republicans are now canvassing. The other thirteen counties in the district are yet to be heard from. What the Republicans of this district want is a strong, active worker to lead in the campaign, and that leader must be the Congressional nominee.—Los Angeles Republican, March 20.

As the Republican very truthfully says "the place of holding the Convention is of minor importance as compared to the importance of selecting a strong candidate," and in the next sentence places the name of A. R. Conklin, of Inyo, at the head of the list. Right, neighbor, and we concur. Judge Conklin is not only the "strongest," but is beyond peradventure the most available candidate in the district, and though not pronounced, would undoubtedly be the right man for the place if he could be prevailed upon to accept. Strong in Republican convictions, ever for the right, able, he would represent this district and, in fact, the State at large, better than any man than we can now call to mind. And while we deny the privilege of a sister county the right of first putting the name of our candidate in the field, we are compelled to stand by her choice. For the public weal, may Judge Conklin be nominated and he will surely be elected.

AT Philadelphia a Countess Deracuska, a Hungarian, has been committed to prison, in default of $18,000 bail, for shooting a boy named Wilfred Coad. The Countess has been stopping at a house in South Tenth street, burning gas all night. At 1:30 in the morning the landlady sent young Coad, twelve years old, to the room of the Countess to ask her to extinguish the light. The Countess immediately seized a pistol, and, without rising from her bed, shot the boy in the left side. The wound is serious, but not necessarily fatal.

THE Napa Register says: The preliminary work of fitting up the Napa Woolen Mills is being vigorously prosecuted. Mr. Proctor, senior member of the firm, will leave for the East, where he will purchase looms and other machinery, this evening or to-morrow. Mr. Overton, the other member of the firm, well-known to the older residents of this city, and now with the Marysville Milling Company, will move here on or about the 1st of April.

THE largest day's catch of salmon for the season so far, says the Martinez News, was made on Thursday last. The catch was forty salmon, the average weight of which was nearly twenty pounds. The fish are now beginning to run in goodly numbers, and ere long a catch of that size will be considered very small. The traditions of the fishermen indicate a splendid season.

IT has been officially decided that the selection of newspapers for publication of mining notices is a matter resting in the sound discretion of the United States Registers, within the limits prescribed by Section 2,325 of the Revised Statutes; but, that other things being equal, the convenience of the applicant should be consulted.

THE famous Northern Belle mine, at Candelaria, Nevada, was sold by the United States Marshal last week for $310,000. It was bid in by the Holmes Mining Company, which held a judgment for that amount.

THE Carson and Colorado train which took Dr. Bronson to Hawthorne to attend upon A. G. McKenzie Sunday night made 100 miles in about two hours, which is very fast running on a narrow-gauge road. The fastest time ever made from Winnemucca to Truckee was with the Villard party. The train made the trip to Truckee, 205 miles, in 4 hours and 55 minutes, the actual running time being 4 hours and 29 minutes. This beats the Jarrett & Palmer fast train several minutes, but the speed made Sunday night on the C. & C. is about equal to any yet made on the Coast.

IN Lake county many of the foothills formerly considered valueless are being bought and entered for fruit and grape growing. Experiments show that they grow a very superior wine grape, and are fine for peaches and apricots.

HENLEY, from the House Committee on Public Lands, has prepared a report in favor of declaring the forfeiture of the unearned part of the Northern Pacific land grant.

THE ledge in North Banner mine, at Grass Valley, is improving, and stockholders begin to realize the value of the property.

THE ore now coming out of the Gambler mine, at Calico, averages from $75 to $100 per ton.

THE ore from the Magenta, at Grass Valley, still shows its great richness.

FRIEND MACK:—Inclosed I send marriage notice. See Jim Richardson and take a drink. Yours in happiness,

J. M. DORMER.

Having known all the high contracting parties for many years, THE INDEPENDENT offers its most hearty and sincerest congratulations. It is said that only the brave deserve the fair; in this instance it required a high official of the Silver State to capture from our valley one of its brightest social ornaments and literary stars. But the audacious Secretary is an editor and printer, which may account for his hardihood. However, a host of present and old-time Inyo friends will join in wishing the distinguished couple a long, happy and prosperous career in all matrimonial and life affairs.

The Board of Education.

The Board of Education concluded its meeting Saturday night. First grade certificates were issued to Misses Herrmine L. Thomson, Eva L. Shepherd and Annie S. Malone; second grade to Miss Alice Howell, of Bishop Creek; and a diploma of graduation to Willie A. Chalfant, from the schools of Inyo county.

The successful applicants deserve great credit, as the questions propounded were rigid and searching. That the public may have some idea of the style of the examination, some of the questions proposed to the applicants will be published next week. An examination for first-grade certificates covers 21 branches, and in order to cover the ground in the required time (4 days) the Board held several night sessions.

The next meeting of the Board of Education will be held on the 18th of June, 1884, at which time the text-book question will be discussed. Patrons of schools must not infer, from the advertisement in another column, that all of the text-books now in use will be changed. Only such changes will be made as will be beneficial to the pupils of the county schools. The text-book question will be the only subject brought before the Board at the June meeting, so no applicants for certificates need apply at that time.

ORE RETURNS.—The annexed table presents the reported assay values of several shipments of ore to the Melrose, the Selby and the Elna reduction works. Since the ore was all from the same mine, assorted by the same men, and was supposed to be exactly alike, the various discrepancies and differences look singular to say the least:

	August, 1883. Melrose.	October, 1883 Selby.	Dec., 1883 Elna.	March, 1884 Selby.	March, 1884 Elna.
Gold	$ 5.14	$ 6.02	$ 5.14	$ 9.04	$10.30
Silver	67.65 oz.	76.51 oz.	63.91 oz.	84.76 oz.	48.5-10 oz.

REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—The Republican County Central Committee met pursuant to a call published in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, at 10 o'clock this morning. Present: W. H. Walker (A. R. Conklin, proxy), Geo. M. Gill, J. H. Stoutenborough, P. A. Chalfant (Geo. H. Hardy, proxy), John Kispert. The meeting was called to order by Judge A. R. Conklin. George M. Gill was elected temporary chairman, and J. H. Stoutenborough temporary secretary. The call for the meeting was then read. The resignation of V. G. Thomson as chairman and member of the committee was read. Vacancies were declared and filled, as follows: J. J. Stewart in place of G. H. Gregory; G. H. Hardy in place of S. D. Thurston. S. D. Woods was elected permanent chairman, and Geo. H. Hardy permanent secretary. Committee adjourned till 2 P. M. It met at that hour, and selected A. R. Conklin, J. H. Stoutenborough and S. D. Woods to represent the county in the Republican State Convention. It then adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Last Wednesday, Lizzie, the little three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Dodge, of Lone Pine, ran a large needle in her left leg, just below the knee cap, breaking the needle and leaving about one inch of it in the child's leg. The little sufferer was brought here Thursday, and Dr. Stevenson made an attempt to extract the piece of needle, but an examination failed to locate it, and the limb was put in a splint until the inflammation subsides, when the obstacle may be found. There is considerable danger of injury to the joint.

INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorporation of the Surprise Canyon Mining, Milling and Water Company were filed in the County Clerk's office on the 28th. Capital stock, $1,000,000, with C. H. Staniels, J. A. Benham, S. B. Morcy, J. H. Mahoney and H. T. Holbrook, all of San Francisco, as Trustees. The object of the company is to do a general mining and milling business and locate water rights in Panamint Mining District, Inyo county, Cal.

THE BAL MASQUE.—The masquerade ball last evening, though the attendance was small, was without doubt the most enjoyable affair of the season. The music was all that could be desired; it "took the cake." A good lunch at the Blaney added to the attractiveness of the occasion. Our society reporter was so busy with the la—-no, the music and other things that he neglected his business, hence we cannot give a list of the maskers.

NEW SALOON.—Chas. Levy will open an entirely new and gorgeous rendezvous in Lone Pine on the first of the month. Charley's ad. will be found in the columns of THE INDEPENDENT next issue.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Golda Eibeshutz and Miss Alice Howell made THE INDEPENDENT office a call this week. Miss Howell returned to her home in Bishop Creek Thursday....John M. Dormer, Secretary of State of Nevada, and A. J. Martin, editor of the True Fissure, Candelaria, were at Inyo's county seat the first of the week. The former gentleman procured a marriage license to wed one of Bishop Creek's fairest ladies, and Mr. Martin to look at the green fields and handsome women of this section... J. J. Gunn, having finished his labors as one of the Board of Examiners, left us Thursday for a visit with friends in Bishop Creek....Superintendent Frank Fitzgerald has returned to his post of duty at Lookout. "Fitz," as he is familiarly called by intimate friends, is a genial, jolly little gentleman and makes it lively for the boys when he's around....Among the pleasant faces from Independence that we noticed at McGinley's bal masque at Lone Pine were Miss Julia Cook, Aggie Glenn, Chas. H. Groves, Walter Ober and H. Levy....G. W. Jones made our town a visit this week....T. F. A. Connelly, of Taboose, was in Independence Thursday... Miss Eva L. Shepherd left for Pleasantville, Iowa, last Monday to spend the Summer with relatives there....Wm. McDonald, Sheriff S. G. Gregg and P. A. Chalfant left for Big Pine Thursday morning. The latter gentleman will make an attempt to cross the mountains to Cottonwood Creek, where he is putting up a quartz mill....Miss Luella Shepherd is visiting with Mrs. J. C. Irwin....Dr. H. G. Kernodle was called Thursday to Fish Lake Valley to visit Mrs. Piper, who is reported very sick....Dr. S. A. Middleton, of Bishop Creek, paid Independence a hurried visit this week....Miss Emily Conklin has been quite sick with scarlet fever, but is recovering....Geo. M. Gill and J. H. Stoutenborough were down from Bishop Creek to-day and attended the meeting of the Republican County Central Committee ...Jas. Cross, of Candelaria, paid our town a visit this week....Mrs. M. M. Glenn and family were among the arrivals this morning.

THE MCGINLEY TROUPE. — Bobby McGinley, his wife Eva and Miss Emma Hedges gave a very pleasing entertainment at Lone Pine last Saturday, which was much enjoyed by the people of that place. Monday he gave a bal masque in the same hall, and had a large crowd and a fine time. His performance at this place Wednesday evening was not so well attended as its merits deserved, but those who were there got full value received for their $1. Bobby and Eva were immense in their absurdities, and kept the audience in a continual roar. Don't fail to see them at Big Pine, Bishop Creek and Benton. A good laugh in this country is worth a $1, and they will certainly please you.

SCHOOL MONEY.—On the 27th instant County Superintendent Groves made the following apportionment of State school moneys:

	School Dist.	Library Fund.
Bishop Creek	$670.50	$28.48
Big Pine	325.10	36.12
Darwin	155.99	17.33
Independence	336.27	37.36
Irving	343.85	38.21
Lone Pine	624.90	33.51
Milton	281.63	31.23
Round Valley	273.21	30.36
Union	144.73	16.08
Warm Springs	67.20	5.04
Totals	$3,222.78	$272.97
Grand Total		$3,496.50

THE WEATHER.—Any plaint about cold or stormy seasons is unusual from this section, but there seems now to be about as much occasion for a little "kicking" at the conduct of the Signal Service as our more northern neighbors have had. Cold nights, little flusters of snow in the valley and an extraordinary amount of it in the mountains, mark the season as phenomenal. The earlier fruits are doubtless "nipped in the bud," but there will be floods of water for irrigation, which will content the farmers.

SCHOOL.—School will commence next Monday with Miss Flora C. Northrup as teacher. The school will be kept up by subscription until such time as public school commences. There are about forty pupils now promised, which at $2 per month will cover expenses until July 1st, when there will be sufficient money in the school fund to run the public school for another term at least. All those who feel able should contribute their mite toward keeping the school going.

SUPERIOR COURT.—In the Superior Court this morning W. H. Wheaton, accused of wrongfully appropriating one of Frank Shaw's beeves, appeared and entered a plea of not guilty. He is represented by Geo. M. Gill, Esq., as counsel. A special venire of thirty triol jurors was ordered, returnable on April 14th, the day set for trial.

RUMORS.—While in Lone Pine the other day we heard it loudly whispered that W. H. Walker would be a candidate before the Republican County Convention for the nomination for Treasurer. Also, that W. L. Hunter would push his claim for County Clerk at the Democratic Convention.

FISHING.—From and after next Tuesday, April 1st, the catching of trout by hook and line will be legal.

NEW ADS.—For information, look under the heading of "New advertisements."

THE amount of snow in the mountains far exceeds the amount stored there for many years, and circumstances may be such that the water will be much higher here this Spring than it has been during the Winter. To guard against this, the Directors of different ditch companies and the owners of land along the St. John's, subject to overflows, are considering the advisability of raising by subscription enough money to build a levee on the St. John's for self-protection.—Tulare Journal.

Prohibition Meeting.

On Tuesday evening pursuant to a call made by citizens of Independence and vicinity, quite a number of persons assembled at the Court House. The meeting was called to order by Geo. H. Hardy, at 8 o'clock. Mr. A. N. Bell was then nominated and elected Chairman. Mr. Bell, upon taking the Chair, made a few remarks, stating the object for which the meeting had been called, and spoke of the importance and necessity for a movement in favor of Prohibition. Election of a Secretary being in order Mr. P. A. Chalfant placed in nomination Geo. H. Hardy, who was elected.

In order to bring the object of the meeting more fully before the assembly, the Secretary made a motion, "that the Chairman appoint a committee of three to draft a set of resolutions." The motion being carried, the Chairman appointed, as committee on resolutions: Geo. H. Hardy, P. A. Chalfant and Alexander Clark, who submitted the following:

Resolved:—That our object, aim and purpose is to unite our efforts, in an endeavor to eventually secure constitutional prohibition of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

We invite to this work the intelligent, law-respecting and order-loving men and women, those who own property, pay taxes and are interested in the protection and education of youth and elevating its moral standard.

Resolved:—That we condemn all taxation, license, regulation, or legal sanction in any form, of traffic in alcoholic liquors as a beverage.

Resolved:—That we are in favor of the universal and enforced education of the youth, including instruction in regard to the effects of alcohol upon the human system, with ample provisions for the support of an adequate and efficient system of free public schools.

PLEDGE.

We, the undersigned, believing that the manufacture, sale and use of alcoholic drinks is the greatest evil of the country and the age, hereby mutually pledge ourselves to each other, that we will do all in our power to promote the constitutional prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. To this end we also pledge ourselves to support for public officers strictly temperance men, and more especially to do all in our power to procure the nomination of such and such only in the Conventions, both State and county, of existing parties.

After some remarks by Mr. Hardy, Mr. S. D. Woods and others, tending to show that the movement was not for the purpose of organizing a new political party but for the purpose of organizing, advancing the cause of prohibition and securing a recognition by existing parties of temperence men, the resolutions were adopted.

A call was then made for signatures to the pledge. During the interval necessary to this some of the ladies present volunteered some prohibition songs, which were well rendered. Thirteen names were subscribed to the pledge.

The meeting then adjourned, to meet at the same hour and place, on Wednesday, April 2d, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization.

A BILL authorizing San Miguel county, N. M., to build its $125,000 Court House and jail, passed both houses in that Territory last week; meeting, however, with heavy opposition in the Senate.

THERE is a wide expanse of mineral-bearing country surrounding Quijotoa now being thoroughly prospected by 1,000 men and in which valuable strikes are constantly made.

A BILL imposing a license of $500 on commercial travelers as well as wholesale houses, in New Mexico, was introduced in the House, at Santa Fé, last Saturday.

WE have received a map issued by Assemblyman J. M. Keeler, giving, in a clear, plain manner the various mining districts of the county, and in their proper localities, too.

THE Mount Cory mine, Esmeralda county, Nevada, has made its first shipment of bullion, amounting to $20,729.90.

IN Alameda county, the acreage sown in grain is largely increased this year, and the yield will be unusually heavy.

SHASTA county has about 50,000 acres in grain. The fruit and grape crops will be much larger than last year.

THE grain yield of Sacramento county is expected to be much heavier than last year. Fruit promises well.

TWENTY days run with ten stamps on ore from the Talisman mine, Amador county, produced $6,400.

RICH strikes, among which is a large body of coal, are reported in the vicinity of Pima, Arizona.

SUITS are being commenced at Red Bluff against the liquor dealers and others for back licenses.

BURGLARS attempted to break into the railroad safe at the depot at Red Bluff, Saturday night.

ELEVEN loads of ore from the Peabody mine, in Nevada County, paid $2,000 when crushed.

HAWTHORNE, Nevada, will support a money order office after July 1st.

THE Sharon trial will probably run into 1885.

THE Silver King mine, at Pinal, Arizona, is lighted by electricity.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR THE County of Inyo, State of California.

In the matter of Elisha Mallory, an insolvent debtor.

Elisha Mallory having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, by which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Elisha Mallory is hereby declared to be insolvent.

The Sheriff of the County of Inyo is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said Elisha Mallory, debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to him, or to any person, firm or corporation or association for his use. The said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property, until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Hon. John A. Hannah, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, in open Court, at the Court room of said Court, in the town of Independence, in the County of Inyo, on the SEVENTH day of APRIL, 1884, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered that the order be published in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the town of Independence, County of Inyo, as often as the said paper is published before the said day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered that in the meantime all proceedings against the said insolvent be stayed.

JOHN A. HANNAH, Superior Judge.

Literary Undertakings of H. H. Bancroft.

During the past twenty-five years a work has been going on in California, the nature and importance of which will be better understood fifty years hence than now. Shortly after establishing himself as a bookseller and publisher in San Francisco in 1856, H. H. Bancroft began to collect materials for history, and has continued such efforts from that day to this, the result being in 1881, 35,000 volumes, with a rate of increase of about 1000 volumes a year, and a brick building erected specially to hold the collection. The cost in money thus far, not to mention time and traveling expenses, was about $300,000. But this was only the beginning. In 1869, Mr. Bancroft turned his attention more particularly to the utilizing of his gathered information; and to that end he had his library catalogued, indexed, and such facts and incidents as he desired placed before him in the forms of extracts, abstracts and references. This labor involved the continued application of not less than twelve assistants during the entire term, and they are still engaged in the same capacity. The expense here has been something over $200,000—say, in all, half a million in money. But the money expenditure was the lesser part of it. So far as it was possible, Mr. Bancroft abandoned business entirely, and threw himself and his life into the arduous, but facinating tasks of authorship, the final result being, published and and to be published, thirty-nine volumes of history, ethnology and other and more special subjects. This, then, briefly stated, is the work referred to.

It was accident rather than design which led both to the formation of the library and to authorship. Having from the first a "penchant" for publishing more pleasant than profitable in a new country, and feeling a growing need in the preparation of books for the press, of that valuable information relative to the Pacific Coast which was dropping out of existence for want of some one to save it, he began instinctively to gather and preserve it. First, he went over his stock and placed by themselves all books and pamphlets on California and Oregon. Then, from all parts of the country, he brought in material, gradually extending the area of his territory, until the western half of North America was embraced within its limits. Then he went East and to Europe, to see what could be gathered there; and this he did many times and with much diligence. From the Andrade sale, in Leipsic, of the Mexican collection intended by Maximilian as the foundation of an Imperial library, about 3000 volumes were obtained. Then, there was the sale in London of the Remirez collection, and the sale in New York of Squier's manuscripts, and a score of others that brought to Bancroft's library large and important additions.

The business was originally established on Montgomery street, near Merchant. Both business and library having assumed considerable proportions, in 1869 Mr. Bancroft erected a large building on Market street, and moved into it, the library being placed on the fifth floor. There it remained, subject to no small risk from fire, until 1881, when Mr. Bancroft purchased a large lot on Valencia street, built in the middle of it a two-story and basement brick building, 40 by 60 feet, covered all the openings with strong iron shutters, maps and manuscripts, which by this time numbered 35,000, besides 400 files of Pacific Coast newspapers. There they now stand, building and books, a monument to the elevation of mind and patient devotion of the collector.

As before intimated, it was not until after several years had elapsed from the beginning of the collecting, nor until the library numbered over 12,000 volumes, that Bancroft entertained serious thoughts of authorship. But during the process of collecting there had arisen in him a strong desire for production. He wished during his life-time to see his collection utilized. By the year 1868 this desire became so strong in him that he determined to place in his brother's hands the active management of the business, retaining his interest in it, nevertheless, and to devote the remainder of his life to literary pursuits.

It seemed due to science, to history, and to philosophy, that information concerning a new and rapidly developing country, information of vast importance to its occupants and to mankind everywhere should not be simply hoarded by its possessor, but should be made the common property of all. Hence it was that Mr. Bancroft concluded that he could do no better work, none that would more benefit mankind or reflect more credit on himself, than to sift his material and bring together and arrange these facts in a series of at once competent and exhaustive works. In other words, he determined to write and publish a number of books, with this new Western Coast the basis of them all, taking up one subject after another, such as its native races, its history, and the like, and to continue his labors as life and death should be spared.

The results are now being placed before the world at the rate of three or four new volumes a year, in a grand historical series, such as must forever constitute the foundation of all historical research on the Western Coast of North America.

A HOLLOW MOUNTAIN. — For several months past the citizens of Round and Hot Spring Valleys have contended that the blasting in Siskiyou tunnel, about 100 miles distant, could be distinctly heard by them. It has, however, been remarked that the sounds or reports are deeper and lack the concussion of an explosion of powder, as does a thunder peal. S. Tabor Stanley and James McClour, who have been for several weeks past working at Dutch Flat, about seven miles northwest of Adin, state that these so-callod explosions proceed from Bald Mountain, near there. Several other parties endorse this statement. The Argus says: "A Mr. Williams reports having seen a peculiar fire on the mountain one dark night. His curiosity being aroused he visited the spot on the following morning. No fire or smoke could be seen, but the strange reports or explosions were fearfully audible to our scientific explorer, and he speedily made tracks for more solid ground. Williams is convinced that the mountain is hollow, and that immense boulders are being fired around in the subterranean cavern in a way that would startle even Captain Heinrich Hudson of Catskill fame."

THE area of the Yellowstone National Park is 35,782 square miles. It is 3,389 miles larger than the whole of Ireland and larger than the States of Rhode Island and Delaware together.

THERE is so little wheat in Nevada that the farmeas now have to get wheat from California for chicken feed.

THE Ohio Legislature has done a sensible thing in passing a law forbidding the exclusion of a man from a jury because he may have read about the case in the newspapers.

THE POLITICAL POT.

The political caldron is beginning to boil. Already there is observable a general movement all along the line and the leaders of the various parties are marshaling their respective hosts, preparatory to the coming contest. The roll is being called and deserters and absentees noted. Captains, orderlies and drill sargeants are busy with their "awkward squads." Division and corpse commanders are preparing and issuing their orders to their respective commands. Everywhere we see the marshaling of the hosts for the grand battle of 1884, which is to determine the character of our Government for the next four years at least. Clubs are being organized; conventions are whereasing and resoluting. Patriotic partisans are pointing with pride to the principles of heir respective parties and personalt hobbies. Sleek and pampered office holders and hungry and lean office seekers, ward politicians, bosses, strikers, whippers-in, dispensers of soap, political bummers, piece clubs and corner groceries, are all in anxious expectancy, waiting the coming boom. Candidates that are not seeking the office, and offices that are not seeking the candidate; the candidate with a boom that won't boom, and the "dark horse" that won't "keep dark," are all "just looking around," so that should the office come around seeking the man, they at least will not be conspicuous by their absence. Platforms "to catch votes," as a prominent Nevada politician once put it, are being prepared, in which the dear people's rights are to be maintained—until after election; reforms in the interests of labor are to be inaugurated—in stump speeches; corruption and malfeasance in office, and thievery and jobbery are to be banished from the public service, and a new and glorious era of universal prosperity is to dawn once more upon this tax-ridden, monopoly-cursed country of ours, such as it has never known before—except in political platforms—since the days when our forefathers "wrapped themselves up in the Declaration of Independence and fought, bled and died that we might be a free people"—to pay taxes that our office-holders may get fat at the public crib and corporations get rid of paying taxes.

It is a grand sight to see the old political "war horses" prancing around, and, like Job's war horse, "scenting the battle—and spoils—from afar," and like Job's Behemoth, "he trusteth he can drink up Jordan"—and would do it, too, if it were old bourbon. It is true some of them—the ins—are fat, slick and well groomed; whilst the outs are neither fat or sleek and evidently not well groomed or fed—but would like to be; many are rather tender footed, some windgalled, splinted, spavined, stringhalt and lame; yet they are all on hand, Greenback, Prohibition, Democrat and Republican—all astir, armed and equipped. Arrayed in all the pomp and canopy of glorious war, "they stand forth eager for the fray." But the people must choose.

There are really but two political parties to-day which can claim their attention—the Republican and Democratic. Between these two they must choose. What the Republican party has achieved during its power and prestige, is written. What the Democratic party would do if given the reins, is unwritten. The Prohibition and Greenback Parties will struggle to get a finger in the political pot-pie, but will hardly gather strength enough to accomplish much this year. We shall watch the progress of events with much solicitude, and from time to time "chip in," speaking our mind freely, fearlessly, and, we trust, without prejudice; but always for justice and the right. Meanwhile,

> Strike the Hewgag, sound the Tom Tom;
> Let the great Rumpuscus roar.
> Sound the tocsin, Great Sumpunkins,
> And "let slip the dogs of war."

A CONCERTED movement is being made in Los Angeles and Sacramento counties to obtain Executive clemency for T. S. Harris, who was sentenced to San Quentin for one year for having shot Charles Whitehead, another newspaper man. It is stated that Judge Howard, of the Superior Court in Los Angeles who tried the case, expressed surprise that a jury should find Harris guilty at all, and he consequently imposed the least penalty possible under the law. Now the prosecuting attorney and all but two of the jurymen are praying Governor Stoneman for Harris' unconditional pardon. The trouble grew out of a settlement of partnership affairs and division of property, in which Harris' wife received wanton insult and assault from Whitehead. Even after this, it appears that Harris fired the shot while in imminent danger of losing his own life and consequently in self-defense. Whitehead may not have run like one, but he was vastly more scared than hurt after all. Now, T. S. Harris is widely known throughout Inyo and Mono, and deserves all the favors that his old time friends can give him. He will be remembered as an employe of this office, and the publisher of splendid papers at Panamint, Darwin and Bodie. He has occupied many responsible positions of trust, and stands high in the most prominent secret orders. In the prison, he is now acting as Chief Clerk for Capt. Reddy. For the sake of justice to Harris and his estimable wife we move that there be sent to Sacramento a unanimous petition for his release.

THE QUESTIONS.

LOCAL politics are as yet not broke out like a well developed case of small-pox, but there will be a decided advance in the disease for office within the next fortnight. We hear whispered the names of a number of citizens for place on both the Democratic and Republican ticket, while the solid citizen voters give no vent to party preference, merely saying: "We intend to vote for the best men." Candidates, put your names early before the people; let your claims and qualifications be thoroughly weighed by the intelligent voters of Inyo county, and if found not wanting, your election is sure.

ROLL OF HONOR.—Following is the Roll of Honor for the Bishop Creek public school, for the month of March: Grammar Department, Mrs. H. H. Welsh Principal; maximum, 100: minimum, 85---"A" class: Ben Yandell, 96; Nannie Sherwin, 96; Agnes Ford, 95; Hattie Van Epps, 94; Hattie Bulpitt, 90; Fred. Bulpitt, 85. "B" class, minimum 80: John Clarke, 94; Willie Dehy, 92; Ella Van Fleek, 89; Jacob Shober, 88; George Drake, 85; Vina Van Fleet, 84; Harry Shaw, 83; Bryant Townsand, 80; Nettie Ford, 91; John Meroney, 90; Katie Morehouse, 88; Allie Drake, 88; May White, 85; Margie Shaw, 84; David Hall, 82. Primary Department, Miss C. V. Stoutenborough, teacher: Annie Van Fleet, Ida Plumley, Claude Inman, Frankie Shaw, Francis Stick, Lulu Meroney, Fannie Epperson, Frankie Shannon, Ray Yaney, Dolly Brown, Ritta Drake.

DARWIN DOINGS.—J. W. Murphy, who arrived from Darwin Thursday, brought in the following items: The town is gaining new life every day....J. Eddy has a severe attack of erysipelas. J. J. Gunn and Frank Fitzgerald have returned, and are telling the experiences they had while swinging around the circle at the county seat and other towns along the Owens River....The Defiance, Independence, Gould & Jackson, Sterling, Slate Range, Modock and Snow Canyon mines are all working a force of men, and the mill of the latter is expected to start up in a short time. Hank Martin, with two big teams, is looked for in a few days to haul ore from the Sterling mine to the end of the C. & C. track....Smith Bros. are taking out some very rich gold ore from their mine in Mitchell's canyon.

FROZEN FRUIT.---The Owens River Valley has had another bad year for fruit. The weather had been cold up to two weeks ago, when it became warm enough to make our fruit trees bud and blossom. Then old Jack Frost came swooping along with his besom of destruction, and the probability is most of our early fruit is killed.

ECLIPSES.—There will be a total eclipse of the moon next Thursday morning, the 10th. It begins at 3 minutes past 4 o'clock A. M., New York time, or about 1 here. It is total a few minutes after 2, local time. There will be a partial eclipse of the sun, April 25th, but it is not visible except in South Pacific ocean.

FURNACE FOR DEEP SPRINGS.—Mr. McMurry, of Big Pine, has returned from San Francisco. He has perfected arrangements to move the old Montezuma furnace across the mountains to Antelope Springs, Deep Spring Valley, where it will be put to work on ores of that section. The furnace will be moved immediately.

MOUNTAIN ROADS.—A road has been shoveled through the snow, leading to Deep Spring Valley, and is now passable for horsemen. The machinery for the Greenly mill, which has been at the Alvord depot for some time, will be finally moved this week or next.

PROHIBITION MEETING.—The citizens of this vicinity should not forget the Prohibition Club meeting next Wednesday evening. Through some unfortunate mistake, the date for this meeting ing was published April 2d, instead of the 9th.

SCHOOL.---School opened last Monday with about thirty scholars and new names have been added to the roll nearly every day since, the number of pupils now being about forty. Miss Northrup is said to be an excellent teacher.

SICKNESS.---Judge Conklin's little daughter, who has had a severe attck of scarlet fever, is now rapidly recovering, under the treatment of Dr. Stevenson. The eldest daughter of James E. Parker has been quite ill the past few days.

BOOK AGENT.---Alex. Clark, of this place, is canvassing the county for subscribers to a number of valuable works for which he is agent. Farmers tie your watch dogs loose or buy a second hand coffin.

F. & A. M.—Inyo Lodge No. 221, F. & A. M., hold their stated meeting to-night at their hall.

IN DISTRESS.---W. H. Wheaton requests us to publish the following: "Ed. INDEPENDENT: Considering the unfortunate circumstances by which I am surrounded and over which I have no control, has deprived me of the privilege of looking after my family, a wife and six children, who are in destitute circumstances, both for provisions and clothing. If the people of Independence and Bishop Creek, Big Pine not rejected, will donate such as they feel able to, for their comfort the favor will be thankfully received by the undersigned. I have been laid up most of the winter with the rheumatism hence our destitute circumstances."

LONE PINE SCHOOL.---The school at Lone Pine will open on Monday, the 14th. Chas. H. Groves has, by the unanimous voice of the Board of Trustees of that district, been called to take the position of teacher. This is the second call Mr. Groves has had from Lone Pine, clearly showing that the people there appreciate his capabilities. Heretofore it required a Principal an Assistant to run the school, but Mr. Groves will do the work alone this term. We congratulate the people of our sister town on having secured the services of such a competent teacher, while we are at the same time sorry to lose him.

CLOVER PATCH.—Messrs. Nixon & McDermott, with a force of nine men, have been engaged for several months in opening out the Wild Rose mine at Clover Patch, in Southern Mono. The developments are such as to insure the steady running of the 5-stamp mill until next Fall. The snow lies all over the country to a depth of from four to ten feet, rendering locomotion impossible and the matter of getting in supplies extremely difficult. Joe McDermott has been tramping in the snow until he became blind for a few days, while his face looks like the outer leaves of a red cabbage.

THE MODOCK.---Supt. Fitzgerald says of late operations at the Modock works at Lookout: "Amount of ore received at furnace during the week, 51 tons; the output is now increased to 9½ tons per day. The Antelope mine is opening up very well; the shaft is down 18 feet, and 21 tons of ore have been extracted in sinking it. The furnace cannot be started up before the 21st inst., as coal is not coming in fast enough."

BONDED.—The noted Kearsarge series of mines and the old 10-stamp mill has been bonded for a large amount to P. J. S. Tulley, the agent, who is backed by millionaires. Work on the mines will be commenced as soon as the snow will permit. This move has the true ring, and is founded on true business.

FISHING SEASON.---The time has now arrived when it is not unlawful to hie to the babbling brook and angle for the speckled trout. Already we notice some experts with hook and line in hand branching out to secure a mess of the finny beauties.

THE QUEEN.—Work on the famous Indian Queen mine, in Oneota District, has been prosecuted all Winter with a force of sixteen men. New ground is now opened by a long, deep tunnel, and preparations are being made to start the mill as soon as the deep snow clears away.

SNOW'S CAÑON.—The mill at Snow's Cañon started up on Saturday last for a run of twenty-five days or more. The ores are from mines belonging to Stapp & Morton and to Bob Mitchell and Billy Smith.

QUERY?—What causes Mike Tovey to visit Bishop Creek so often of late, dressed within an inch of his life? Is he playing the role of detective, and on a warm trail; or what?

CHANGE IN TIME.---Rumors of a change in time on the Carson & Colorado Railroad are plentiful; but nothing definite can be ascertained.

LETTER FROM BIG PINE.

The McGinley Company The Dance—General News.

ED. INDEPENDENT.---This place for some time past, in fact since Elna Furnace closed down, has been keeping step with the other towns of the valley in having dull times. For the last week, however, a sense of sociability, instigated by the presence of the Bobby McGinley troupe, has somewhat awakened the sleeping spirits of the community. Saturday night quite an audience assembled to enjoy the excellent music and convivial jokes of the company. All seemed satisfied, especially those publicly accused of "Winking at Eva." On Monday evening a larger number were present. All passed on nicely, save that a few individuals pretty thoroughly "benzined," made an annoying disturbance. These considered it necessary to keep time with their "hoofs" to the violin solos. This interspersed with a few vulgar remarks for variety, was a source of annoyance during part of the programme. As soon as the entertainment closed, the chairs were removed and dancing was in order. Those who stayed to enjoy the "hop," as near as we can remember, were: Mr. and Mrs. McGinley and Miss E. Hedges. From Bishop Creek, Miss Bessie Hart, Messrs. Chas. Van Epps, Ben. Williams, Joe Godfrey, Wm. Bingham. From Independence: Chales H. Groves, Walter Oberand M. M. Glenn. Home folks: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore, Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bart, Mrs. Hackett, Misses Dora McMurry, Maggie Schalten Emma Kemp, Emma McMurry and Laura McMurry; Messrs. Jas. Smith, Joe Schalten, Jr. D. Campbell, Jr., C. Engle, Herbert Hartshorn, Dan Hook, Chas. and Wm. McMurry, O. B. Wilson, J. Downie, J. Kegan, Perry McMurry, Wm. McDonald, J. Y. Ashmore, O. Allerton, Jeff Davis, Crittenden Hampton and Y. Sullivan. The dance passed away, and towards morning the merry laugh was turned to vigorous snoring, while the roll of wheels disclosed the fact that the merry members of the party had flown.

ABOUT TOWN.

J. W. McMurry has returned from San Francisco looking better and feeling like a new man....Wm. McDonald and A. A. Riddle are in Bishop Creek, reviewing the Swarengen hotel with a view to renting. J. J. Gunn, of Darwin, passed through Big Pine a few days ago, paying us a short visit.... The Big Pine school will close next week....Fine catfish are being caught in Owens River opposite Big Pine.... Frank Peacock, the "lightning" man at Alvord, was in town yesterday.... John Christaine is just in from Deep Springs and reports only five feet of snow around his cabin....P. A. Chalfant passed here on his way to Deep Springs....Dr. Kernodle passed here on his way home from Mr. N. Piper's, at Oasis, somewhat tanned but sadly in need of a pillow to sit on. He was horseback. WADE.

Big Pine, April 2, 1884.

THE State Legislature is still working hard to accomplish something, just exactly what we hardly believe they know themselves. When they have succeeded in doing anything worthy of note we will let our readers know bout it.

LAW and order again reign supreme at Cincinnati. The mob has quieted down and the barricade around the Court-house are beiug taken down.

There is a furnace which never shuts down for the want of flux.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR THE County of Inyo, State of California.

In the matter of Elisha Mallory, an insolvent debtor.

Elisha Mallory having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, by which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Elisha Mallory is hereby declared to be insolvent.

The Sheriff of the County of Inyo is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said Elisha Mallory, debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to him, or to any person, firm or corporation or association for his use. The said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property, until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Hon. John A. Eating Lemons.

A good deal has been said through the papers about the healthfulness of lemons. The latest advice is how to use them so they will do the most good, as follows: Most people know the benefit of lemonade before breakfast, but few people know that it is more than doubled by taking another at night also. The way to get the better of a bilious system without blue pills or quinine, is to take the juice of one, two or three lemons, as the appetite craves, in as much water as makes it pleasant to drink without sugar, before going to bed. In the morning, on rising, at least half an hour before breakfast, take the juice of one lemon in a glass of one lemon in a goblet of water. This will clear the system of humor and bile with efficacy without any of the weakening effects of Calomel or Congress water. People should not irritate the stomach by eating lemons clear; the powerful acid of the juice, which is always most corrosive, invariably produces inflammation after a while, but properly diluted so that it does not burn or draw the tosoat, it does its medical work without harm, and when the stomach is clear of food it has abundant opportunity to work over the system thoroughly, says a medical authority.

THE World's Fair in New Orleans will open on the 7th of December next, and space for exhibits will be required by several business men of San Francisco, who have notified Commissioner Andrews that they desire certain space reserved. The Commissioner finds, however, that the State can appropriate no funds to have California represented, as no proposition in that direction was embraced in the call for the extra session. The expense of fitting up the space allotted to this State will not be less than $10,000, and the citizens will have to raise the amount or a failure will be the result. It is intended that California's exhibit shall represent vineyards, forests, orchards, mines, manufacturers, farms and all the varied resources of the State.

"FIGARO" says that an American boy of great prospective wealth and both of whose parents are dead, was lately staying at Nice under the guardianship of some relatives. The precocious young hopeful, who made his presence very troublesome to those around him, was one day clambering in a dangerous way about the balustrade of the hotel staircare. A gentleman not knowing that he was an orphan, remonstrated with him, and added. "What would your father and mother say if they were to see you behaving like this?" "They wouldn't say anything," was the answer, "because they've joined the Turf club."

Proctor now says that Jupiter is in the same state that our earth was in 34,000,000 years ago. Seldom do you find a man that can remember so far back, and when you do it is just as well not to bet much on what he knows.

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:

SATURDAY, APRIL 12 1884

ATTEMPTED LAND GRAB.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Senator Miller presented in the Senate to-day the petition of Hermine Thompson, a young woman of 18 years, asking that she be permitted to pre-empt 120 acres of the military reservation at Camp Independence, Inyo county, Cal. She says her father was a soldier in the regular army for 20 years; that she has several younger brothers and sisters to support, and that as her father is buried on the reservation, she wants to make her home there. As the matter will have to be considered by the Military Committee, Senator Miller will urge that committee to grant the request in the petition.

The above dispatch we clip from the San Francisco Chronicle, and as it is of interest to many of our readers, give it a place in our columns. We cannot think the young lady, whose name is here used with such disagreeable prominence, is a party thereto, but are disposed to believe that it is an effort on the part of some designing persons to obtain, through misrepresentation and fraud, the possession of a valuable property. The facts are that Miss Thompson is one of three children, a male about 21 years of age, herself aged about 18 years, a sister 16 and one 14 years, who were the children of Theo. Thompson, who was a soldier in the regular army, died in the service and whose remains were buried in the public cemetery at Camp Independence. The widow of Theo. Thompson married Mr. C. A. Walter, one of our most estimable and prosperous citizens, who homesteaded 160 acres of land on the Reservation, and has made final proof thereon. The heirs of Theo. Thompson have been drawing a pension from the Government, not that they needed it, for Mr. Walter is abundantly able to and has supported them. Besides this a 160-acre land warrant was issued to Mr. Thompson, and the children still hold it. Again, there are no younger brothers and sisters for Miss Thompson to support. Miss Thompson's request to homestead 120 acres is for the purpose of obtaining the Camp proper, comprising a valuable tract of land, sown in altalfa and set with ornamental trees and shrubbery and fruit trees and grape vines.

We have too much confidence in the able Chairman on Military Affairs, the Hon. Frank M. Cockrell, to believe that the petition, filled with misstatements of facts as it is, will ever be favorably reported on, or even countenanced.

If Senator Miller would use his influence to procure the passage of a bill donating this land for school purposes, as our citizens desire, and as should by all means be done, and thereby have it subserve a great public good and a blessing to all on this side of the mountains, he would earn the gratitude of his entire constituency and do a favor to this long neglected but patient portion of the State. An effort toward this end was made when Mr. Pacheco was our member of Congress, but failed through his inaction. Let Senator Miller resurrect this move and do a commendable act, instead of trying to rob the Government for a private and unmerited purpose.

THE INDEPENDENT is informed, also, that speculators are and have been for years working to get hold of this property. We hope and trust Congress will not allow them to do so, but donate it, as we will ever pray, for school purposes.

A LATE decision from the General Land Office says: An inclosure is not indispensable to constitute possession of a tract of land under the homestead or pre-emption laws. A settler is one who intends to initiate a claim for public land, and who does some act connecting him with the particular tract claimed, such an act being equivalent to the announcement of his intention, and from which the public generally may have notice of his claim. This may be by going upon the land, cutting down trees, building a house, fencing a tract, etc. They must personally reside upon the land and personally use and manage it.

IT is said that both Senator Jones and John W. Mackay would gladly accept the honor of serving as delegates from Nevada to the National Republican Convention. If the Republicans of our sister State are wise they will send these gentlemen to represent them. Their influence in the Chicago Convention would considerably outweigh that of any other two Republicans who could be named from that State.

THE Canadian Parliament has at last passed a bill excluding Chinese from the Dominion. This is a good thing for Canada, and indirectly a benefit to the United States. Large numbers of Chinese have been coming across the the borders of British Columbia into the United States, and if the Chinese be excluded from Canada altogether, they can much more effectually be kept out of our own country.

LINCOLN TO THE FRONT.

"I have been watching the drift of public sentiment very carefully," said ex-Secretary William M. Evarts the other day, "and I have gradually come to the conclusion, which I hope as well as predict will prove true, that Robert Lincoln will be the nominee of the Republican National Convention for President, unless Arthur goes through on the first or second ballot." Mr. Evarts remarked that if he were ambitious for the Presidency he would rather have Lincoln's chances than those of any other man except Arthur, and he believed that he would be one of the strongest candidates that could be nominated.

"I know Mr. Lincoln personally," continued Mr. Evarts." "I have studied his character and believe that he would not only be a strong candidate, but a successful President. When I was Secretary of State, I offered him the position of Assistant Secretary, and although I was anxious to secure his services in my department, I could but acknowledge the wisdom of his request and the excellence of his judgment in preferring to continue his law practice to taking a subordinate position. I was glad when he came to the Cabinet, and there has not been a clearer executive officer in the scope of my knowledge. His judgment is rarely at fault; he is a man of nerve and decision, and he has a faculty of transacting business that is admirable."

Evarts further said: "The unanimous wish of the people to have the name of Lincoln upon the Presidential ticket would, in case of a deadlock between the candidates, be uppermost in the mind of every delegate, and if it was decided that neither Arthur nor Blaine could be nominated, existing prejudices would make it impossible for Edmunds, Sherman or any other man of similar prominence to secure a concentration of strength. It must be a new man without antagonism, and a man of national popularity. Who else answers that description so well as Lincoln?

"History often repeats itself," continued Mr. Evarts, "and the scene at Chicago in 1884 may be a repetition of that of 1860. I was a delegate from New York to the convention 24 years ago and went there to secure the nomination of William H. Seward. There was a bitter contest among the Presidential candidates, but it was conceded that Abraham Lincoln would be the nominee for Vice-President. When it was found that the principal candidates were determined to kill each other off and that the fight was so bitter that no compromise could be reached upon any of them, every delegate was anxious to seize upon the first excuse to break the deadlock, and Abraham Lincoln was nominated with a whirl. Robert Lincoln is much better known to this country than his father was then. He has had more experience in public life, and there is less reason to doubt either his strength with the people or his executive capacity. There is a great deal of enthusiasm in his support for the Vice-Presidency, and if the deadlock occurs and relief from responsibility be sought by the convention, it will be easy and natural for them to promote him to the first place."

A WASHINGTON dispatch says: "Sargent writes from Berlin: My intercourse with my colleagues has been all I could desire. On the whole, I enjoyed my two years here, and have nothing to regret except the persecution to which fate condemned me. As that seems happily ended, I now look back upon it as a nightmare vanishing in the morning!"

WE have just received from the publishers, J. Dewing & Co., San Francisco, a book entitled "Travels in Mexico," by F. A. Ober, author of "Camps in the Caribbees." The work is a large volume of some 658 pages of heavy paper, fine illustrations, nicely bound, and very interesting and valuable for the information it contains. Mr. Ober is a good descriptive writer, with a quick eye for the picturesque and a keen appreciation for the many peculiar phases of Mexican character. He gives an admirable idea of the country, of its fertility of soil and wealth of vegetation and the wretched methods of agriculture. The book throughout is full of good reading. One chapter in particular, "The Mexican at Home," is well worth the price of the entire volume. The concluding chapter, on "Sonora and the Apache Country," will commend itself to the Western man, as it has some vigorous criticims on the Government's Indian policy. Mr. Ober was at Cottonwood Springs, A. T., when Cook came in with the captured Apaches, and describes what transpired. J. Dewing & Co. want an agent for the work in this county.

THAT consumption is infectious is now a very generally accepted belief, which has just received additional confirmation from the investigations of the British Medical Association. A committee appointed sent circulars to the medical profession of the United Kingdom, asking for opinions and experiences respecting the infection of the disease. The number of replies received was something over 1,000. Of these more than 500 physicians declined to give a decided opinion; 261 gave affirmative replies, and cited instances in support of their theory that consumption is a germ disease and directly infectious; the balance were negative and doubtful answers. Although the evidence gained is comparatively little, it is startling enough to make anyone think twice before exposing himself unnecessarily to the chance of contagion.

Twenty first course, running from said post marked "M B D No. 21" south eighty nine (89) degrees fifty eight (58) minutes east, fifty-eight (58) chains and ninety nine (99) links to said post marked "M B D N. 54 A," the place of beginning, containing 588 15 100 acres

Said "Mineral Monument No 40" is composed of durable sandstone, four feet long, set two feet in the ground and being six inches square at the top, whereon is fastened a brass plate marked "M M N. 40. S S W S B M" and situated on the summit of a smooth rounded hill about one hundred and thirty (130) chains south of "Furnace Wash," which said hill has an altitude of about one thousand (1000) feet above the said wash. Said "Mineral Monument No. 40" is situated at a point described in said Field Notes of survey as being six hundred and thirty three (633) chains and ninety one (91) links east, and one hundred and ninety five (195) chains and fifteen (15) links south of the Township corner in the San Bernardino Meridian between Townships twenty six (26) and twenty seven (27) north. From said "Mineral Monument No 40" a stake marked "M B D N 31," at the northwest corner of the "Grand Borate Deposit Mine" and on the south boundary of the said "South Meridian Borate Deposit Mine," bears south forty two (42) degrees forty (40) minutes west. A stake marked "M B D No 28 B" being a common corner of the "Town and Borate Deposit Mine" and this the "South Meridian Borate Deposit Mine," bears north fifty seven (57) degrees thirty five (35) minutes east, distant thirty one (31) chains and eleven (11) links, and "Mineral Monument No. 37" bears north thirty six (36) degrees ten (10) minutes west, distant about two hundred and seventy seven (277) chains and fifty hundredths (50 100) of a chain; "Mineral Monument No 34" bears from said "Mineral Monument No 40" north thirty nine (39) degrees two (2) minutes west; "Furnace Butte" bears north twenty seven (27) degrees ten (10) minutes east, and "Monte Blanco" bears north forty two (42) degrees fifty (50) minutes west from said "Mineral Monument No 40"

Said SOUTH MERIDIAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE herein sought to be patented, consists of those certain borax mining locations designated respectively as the S. M. B. B. Location; the R. N. Schwander Location; the W. T. Coleman Location and the J. W. S. Perry Location, all duly recorded in "Liber A" at folios 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35 and 36 of the records of said Monte Blanco Borax and Salt Mining District, kept at the Mining Recorder's office in said District, the same being also recorded at pages 271, 272, 273 and 274 of "Book D" of Land, Water and Mining Claims—Kept at the office of the County Recorder at Independence, Inyo county, California.

Said "SOUTH MERIDIAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" is adjoined upon the north by the "Meridian Borate Deposit Mine," and upon the south by the "Lowland Borate Deposit Mine."

Said application for a U. S. patent is made pursuant to the terms of Chapter VI of Title XXXII, of the Revised Statutes of the United States and the laws of Congress providing for the disposal of mineral lands in the public domain.

Any adverse claims must be duly filed in this office within sixty (60) days from date of first newspaper publication of notice hereof, or they will be barred under the law.

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:
SATURDAY, APRIL 12.....1884

PERSONAL—Dr. Stevenson was professionally called to Darwin Thursday morning....O. I. Mairs left to-day for Carson and Virginia City, to be gone a few days. Omie has been yanking that express box and those mail bags out before daylight for a long time, and though we don't like to lose him for even so short a time, we know a few days' rest will do him good. [LATER.—He hadn't traveled but half a mile or so when he found that he had left his ticket behind; therefore he got off and meandered back to the station. Agent Jones telegraphed his genial driver, Walter Ober, to the effect that there was a passenger at the depot who must come to town immediately, and who would give $10 for a fast buggy team. Thereupon, Walter hitched up Omie's best, and drove down like John. We presume his remarks on finding Omie were such as are not usually found in Sunday School literature.]... H. Levy took a trip to Lone Pine Thursday. He says there was a scarcity of beer when he had been there a few hours... Mrs. H. A. Man, wife of Agent Man of Bishop Creek station, who has been very ill for a week past, we are glad to learn is convalescing....Miss Julia Cook returned home Monday last after a few days visit with Miss Clayton at the Depot....A nephew of Henry Fehrman, from Elgin, Ill., left for the latter place Thursday morning, after a short visit with his uncle... Louie Munzinger has gone home to Bishop Creek. He left just in time to save the life of Joe Fernbach, whom he came very near worrying to death. Joe says he would rather have a pet bear with a sore head around him than Louie. Now we think Louie is one of the most jovial companions imaginable ....Frank Silva, who sold the group of mines at Darwin, recently, to the Southern Development Company, for the snug little sum of $10,000, was on our streets this week....Mr. Lawrence and family have moved out to the Barrows ranch, and Mr. Barrows now makes him home at the Blaney House ....Mrs. Galvin, of the Depot, paid a visit to her friends in Independence Monday and Tuesday ...Charles H. Groves will leave us to-morrow for Lone Pine, where he goes to take charge of the public school ...Miss Thomson, late teacher of the Darwin school, went to that point yesterday, at the request of the parents of her late pupils, as several of the latter are seriously sick....Geo. Thorpe started yesterday for the new Greenly mill, on Cottonwood Creek... N. G. Fairman, of New York, registered at the Blaney House this morning ...Colonel Bolinger has been in town most of the week.

ASSESSORS' MOVEMENTS.—Assessor J. C. Irwin keeps on the move. He has been on the road almost constantly for more than a month. Deputy Assessor H. H. Welsh returned from the extreme lower end of the county Tuesday, after a horseback ride of eighteen days, the lowest number of miles accomplished in one day being 16, and the highest 52. He arrived here considerably bruised, but satisfied with the work done. Harry left for Bishop Creek Wednesday.

COURTING.—The case of Munzinger, Phillippay & Co. vs. Joseph Rowan et al., brought a number of people down from Bishop Creek this week. Among others, we noticed arrival of Geo. M Gill and wife, C. L. Van Epps, C. E. Van Eps, Geo. W. Barden, Geo. Davis, L. Munzinger, Wm. J. Phillippay, M. McIver, Joseph Rowan, John Clark, Henry Banker, Joe Lopez, A. Spencer, W. C. Brierly.

MEETING POSTPONED.—Owing to the inclement weather, but few people were at the Court-house Wednesday evening to attend the Prohibition meeting. Sickness in the family of Mr. Bell, the Chairman, prevented him from attending, and, waiting a few minutes after the appointed time for opening, Mr. Hardy, the Secretary, adjourned the meeting until next Wednesday evening.

ASTRONOMICAL.—There are seven planets visible above the horizon in the early evening. They are situated in the following order, beginning at the western horizon: Mercury, Neptune, Venus, Saturn, Jupiter, Mars and Uranus. Neptune and Uranus cannot be seen with the naked eye, and Mercury is so close to the sun that it cannot be readily seen.

RETURNED.—The Hawthorne Herald says: "Frank Hutchinson, a former resident of Bishop Creek, has returned from the Indian Territory. He gives a glowing description of the Territory, its adaptability to grain and stock raising, fruit climate, etc. He will shortly return accompanied by William Gill.

AT HIS OLD POST.—Dana Brown, who was Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger on the Carson & Colorado Railroad about a year ago, but left and went on the Central Pacific, has returned to his old position on the C. and C. He will have a many hand-shake with the boys, who will be glad to see him.

DEEP SPRINGS.—The road across the Inyos from Alvord to Deep Spring Valley is now passable for loaded teams. Sam Piper lately pounded out of about ten pounds of rock nearly $80 worth of gold. He has got by the process about three quartz of nearly pure "dust" from his claim near Oasis.

GOOD EATING STATION.—The table set by Gus. Thede, at Bishop Creek station, on the C. and C. Railroad, is one of the best on the line of the road. Everything about the house is kept neat and clean, and the victuals dished up in fine taste and style.

CHANGE IN TIME.—We are informed that a radical change will occur on or about the 15th inst. It is very probable that the north train will pass Independence some time in the early evening. South C. and C. train about the same.

PROHIBITION AT BISHOP.—There was a large meeting of citizens of Bishop Creek on the 4th, at the M. E. Church. The meeting was called to order by W. P. George, who stated the object of the meeting A. Wayland was then called to the Chair. An effort was made to secure a Secretary, but resulted in a failure; therefore, we could only get a very unsatisfactory report of what was said and done. W. P. George was introduced as the lecturer, and entered into the subject of prohibition with a spirit. The gentleman recited instance after instance of the downfall of kings, priests and nations, caused by the free use of ardent spirits. He quoted Ancient History profusely to substantiate the fact that unless we as a nation adopt measures to put a stop to this terrible curse—alcohol—would soon be listed among the fallen. He made an excellent talk. Rev. L. Case then spoke for a few minutes, giving his audience a talk ringing with straight, out-and-out prohibition sentiments. Resolutions were then adopted carrying out the idea of Dr. R. H. McDonald, the champion of Prohibition on this coast, and a candidate for the Presidency. There were about twenty signers, most of whom were ladies.

MARRIED.—In San Francisco, on the 5th instant, a couple of well-known and very popular young society people, Mr. Thos. Webb and Miss Nettie, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Thompson, were united in matrimony. Rev. E. J. Lyon tied the nuptial knot, while Miss Eva L Shepherd of George's Creek and Mr. George Gregory of Lone Pine officiated as bridesmaid and groomsman. THE INDEPENDENT heartily joins in the general congratulations bestowed upon the happy pair, who have arrived here and will make their home in the new residence of Thos. Parker, Esq.

STRUCK IT RICH.—Yesterday we received the following note from John Anton and M. C. Lasky: "We have struck it rich in the Carson mine. We send you a piece of ore from the new find, taken from the bottom of the shaft, which is at a depth of 65 feet. The ore vein is 18 inches in width." The "piece" weighs about 50 pounds and free gold can be seen all over it with the naked eye. Many persons familiar with the ores around Chrysopolis, where the mine is situated, viewed the sample yesterday and pronounced it to be very rich.

FROST.—A regular old-fashioned white frost visited this section Thursday night doing much damage to our fruit trees. Owing to the fact that the weather was cold and stormy until late this year, it was predicted that it would hold the trees back long enough to escape the frost, but we are sorry to say the prediction proved untrue, and the chances seem to be very slim for much of a fruit crop around Independence. At Bishop Creek, however, there is some show for a fair yield, as the trees are not in the blossom yet.

SUPERIOR COURT.—In the Superior Court during the week past, George Thorpe and George Davis were duly admitted to citizenship. In the matter of Munzinger, Philippay & Co. vs. Van Epps & Barden, the whole week has been consumed in the examination of witnesses, varied by frequent sharp controversies between counsel. It is thought that the evidence will be concluded to-night. The action was brought to recover $1,086 for cash and supplies furnished to the Sacramento mine management.

VERY LOW.—Duncan Campbell, Sr., who was brought into Lone Pine last Saturday with a severe attack of pneumonia, is still very low, but his condition somewhat improved from what it was two days ago. Last Thursday his attorney, John W. P. Laird, was called to his bedside and the sick man made his will. [Just as we go to press, a messenger arrives bringing the sad intelligence that the good old man has passed through the Valley of Death.]

A CORRECTION.—Having read the dispatch in the Chronicle relating to her petition to Congress for the Camp Independence property, Miss Thomson requests us to correct a mistake therein. Instead of reading "that she has several younger brothers and sisters to support," the young lady says the original petition reads: "that she has several younger brothers and sisters that she helps to support."

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday morning while Tom Webb was unloading meat from his wagon, in front of his market, the team started and made quite a lively runaway. They left the wagon hung up on a tree in front of Walker's boot shop and took for the hills. No damage except to the wagon, and that is only slight. The runaways were captured about half a mile from town.

NOTICE TO VACATE.—Capt. Humphreys, A. A. Q. M., at the Persidio, arrived in town this morning and proceeded at once to Camp Independence. We understand he went there for the purpose of notifying squatters to leave Camp Independence Reservation. Who he will include in the list, we are not as yet informed.

SCARLET FEVER.—Dr. Stevenson returned from Lookout this morning, where he was called to attend Georgie Morrissey and Charlie Fitzgerald. The former little one died before the doctor reached there, and the latter child is sick. Both children were attack with scarlet fever in its worst form.

APRIL SHOWERS.—"April showers bring forth May flowers." Such being the case, Inyo county will blossom like the rose next month, refreshing showers having fallen here the past week.

FIXING THE TRACK.—Roadmaster J. W. Haynie, with thirty odd men and a gravel train, is doing some effective work near Benton, filling in gravel and otherwise guarding against any future washouts.

I. O. G. T.—This Lodge will meet at their hall at 7½ o'clock this evening.

WHEATON CASE.—Sheriff Gregg was out last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday after jurymen to try the case of W. H. Wheaton, which comes before Judge Hanah next Monday.

THERE is a probability of the establishment of postal relations between Mexico and the United States similar to those existing between this country and Canada.

THE Los Angeles Postoffice, is allowed $5,500 for annual expenses, while the Oakland office is allowed $7-500, doing a third less business.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT IN AND FOR THE County of Inyo, State of California.

In the matter of Elisha Mallory, an insolvent debtor.

Elisha Mallory having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, by which it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Elisha Mallory is hereby declared to be insolvent.

The Sheriff of the County of Inyo is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said Elisha Mallory, debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to him, or to any person, firm or corporation or association for his use. The said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property, until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Hon. John A. Hannah, Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Inyo, in open Court, at the Court room of said Court, in the town of Independence, in the County of Inyo, on the SEVENTH day of APRIL, 1884, at 10 o'clock A. M. of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered that the order be published in THE INYO INDEPENDENT, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the town of Independence, County of Inyo, as often as the said paper is published before the said day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered that in the meantime all proceedings against the said insolvent be stayed.

JOHN A. HANNAH, Superior Judge.

Attest: JOHN CROUGH, Clerk.

Shot Through the Heart.

A great battle was in progress, when a large division under Gen. Gary came on the field. Hereported to Gen. Thomas. All day long the tide of battle had turned, first in favor of the north, then of the south. Gen. Thomas pointed to a certain pass and said: "I want your men to hold that. If they can do it, victory is ours." They formed, and there they stood, like animated granite. Time and again the rebels came at them but could not break the line. At length Gen. Gary gave the word "Up and at them, boys!" And with a shout the Union men charged down on the flying rebels. Dying men heard the shouts of victory and waved thier feeble arms. In the evening the generals were congratulating each other, and there was a call for Gary, who saved the day. At last he was found sitting dejected in his tent, and to the messenger who came to summons him to receive the congratulations of his general, he said; "I am shot through the heart; you must excuse me".

"But I thought you escaped without a scratch."

Without a word Gen. Gary drew aside the flap of the tent, and there lay the body of his boy, who had been pierced through the heart by a bullet while making that charge.

Such Is Life.

Bill Nye is a lucky, and an unlucky dog. He picked up a bit of paper on which was inscribed 2684. He bought a lottery ticket of the same number and drew $20,000.

This he invested in a gold mine and at the end of six months he took the poor debtor's oath. He then came to Cape May, and while walking on the beach he saw a young lady sinking for the last time. He rescued her and recieved $1,000 from her rich father.

That night he fought the tiger and had to borrow a quarter to get a breakfast. He then took a job to put up a telephone wire, and while doing so hit upon an idea which he sold to the company for $5,000. He spent $3,000 in solving the worthlessness of a new electric light. He concluded for the first time in life that he would salt the balance down in good real estate and so he bought a farm and went to work. He resolved to dig a well, and the third dry he struck a vein of coal, and has been offered $50,000 for one-half of his farm.

In boring for water near Snake River, about forty-five miles from Dayton, Oregon, recently, a stratum of frozen earth was encountered at a depth of fifty-five feet. Passing through this for five feet, numerous cavities were found, from which cold air came in gusts. The escaping air at the bottom of the well can be heard roaring at some distance. It is not possible for any one to hold his hand over the wall for any length of time without freezing it, and a bucket of water let down into the well was frozen over in a few minutes. Work on the well has been abandoned on account of the extreme cold.

FRED DOUGLAS denies the report that his wife pulls the wool over his eyes.

What Bill Nye Thinks about Women's Voting.

Weeks and months before election in Wyoming the party with the longest purse subsidises the most livery stables and carriages. Then on the eventful day every conveyance available is decorated with a political placard and driven by a polite young man, who is instructed to improve the time. Thus every woman in Wyoming has a chance to ride once a year at least.

Lately, however, many prefer to walk to the polls, and they go in pairs, trios and quartets, voting their little sentiments and calmly returning to thier cookies and crazy quilts as though politics didn't jar their mental poise a minute.

It is possible, and oven probable, that a man and his wife may disagree on politics as they might on religion. The husband may believe in Andrew Jackson and a relentless hell, while his wife may be a stalwart and rather liberal on the question of eternal punishment. If the husband manages his wife as a clothes wringer, and turns her through life by a crank, he will no doubt work her politically, but if she has her own ideas about things she will natuarlly act on them, while the man who is henpecked in other matters till he can't see out of his eyes will be henpecked, no doubt in the matter of national and local politics.

These are a few facts about the actual workings of female suffrage were to become generals. I do not intend to say as to that. I know a great deal, but I do not know that. There are millions of women, no doubt, who are better qualified to vote and yet cannot than millions of alleged men who do vote, but no one can tell now what the ultimate effect of a change might be.

So far as Wyoming is concerned the territory is prosperous and happy. I see, also, that a murderer was hanged by due process of law there the other day. That looks like the onward march of reform whether female suffrage had any thing to do with it or not. And they're going to hang another in March if the weather is favorable and executive clemency remains dormant, as I think it will. All these things look hopefull. We can't tell what the territory would have been without female suffrsge, but when they begin to hang men by law instead of by moonlight, the future begins to brighten up.

When you have to get up in the night to hang a man every little while and don't get any per diem for it, you feel as though you were a good way from home.

Not Alarmed.

There was a dispute one day in the Vermont village where Ethen Allen lived as to how far his well-known courage would permit him to go in deeds of daring. The dispute finally resulted in a wager being proposed to Allen. The terms were that he should go to a graveyard on a dark, rainy night, without a lantern, enter a certain vault open a certain coffin, and lay his hand on the skull of the skeleton within. His word was to be taken as the guarantee of the performance. When the dark night came not a few of Allen's friends thought that his courage would fail him.

But he went to the graveyard, entered the tomb, groped his way in the dark to a coffin, took off the lid, and laid his hand on the skeleton's skull.

Just then a sepulchral voice exclaimed, "That's my skull."

"All right," thought Allen, who suspected that someone had followed him to see if he could frighten him. "I'll show him what I can do."

He replaced the lid, and opening another coffin, placed his hand on his hand on his skull. Again was heard the voice saying— "That's my skull." "That's a lie!" exclaimed Allen, "No man ever had two skulls" From that day the villagers believed that Ethen Allen's courage was bounded by no human limitations.

AND NOW comes Jessie Benton Fremont with a new book in which she says she intends to give a fireside study of the political life of her time.

THE New York Legislature has has had as strong a rustle with oleomargerine as the average boarder has with strong butter.

NOTHING TO BE HAD.

In 1880 Gen. Kilpatrick was one of the Republican stumpers of Maine. Senator Blaine was chairman of the State committee. One day several stumpers met at Mr. Blaine's house in Augusta, to get new orders and take a fresh start. Blaine said to Kilpatrick: "I want you to go to Dumfort. You know we have a prohibitory law in Maine and you have probably found out that it is not always observed. But nearly everybody admits that in Dunforth it is strictly lived up to. Opinion is all one way there and I want you to say something about temperance in your speech. "All right," said the general, and off he started. Arrived at Dunforth a committeeman met him, and the first word he said was "General, this is a strict prohibition town, and we would like to have you say something about temperance in your speech, but as you are an old army man, and may feel the need of a little stimulus, I have brought along this"—and he produced a bottle. Arrived at the hotel, the landlord took the general to one side, and said: "You know we are very strict temperance people here but you being a stranger here"—and produced from a chest a bottle and glass. A colored man showed the general to his room, and in his privacy said: "Boss, you know we don't have anything to drink here but if you want somethin' I can get it for you, boss." Kilpatrick had several more adventures before he left Dunforth, and declared that in the strictest of all prohibition towns he got more invitations to drink than during all ihe rest of his campaign. We feel sure that Kilpatrick went to his grave believing that prohibition does not prohibit.

Misery Likes Company.

Extract from a letter of an Inyoite who has been a victim to the late break in stocks, to another victim in San Francisco, describing the situation: Here there is consternation, indignation and people of every nation cursing thier want of consideration for not in time securing such remuneration as would place them in high station compared with most of the creation. And such is the situation that in our desperation we partake more freely of the libation which causes dissipation, inebriation and degradatin. I am sorry the culmination of this speculation has not resulted in more remuneration and it adds to my exasperation to think of the commendation in general conversation when describing the merits of the inflation. It has been the ruination of our population and will cause unprecedented emigration from this mountain habitation. Yours

"WITH CONSOLATION."

The Chances You Take.

The Cœur d'Alene Nugget of last week says: We do not know and cannot know for three months or more, what future historians will write concerning this place.

One we have no hesitation in saying if you are coming at all, come now. If you have brains and wit and a moderate amouut of shrewdness, or if you have muscle and are not afraid to work, or if you have capital and a fair amont of business talent, your business chances are better now than they will be when there are 10,000 or 20,000 people here instead of 3,000 or 4,000. If you come and go away broke, you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have seen thousands of smarter men than you are, and tens of thousands who are thus as big fools.

They are having serious times in Mexico in resisting the tax levy. Monday all the stores in the city of Mexico and country roundabout closed with the determination of the merchants not to pay. The President, it was rumored, threatened to open the stores forcibly.

THE New York World, which has recently applied to its office four new Hoe perfecting presses, expects a circulation of 100,000 during the approaching campaign.

The Indians of Alaska are said to have used, in making salmon nets, the bulk of 900 miles of telegraph wire, which were laid by the Overland Telegraph Company many years ago, at a cost of $3,000,000.

SATURDAY, APRIL 19.....1884

Last Sunday was the end of Lent, and those who have had the fortitude and moral courage to observe the Lenten season in accordance with the rules of the Christian Church will have just cause for rejoicing, for they must of necessity be benefitted morally as well as physically for having in a measure for a brief period abstained from secular pursuits and given their stomachs a rest.

THE latest trouble with Boston is the "mind cure." The mind cranks claim that there is no such thing as disease, that what is called disease is merely a mental delusion, the result of an unbalanced mind. These mind cures are ready to tackle anything from a supposed headache to a case of cholera, for if there be no such thing as desease one mental hallucination is no worse than another.

THE Philadelphia mint has no mark on its coin. The New Orleans mint puts the letter O under the eagle; the San Francisco mint is marked with the letter S., and the Carson mint uses C. C. under the eagle. The first superintendent of the latter mint was Abe Curry, generally known as Col. Curry, and one of his enemies made a fuss about the Superintendent putting his initials on American coin.

ONE Geo. A. Hamilton, a defaulting employé of U. S. General Land Office at Washington City, was arrested recently in San Francisco by Captain Lees. Hamilton has been up north visiting Portland, Seattle and Victoria, traveling under the assumed name of E. B. Rodgers, and representing himself as a St. Louis merchant. He abstracted about $75,000 of government money, and of this amount $40,000 which was deposited in San Francisco banks, has been recovered by Captain Lees.

The Genoa, (Nev.) Courier says the sheep-shearing season has ended at that place, and the wool shipments made are as follows: Mr. Hubbard shipped sixty-seven sacks, containing in all 18,480 pounds; Mr. Talbot shipped thirty-one sacks, containing 9,185 pounds. He also shipped four bundles of pelts. Dunn shipped twenty-nine sacks, containing 6,613 pounds. All of this wool was consigned to Snoobert, Beale & Co., of San Francisco. In all about 15,000 sheep were sheared here this season.

THE San Jose Charter election, which took place on Monday of this week, resulted as follows: Republicans elected Mayor, three Councilmen, two School Trustees and Street Commissioner; and the Democrats elected City Treasurer, Chief of Police, one Councilman and two School Trustees. The so-called Law and Order party, who polled about two hundred and fifty votes, supported Settle the Republican candidate for Mayor, thus electing him by nine mrjority. The vote for Mayor stood: Settle (Rep.) 1,174, Martin, (Dem.) 1,165.

The season of Presidential booms is coming on early; in fact it threatens to be upon us before the early strawberry has lost its suspicious twang of vinegar. The leading places are conceded to Blaine and Tilden, yet what the Summer will bring forth no man knoweth. The big boom of to-day may be shrunk to a shadow by the time the first frosts fall. Blaine appears to be more popular than he was four years ago, and if he can placate some of his enemies he may yet win the coveted honor. As for Tilden, it rests mainly with himself. If he says plainly that he wants it, we think the Demoracy will give it to him out of hand—for the very good reason that they have no other man who combines so many elements of strength. He would present a startling contrast to their last candidate—"a good man who weighs 250 pounds."

AT a recent meeting of our California Fish Commissioneas, held in Sacramento, Commissioner Dibble made an interesting statement of his latest official experience on the Truckee river. He found several fish obstructions in the Truckee river, the worst being at the Foulk dam, near Verdi Station which is in Nevada, a short distance across the California line. This dam, acording to Commissioner Dibble, is not provided with a fish ladder or a way of passage of any kind, and formed an insurmountable barrier to the passage of fish up to their natural spawning ground. Thousands of trout are penned back at the Foulk dam. It is the duty of Fish Commissioner Parker, of Nevada to see that fish ladders are placed in the Truckee at the Foulk plsce, and at all other places where they are required, and if his private affairs are such that he cannot attend to his duties as Fish Commissioner, his resignation might be in order.

DIED.

At Darwin, Inyo Co., Cal., April 9th, 1884, George Henry Morrisey, aged 4 years, 1 month and 18 days.

"Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

Little Georgie has been called to his last, long home, and to those whom his infant smiles and bright, joyous ways were given are trying hard to say, "Father, Thy will be done." Although a child he was wise beyond his years, and by his presence here on earth the world is purer and better. Little Georgie was loved by all. The friends of his infant's years, relatives, his little schoolmates, old men, and those hardened by the trials of life, gathered around his last resting place, and tears were shed by those who seldom weep. Let those who remain to mourn his loss be comforted by the thought that he has gone to prepare a place, and is awaiting for them in that heavenly home, where there is no such thing as death. In the golden Springtime of another life, children, relatives and friends, will gather again in sweet reunion, where partings are unknown.

That burst the tender, earthly bud,
Now blossoming near the throne of God

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:

SATURDAY, APRIL 19.....1884

PERSONAL.—Maggie Dalton, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. S. G. Gregg returned to her home in Benton.... Col. Wm. A. Bolinger has returned to Chrysopolis to dig for hidden treasures....Kit. Johnson and Geo. W. Burden came down from Bishop Creek Thursday night on horseback and returned home yesterday....L. Munzinger, Wm. J. Phillippay and C. E. Van Eps attended court this week. Miss Minnie Thomson arrived from Darwin this morning, where she has been visiting the sick....George M. Gill and wife have returned to Bishop Creek....Crit Hampton lent us a helping hand this week....B. L. Row arrived from Hawthorne Monday....Jas. Mitchell, Thos. Beasley, J. R. Johnson and James Jones, all of Big Pine, were in town this week.

FAILED TO AGREE.—The case of the State vs. W. H. Wheaton, charged with grand larceny, went to the jury at four o'clock, P. M., Tuesday, and they pulled and hauled each other around until nine A. M. Wednesday—19 hours—when they convinced themselves and the Court that they could not agree, and were discharged. The Court ordered a new venire of forty jurors to issue, placed the same in the hands of the Sheriff, and set the cause for next Tuesday, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

DEATH VALLEY.—The Los Angeles Express says that Colonel Olmstead, one of the mining men of Daggett, and long an expert, sends in flattering reports from the Lava Beds, in that vicinity. The King mine is also turning out plenty of bullion. The Ibex Company, in Death Valley, have shipped $60,000 worth of bullion during the month of March, although supplies and material are scarce, owing to the wet desert.

SUBMITTED.—The case of L. Munzinger, et. als. vs. C. L. Van Epps, et. als., which occupied the attention of Judge Hannah all of last week, with J. W. P. Laird as attorney for plaintiffs and S. D. Woods, George M. Gill and A. R. Conklin for the defense, was submitted to the Court yesterday morning.

AMONG the political announcements this week appear the following: For Sheriff, Mr. S. G. Gregg, an old resident and present Sheriff. Mr. J. S. McGee, of Bishop Creek, also one of Inyo's pioneers. For County Clerk, the familiar name of W. L. Hunter is before the public.

RICH STRIKE.—Wm. Crapo has struck it rich on Buena Vista Mountain, Cerro Gordo. He run up against a 4-foot ledge of 350 ounce ore last week, so Mr. R. C. Spear informs us. Mr. Crapo has been working for years to develop this mine, and at last has been rewarded.

ON BUSINESS.—Newton M. Bell, special agent for W. T. Coleman, arrived in town this morning on business for Mr. Coleman. Mr. Bell called at the office and we found himto be a gentleman of education, culture and rare business qualifications.

MOONLIGHT RIDE.—Wash Brierly J. P., who has been a sort of Handy Andy, chief mixologist, cook and general utility man around Irwin's, Mair's, and the Blaney House for the two weeks prior to last Monday, took a moonlight ride to Bishop Creek Monday night.

MORE WATER PIPE.—Messrs. Harris & Rhine have received two more six-horse loads of pipe to be used in conveying water from springs in the foothills, about seven miles distant, to supply the town. There are about 80 tons to arrive yet.

SIXTY FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.—Next Saturday, the 26th, will be the sixty-fifth anniversary of the introduction of Oddfellowship in America, and Inyo Lodge No. 301 will celebrate the occasion with a social dance at the Court-House.

CHANGE.—Mr. Edward J. Reynolds has arrived in Lone Pine from Kern county, and has assumed charge of the Lone Pine Hotel, better known as the Barnes Hotel. He will henceforth conduct this popular resort.

NOTED ARRIVALS.—S. Braunhardt, one of the framers of the New Constitution, now traveling for the firm of Harris Bros., tobacconists, was on our streets yesterday talking Kearnyism.

HANDSOME SPECIMENS.—Superintendent Frank Fitzgerald sent up some handsome specimens this week from the Modock mine to J. R. Eldred. They can be seen at the Blaney House.

SERIOUS ILLNESS.—We are pleased to state that Mrs. J. Reynolds, of Eclipse—who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is recovering, and is now considered out of danger.

OFF FOR PANAMINT.—Steve. Terrell and John Thomas, better known in Bodie as "old Triggly," left here the first of this week to work in the mines at Panamint.

MADE A CITIZEN.—Giometti Angelo, a native of Italy, was made a citizen of the United States this week, having taken out his final papers.

SCHOOL CLOSED.—The Big Pine school, under the management of Mr. Crittenden Hampton, has closed, after a seven month's term.

CHANGE OF TIME.—Under our new advertisements will be found the revised time-table of the Carson and Colorado Railroad.

BLOODED STOCK.—Within the past two weeks a number of blooded stallions have come into our county.

A Letter from "Pap."

EDITOR INDEPENDENT:—While the balance of this State of California is boiling over with excitement to know what our legislators are going to do for us in their extra session, Olancha is calm and unmoved, for we know that while the Hon. Pat, Reddy occupies a seat in that convention, things have got to run about right, or the people will hear from him. And we know that all the money that railroad kings have, will not buy him, and all their understrappers and hirelings cannot bully him, or keep him from doing his duty to his constituents. Neither will he sit still end allow bogus Democrats to eulogize a Republican trickster that never did an honest action in his political career, except trying to sell pork to Bismarck, and to make a failure of that. If the people at the next election will only place the reins of our government in the hands of just such men as the Hon. Pat. Reddy, the team will be driven in a steadier gait, every horse will pull together, and no kicking when the tax collector comes around. We are satisfied that there is enough of the Hon. Pat. Reddy stripe in that convention to make the R. R. magistrates come to the conclusion that it is to their interest to pay their just taxes in the future, quit robbing the people, and redeem and the past by being honest.

We were highly pleased to see that our representative Keeler was voting with the anti-monopolists, and hope he will continue to do so, and when the time comes to kick our R. R. Commissioners Messrs. Humphry and Carpenter out of office he will have no hesitation in giving a good kick.

And by the way, as there are two thousand five hundred checks flying around, it may cause a few more to kick.

That's the true way to make reformation, and reformation we must have, if it takes all summer. And we are going at our next convention to commence it by placing our best men before the people for elecion.

Yours. PAP.

Answer to the so-called Attempted Land Grab.

As I am the young lady whose truthfulness and integrity were so boldly assailed in an editorial published in last week's issue, I consider it necessary to answer in my own defense.

In petitioning for the Central Post of Camp Independence, I was influenced by no persons. The petition was for my own benefit, and I consider my right to said land as good as that of any speculator, or others, who are trying to obtain the same. In that article it states, that my petition is filled with misstatements of facts. I wish to inform the author of the same, that I never have, wilfully, told a falsehood either for myself or for the benefit of others; all the statements made in my petition are strictly true and correct. I help to support my two younger sisters and a younger brother. Consequently, I petitioned for a home for them and not for any designing person.

Camp Independence consists of 120 acres; of which, 5 acres are sown in alfalfa, and the remainder is in a rude state of cultivation.

The ornamental trees are cottonwood and locust, which the present custodian is chopping down for firewood as fast as he can. The shrubbery and trees consist of a few grape vines, peach and plum trees; a number of these have mysteriously disappeared during the last few years.

Mr. C. A. Walter, my step-father is getting to be an aged man and his home is his own. Therefore it is my duty to try to get a home for my brother and sisters. I have always been in favor of having the Post donated to Inyo County for school purposes, but whenever a petition has been forwarded to Congress asking for its donation a remonstrance has always been sent against it, as the people feared heavy taxation to support a school.

HERRMINE THOMSON.

A TALKING MATCH.—I take the liberty to report a talking match, go as you please, which was witnessed by many interested persons. Mr. Ezra Goodale, backed by Geo. M. Gill, was pitted against M. M. Glenn, backed by Dan. Crough. The match proceeded. J. Richardson was appointed referee. Col. Bolinger interfered several times, but the referee kept him at bay. If talk was'nt cheap, why this would be a "busted communinity." Well, they proceeded, and kept on, and held out, said it over, gesticulated, observed and remarked. Finally nothing was heard but whispering, and then,—and then,—two speechless men. Mr. Connelly, should have been in town.

WADE.

FROST.—It is now thought that Mr. Jack Frost, who visited this community, with what was thought such damaging effect, did not prove as fatal as was supposed last week, and we now think that little fruit has been killed.

REWARD.—Frank Shaw offers $150 reward for the arrest and conviction of any person stealing his stock.

JUDGE A. R. CONKLIN, Inyo's choice for the Republican nomination for Congress, will leave with his family in a few days for San Francisco. We hope his friends will prevail upon him to allow his name to be used, for with him as the standard-bearer the Republicans of this Congressional District would march on to victory without a doubt. S. D. Woods, a staunch Republican, will go to the Convention from here with our votes, and will stand for Judge Conklin.

OH ye POLITICIANS.—We learn from a reliable source that more than a majority of our voters will offer their services as officials to the "dear people". Come one, "come all & c."

Application for Patent

....FOR THE....

SOUTH MERIDIAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE.

A Placer Claim, Being Survey No. 2,193 Lot No. 37, in Township No. Twenty-Six (26) North of Range No. Two (2) East. San Bernardino Base and Meridian.

UNITED STATES LAND OFFICE, Bodie, California, March 31, 1884.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE "MERIDIAN MINING COMPANY," a corporation of the State of California, having its principal office, postoffice address and place of business in the City and County of San Francisco and State of California, has, by CHARLES L. WILSON, its duly authorized special agent and attorney in fact, who resides at Coleman, in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the county of Inyo and State of California, and whose nearest postoffice address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office its application for a Patent from the United States to it the said Company for its borax placer mining claim bearing borates of lime and borates of soda, containing five hundred and eighty-eight (588) acres and fifteen hundreths (15-100) of an acre, commonly known as and called the "SOUTH MERIDIAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," situated in the Monte Blanca Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California; the said mining claim and premises being now officially surveyed, platted and designated by the United States Surveyor General for California as Survey No. 2,193 Lot No. 37 in (unsurveyed) Township No. twenty-six (26) North, Range Two (2) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, and being more particularly described by metes and bounds in the official plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as follows, viz:—with magnetic variation at 15 degrees 31 minutes East

Oh, Form Not the Habit!

Except by a power that cometh from heaven;
Though formed link by link, drop by drop of the wine,
So easily welded by efforts of thine,
Only God in His mercy can sunder the ties,
And clear the dim mist from thy blood-shotten eyes.

Oh! form not the habit; the Tempter will say
Sweet things to allure, to beguile thee away;
She'll tell thee the goblet is sparkling and bright,
But say naught of adders—their venomous bite;
She'll speak of the roses of health it will bring,
But not ing will say of the serpents that sting.

Though coiled at the bottom all hid from thy sight
Is the viper so dark, neath the surface so bright
She'll beg thee to drink till his fang hath struck deep,
Her vigils no longer she'll then try to keep,
For well doth she know that her victim is bound
With a fiery cable wrapped tightly around.

Oh! form not the habit go not to the brink,
That were easier far than to rise when we sink.
'Twere easier far, happy youth, to say no,
Than to rise from the depths of unspeakable woe.
'Twere easier far to win laurels of fame,
Than to wipe the dark stains from a once tarnished name.

Oh! form not the habit; the drunkard's dark grave,
Oft is reached while he cries I am free, not a slave,
And the echo comes back like the tide of the sea,
A drunkard, no never, no ne'er shall I be.
He cries, I can break, while he rivits the chain,
And sinks 'neath his fetters to rise not again.

Oh "touch not" or "handle", Oh "taste not" the wine,
Though its rubies its beads and its diamonds may shine,
They glitter to light up the same thorny way,
That hath ever led others from virtue away.
Oh form not the habit, the chain is ne're riven,
Except by a power that cometh from heaven.

A Kentucky Sensation.

A Louisville dispatch dated April 19 says: Not since Colonel Duford assassinated Chief Justice Elliot has there been such excitement in Kentucky as has been caused by the cowhiding yesterday of Judge Reid by Lawyer Corneilson, in revenge for a decision unfavorable to the latter, and because of strictures of Corneilson's conduct contained in the opinion of the Court. It is admitted now that Corneilson has no reason for the assault. The wife of Judge Reid, an ambitious and courageous lady, has threatened to whip Corneilson in case her husband does not resent the outrage. At the State capital and all through the Blue Grass region the excitement is at its highest pitch. Corneilson has been hung in effigy at Mount Sterling. A number of Reid's friends have telegraphed for him to fight or withdraw from the race for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

AT Stockton on the 19th, Professor Tassell made a successful balloon ascension. He went up about 1,000 feet and landed several miles east of the city when his baloon got away from him and landed about sixteen miles from town.

Cholera at Calcutta is increasing. There were 257 deaths there last week.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

Cloaks—Jerseys—Materials—April Notes—Lenten Logic.

The Spring cloak is not so large but what room is left for the Easter bonnet on the head, as also the boots on one's feet. Most ladies, however, prefer to show a costume, and here comes in a chance for the mantilla, with very short back and longer ends in front. Damsels and dowagers alike wear this, but scarce suited to the latter is the Jersey jacket, made often of Jersey webbing and fitting with the tight coquettishness of webbing. Good for good figures, for bad figures very bad. Jersey webbing leads us on to jerseys, and here opens before us since we see many so betrigged and betrimmed that they are hardly to be known as jerseys. Interlopings of velvet, or brocaded cuffs, collar and sometimes vest, fancy buttons, braidings often of metal, embroideries, and the like, might destroy a primeval individuality, were it not that its supreme comfort must give it a high niche to itself. Netted waists are a feature, and here with good management one can do much, since the satin surah lining below can be changed to fancy, and one may be successively adored in pink, blue, yellow and any other color, the speculating worshipper supposing it all the while just so many different changes of raiment.

A WORLD OF SPECULATION

MATERIALS.

Captivating is the plain finish of a tailor-made suit, yet, per contra, somewhat annoying is the reapiness with which each spot shows forth because of plainness. Here comes in, then, an opportunity for cheviots, heather mixtures, indistinct stripes and mixed patterns. Among silks Stearn's American are found worthy of the high position accorded them, and this season are brought out chiefly in brocades surahs, showing in variety all stylish ideas. The troublesome search for an offset to the floral pattern has also been obviated by foresight, as each brocade has its complement; for the most part in hair-line stripes as they are more fashionable than solid colored fabric. Velvet will likewise be seen at watering places, and stylish costumes for day or night will be made entirely or in part of the Nonpareil velveteen that is now brought out in all the delicate evening shades; rich hues for daylight having been found to hold color and tone so perfectly through trying influences of sun and dust. Although costing a little more, it is best to purchase the highest grade, which is exactly twenty-four inches wide.

APRIL NOTES.

Easter cards are very popular.—Lace pins are now made to simulate fruits.——Favorite Spring colors are gray, drab and brown.——Collar buttons of old silver with antique heads match bracelets and coin pins.——Stylish hats are trimmed with imitation mushrooms, histles, acorns, pine cones, chestnuts walnuts, apples, gooseberries, and the like.——Society tourists are laying in a supply of Button's Raven Gloss, as they say it is the only shoe dressing that does not injure leather.——Tinted lawns are imbroidered in bronze leaf and hanging fuschia patterns.——All wool tissues are in smoke gray, nut brown, currant red, or bronze.——Now long Lisle thread gloves are finished with two buttons, the part extending on the arm being without an opening.

LENTEN LOGIC.

The mazes of the German have been replaced by riding or walking. Companies of half a dozen might go to a theatre, much being atoned for if they went to bed hungry, while a dozen who took supper afterwards would have been reprehensible. Charity has done much in covering sins, and ladies who refused to go to theatres at all have spent days and nights rehearsing that others might see them perform, while tableaux have vied with the Easter bonnet. Instead of roast beef we have had amateur candy makers, and "little dinners" have been pitted against lunches; both harmless because of littleness. Banjo classes have served as antidotes to homilies and gipsy bazaars to hours of churchly penitence.

IT is reported from Darmstadt that Queen Victoria is suffering from lumbago. She is confined to the palace and receives daily visits from her physicians.

Held Up The Bridge.

The mountain pines of Tuolumne County California have often echoed the sonorous "Woah Buck," of a peculiar individual, who was in early days, engaged in hauling shingles. On this account he became known only by the name of "Shingle Davis." He boasted of great muscular strength, and in fact, this was true. One day while hauling a great load of shingles with his ox-team, he came to a bridge which looked risky. Halting the dust-covered team, he explored the bridge carefully and considered it unsafe,—then, suddenly, a thought struck him; he scrambled down into the gulch, and placing his shoulder under the most important stringer, sang out to the well-trained team above. With creaks and groans the heavy lumbering wagon went over. Then came "Shingle" from under the bridge, and with a smile went on his way.

DISPARAGING MINES.

A gentleman came from the East not long since in the interest of certain capitalists, says the Mining Press, to look into the condition of some mining property belonging to them in a Nevada district. He expresses himself as being very much annoyed by parties who came to him soliciting him to buy mines from them, each one insisting in every instance that nobody's mine was good for anything except the one he offered for sale. However, he was not impressed favorably by having people run down every mine in the camp, as it looked as if all were worthless.

There is little doubt that altogether to much of this thing is done. Let a man once think of buying a claim and he will hear all sorts of damaging statements about the property, circulated by people who have claims to sell, or are jealous of their neighbor's good fortune. They forget that in doing this they also hurt their own claims by injuring the district. Almost every man who has had experience in the mining camps of this coast knows that the sale of a piece of mining property to capitalists who will develop it and put up works, is the one thing which brings a camp into prominence and gives it reputation. When one mine is thus sold, others are given a value they did not previously possess.

We all know how camps have languished for years, until men of means came and bought a mine, when it immediately attracted attention. But when a lot of miners deliberately set to work to abuse a property because it is going to be sold, they frighten off the intended purchasers, and not only do harm to the other mine owners, but to themselves as well. Of course every man has the right to do the best he can to sell or develop his property; but it is poor judgment to pull down somebody's else to build up his own. When a man hears every mine he looks at or knows of set down as worthless by others, he cannot tell when the truth is told. He naturally becomes suspicious of everybody. No doubt very great injury has been done more than once by unthinking men, who, endeavering to help themselves, have hurt the whole community. People should be very careful what they say under such circumstances. The mere heresay of the camp is not always to be taken as the truth by any means.

THE Hill-Sharon case proceeds with its vast amount of filthy evidence. Oh, how it must exalt the morals of a family to have this stench of "Sharon's sweet Rose" made rotten, served up under their noses every morning by the leading bailies. And who reads this? Surely not the élite of our society, the promulgators of virtue or the promoters of religion! Well,—they do. The chaste young lady, the moral young man, heads of familes, ministers, even, (for Beecher's sake), all feel that they have the right to read whatever is published in the leading newspapers. For the sowers it may be profit and fun, but for the reapers, worse than gall.

WM. H. LENT, late mining secretary and son of W. M. Lent, shot himself in San Francisco last Tuesday, dying almost instantly. Deceased was well known in Bodie. The cause which led to the committment of the rash act is not known.

ROBERT. T. LINCOLN, has sent a letter to Hon. Leonard Sweet, saying that he is not a candidate either for Presibent or Vice-President. This leaves a clear field for Blaine, who will probably be nominated on the first ballot.

A. R. CONKLIN will be the Republican nominee for Congress from this district. The party appreciates the fact that they have got to put their strongest man in the field to win the fight.

NINETY-FIVE men will this season be employed in the sawmills owned by D. L. Bliss & Co., at Lake Tahoe, and it is expected that they will prepare for the market 20,000,000 feet of lumber.

A LOCAL war is going on in the State of Guerreo, Mexico, against the Government. At a battle recently at Tapiche the rebels were repulsed with a loss of forty men killed.

THE Republican State Convention will meet at Oakland on Wednesday the 30th instant. The Republcan State Convention of Nevada meets at Virginia City on the same day.

The steamship Alert, of the Greeley relief expedition, arrived in New York on the 22d inst.

THE latest political sensation is the mere mention of Grant as a possible candidate for the Presidency.

THE reported rich gold discovery near Victoria, British Columbia, turns out to be a canard.

UNCLAIMED LAND.

There is a vast amount of unclaimed land in this valley, and valuable too, more than any casual observer could conceive of. Of course, this land would present a far different appearance if it were cleared, irrigated and properly cultivated. Owens river flowing directly through the valley, affords an admirable and convenient means of irrigation. A few enterprising individuals are begining to realize this fact, and to prosper by it too. To a person traveling along the sandy stage-road, or being whirled along by the railroad, with a broad sweep of country on each side, relieved by the rugged though beautiful mountains in the distance, one would hardly suppose that farming was practicable at all.

But upon a careful examination it it will be found that there are thousands of acres of land that could be made very valuable property. The idea that the only valuable land is that which is already cleared, and consequently claimed, is a mistake. It will not be long before this will be conclusively proven. By means of the railroad, connections are established with the outside world, and fertile land cannot go long uncultivated.

GOOD WORK.

The Assembly, on the 14th inst., in order to meet one of the many difficulties the great railroad corporations interpose in the way of the collection of the taxes due by them to the State, unanimously passed a concurrent resolution requesting our Senators and Representatives in Congress to take action to amend the existing law in reference to the transfer of cases to the United States Courts in such a way as to except from the operation thereof all suits brought in the courts of any State to enforce the collection of the revenue of such State, or of any county thereof, and leaving all Federal questions involved, or claimed to be involved in any such suit, to be examined in the Supreme Court of the United States and determined upon a writ of error, as was the settled practice for the first seventy years of our national existence.

SAYS the Bodie Free Press: The outlook is quite promising. There is an improvement in Goodshaw in the south drift on the 600 level; and there are also rumors that the fifteen-inch vein on the 500 level of the Bulwer has a most promising appearance, inducing the belief that there is something valuable near at hand. Since March 4th there has been shipped through Wells, Fargo & Co. $213,500, which any one will admit is a fair output for the number of stamps employed; but to this we may add about $20,000 from the Bodie Consolidated, and $11,000 to $12,000 from the Standard on the first of the week.

THE formal opening session of the Supreme Lodge of the World, Knights of Pythias, took place last Tuesday in Odd Fellows hall New Orleans. On Wednesday the following officers were elected: Grand Chancellor, John Van Valkenberg, Fort Madison, Iowa; Supreme Vice Chancellor, Howard Douglass, Ohio; Supreme Keeper R. and S., Judge R. E. Cowen, Missouri; Supreme Master-At-Arms, G. B. Shaw, Wisconsin; Past Supreme Chancellor, John R. Linton, Jonestown, Pennsylvania.

THE violent and aggressive course "of Boss Buckly," in the way of compelling Democratic Senators at Sacramento to be honest, is said to be paralyzing them with dread and dismay. Of course we refer only to the dishonest men, those who have already sold out, or are haggling for higher prices. There are those among them, such as Reddy, Spencer of Napa, and Murphy, of whom the people may well be proud. —Kern Co. Californian.

THE word Oregon undoubtedly had its root in the Spanish word "oreja" (big ear). For it is probable that the Spaniards, who discovered and visited the country, when they saw the Indians with their ears enlarged by the load of ornaments, were naturally inclined to call them "orejon" (big ears). The nickname first given to the Indians became also the name of the country.

THE Assembly Investigating Committee find that Attorney-General Marshall had no power to compromise the taxes and that his action is null and void. Ex-Attorney-General Hart made the point before the Committee that a judgment for the taxes carried with it, by force of law judgment also for interest, council fees and penalties.

A WALLA WALLA dispatch of April 20 says: The Indians living on Willow Island and other islands in the Upper Columbia river, have again asked the military authorities of Fort Walla Walla for a conference respecting their right to lands which they have occupied for farming purposes.

PRESIDENT ARTHUR last Friday sent to the Senate the nomination of G. C. White, as Postmaster at Carson City, Nevada.

Eighteenth Course—East eighteen (18) chains and eighty-six (86) links to a stake marked "C D No 38" Thence Nineteenth Course—North thirty-four (34) chains and forty (40) links to a stake marked "C D No 37." Thence Twentieth Course—East, at ten (10) chains and six (6) links reach a stake marked "C D M," from which a stake marked "C D N" bears south distant fourteen (14) chains and ninety one (91) links, and at twenty (20) chains and sixty-seven (67) links from said stake marked "C D No 37" reach stake marked "C D No 36 A" at the end of said twentieth course. Thence

Twenty-first Course—North, at six (6) chains reach stake marked "C D No 36" from which the Section Stake on the San Bernardino Meridian between sections seven (7) and eighteen (18) of Township twenty-seven (27) north, range one (1) east bears west, distant one hundred and thirty-two (132) chains and thirty-five (35) links, and at twenty-six (26) chains and twenty (20) links from said stake marked "C D No 36A)" reach a stake marked "C D No 35" at the end of said twenty first course, from which Winter's Peak bears north sixty-nine (69) degrees east. Thence running from said stake marked "C D No 35,"

Twenty-second Course—East thirty (30) chains and sixty-six (66) links to a stake marked "C D No 34." Thence

Twenty-third Course—North twenty (20) chains and fifteen (15) links to a stake marked "C D No 33½" at the northwest corner of this, the "DESERT BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," from which Winter's Peak bears north seventy (70) degrees fifteen (15) minutes east and Chloride Peak bears north fifty (50) minutes east. Thence running from said stake marked "C D No 33½."

Twenty-fourth Course—North eighty-nine (89) degrees forty five (45) minutes east thirty-nine (39) chains and fifty-two (52) links to said Chalk-stone Monument marked "C D No 1, N E Cor," the place of commencement, containing nineteen hundred and twenty-seven (1927) acres and twenty-two hundredths (22 100) of an acre. Said "Mineral Monument No 34" consists of a durable sandstone four (4) feet long set two (2) feet deep in the ground. It is six (6) inches square at the top, whereon is fastened a brass plate marked "N E S W S B M M M No 34," and is situated on the back-bone of a Butte bearing northwest and southeast at a point distant a few chains southeast from the highest point of said butte, which has an altitude of about two hundred (200) feet and a length of about fifty (50) chains; said Butte being situated on the east side of Death Valley and on the margin of the dry bed of the lake.

From said "MINERAL MONUMENT No. 34," "Chloride Peak" bears north one (1) degree fifteen (15) minutes west; Winters Peak bears north sixty-seven (67) degrees forty (40) minutes east; "Telescope Peak" bears south twenty-nine (29) degrees forty (40) minutes west; stake marked "C D No. 3" of the "Winters Borate Deposit Mine," bears north seventeen (17) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west, distant thirty-two (32) chains and ninety-one (91) links; a stone monument marked "C D No 1 at the northeast corner of the "DESERT BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" bears north, distant eleven (11) chains and twelve (12) links; the southwest corner of "Cement Office" bears north seven (7) degrees thirty seven (37) minutes west, distant twenty-one (21) chains; the north bank of "FURNACE WASH" at entrance of wash to valley bears south thirty-one (31) degrees thirty (30) minutes east distant one hundred and eighty-two (182) chains and fifty (50) links; "Cement House" at Greenland bears south fifteen (15) degrees forty (40) minutes east, distant one hundred and seventeen (117) chains and "MINERAL MONUMENT No. 33" bears from said "Mineral Monument Number 34," north nine (9) degrees twenty-four (24) minutes west at the distance of four hundred and forty-two (442) chains and sixty-seven (67) links by traverse calculation.

The above described "DESERT BORATE DEPOSITE MINE" hereby sought to be patented as Survey No. 2154, Lot No. 38, consists of those certain borax mining locations locally known and recorded as "Location No 12," "Location No. 13," "Location No. 14," "Location No. 15," "Location No 16," "Location No. 17," "Location No. 18," "Location No. 19," "Location No. 20," "Location No. 21," "Location No. 22," "Location No. 23," "Location No. 24" "Location No. 25," "Location No. 26," "Location No. 30," and "Location No 31," record whereof may be found at pages from 79 to 174 of Liber A of the Mining Records of said Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, kept at the office of the Mining Recorder in said District, record thereof being also found in "Book C" and "Book D" of "Land, Water and Mining Claims," kept at the office of the County Recorder, at Independence, Inyo County, California.

Adjoining claims unknown, if any such exist. The nearest officially surveyed claim to this on the north being the "WINTERS BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" or "Survey No. 2153," "Lot No. 37 and 38," the southeast corner whereof is situated at a point bearing north twenty-five (25) degrees forty five (45) minutes west, distant twenty-two (22) chains and fifty-five (55) links from the said Chalk-stone Monument marked "C D No 1, N E Cor," at the place of commencement of the foregoing survey and description of this claim.

Attention is called to the Plat and Notice now posted up on said "DESERT BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," or Survey No. 2154. Lot No 38, and to the Plat, Field Notes and other papers on file in this office in said application, for any further description of the said borate placer mining claim and premises so sought to be patented by said "HARMONY MINING COMPANY."

This application is made pursuant to the terms of Chapter VI of Title XXXII of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and the laws of Congress regulating the disposal of mineral lands in the public domain.

Any and all adverse claims to said premises or any part thereof, must be duly filed in this office within sixty (60) days from date of first newspaper publication of notice hereof, or they will be barred under the law.

INYO INDEPENDENT.

INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:

SATURDAY, APRIL 26.....1884

PERSONALS.—Mrs. Fred. Burkhardt, of Lone Pine, has gone to Aurora to visit her parents....J. B. White, of Darwin, paid THE INDEPENDENT office a very pleasant visit this week. He was at the county seat on business.... George M. Gill was in attendance on court Wednesday, but business at Bishop Creek compelled him to return the same evening leaving Judge A. R. Conklin to finish the Wheaton case alone....Thomas Goodale, who fired the first anvil at the birth of the INYO INDEPENDENT, paid us a visit Wednesday. Though that was an age ago, Mr. Goodale remembers the occasion distinctly and is proud to talk of the christening....Ezra Goodale, one of the best single-handed talkers in this county, was on our streets Wednesday ....Frank Shaw, Mr. Summers, Bart McGee, W. C. Brierly and T. T. Cook, witnesses in the Wheaton case, were with us a few days this week... S. D. Woods and Newton M. Bell, were passengers on the C. & C. R. R. for tide water last Sunday. The former gentleman is a delegate to the Republican State Convention, and will not return till after the adjournment of that body ....A. K. Briggs, one of Bishop Creeks leading farmers, was in Independence last Sunday.....Assessor J. C. Irwin went up the country with Bob Love last Saturday. The former gentleman to resume his official duties, and the latter to attend to his dairy business at Bishop Creek....Miss Emma Kemp of Black Rock is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Laird and attending private school. ....S. J. McMurry, of Big Pine, paid this office a visit while here on jury duty this week.

JURORS.—The following named gentlemen were subpoenaed to act as jurymen in the case of The People vs. W. H. Wheaton, charged with grand larceny. The first named twelve were empanelled: W. K. Miller, Wm. P. Bart, Fred. Burkhardt, E. H. Blake, S. J. McMurry, C. E. Adle, Chris. Engle, J. J. Steward, R. Morris, J. G. Bonds, James McCarty, Alexander Clark. W. R. Tibbets, T. S. Hamilton, W. L. Hunter, Geo. H. Palmer, Timothy Richards, Paul Z. Howard, Chas. Levy. John Lucas, J. H. Dodge, Jos. Williams, R. VanDyke, C. S. Swan, Thomas M. Fulton, D. B. Curtis, N. Peterson, S. P. Roberts, J. H. Smith, R. P. Hessian, Fred. Uhlmeyer, John Mullane, George Hall, S. J. Newton, Thos. W. Hill, James McCarty, Thos. G. Beasley, James Mitchell, John Barter—J. R. Turner and John Johnson failed to respond.

MAY-DAY.—"Who is to be crowned Queen of May?" or, will we have any Queen? or, will there be any occasion to crown a Queen? In short, do the people of this beautiful little paradise intend to celebrate, either by a picnic or otherwise? Next Thursday will be May-Day, and according to the good old days when "you and I were young," "Gentle Annie," "The Spring had come, the flowers in bloom," it is time to begin preparations to make glad the hearts of the young folks, if we are going to do anything at all in that direction. Let some of the ladies of Independence take the matter in hand, and have a genuine May-Day picnic for the lads and lassies. We understand Big Pine and Bishop Creek will celebrate with a picnic at both places in the day time and a dance in the evening. Why not in Independence?

SUDDEN DEATH OF ED. GRISWOLD.—In Bodie, about five o'clock Sunday morning, says the Miner, the gentleman occupying the same room with Ed Griswold last Saturday night awoke and found him dead in bed. The physician who was summoned gave his opinion that death was caused by apolpexy. Ed, as he was familiarly called by his numerous friends, was a native of Ohio, and almost thirty-one years of age; he had been employed on the newspapers of Aurora and Bodie for several years; at the time of his death he was connected with the Free Press office.

DARWIN NOTES.—J. B. White informs us that work goes steadily on in the Defiance, Independence, Sterling, Modock and other mines around Darwin, and the outlook is very promising for good results in that district this Summer. Superintendent Fitzgerald will start to crush ore from the Modock about the 10th of next month, and has enough on hand to keep the mill running about thirty days. The Reilly Company have a force of men in their mines, and the mill is kept running steadily. The company will commence to ship bullion in a short time.

ANOTHER RESPITE.—The end of the world is deferred until 1889. A German paper asserts that a slab has been excavated at Obermal, which contains an inscription in Latin, which being translated, means: "When Easter falls on St. Mark's (April 25), and Whit Sunday on St. Anthony's (June 13), all the world will call for help." This interesting conjunction will take place five years hence, a sufficient time for most persons to get themselves in order and their "lamps trimmed."

JUSTICE'S COURT. — The following business came up in Justice Brierly's Court, 1st Township, this week: People vs. Fong Chong, charged with murder. Examination set for Thursday, April 24th. P. W. Forbes attorney for prosecution; Geo. M. Gill, for defense. .... J. H. Muller vs. Schuyler Williams. Trial set for Monday, April 28th.... Mary Malone vs. Geo. L. Drake, Constable; replevin.

MURDER. — At Bishop Creek, last week, a Chinaman named Fong Chong killed one of his countrymen. He had his preliminary examination before Justice Brierly, Thursday, but we have not, as yet, received information as to the result.

PEN PICTURES.

The San Francisco Chronicle describes the scene in the Senate Judiciary Committee room, when the Barry bill was passed, and gives pen pictures of the Senators. Of the Hon. P. Reddy it says: "Reddy—a one-armed giant, the Boanerges of anti-monopoly so full of manly wrath against the railroad company that he cannot allow that any man can defend it and be honest. He was a conspicuous figure in the Constitutional Convention. A natural orator with honeyed tongue, graceful speech and hot fervor, he rises at times to real eloquence. But he is so unwilling to allow any fallacy to pass unchallenged, any bubble unpricked, that he speaks oftener and longer than he should, and makes his splended gifts too cheap. His style of cross-examining a witness reminds one of what Brougham said of Erskine—that he could make any man perjure himself. When the time comes for him to speak on the Barry bill in the Senate he will overwhelm the apologists of monopoly under an invective that will be rare fun to hear."

The Call says of our fellow townsman: "Reddy is a man of imposing physique, and the fact that his right sleeve hangs empty by his side only serves to make his manner more imposing. He is a powerful, aggressive, and fiery speaker, both as to voice and rhetoric, and a very fluent and singularly grammatical one; consequently when the Senator from Mono rises to speak, everyone listens."

RICH ORE.—M. C. Lasky and John Anton came in from Chrysopolis last Sunday, bringing with them some rich ore specimens from the Carson mine. They report the vein widening as they go down, and the quality of the ore grows better as depth is attained. The ledge is now at the least calculation 24 inches in width, and assays way up in the hundreds of dollars per ton. There is every reason to believe that the Carson will turn out to be a bonanza of no small proportions.

SCHOOL CLOSED.—The Bishop Creek school closed last Friday afternoon, with appropriate exercises. The previous week was devoted to written examinations, something entirely new to the pupils. The two standing highest, and getting a hundred in many studies were Ben. Yandell and Hattie Van Epps. The others did well, several coming within one or two of the maximum. The pupils have given general satisfaction, while the school has been all that one could desire.

COMMITTEE MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee, on Saturday, May 17th, at the Court-house, in Independence, for the purpose of filling vacancies in the committee, selecting delegates to the State and Congressional District nominating conventions, and for the transaction of such other business as may be deemed proper and necessary. A full attendance is expected.

DEEP SPRING MINES.—Berry, Broder & Co., are now taking out some remarkably rich gold rock from their mine, the "Gold Coin," in Deep Spring Valley.....Greenly & Co. are at work upon the wagon-road to the "'78" mine, preparatory to hauling the ore from that and adjacent mines to the mill, now soon to be in readiness for business....The Sam Piper mine, in the same locality, continues to "horn out" surprisingly rich, in free gold.

EXAMINATION. — On Monday John Redding, a native of Ireland, and a pioneer of California, was examined by physicians for insanity, and duly committed as a victim of monomania, evinently caused by disease of the brain. John Redding was considered a square man, and we trust that his ailment will yield speedily to the intelligent treatment of the Asylum, and allow him to resume his business.

AN OLD-TIMER IN TOWN.— Frank Hutchinson, better known as "Hutch," an old-timer in this county, and who has lately returned from Indian Territory, came down from Bishop Creek yesterday morning to see his many old friends here before returning to the (as he calls it) paradise of the world. He says Bill Harrell is there, and as happy as a lord.

THE END OF THE FIRST MONTH.—Yesterday was the last day of the first month of our private school, and Monday next will be the commencement of the second. So far, we believe, Miss Northrup, the teacher, has given good satisfaction both to parents and pupils. The average daily attendance is about forty.

THE NEW FURNACE.—J. W. McMurry of Big Pine, was in Deep Spring Valley during last week, perfecting arrangements to move the Montezuma furnace to its new site at Antelope Springs. These springs are the first water reached after crossing the Inyos on the road to the valley. The entire furnace will be on the ground within the next ten days.

TRAVELERS.—J. A. Luttie, representing the Napa Valley Wine Company; J. G. Davison, of Whittier, Fuller & Co., Sacramento, and W. C. Pavey, of A. Schilling & Co., San Francisco, visited our town this week for the purpose of selling our merchants some of their stock in trade.

REPAIRS. — Roadmaster Boyd has been at work for the past few days repairing the bridge over Owens river, between this place and the railroad depot. It is now in a perfectly safe condition for heavy loaded teams.

GONE BELOW.—J. S. Gorman, Superintendent of the Defiance mine, at Darwin, passed through here on Wednesday last for San Francisco, on business connected with the mine.

DIVINE SERVICE.—Rev. Warren Nims will hold divine service at Good Templar's Hall to-morrow (Sunday), at 11 A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M. All are cordially invited to attend.

THE WHEATON CASE.—The second trial of W. H. Wheaton came to an end yesterday morning, the jury, as on the first trial, failing to agree after having deliberated about 24 hours. Wheaton was charged with the crime of grand larceny, in the alleged taking and killing of a steer belonging to Frank Shaw. District Attorney John W. P. Laird conducted the case on the part of the State, and made an able effort, presenting the testimony of witnesses in a concise and comprehensive manner and closing with an argument that carried conviction of guilt to many of the jury. Judge A. R. Conklin, for the defense, handled the evidence at hand as only a man of his experience and ability can, raising a doubt in the minds of jurors that could not be removed. In his plea for mercy he was eloquent, and when speaking of the destitute condition of the prisoner's wife and six helpless children, brought tears to the eyes of many unused to weep. The two trials have now put the county to a cost of not less than $1,000, besides the expense and loss of time of witnesses for the State. Whether another trial is to be had we are not yet advised, but taking into consideration the present low ebb of the county's finances we should think it inadvisable. However, it rests with the officers of the law, and they will no doubt act in the premises for the best interests of the people. [Since we went to press Wheaton has been discharged.]

Disciples of Minerva.

The literary light of Inyo grows feeble and yet people expect the editor to keep it in a blaze. Let interested parties furnish original compositions, items of news, etc., and bring themselves to feel a personl interest in the welfare of our local literature. Items from all parts of the county are always acceptable. Young aspirants for literary fame should make a start and learn the encouragement of having confidence in their abilities. If a mule runs away with a milk wagon and makes milk toast of the cobble stones, let us know about it. If your neighbor fails for $1,000,000 or a calf bunts the minister, thus spilling theology, let us know the circumstances. Come now let us hear from you.

POLITICAL.—Under the head of "New Advertisements" will be found the card of Webster H. Walker, who announces himself a candidate for County Treasurer, subject to the decision of the Republican Convention. Mr. Walker is too well known in this county for us to say anything in his behalf. Later, however, we intend to speak of all the candidates who present themselves for the consideration of either the Republican or Democratic Conventions.

DOVE SHOOTING.—The dove season is now at hand, but thus far we do not hear that many doves have made their appearance. The dove is the only bird on which Nevada sportsmen are allowed to exercise their skill at this season. All birds except the "gentle cooing dove" are protected by the law. In California, however, the plaintive notes have touched the hard heart of the law. After July 1st, "dove dinners" will be in order with us.

CAPITALISTS.—A party of Eastern capitalists, we are informed, passed down the railroad this week on a tour of inspection to the mines of Darwin, Cerro Gordo, Lookout and other mining camps. They were accompanied by H. M. Yerington. This shows that our county is attracting attention from the outside world. And we predict that before the Summer is over there will be prosperous times in Inyo.

GOLDEN WEDGE.—Work has been commenced in earnest on this mine—recently purchased by M. L. Cook. The Golden Wedge is situated near Bishop Creek, and report says promises to become a good property. We have been promised a full description of this mine and its workings at an early day.

CHALLENGE.— I will run any horse, mare or gelding in this county half a mile and repeat, over the Independence race course, on the 4th of July next, for $500 a side. Horse and money ready.
WALTER OBER.

CAT FISHING.—For the week quite a number of persons have been to the river after the juicy cat, Some returned laden, while others brought nothing but —the fun of fishing for their pains. Oh! aint it jolly to go fishing —with your best girl.

RETURNED.—The first of the week, E. Chenot returned from San Francisco, where he had been to select and purchase a stock of general merchandise. He was considerably worn out from the loss of sleep and the jar and jostle of the cars.

SICKNESS.—Mr. Eldred's eldest girl and boy are down with the scarlet fever, and we hear of several others that are complaining. The youngest child of John Shepherd has been ailing for two weeks past.

SOCIAL THIS EVENING.—Those who have invitations to the Odd Fellows' social should remember that it is Saturday evening, and go early, as it is but a short time from dark until 12 o'clock.

FOR STOCKTON.—Sheriff Gregg left last night for Stockton, taking with him John Redding, who had been adjudged insane, and will try the skill of the physicians in charge of the Asylum.

NEW GOODS.—The new stock of goods recently purchased in San Francisco by E. Chenot has arrived and are being placed on the shelves. Visit the store and see for yourselves.

NEAT AND ORDERLY.—Dropping into the Clerk's office one day this week we found everything in ship-shape condition, which speaks well for the ability of Mr. Thomas Crough.

NEW ADS.—Cast your weather eye over our new advertisements.

A WOMAN'S APPEAL.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—On April 3d a pathetic appeal was received by Senator Miller from Miss Hermine Thomson, asking that she be allowed to pre-empt 120 acres of Camp Independence Military Reservation, in Inyo county, Cal. She said her father had been a soldier in the regular army and was buried on that reservation, and that she wanted to make her home near his grave. She added that she had several brothers and sisters to provide for. To-day there was received a sequel to the pathetic appeal which drives much of the romance out of it. To-day Senator Miller received another petition on the same subject. It is signed by thirteen persons who reside on the boundary of the reservation and who supply certain information that Miss Thomson did not. They say they saw a summary of her petition in the San Francisco Chronicle, and that on the face of her petition it is a fraud. They say there are four Thomson children, but they are all well to do. Henry Thomson receives $3,50 per day in a sugar refinery in San Francisco and Miss Hermine Thomson receives a salary of $540 for teaching school six months in the year. The petitioners state that the father of the Thomsons died fourteen years ago and that they have been drawing a pension for thirteen years and are still drawing it.

They add that Miss Thomson did not state she has a stepfather, C. A. Walter, who owns 160 acres adjoining Camp Independence, They allege that he is also well to do, having, besides the land, a brewery on it, the whole being worth $20,000. They say that Miss Thomson is after, the water right rather than the land, and that her stepfather has already tried to jump it and take it to his place, but without success. They avow that they can get 100 other persons to corroborate what they say if it is necessary.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—Those who have business with the County Fathers will bear in mind that that body will meet one week from next Monday—May 5th.

IT IS announced that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company has entered into an arrangement to take no more freight or passengers from San Francisco to Honolulu, having transferred the privilege of so doing to Spreckles & Co.

A Shocking Discovery.

The Genoa Courrier of last Friday says: Last week a shocking and horrible discovery was made by some little boys who were playing in a certain back yard in the upper part of our town. While playing around, they noticed something wrapped up in a blanket, which was stowed away under some brush, and other rubbish. Through natural curiosity they pulled it out, and, on unwrapping the blanket, were greatly surprised and frightened when they found wrapped therein the body of a baby. The news spread rapidly, and it was not long before a large crowd was on the spot. The Coroner, after summoning a jury, proceeded to hold an inquist. On examination it was found to be the remains of a fully matured male child. It was ascertained that the child had been choked to death by a string that was found around its neck drawn tightly. The remains were in quite a state of decomposition, and it is thought that the body has been where it was found ever since the snow was on the ground. The Coroner's jury has not rendered a verdict yet, but it is expected to-day. The body was buried yesterday. This is certainly a horrible and most criminal deed, and the perpetrators of it should be hunted to the lowest depths and made to suffer the most severe penalty attached to such proceedings.

A dispatch dated Stockton the 19th, says: The inundation on Reclamation District Seventeen is extending. The breaks on the levee cannot be repaired. The river is falling slowly. The levees on the lower division of Robert's Island are intact, and everything there is safe and sound.

The Executive Committee of the Independent Labor Party of New York has appointed three delegates from each Congressional district and city to attend the Labor Convention at Chicago, July 30th.

March 31, 1884.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE "MERIDIAN MINING COMPANY," a corporation of the State of California, having its principal office, postoffice address and place of business in the City and County of San Francisco and State of California, has, by CHARLES L. WILSON, its duly authorized special agent and attorney in fact, who resides at Coleman, in the Death Valley Borax and Salt Mining District, in the county of Inyo and State of California, and whose nearest post-office address is at Daggett, in the County of San Bernardino and State of California, this day filed in this office its application for a Patent from the United States to it the said Company for its borax placer mining claim bearing borates of lime and borates of soda, containing five hundred and eighty-eight (588) acres and fifteen hundreths (15-100) of an acre, commonly known as and called the "SOUTH MERIDIAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE," situated in the Monte Blanca Borax and Salt Mining District, in the County of Inyo and State of California; the said mining claim and premises being now officially surveyed, platted and designated by the United States Surveyor General for California as Survey No. 2,193 Lot No. 37 in (unsurveyed) Township No. twenty-six (26) North, Range Two (2) East, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, and being more particularly described by metes and bounds in the official plat and field notes of survey thereof on file in this office as follows, viz:—with magnetic variation at 15 degrees 31 minutes East.

Commencing at a post marked "M B D No. 54 A," the same being the southeast corner of the Meridian Borate Deposit Mine, and being at the northeast corner of this the said South Meridian Borate Deposit Mine;" said post being at the northeast corner of the "R. Neuschwander Location" at a point on a white ridge bearing east and west, from which said post "Mineral Monument No. 40," bears south ten (10) degrees twenty-six (26) minutes west at the distance of eighty-seven (87) chains; "Mineral Monument No. 37" bears north fifty-two (52) degrees fifteen (15) minutes west; "Furnace Butte" bears north fifty one (51) degrees ten (10) minutes east and "Rock Craig" bears north seven (7) degrees fifty two (52) minutes west;

Thence, running from said post marked "M B D No. 54 A,"

First course, south eight (8) minutes east, twenty (20) chains and seven (7) links to a stake marked "M B D No. 54;" thence—

Second course, north eighty nine (89) degrees fifty-two (52) minutes east, nine (9) chains and ninety eight (98) links to a stake marked "M B D No 53;" thence—

Third course, south thirteen (13) minutes west, nine (9) chains and ninety-nine (99) links to a stake marked "M B D No. 52;" thence—

Fourth course, north eighty-nine (89) degrees forty (40) minutes east twenty (20) chains and thirty-seven (37) links to a stake marked "M B D No 51," from which "Mineral Monument No. 40" bears south thirty-one (29) degrees thirty-three (33) minutes west and Furnace Butte bears north fourteen (14) degrees forty-five (49) minutes east; thence, running from said stake marked "M B D No 51"—

Fifth course, south thirteen (13) minutes east, twenty nine (29) chains and eleven (11) links to a stake marked "M B D No. 50," thence—

Sixth course, north eighty-nine (89) degrees fifty (50) minutes east ten (10) chains and eight (8) links to a stake marked "4 B D N. 49," on right bank of a "wash;" thence—

Seventh course, south twenty-six (26) minutes east, nine (9) chains and ninety-four (94) links to a stake marked "M B D N. 48," in a "wash," from which a stake marked "M B D No. 47" at the northeast corner of the "Lowland Borate Deposit Mine" bears south eighty-nine (89) degrees forty seven (47) minutes east, distant nine (9) chains and eighty-five (85) links; "Furnace butte," bears north four (4) degrees and twenty-three (23) minutes east and a stake marked "M B D No. 34," on the "Lowland Borate Deposit Mine" bears south twenty (20) degrees twenty (20) minutes west; thence—

Running from said stake marked "M B D No. 48"

Eighth course, north eighty-nine (89) degrees forty-seven (47) minutes west, thirty (30) chains and twelve (12) links to a stake marked "M B D N. 28 B," from which "Mineral Monument No. 40" bears south fifty-seven (57) degrees thirty-five (35) minutes west, distant thirty one (31) chains and eleven (11) links; thence—

Running from said stake marked "M B D No. 28 B."

Ninth course, south twenty (20) minutes east, twenty (20) chains and thirty (30) links to a stake marked "M B D No. 30 A;" thence—

Tenth course, south eighty-nine (89) degrees fifty eight (58) minutes west, thirty (30) chains to a stake marked "M B D No. 31," being the northwest corner of the "Lowland Borate Deposit Mine," from which "Mineral Monument No. 40" bears north forty-two (42) degrees forty (40) minutes east, distant four (4) chains and ninety-six (96) links; thence—

Running from said stake marked "M B D No 31,"

Eleventh course, south eighty-nine (89) degrees forty five (45) minutes west forty four (44) chains and seventy-four (74) links to a stake marked "M B D No 30;" thence—

Twelfth course, north fourteen (14) minutes east, nineteen (19) chains and ninety-nine (99) links to a stake marked "M B D No 29," from which a stake marked "M B D No 31" bears bears south sixty-six (66) degrees ten (10) minutes east, and "Mineral Monument No. 40," bears south seventy-one (71) degrees twenty-five (25) minutes east; thence—

Running from said stake marked "M B D No. 29."

Thirteenth course, south eighty-nine (89) degrees fifty-two (52) minutes east thirty-five (35) chains and thirty-four (34) links to a stake marked "M B D No. 28," situated thirty-four (34) links west of base of a bluff twenty (20) feet high and at a point from which a stake marked "M B D No 28 A" bears north eighty-eight (88) degrees fifty three (53) minutes east, distant twenty nine (29) chains and two (2) links; thence—

Running from said stake marked "M B D No 28."

Fourteenth course, north thirty (30) minutes west, nineteen (19) chains and seventy-five (75) links to a stake marked "M B D No. 27," at head of a small steep ravine running southeast; thence—

Fifteenth course, south eighty-nine (89) degrees fifteen (15) minutes west, ten (10) chains and six (6) links to a stake marked "M B D N. 26," in small rocky ravine running southeast to a cayon; thence—

Sixteenth course, north thirty five (35) minutes west, nine (9) chains and ninety-four (94) links to a stake marked "M B D No. 25," on southeast slope of a white ridge, from which a white hill bears north fifty-two (52) degrees east, at the distance of about two (2) chains and fifty (50) links and "Mineral Monument No. 40" bears south twenty-seven (27) degrees five (5) minutes east; thence—

Seventeenth course, running from said stake marked "M B D No. 25," north eighty nine (89) degrees twenty-two (22) minutes west, nine (9) chains and eighty nine (89) links to a stake marked "M B D No 24" on a bluff twenty (20) feet high on left bank of a wash; thence—

Eighteenth course, north nine (9) minutes east, at ten (10) chains and twelve (12) links reach a stake marked "M B D N. 24 A," and at thirty (30) chains and one (1) link, from said stake marked "M B D No 24," reach a stake marked "M B D No 23," on the northeast slope of small ridge; thence—

Nineteenth course, north eighty-nine (89) degrees fifty-four (54) minutes west, ten (10) chains and one (1) link to a stake marked "M B D No 22" on left bank of wash running north; thence—

Twentieth course, north five (5) minutes west, ten (10) chains and three (3) links to a post marked "M D B No 21," being at the northwest corner of the "South Meridian Borate Deposit Mine" herein sought to be patented, and from which the southwest corner of the "Meridian Borate Deposit Mine" bears north eighty nine (89) degrees forty-one (41) minutes west, distant twenty (20) chains and seven (7) links; "Mineral Monument No. 40" bears south twenty-seven (27) degrees east; the north end of the boarding house bears south sixty-three (63) degrees forty (40) minutes east; summit of a brown hill bears south fifty-nine (51) degrees thirty (30) minutes west, distant about fifteen (15) chains and summit of sharp white point bears north twenty (20) degrees forty-five (45) minutes west, and thence—

Twenty first course, running from said post marked "M B D No. 21" south eighty-nine (89) degrees fifty-eight (58) minutes east, fifty-eight (58) chains and ninety-nine (99) links to said post marked "M B D No. 54 A," the place of beginning, containing 588 15-100 acres.

Said "Mineral Monument No. 40" is composed of durable sand-stone, four feet long, set two feet in the ground and being six inches square at the top, whereon is fastened a brass plate marked "M M No. 40, N S E W S B M," and situated on the summit of a smooth high brown hill about one hundred and thirty (130) chains south of "Furnace Wash," which said hill has an altitude of about one thousand (1000) feet above the said wash. Said "Mineral Monument No. 40" is situated at a point described in said Field Notes of survey as being six hundred and thirty-three (633) chains and ninety one (91) links east, and one hundred and ninety-five (195) chains and fifteen (15) links south of the Township corner on the San Bernardino Meridian between Townships twenty-six (26) and twenty-seven (27) north. From said "Mineral Monument No. 40" a stake marked "M B D No 31," at the northwest corner of the "Lowland Borate Deposit Mine" and on the south boundary of this the said "South Meridian Borate Deposit Mine," bears south forty-two (42) degrees forty (40) minutes west; A stake marked "M B D No. 28 B" being a common corner of the "Lowland Borate Deposit Mine" and this the "South Meridian Borate Deposit Mine," bears north fifty-seven (57) degrees thirty-five (35) minutes east, distant thirty one (31) chains and eleven (11) links, and "Mineral Monument No. 37" bears north thirty-six (36) degrees ten (10) minutes west, distant about two hundred and seventy-seven (277) chains and fifty hundredths (50-100) of a chain; "Mineral Monument No. 34" bears from said "Mineral Monument No. 40" north thirty-nine (39) degrees two (2) minutes west; "Furnace Butte" bears north twenty-seven (27) degrees ten (10) minutes east, and "Monte Blanca" bears north forty-two (42) degrees fifty (50) minutes west from said "Mineral Monument No. 40."

Said SOUTH MERIDIAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE herein sought to be patented, consists of these certain borax mining locations designated respectively as the N. M Bell Location; the R. Neuschwander Location; the W. T Coleman Location and the J. W. S. Perry Location, all duly recorded in "Liber A" at folios 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35 and 36 of the records of said Monte Blanca Borax and Salt Mining District kept at the Mining Recorder's office in said District, the same being also recorded at pages 271, 272, 273 and 274 of "Book D" of Land, Water and Mining Claims—kept at the office of the County Recorder at Independence, Inyo county, California.

Said "SOUTH MERIDIAN BORATE DEPOSIT MINE" is adjoined upon the north by the "Meridian Borate Deposit Mine," and upon the south by the "Lowland Borate Deposit Mine."

Said application for a U. S. Patent is made pursuant to the terms of Chapter VI of Title XXXII, of the Revised Statutes of the United States and the laws of Congress providing for the disposal of mineral lands in the public domain.

Any and all adverse claims must be duly filed in this office within sixty (60) days from date of first newspaper publication of notice hereof, or they will be barred under the law.

The Lead Market

The Salt Lake Chronicle says if the tariff tinkers will let lead alone the prospect for fair prices for that article the coming season is good. The Morrison bill now before Congress for defeat, we trust, proposes to reduce the tax on lead 15 per cent. This reduction, with the price of lead steady at $4.25 in New York, would probably enable foreign holders of lead to flood our market. It is to be hoped that if any reductions are to be made on imported articles, lead will remain untouched. The lead interests, or in a larger sense, the lead-silver industry, will suffer materially should the tax on lead be reduced. Already at present prices of lead there are large deposits of low grade silver-ore which cannot be handled with profit. Reduce the tax, and mines now barely paying will be closed. Aside from the tariff question, the prospect of immediate and permanent advance to a paying point in the price of lead is promising. Owing to various reasons, prominent among which is the unusual fall of snow in the mountains all through the mining districts, the outcome from mine and smelter, will be less for the next few months than usual. This is temporary of course. There are permanent causes at work. As depth is reached on our silver-lead producing mines, it is generally true that the percentage of lead decreases. In the meanteme, with the growing trade and activity of business in all departments, the general demand for lead, as for all the useful metals, is increasing. The promise of supply in the future is not likely to keep pace with the demand. And this is true of gold and silver as of lead.

The mining districts of the world are being largely explored. The maximum of production seems already to have been reached, and and we are already on the decending grade. Improved processes of reduction, larger combinations of capital at less cost of usury, with improved facilities for transportation, will lessen the cost and relatively increase the profits of mining in the future. Of all industrial pursuits, mining is king; that is its products are absolutely necessary for the uses of trade; they are less liable to fluctuate in price and appreciate in value as other commodities diminish. In times of great financial depression and panic the production of gold and silver, with atteudant lead, is the only business that holds its own as master of the situation.

Let a man who holds a vein of lead with small value of silver there in, perfect his title to the same and "wait for the wagon," for the time will soon come when such veins will be worked to profitable advantage.

A COMPOSITOR'S hand makes in a year of 300 days, each of ten hours' work, 3,600,000 movements in the setting of 12,000 letters each day, and the distance his hand travels at the same time is 1,364 miles a year, or over four aud one-half miles a day. Such are the results arrived at by a patient mathematician.

In Boarding Houses.

Nothing is more usual in New York than for the young man just married to take his young wife to no other home than a boarding-house. He does it with the most laudable intentions in the world and with the fixed determination to go to housekeeping just as soon as his improved prospects will justify him to iudulge in an increased expenditure. At present it is so nice to sit down at the table with out any harassing fear of butchers' or bakers' bills, no wrangles with untrained servants or fear of mother-in-law's superior wisdom in household affairs putting your verdant experience to the blush. It is so pleasant to go off just when you feel like it on little flying trips to the country or a visit to some friend without leaving a single doubt or care behind. You can calculate just to a nicety what your expenses amount to, and consequently iudulge in many and unjustifiable little extravagances, which had been a great deal better bestowed in a useful cause. And so at the end of the year, though intensely weary of it all, you have drifted into this irresponsible happy-go-lucky kind of existence, without any more definite course of action than when you first started. Your wife, deprived of all those charming little duties which constitute the chief pleasure of a married woman's life, those nice little plans for beautifying and embellishing her home. In which her faculties for the comfort of her surroundings find full scope, has either grown inert and listless or she has found other interests with which to occupy herself. At the best it is a vague, purposeless dragging along of one day to another. The most important task of her life is how to kill time most effectually, or how to dispose of the day in the least tiresome manner. Her proper vocation is missing, she knows no other duty than that of self-indulgence, till finally when the time arrives for you to give her a home she has lost all inclination for it, and prefers to live on as she has begun.

The Woman who Works.

The woman who works, strong in her self-respect, strong in the respect of all who toil that they live, strong in the favor of all who have known what it is to earn their bread by the sweat of their brows, strong in the spirit of personal independence, needs no protection from the "pitying patronage" of anybody. If she is at times disposed to regard any slight upon her by those who have no business in life save to amuse themselves, she may enjoy a revenge every day, for the ravens of misfortune fly in at all windows. And there are, doubtless, among women who have found it necessary to go out into the world and battle for existence, those who find stings in the pitying patronage of the fortune-favored, and who sit back in sack-cloth amid the ennobling inspirations of their work-a-day lives. To them is commended the words of Carlyle: "All true work is sacred; in all true work, were it but true hand labor, there is something of divineness." Therefore, "Hats off" to the women who work! It would be idle to urge them to lift up their heads, for their heads are alread uplifted.

A Sum in Arithmetic.

It was in a barber shop, and the barber was tendered a $2 bill by the man he had just shaved. The drawer had been emptied of fractional currency, and the barber turned for relief to one who sat waiting his turn.

"Can you change me this $2 bill? he asked.

"Guess I can. Let me see—yes; I've got just $1 and 90 cents, and 10 cents for my shave will make just $2. Give me the bill and here's your change."

The barber stood balancing the $1.90 in one hand and the $2 bill in the other as if to ascertain which weighed the most. Then the true horror of the situation broke upon him as he gasped: "Great Scott! Do you want me to pay you ten cents for the privilege of shaving you? Here, take the $2 and owe me 20 cents."

THE first cartridges were made in China fifteen hundred years before the dawn of Christianity. They were used at great festivals simply in pyrotechnic displays, and were of course all "blanks."

How Boy's Marbles Are Made.

Almost all the "marbles" with which boys everywhere amuse themselves in season and out of season, on pavement and in shady spots, are made in Oberstein, Germany. There are large agate quarries and mills in that neighborhood, and the refuse is turned to good account in providing the small stone balls for experts to "knuckle" with. The stone is broken into small cubes by blows of a light manner. These small blocks of stone are thrown up by the shovelful into the hopper of a small mill, formed of bedstone having its surface grooved with concentric furrows; above this is the "runner," which is of some hard wood having a level face on its lower surface. The upper block is made to revolve rapidly, water being delivered upon the grooves of the bedstone where the marbles are being rounded. It takes about fifteen minutes to finish a bushel of good marbles ready for the boys' knuckles. One mill will turn out 160,000 marbles per week. The very hardest "cracker," as the boys call them, are mabe by a slow process, somewhat analogous, however, to the other.

THE ENGLISH law prohibiting a man from marrying his dead wife's sister is now attracting as much attention and being as much discussed as it has been any time for years. This subject has been ably handled by writers of ages all of them being in favor of a repeal of the law. Among those who have written on the subject is Miss Mulock, and in beautiful story of "Hannah" she shows the hardships and injustice of the English law on this subject. On this theme a book has recently been published in England containing the opinions of seventy of the leading Hebrew and Greek scholars of Europe and America as to the Biblical aspect of the question, and only one out of the seventy is adverse to the change. That one will probably justify England in retaining an outrageous law upon her statute book.

A WEALTHY Scandinavian from Bismark, D. T., arrived in St. Paul, Minn., a few weeks ago and said he wanted a wife. At the depot he met for the first time a man whom he offered $200 if he would find him a wife on short notice. The man took him to his own house and introduced him to his daughter. The bargain was soon made, and, as a guarantee of good faith, the man from Dakota transferred $40,000 worth of Bismark property to his intended bride. The marriage took place a few days after the bargain was closed.

A CIRCULAR has been issued by Adjutant General Cosby calling attention to the fact that under a recent decision of the Court of Claims all officers, petty officers, seamen marines of the United States navy revenue marine service, and all officers and soldiers of the United States army during the Mexican war, regular or volunteer, whether they continued in the service or not afterward, are entitled to three months' extra pay, as provided in the original act of 1848.

His wealth equals the $200,000,000 of the Duke of Westminster, and the income from it is 6 per cent. while the Duke's is but 3, so that W. H. Vanderbilt is the richest man in the world.

A GERMAN inventor has devised a practicable method of hatching by electricity. INDEPENDENCE, CAL.:

SATURDAY, MAY 3.....1884

THERE is civilization in San Francisco, but it is civilization of a queer sort. During the Sharon-Hill divorce case, one of the witnesses was seen to put her hand in her pocket "as if to draw a pistol." Soon after a son of the witness approached Judge Tyler, one of the attorneys. Suspecting the the young man of murderous intent, Judge Tyler's son sprang up and threatened to shoot young Mr. Shawhan if he attempted to draw a pistol. Here were three persons implicated in almost the same breath in the design of drawing revolvers. Surely a strange scene in a court of justice in the midst of a community supposed to be civilized. We are barbarous enough here sometimes, in court as well as out; but we are above this low level in which young men and their mothers may carry pistols into court without exciting surprise.

IN SPEAKING of the most wonderful cañon known on earth, the Arizona Champion says that "The transmission of sounds along the Grand Cañon of the Colorado has for years been a matter of surprise to the prospectors and miners who frequent at intervals the isolated sections. Since the advent of the Atlantic and Pacific railroad to the Colorado river there is a basis to form some idea of how far sounds are transmitted between the walls of the chasm. A train of cars crossing the bridge at the Needles can be plainly heard on a quiet day at Cottonwood Island, a distance of eighty-four miles. The fife and drum at Fort Mohave is distinctly heard at Bull's Head, a distance of eighty miles. The report of the sunrise gun at Fort Mohave can be heard at El Dorado Cañon, a distance of ninety-six miles."

THE wheat market is in a very depressed condition, and the future outlook for prices is far from hopeful. Hereafter there is to be powerful competition in the production of this cereal in India, Russia and Australia. For years railroads have been building in those vast countries that have now so far progressed as to bring the products of immense wheat regions in communication with ocean ports at merely nominal charges, and the work still goes on. While we are enterprising other countries are becoming so also, and not only our wheat, but other agricultural products are likely to meet with a degree of competion in the markets of the world they never met with before.

It is thought by some that Congress may adjourn before the 15th of June, but, if the necessary consideration be given to the important measures still before that body it cannot rest from its labors before the end of July. Congressional committees which meet at Saratoga, Newport, Long Branch, or some other equally desirous spot, will enjoy but a short season. No Congressional committee may be expected on "the coast" this year.

THE exclusively Gentile Grand Jury recently secured at Salt Lake by the new Prosecuting Attorney, Dickson, has found an indictment against Rudger Clawson, aged 25, for bigamy. He was arrested and gave bonds in $3,000. He married a young girl twenty months ago and before their first child was born married another young girl. He is a son of H. B. Clawson, one of the leading Mormons, and a polygamist.

ROBERT GLEN has sold out his interest in the Reno Democrat to his partner, Whitehead, and will shortly leave for Fort Townsend, Washington Territory, where he will take an interest in the Port of Entry Times with his brother Hugh Glenn. Blood ties existing, we extend a brotherly ☞ to the new firm.

THE necessity of making the patent office a separate department of the government is now before Congress. Why this is necessary does not appear. Were the laws less cumbersome, and were the laws governing its operations more honestly administered, its present status would be sufficient for our wants.

WHEN the news of the earthquake in England was attracting a great deal of attention, an Irishman was overheard discussing the question: "Begorra, we're gettin' on foinely. We'll get the best uv the oppressor yet. God Almighty's goin' for thim now."

THE Republican State Convention is in session at Oakland. As yet no word has been received from there; consequently we will not be able to give our readers any information regarding its doings this week.

BLAINE will require 411 votes to get the nomination. The largest vote he has ever before received in a National Convention was 285.

THE town of Belleville is fast being relieved of its surplus population. The failure of the mills to resume operations is the cause.

BROMIDE DISTRICT.

For the past three months, having been exploring and prospecting the region of country laying east of the Death Valley country, near the head waters of the Amargosa river, in what is laid down on the map as the Bald Mountain Range, situated a short distance east of the State line dividing California from Nevada, and Nye county of the latter named State, and having found some rich and valuable deposits of silver bearing rock, and thinking a brief description of the almost unknown and unexplored portion of the country would not be uninteresting to the readers of the Print, induces me to attempt it. In the first place, how to get there is the main question. There are several ways, both from the north and the south, neither of which are very difficult, but as the southern route, by the way of Daggett, will most interest your readers, and as it is accessible at all seasons of the year, I will more minutely describe it. Leaving Daggett the line heads about northeast by the way of Hawley, Coyote Holes, Garlic Springs, Cave Wells, Saratoga Springs, in Death Valley, the Ibex mill, to the Borax Works Amargosa; thence via. Resting Springs to Twelve Mile Springs; thence to Pahrnup, the beautiful and fertile valley owned by Winters and McGinty. In this valley, which is watered by several streams of living water that flow from Big Timber or Charlestown Mountain, never failing crops of barley, corn, potatoes, and all kinds of fruit are annually raised, while the grass and alfalfa affords hay in abundance to feed the herds of horses and cattle which roam at will upon the thousands of uncultivated acres. The surplus hay and grain finds a remunerative market at W. T. Coleman's Borax Works on the Amargosa and Furnace Creek in Death Valley, and also at the Ibex mill and mine. The saw mills owned by Clark & Co., which supply most of the lumber used at the above named places are situated about 20 miles east of Winters and McGinty's ranch, on Charlestown or Big Timber mountain, where the supply of pine timber of various kinds is of superior quality in almost inexhaustible quantities and easily accessible. After leaving this beautiful valley the road to the mines runs in a northerly direction, passing through Ash Meadows where there is an abundance of grass and several small ranches; thence across a desert of 25 miles and the point of the Bald Mountain is reached, where the first of our mining locations are made. The belt in which the mineral is found commences at this point and runs in a northerly direction to the oasis of another beautiful grassy valley on the headwaters of the Amargosa river in Nye county, Nevada. The mineral belt is about fifteen miles in length by one-half mile to one mile in width, and is in a white lime formation, with quartzite on the upper or east, and slate on the lower or west side. The ore has been found at many points along this huge belt, and is what is called in miners' parlance, black metal. It also carries some galena and copper stained ore, heavily charged with chlorides, and all carrying a high per centage in silver. Near the northern end of the district some small, rich gold ledges have been discovered. No work has yet been done on them, and it is not certain whether they will be permanent or not, but the owners, however, are sanguine, and we anticipate that their best hopes will be more than realized. The claims upon which most of the work has been done by the company, consisting of Messrs. A. Winters, of Pahrnup; V. Van Breisen, the well-known boniface of the Railroad Hotel; Wm. J. Cochran, Dan. McPhail, and your correspondent of Daggett, are the Baltimore, the El Capitan and the U. S., all of which show good, strong ledges, with well defined walls. The course of the ledges tending northerly and southerly, throw out rich mineral float that assays way up in the hundreds of dollars to the ton. The veins appear to widen and obtain strength as depth is obtained, and should they so continue as they now promise, they will undoubtedly open up into large and rich mines. Abundance of water can be put near the mines with but small expense for mining and milling purposes, and plenty of nut-pine wood is found on the mountains to the west and north, in plain sight of the mines. There will be no roads requiring a great expenditure of money to be built. The Carson & Colorado railroad can be reached at its terminus within about 80 miles, and. taking it all in all, I have seldom seen a section showing greater advantages for both prospector and the capitalist in my whole course of some twenty years' experience. But my letter lengthens, and I will close for this time, but should you wish it I will write further at some future time and let your readers know more of the country, as I shall prospect during the coming Spring and Summer, feeling confident that there are many others than the fields already found, open to the diligent and persevering prospector.—Cor. Calico Print.

THE extra session still continues without any definite results.

ONE result of the Cincinnati riots has been to call attention to the obligation upon good citizens to serve as jurors. Each man whose case is tried to twelve men are anxious that they should be good men, capable of weighing the evidence, and with sufficient interest in affairs to render the same careful just verdict they would desire in their own case. But while each litigant wants a good jury and inveighs against "professionals" he is ready with a peculiar and personal reason why he should be exempted from jury services. Taking the merchants and business men generally few are drawn upon juries, and when drawn they appear before the easy judges with easy excuses that serve the purpose. There is a vicious rule of law by which members of volunteer fire companies are excused from jury duty while in such companies, and after ten years service are absolutely excused. No better plan for depriving the courts of the best class of men in the jury panel could be adopted. Its continuance for another decade will exempt half the population of many towns from service. They will have served ten years as firemen, or rather have been carried on the rolls of companies for that time, and pleading this privilege put the settlement of rights and properties into the hands of a constantly deteriorating jury system. Every man who demands the protection of law should be one to uphold the administration of the law in its best sense. The jury is a growing evil, already become so great as to almost insure its speedy extinction.

IT IS said that travel to Europe by our shoddyites, parvenus and such will be less fashionable from this time onward than formerly. This may be from a dawning sense of the ridicule and contempt they excite in the proud aristocracy of Europe, particularly that of England, whom, in striving to imitate, they caricature; and further from the fact that "to run over to Europe" is, in consequence of cheap fares, becoming too common and they everywhere meet with too many of the unpretentious, low, and vulgar of their countrymen. Hereafter it will become the thing to explore the new, and to visit the great natural wonders of this continent. For these reasons it is expected they will give greater attention to California and Mexico, where their wealth and aristocratic manners will excite greater astonishment and attract more notice.

AMONG the notable Philanthropic efforts to relieve the distress resulting from the floods on the Mississippi and Ohio rivers, is the work of the Red Cross Society. A steamer was engaged and the district of the lower Ohio was visited and the necessities of the people largely administered to, especially through medicines and clothing for women and children. A steamer has been secured and will leave in a few days for the lower Mississippi on the same noble work. Miss Clara Barton is president of the society which is a branch of the well-known international Red Cross Society whose ministrations have relieved suffering in almost every land on the globe.

How to make a balky horse move on, without cruelly beating him, was aptly illustrated the other day: The horse was hitched to a light wagon, but the driver could not get him to budge an inch. He obtained a rope, which he placed behind the animals fore legs, and taking the ends in his hands gently pulled, and quick as flash the animal moved off at a lively gait.

IT IS thought that no fire company in the world has such a complete and fashionable assortment of hose as that of the Vassar girls.

WILD ROSE MINES.—Wild Rose District lies about 23 miles east of Lookout, in the southern end of the county. About seven years ago W. L. Hunter, of Lone Pine, located a series of mines in this district—the Argonaut, Juniatta, Blue Belle, Blizzard and Virgin. He afterward sold interests in these mines to W. K. Miller and E. N. Medburg, of Lone Pine, and the three partners have since spent thousands of dollars and years of hard labor developing their property. The Junietta has a six-foot ledge which gives an average assay of $50 per ton. There are 100 tons of assorted ore now on the dump that will yield $100 per ton. The Argonaut joins the Junietta on the south, and has a ledge of equal size and richness. The Blue Belle is situated about six miles distant from the two former mines. It has a well defined 20-foot ledge, and it is claimed the ore will average $80 per ton. There are now on the Blue Belle dump over 100 tons of this character of ore. The Blizzard and Virgin are close to the Blue Belle. The former claim has a four-foot ledge of fine horn silver ore. Over $1,000 has been expended on the Blue Belle alone by the present owners. H. H. Welsh, lately returned from that section, informs us that he believes this series of mines are about the best he has seen in the county, and favorably located. There is plenty of wood and water close at hand, and the mines are easily reached by good roads from Panamint and Death Valley. At present enough ore has been developed to keep a ten-stamp mill constantly at work for at least ten years.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On the 3d ult. an accident occurred in the Modock mine at Lookout, whereby a miner named Dan. Mallahan was severely hurt by a falling piece of galena ore, striking him on the foot and bruising it badly. Mr. Mallahan not being able to leave the mill at once, concluded to treat the wounded member himself, not apprehending any danger. But, contrary to his expectations, extensive sloughing took place, leaving the bones exposed in many places. Mr. Mallahan came to Independence the first of the week, and is now in Dr. Stevenson's care.

A RICH MINE.—Within the past few weeks, we have published accounts of the Carson mine, near Chrysopolis, furnished by parties interested in the property, and saying that the ore was above the average found in this vicinity. Outside and disinterested parties who have visited the mine lately inform us that the Carson (formerly called the Eureka) is one of the richest mines in this county, and that the reports given this paper by the owner do not do it justice by any means. They say the ore is "lousy" with free gold, and will yield thousands of dollars per ton.

TO STOCK RAISERS.—William Rowan, of Bishop Creek, will be in Independence next Saturday, the 10th instant, with his Purcheon-Norman stallion "Cheer," and would be pleased to meet the stock raisers of this section on that day. Those who would raise colts that will bring good prices, should come and see the celebrated horse "Cheer." Remember the date. The season terms are $20; but should the mare prove not with foal, the second season will be free of charge.

YGNACIO No. 2.—There are two men working on the Ygnacio No. 2, Cerro Gordo, taking out ore. They already have ten tons of silver ore on the dump that assay 100 ounces. Pat Clinton, that good old gentleman, who is a father to the fatherless, and a husband to the widow and tramp has a large interest in this property, and we hope he will realize a fortune out of it.

LEONA MINE.—This mine, owned by B. Albert, is located on the Yellow Grade, about four miles below Cerro Gordo. The owner has on the dump 253 130-lb sacks of ore, which he will ship next week. Mr. Albert informs us that the assays give an average of $80 per ton. He also has about two tons of galena ore taken from his mine near the old Union mine, Cerro Gordo.

THE MAXIM COMPANY.—Supt. S. S. Barrie returned from San Francisco Yesterday. The Company purchased and now have on the way from the Pacific Iron Works all the necessary machinery for a five-stamp mill, which the Superintendent will commence to put up as soon as it arrives. It is expected in a day or two.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE.—Inyo Lodge No. 301, I. O. O. F. has elected J. E. Shepherd as Representative to the Grand Lodge, which meets in San Francisco on the 13th of this month.

BISHOP CREEK HOTEL.—This hotel being thoroughly renovated, is now open to the public under the management of two old "Inyoites", Messrs. Wm. McDonald and A. A. Riddle.

THE SAN LUCAS.—There are over 150 tons of good silver ore on the dumps of the San Lucas mine, Cerro Gordo. This mine is owned by R. Diaz, of Lone Pine.

LO, THE POOR INDIAN.—The Virginia and Truckee Railroad has shut down on the free riding of Indians and the redskins threaten revenge.

THE ARIES.—M. A. Wheeler has five men employed on the Aries mine, Cerro Gordo, putting it in shape to take out ore.

ANOTHER ASSESSMENT.—The Bishop Creek Ditch Company have levied an assessment of $2 per share, payable immediately.

PROSPECTING.—There are several prospectors in the hills surrounding Cerro Gordo.

PERSONAL.—Sheriff Gregg returned from Stockton Wednesday morning, having landed John Redding safely in the asylum....H. H. Welsh has gone to Slate Range to take a position as clerk for the Slate Range Company. Mr. Welsh is a most competent man in any position, and the company is to be congratulated on having secured his services....Geo. M. Stewart, traveling for Luhrs & Co., Sacramento, paid Independence a visit this week. George is full of rustle....Chas. H. Groves, Abe Diaz, Mr. Lacey and Hi. Hamilton, all of Lone Pine, were in attendance at the Odd Fellows' dance last Saturday night....Judge A. R. Conklin was a passenger on the C. & C. railroad for San Francisco last Sunday....Alex. Rowan and W. Yandell came in from Bishop Creek last Thursday....J. R. Avard, an old-time Aurora newspaper man, and Dan Malloy, of Candelaria, passed through Independence yesterday, bound for Calico ...Dana Brown, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger on the C. & C. railroad, is expected in Independence next Thursday ..."Smithy," an old-time engineer on the C. & C. railroad will pay us a visit in a few days. ..Duncan Campbell, Jr., was in town the first of the week....Dick Hessian, and his eldest son, Dennis, both of Big Pine, were visitors to Inyo's capital this week....J. C. Miller, Mr. Gilbert and Jacob Stenager, of Big Pine, were in town a few days ago....J. S. Gorman returned from the Bay Wednesday, and left here again Thursday for Darwin and the Defiance mine....J. R. Eidred has been quite sick the past few days. ....N. G. Fairman visited Darwin this week and returned here yesterday morning....H. M. Yerington and R. J. Laws have been down as far as Keeler this week, inspecting the railroad, keeping an eye open for increasing business.... W. W. Booth, W. H. C. Tolman and H. Goodwin, arrived here yesterday from Belleville, Nevada, on their way to Calico. They had a mule and jackass heavily loaded with provisions, and all were in good spirits. Hope the boys will strike it rich.

MAY-DAY PICNIC.—The little folks of this place all met at the I. O. G. T. hall for a general good time on May-day. Such a happy assembly of fresh juvenile faces! The bright little badges and brilliant regalias, together with floral decorations, gave the children the same pride that older people experience in the same pursuit on a larger scale. And then the good things, Oh, my! More cakes, candies and goodies of all kinds,—well our part of this performance was not "juvenile" at all. The festivities being concluded at the hall, an exquisite little procession was formed which made quite a contour, at the conclusion of which, dancing was in order, for those who wished it, at the Court-House. The persons who thus succeed in making the children happy are worthy of praise. They should feel as contented with their exertions of to-day, as were the Druids of old when they gazed on the blazing fires kindled on the hill-tops, in honor of the same May-day. The chief lady workers seemed to be, Mrs. Kernodle, Mrs. Hardy, Miss Northrup, Mrs. Laird and Miss Kemp. It was an important occasion to the little folks and will no doubt be long remembered by them.

DEATH VALLEY.—The borate deposit interest increases daily. The Eagle Borax Works are working eleven men and keep three large teams steadily employed hauling the product of their mines to Mojave for shipment to San Francisco and New York. The Coleman Refinery employs about forty men, and turns out three tons of refined borax per day, besides shipping a great quanty in a crude state. They keep nine 18-mule teams steadily on the road between the works and Mojave, a distance of 140 miles. The borax output of Death Valley is at the present time equal to supply the demand of the whole world. Mr. R. Neuschwander a most competent man, has charge of Mr. Coleman's interests in Death Valley. About the first of June work will be abundant at Furnace Creek, Death Valley, owing to the intense heat during the summer months and the men moved to Amargosa to work on Mr. Coleman's mines at the latter place.

MAY.—The "Merry month of May" is at hand, when the industrious farmer explores the loft for the necessary garden rakes, and his boy John begins to have violent attacks of the Spring fever. The hired man shortens up his suspenders and feels that Spring has indeed arrived. The school-boy begins to fancy pictures of bathing places and the exquisite and delicious pleasure of going barefooted the first day that "pa" goes to town. The nice fresh, green poetry appears in the papers, and quite a sprinkling of straw hats and light coats loom up. The house dog gives up his usual sunny place on the front porch and finds a new place in the shade, and a whole lot of things take place; but May is here, and is likely to remain—about thirty days.

THE IBEX MINE.—This mine, situate in the southern end of Death Valley and about 25 miles from the San Bernardino county line, is owned by a Chicago Company. There is a shaft sunk on the ledge to a depth of 80 feet, in ore all the way down. The pay streak is 15 inches wide of ore that pays $300 per ton. The ore is principally silver, with some copper and zinc. There are 80 tons now on the ore dumps which the Company's five-stamp mill is fast eating up. As soon as this lot is run through a roaster will be attached to the mill before another crushing is made. Eight men are employed in the mill.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.—Under "New Advertisements" will be found the announcement of J. R. Eldred, who is a candidate for Sheriff, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. "Dick," as he is familiarly called by his intimate friends, if nominated, will make it warm for his opponent, whoever he may be.

Wayside Notes.

ED. INDEPENDENT:—As you ask your readers to contribute some little information as to what is going on in the county, I want to say a few words as to what I have noticed in my travels. In the first place, the schools all over the county are well attended, which speaks well for the intelligence of the parents. Then we have as competent a corps of teachers as can be found in any county. Lately I visited the Lone Pine school, Chas. H. Groves, Principal; I find he has 63 scholars, and I wondered that one teacher could manage so many, but they seem to have the right man, and know it. At Big Pine the school has lately closed for want of funds. At Bishop the school is well attended and is presided over by Mrs. Harry Welsh assisted by Miss Stoutenborough, who "teach the young idea, etc.," and give general satisfaction.....The farmers are all busy and looking for big crops the coming season.....There is too much snow in the mountains for much prospecting, but there is much preparation going on and "great expectations."....I noticed our Assessor, Johnny Irwin, kept his eye open that no one left the county without a settlement while he was around. It is remarked by all hands that he is the most vigilant Assessor that Inyo ever had....Some one i—, made a mistake, about the fruit crop having been killed in Independence, and caused many unnecessary fears on that account. Unless some severe frosts come shortly the fruit crop will be over average all through the county.

A WANDERER.

Independence, May 1st, 1884.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS.—A matter which should receive more attention in our county is that of the improvement of school houses. A number of districts have school houses scarcely suitable for the accommodation of dumb animals. A place where the young people, the rising generation, spend about one-half of their wakeful hours should at least be as comfortable as their homes, and in fact more so. Were a man to be confined to a particular office and to a particular seat for six hours each day he would endeavor to have that room and seat as comfortable as possible. In a private house or office there is a chance for rest by change of position, but in the school house of to-day, especially under the management of so-called "good teachers," a pupil occupies the same side of the same seat during a term of perhaps seven or eight months. Ventilation is, indeed, an important matter, but there can be no use of a score of knot holes, or a dozen chinks and cracks, broken windows, etc., allowing the pleasant sand to drift gently over books and writing materials. Of course a community cannot afford to build an improved building, but a first-class—I mean a real first-rate poppet show, can carry out a hundred or so dollars and it is never missed. [The money, not the show.] A blush must arise to the faces of our worthy citizens of these unfortunate districts when they point out some old rookery, and say with pride (?), "this is our educational department."

KEELER.—The town of Keeler is having quite a little boom, and apparently don't care a cent whether the outside world knows it or not. Tom Boland has just finished a handsome and servicable stone cellar in the rear of his store. There is a spring of nice water in one corner of this cellar and it is well stocked with a large supply of election necessaries right from the old blue grass fields of Kentucky, also, bottled beer, Owens Lake codfish, cigars, etc., etc. He is putting in a fine force pump and will organize a fire company in the near future.....The terrible wind storm of the fore part of the week capsized one of the C. & C. R. R. Company's construction cars.....The ten-stamp mill — five stamps for dry crushing and five for wet—belonging to Hawley Bros., is as fine a mill as there is on the coast....The Boland nursery, between Yerington and Maud Streets, is flourishing.....Stages for Darwin and Cerro Gordo leave the depot daily.

SIXTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.—Last Saturday evening a most enjoyable time was had, the occasion being the sixty-fifth anniversary of the introduction of Odd Fellowship in America. Inyo Lodge No. 301 celebrated with a social dance at the Court-house and a "big eat." There were a large number present, and to the sweet strains of Messrs. Daniel Crough, J. E. Shepherd, Billy Matlack and Stein's music the merry dancers whirled away until the hour of midnight, when all retired to partake of a sumptuous luncheon spread by mine host J. R. Eldred, of the Blaney House. Those who attended say they never had a better time in their lives. And so say we'uns.

CONTRACT LET.—The Southern Development Company has let a contract for the hauling of 2,000 tons of ore from the Sterling mine at Darwin recently purchased by it, to the Carson and Colorodo Railroad at Keeler. Hank Martin, who has the contract for hauling, is expected to arrive at Keeler to-day.

HOW HIGH IS THIS?—Seven crops of alfalfa have been cut every year off the 40-acre lot in Death Valley belonging to W. T. Coleman, and near his borate deposit mines. If any person has an alfalfa field that can beat this yield just let us hear from him.

VISITORS.—Miss F. C. Northup and Miss Emma Kemp paid THE INYO a very pleasant visit May-Day, leaving a beautiful boquet of flowers on the sanctum sanctorum desk, for which we return many thanks.

FROM THE OLD DUMPS.—Joe Diaz has about four tons of sacked ore at the upper end of Cerro Gordo, which he has taken from some of the old dumps of the camp. We did not learn the value of the ore.

SUPERVISORS.—The Board of Supervisors will meet next Monday.

A YOUNG GIRL'S ANSWER.

On April 3d Senator Miller received a petition from me asking for permission to pre-empt 120 acres of Camp Independence Reservation. Since the said petition has been declared a fraud, and my honor and truthfulness assailed in every possible manner.

Before my petition was presented to Senator Miller there had been several parties trying to obtain the Post land, and our prominent citizens, residing on the reservation, had nothing to say; but when a young girl petitions for the same right these honorable citizens sent a remonstrance to Washington, filled with falsehoods, beseeching Congress to ignore my appeal, claiming that it was filled with misstatements of facts. I have papers in my possession to prove all statements made in my appeal—any one wishing to see them can call at my present residence and gratify their curiosity. The following will prove who told the falsehoods:

Henry Thomson is in San Francisco working in an engine shop, to which he is apprenticed for one year, and receives no salary. I receive $75 per month for the school year (of six or seven months), no teacher being insured a situation every year.

Mr. C. A. Walter's estate is worth about $4,000, and any parties interested in his affairs, and requiring further proof, can call at the Sheriff's office and examine the assessment roll. The Thomson children have each drawn a pension until they were 16 years of age; there is but one under that age, therefore there is but one drawing a pension.

In the article published in last week's paper the signers of the remonstrance say that I did not state that I have a step-father. I wish to inform those signers that I also forgot to state that I have a grandmother. In petitioning for that land, I asked for it for myself and not for others, therefore it was unnecessary to mention other parties.

In this article all accusations have been answered, if in the future there are any scandals published attacking myself, they shall be treated with silent contempt. HERRMINE THOMSON.

THE YGNACIO.—Last Wednesday, in company with A. W. Eibeshutz, we visited this famous old bullion-producer in Cerro Gordo Mining District. The ore is silver-bearing and is considered free-milling by experts. One thousand tons of the ore yielded 100,000 ounces of silver. In the old workings the principal yield came from near the surface, as the mine was never developed to any depth; however, it is but fair to state that the best quality of ore came from the lowest levels of the mine. The mine has been worked successfully since 1867 up to within the last year. Since last year but one man (Pat Clinton) has been at work on the mine. He has been steadily engaged driving the Potosi tunnel to reach a point directly underneath the "big cut," where he expected to and has struck the ledge at a depth of over 300 feet. The ledge at the bottom of a 30-foot incline shaft, sunk at the extreme end of the tunnel, is at least eight feet wide, and carries a fine quality of ore. Samples have been taken from the ledge at this point and assays will be made. Should the ore prove a paying proposition, as it looks, the owners have a mint of money in sight and handy to get at, as the mine is now in a good condition to work through the tunnel. There is no apparent reason why the Ygnacio should not be as good a producer to-day as it was several years ago. The ledge is there, easy to get out, and apparently of the same rich quality as when it yielded a handsome profit and cost double the amount to work the mine that it would to-day.

CONFIDENCE MINES.—Mr. S. A. Densmore, the owner, has been to work on this group of mines for the last sixteen years, off and on. They are located in Union District, opposite Independence, and about a quarter of a mile from the C. & C. railroad. In the bottom of the shaft, which is 106 feet deep, the pay streak is 20 inches wide, carrying 30 ounces silver, 30 per cent lead and $12 in gold, per ton, from which Mr. Densmore will ship five tons of ore sometime next week to Selby & Co., San Francisco. The owner has a tunnel in 80 feet, and expects in 30 feet more to tap the ledge at the bottom of the shaft. Formerly this group was called the San Carlos mines, and from which considerable rich ore was taken in early days.

COTTONWOOD MILL.—From a couple of old acquaintances, who were in the cañon several days since, we learn that the work is progressing satisfactorily. Mr. Chalfant said that he proposed to have the mill in running order in two or three weeks, and felt confident that there was plenty of ore out and in sight to keep the mill busy. They also informed us that Deep Spring Valley and vicinity were attracting considerable attention. The season has been so backward that prospecting as well as other industries have been greatly retarded, but as soon as the weather becomes settled we may expect cheering news from this section.

PRIVATE HOSPITAL.—Mrs. Margaret Lewis is prepared to take patients at her private hospital, at Camp Independence, and give them the best of care and nursing. The situation is one of the best in the county, and Mrs. Lewis is an experianced hand with the sick. Read her card under "New Advertisements."

OFF FOR DARWIN.—Billy Mitchell left for Darwin yesterday morning with a six-horse team and a packing outfit. He is going to furnish the Defiance furnace wood this summer.

MORE PIPE.—Pipe for our town water-works continues to arrive, and there is now on hand several tons. Yesterday a large lot was unloaded in Harris & Rhine's store.

"HERO."—Frank Vanderhoof has arrived here with his stallion "Hero" and will remain during the Summer.

CERRO GORDO.—Last Wednesday a representative of the INDEPENDENT visited this famous old town, from which in its palmy days millions of dollars in silver bullion was shipped. The town presents a genuine appearance of one of the old-time "has beens." Twice visited by the fire-fiend, but few of the stately old business buildings are left standing, and of those that remain only a small number are occupied. The entire business of the town, that in its prime boasted of a male population of over 1,500, is now done in one building—store, postoffice, saloon, etc., etc. There are probably a dozen or more men at work in and around this town. The Union hoisting works and refinery stand out in bold relief, as monuments of the good old days that are gone, and those who live beneath thier shadows point to them with pride and say "the day is not far distant when we'll have use for them again." We hope so.

A Cure for Drunkenness.

There is a prescription in use in England for the cure of drunkenness, by which thousands are said to have been enabled to recover themselves. The recipe came into notoriety by the efforts of Mr. John Vine Hall, commander of the Great Eastern steamship. He had fallen into such habitual drunkenness that his most earnest efforts to reclaim himself proved unavailing; at last he sought the advice of an eminent physician, which he followed faithfully for several months, and at the end of that time he had lost all desire for liquor—although he had been for many years led captive by a most debasing appetite. The recipe, which he afterwards published, and by which so many other drunkards have been assisted to reform, is as follows: Sulphate of iron, 20 grains: magnesia, 40 grains: peppermint, 44 drachms: spirits of nutmeg, 4 drachms. Dose, one tablespoonful twice a day.

THEY were standing at the front gate. "Won't you come in the parlor and sit a little while, Georgie, dear?" "N–no, I guess not," replied Georgie, hesitatingly. "I wish you would," the girl went on; "it's awfully lonesome. Mother has gone out and father is up stairs groaning with rheumatism in the legs." "Both legs?" asked George. "Yes, both legs." "Then I'll come in."—Argonaut.
